744.58 Inventory or appraisal as evidence.—An inventory or appraisal may be used as evidence in any suit, by or against the guardian of the property, but it shall not be conclusive, for or against him, as to the real value of the estate, or that it was sold bona fide for more or less than the appraised amount.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.59 Subsequently discovered or acquired property.—If the guardian learns of any property which is not included in the previous inventories or appraisals, such property shall be inventoried in like manner within sixty days after the discovery or acquisition thereof. Upon any subsequent appraisals the same or different persons may be appointed as appraisers.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.60 Compromise and settlement.—Whenever it is proposed to compromise or settle any claim by or against the guardian or the ward, whether arising as a result of personal injury or otherwise, and whether arising before or after appointment of a guardian, the county judge, on sworn petition by the guardian setting forth the facts and circumstances of such claim, question or dispute and the proposed compromise or settlement, and on such evidence, if any, as may be introduced, if satisfied that such compromise or settlement will be for the best interest of the ward, may enter an order authorizing the settlement or compromise to be made, which order shall operate to relieve the guardian from any further responsibility or liability in connection with such claim or dispute when such compromise or settlement has been made in accordance with said order. The order authorizing the compromise may also determine whether an additional bond is required, and if it is required, shall fix the amount thereof, but no such bond shall be required when the guardian is a bank or trust company. In making any compromise or settlement under court order, as provided in this section, the guardian is authorized and empowered to execute any release or waiver which may be necessary to effect the compromise or settlement. The execution of such instrument shall operate as a full and complete release to the person, firm or corporation making the settlement; provided, however, that compromise and settlement of a tort claim, not exceeding one hundred dollars, and other claims not exceeding five hundred dollars, may be had under this section or under §744.13.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.61 Suits by and against guardian or ward.—All suits, actions or proceedings to establish the validity and amount of claims against the estate of the ward shall be brought jointly against the guardian and the ward, and in any such suit no guardian ad litem need be appointed. Suits to enforce or to declare rights of the ward shall be brought jointly in the name of the guardian and the ward. If suit is brought by the guardian against the ward or vice versa or if the interest of the guardian is adverse to that of his ward, then a guardian ad litem shall be appointed by the court to represent the ward in that particular litigation. Judgments in favor of the ward shall, upon termination of guardianship, become the property of the ward without the necessity for any assignment by the guardian or receipt by the ward. The guardian may receive payment and satisfy any judgment in behalf of the ward without any joinder of the ward.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.62 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of guardian.—If a person entitled to bring an action is declared incompetent before the expiration of the time limited for the commencement thereof and the cause of the action survives, the action may be commenced by the guardian after such expiration and within twelve months from the date of the order appointing him.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.63 Suspension of statutes of limitations in favor of claimants.—If a person against whom a cause of action exists is declared incompetent before the expiration of the time limited for commencement thereof and the cause of action survives, the action may be commenced against the guardian after such expiration and within twelve months from the date of the order appointing him.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.64 Application of income of property of ward.—

(1) The county judge may authorize the guardian of the property to apply the income of the ward's property, first to his care, support, education and maintenance, and then any surplus, as far as the county judge deems necessary, for the care, support, education and maintenance of the dependents, if any, of such ward. If the income is not sufficient for such purposes, the county judge may authorize the expenditure of such portion of the principal as he deems necessary from time to time for such purposes.

(2) If the ward is a minor and his parents are able to care for him and to support, maintain and educate him, the guardian of the property of such minor shall not be required so to use his ward's property unless directed or authorized to do so by the county judge.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.65 Petition for support of ward's dependents.—Any person lawfully entitled to support from the ward may apply by petition, personally, or if he is incompetent, by his guardian, to the county judge appointing the guardian for an order directing the guardian of the ward's property to contribute to the support of the applicant from the property of the ward in his possession or from the income therefrom. The county judge may enter an order for the suitable support and education of the applicant out of the ward's property or the income thereof. Such order may be appealed by the guardian or the applicant, or by the ward if the guardianship is terminated before the expiration of the time for taking an appeal. The granting or denial of such order for support, or the expiration of time for appeal therefrom, shall not preclude a further application for increase, decrease, modification or termination of such allowance for support by either the applicant or the guardian. Such order for support shall be valid as to payments made in pursuance thereto, but no valid payments can be made thereunder after the termination of the guardianship. The receipt of the applicant shall be a sufficient acquittance to the guardian for any payments made in pursuance of such order for support. If the property of the ward is derived in whole or in part from payments of compensation, adjusted compensation, pension, insurance or other benefits made directly to the guardian by the veterans' administration, notice of the application for support shall be given by the applicant to the chief attorney for the administrator of veterans' affairs in this state at least ten days before the hearing on the application.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.66 Continuance of business.—In all cases where it is necessary, in the opinion of the county judge, to continue the business of a ward, such business may be continued by the guardian of the property under the supervision of the county judge, and according to the rules and regulations specified in §733.08 under which a personal representative is allowed to continue the business of a decedent.

History.—§1, ch. 22750, 1945.

744.67 Cultivation of lands.—A guardian of the property may cultivate his ward's lands, hire labor, and make contracts for the purpose of such cultivation; provided, that the county judge first authorizes the cultivation of such land.

745.01 Leases of ward's property.— The guardian may lease all or any of the ward's property, except for exploration and exploitation of oil, gas or mineral rights, upon such terms and for such length of time as the county judge may authorize or confirm. Proceedings in such cases shall be, as nearly as possible, as in cases of applications to sell property of the ward.

History.—§3, ch. 868, 1859; RS 2103; GS 2622; RGS 3984; CGL 5906; am. §2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.02 Leases of oil, gas, or mineral rights.—The guardian of the property of the ward may make oil, gas or mineral leases upon the real estate of the ward under the following rules:

(1) The guardian shall file a sworn petition with the county judge appointing him for authority to make any such oil, gas or mineral lease, and the county judge who hears such application shall require proof as to the necessity or advisability of such lease; and if he approves the same, he shall enter an order authorizing the guardian to make such oil, gas or mineral lease. Such order shall set out the consideration for which such land may be leased for oil, gas or mineral purposes, shall give the name of the lessee, and shall contain a copy of said oil, gas or mineral lease authorized to be made. It shall not be necessary to state in said petition, nor in any order entered thereon, nor in any lease executed in pursuance of such order, the exact interest of the ward in the property.

(2) Previous notice thereof shall be given by the guardian for one week prior to the time the county judge shall hear such petition, by publishing the same in some newspaper of general circulation in the county in which leases are to be issued, and in the county where the land is located, one issue of the paper in each county being sufficient. Said notice shall state when and where such petition will be heard. If no such newspaper is published in the county or counties where such notice is required to be given, then said notice shall be posted at the courthouse door and at two other conspicuous places in each such county, as may be specified by the order of the county judge, for seven days next preceding the date of such hearing. No citation or notice, other than that provided in this subsection, shall be necessary to give the court jurisdiction over the subject matter and the parties.

(3) The hearing may be continued by the county judge from time to time, or the petition may be heard at any time after the date specified in the notice, whether formally continued by the court or not.

(4) If such petition is granted, the guardian shall be authorized to make the oil, gas or mineral lease upon the real estate of the ward in accordance with the order of authorization, but such oil, gas or mineral lease shall not be valid until the guardian files a good and sufficient bond with surety in double the amount of the cash bonus that may be paid for such leases, or in the event that no cash bonus is paid, then such sum as may be fixed by the county judge.

(5) Any lease made by a guardian under the authority of this section may provide for the pooling or unitization of the leased land, or any part or parts thereof, and of any mineral or royalty interest therein, with land adjoining or in the vicinity of the leased land, or any mineral or royalty interest therein, so as to form a unit for development and purpose of operation. Operations on any such unitized area shall have the same effect as operations on the leased land. The lease may provide for payment of a proportionate part of the royalties on production from any such unitized area to the guardian in lieu of the royalties provided in the lease as to the area so unitized.

745.03 Investments by guardian of the property.—

(1) A guardian shall exercise the prudence of an ordinary business man in keeping the funds of his ward invested. In the investment of the funds of his ward, a guardian shall be governed by the provisions of chapter 518, except as hereinafter noted in this section.

(2) The court may authorize the purchase of the entire fee simple title to real estate in Florida in which the guardian has no interest, but such purchase can be made only for a home for the ward, or to protect the home of the ward or his interest, or if he is not a minor, then as a home for his dependent family. Such purchase of real estate shall not be made except upon an order of the county judge after hearing upon a verified petition.

(3) The guardian may, with the approval of the county judge, exercise any option contained in any policy of insurance payable to or inuring to the benefit of the ward.

cf.—§518.01 et seq., Investment of fiduciary funds.

745.04 Encumbering property of ward.—

(1) Whenever it appears expedient or necessary and for the best interest of the ward to borrow money upon a promissory note or notes, either unsecured or to be secured by a mortgage, pledge or other lien upon the property of the ward or any part thereof, including crops then planted and growing or thereafter to be planted and grown, the county judge may by order authorize the guardian of the property to borrow such sum as the county judge deems proper. The proceedings in such cases shall be, as nearly as possible, the same as in cases of applications for the sale of the ward's property. In like manner the county judge may authorize the guardian to extend or renew any existing obligation of the ward, or any mortgage, pledge, lien or other security therefor. The signing of promissory notes or the execution of any agreement or other instrument creating a pledge or lien by the guardian as such, pursuant to an order obtained in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall create no personal liability against the guardian so signing or executing.

(2) To secure the payment of any loan made for the benefit of the ward, the guardian may execute a mortgage or other lien on the property of the ward or any part thereof, and the same shall be valid when authorized or confirmed by the county judge. The indebtedness so secured shall be the obligation of the estate of the ward.

(3) If, as an incident to the borrowing of money, the purchase of stock in the lending agency is required, the county judge may authorize such purchase in whatever amount he deems necessary.

History.—§4, ch. 2014, 1874; RS 2106; GS 2625; RGS 3987; CGL 5909; am. §2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.05 Sale.—When the guardian of the property deems it expedient, necessary or for the best interest of the ward for part or all of the property to be sold, he may sell at public or private sale, but no title shall pass until the sale is authorized or confirmed by order of the county judge; provided, however, that the guardian may sell without authorization or confirmation by the county judge any notes or bonds payable to bearer, and any sale so made shall convey all right, title and interest of the ward in the intangible personalty so sold; and provided, further, that inchoate right of dower of the ward shall be conveyed only as provided in §745.15.

History.—§5, ch. 2014, 1874; RS 2107; GS 2626; RGS 3988; CGL 5910; am. §2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.06 Petition for leave to sell.—Application for authorization or confirmation shall be made by the petition of the guardian setting forth with particularity in facts showing the expediency or necessity for such sale, a description of the property sold or proposed to be sold, and except when authorization or confirmation of the sale at current market of stocks, bonds or other securities listed upon an established exchange is applied for, the price and terms of such sale. If the petition seeks authorization for the sale of property at public sale, it shall state the minimum price for which it is desired to sell the property and shall state that, if the sale takes place, it shall be sold to the highest bidder, if any, above such minimum price. Applications for sale may be heard by the county judge ex parte, except as provided in §§745.07 and 745.08. The petition must be sworn to by the guardian, his agent or his attorney.

History.—§6, ch. 2014, 1874; RS 2108; GS 2627; RGS 3989; CGL 5911; am. §2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.07 Notice of hearing on petition to sell.—No notice of any petition for the authorization or the confirmation of any sale of perishable personal property or of property rapidly deteriorating shall be required. No notice of any petition for the authorization or the confirmation of any sale of any kind of property shall be required unless the county judge deems it necessary or desirable, and then only such notice shall be given, personally or by publication, as the county judge may direct.

History.—§7, ch. 2014, 1874; RS 2109; GS 2628; RGS 3990; CGL 5912; am. §2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.08 Hearing.—When no notice is required, the county judge may hear and determine petitions for the sale of the ward's property ex parte. When notice is required, such hearing shall be as in other cases. At such hearing the county judge may in his discretion require a new appraisal of the property.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.09 Order of sale.—After the hearing upon a petition to sell property or to confirm the sale of property, the county judge shall make and enter an order thereon, and if the sale is authorized or confirmed, the order shall describe the property; and if the property is authorized to be sold at private sale, the order shall fix the price and the terms of sale. If the sale is to be public, then the order shall state the minimum price for which the property is to be sold and shall specify that the sale shall be made to the highest bidder above such price, if any. The order may also determine whether an additional bond is required, and if it is required, shall fix the amount thereof, but no such bond shall be required when the guardian is a bank or trust company. Such order shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the proceedings and of the authority of the guardian to make a conveyance or transfer of the property. A certified copy of such order relating to real property may be recorded in the judgment lien record in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in any county wherein such real property or any part thereof is situated. An order of sale may provide for the sale of any of the property described therein, either publicly or privately, in parcels or as a whole.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.10 Notice of sale.—When a guardian of the property has been authorized to sell any of his ward's property at public sale, the guardian shall give such notice as the order requires. No notice of a sale of property to be made at private sale is necessary unless the county judge so orders.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.11 Sale upon terms.—The guardian must sell upon such terms as the order prescribes. If credit is given, it shall not be for more than seventy-five per cent of the purchase price nor for longer than five years, unless the county judge, in his discretion by written order, authorizes a larger per cent of credit. The county judge, in his discretion by written order, may also enlarge the time for payment. The exercise of such discretion shall be evidenced by written order duly recorded. The maturity of credit may extend beyond the duration of the incompetency of the ward.

The deferred purchase price shall be evidenced by the negotiable promissory note of the purchaser payable to the guardian and secured by mortgage or pledge, which shall be a first lien upon the property sold, or by such other security as may be approved by the county judge in any case. If the guardianship terminates before the payment in full of such note, the note and mortgage or other security may be assigned and transferred without recourse to the person entitled thereto. The taking of a mortgage securing a note or the taking of other security shall not defer the final settlement and discharge of the guardian.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; §1, ch. 61-184.

745.12 Sale of stocks and bonds.—The county judge may, upon petition of the guardian, make an order authorizing the sale at the current market price of any stocks or bonds which are listed upon an established stock or bond exchange, and such order need not otherwise designate the price at which such sale shall be made.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.121 Stock held in name of personal representative.—Upon entry of an order or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction, the guardian or guardians shall have the power and authority to hold any corporate stock or mutual investment trust shares in the name of the guardian or in the name of one or more of the joint guardians, or in the name of a nominee, with or without disclosing any fiduciary relationship; but for all acts and omissions of the guardian or guardians in whose names such property is held, and of such nominee, relating to such property, all the guardians shall be jointly and severally responsible.

History.—§1, ch. 61-327.

745.13 Sale by commissioner.—In any order of sale or at any time before the sale, the county judge, whenever he deems it necessary, may appoint a commissioner to make the sale and to execute the deed consummating it. Any sale made by a commissioner shall be in compliance with the provisions of this law governing sales. Any sale so made and any deed executed by a commissioner on such an order shall be as valid as though made by the guardian.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.14 Guardian forbidden to purchase.—No guardian shall ever purchase property of the ward, unless sold at public sale, and then only if the guardian is a spouse, parent, child, brother or sister of the ward and is a cotenant of the ward in the property to be sold.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.15 Conveyance of various property rights; inchoate dower; joinder on behalf of incompetent husband or wife; estates by entirety; determination of values.—A guardian of the property may, on petition and order and upon such terms as the order directs, execute and deliver a deed, lease or mortgage in the name of the ward, conveying, leasing, mortgaging or releasing any actual or apparent right or interest of the ward in any property, real or personal, and in all cases the value, if any, of the ward's right or interest shall be preserved and protected by the court's order.

(1) A guardian of the property of an adjudged incompetent wife may, without monetary consideration and with or without court order, join with the husband in the sale, mortgage or lease of any of the husband's property in which the wife has no interest other than her inchoate right to dower, to the same extent and effect as if such joinder were by the wife herself sui juris.

In case an incompetent wife has no estate of value requiring active administration but has only an inchoate right of dower in her husband's property, which property he desires to sell, mortgage or otherwise convey, the court may, on proper petition, enter an order appointing the husband or other qualified person as the wife's property guardian without bond, and the court may in the same order make appropriate findings and may authorize said guardian, as such, to join with the husband without monetary consideration for the purpose of releasing the wife's dower in the husband's property described in the petition and order, and such joinder shall be to the same extent and effect as if by the wife herself sui juris.

(2) A guardian of an adjudged incompetent husband may without consideration and with or without court order join with the wife in the sale, mortgage or lease of any of the wife's separate estate, real or personal, to the same extent and effect as if such joinder were by the husband himself sui juris.

In case an incompetent husband has no estate of value requiring active administration but has only the right of joinder with respect to conveyances of his wife's separate estate, the court may, on proper petition, enter an order appointing the wife or other qualified person as her husband's property guardian without bond, and the court may in the same order make appropriate findings and may authorize said guardian, as such, to join with the wife without monetary consideration for the purpose of effectuating the conveyance of her separate property as described in the petition and order, and such joinder shall be to the same extent and effect as if by the husband himself sui juris.

(3) (a) All interests, whether legal or equitable, in real estate and in personal property and in intangible property in this state, owned by the entirety by any married man or married woman who has been adjudged insane or mentally or physically incompetent and for whom a guardian has been appointed, may be sold and conveyed upon the application of his or her guardian in the same manner as other property of said person adjudged incompetent may be sold and conveyed; provided, however, that the husband and wife, who is not incompetent, shall join in the sale or conveyance of any property sold or conveyed under the authority hereof.

(b) In ordering or approving sale and conveyance of such real, personal or intangible property the court shall provide that one-half of the net proceeds derived therefrom shall go to the guardian of the property of the incompetent and the other one-half of the net proceeds shall go to the husband or wife who is not incompetent.

(c) The guardian of the property of the incompetent shall collect all payments coming due on intangible property, such as notes and mortgages and other like securities, and shall retain one-half of all principal and interest payments so collected and shall pay the other one-half of such collections to the husband or wife who is not incompetent.

(d) The guardian of the property of the incompetent shall collect all payments coming due for rents on real estate held as an estate by the entireties and after paying all charges against said property such as taxes, insurance, up-keep and repairs, shall retain one-half of all the net rents so collected and shall pay the other one-half of such net rents so collected to the husband or wife who is not incompetent.

(4) In determining the value of life estates or remainder interests, the American experience mortality tables may be used.

(5) Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to apply to homesteads under §1, article X, of the constitution of Florida.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; am. §1, ch. 23715, 1947.
Sub. §(3) am. §1, ch. 26917, 1951.

745.16 Conveyance pursuant to contract of ward.—In all cases where written agreements have been made for the sale and conveyance or transfer of real property in this state, or personal property, and the vendor has been placed under guardianship before making such conveyance or transfer, the guardian or the person claiming the right to such conveyance or transfer may file with the county judge issuing the order of appointment a sworn petition setting forth the facts upon which the claim is predicated and annexing thereto the agreement or a copy thereof. The petitioner shall serve upon the guardian or the claimant, as the case may be, reasonable notice of the hearing. After the hearing upon such petition and the defenses, if any, made thereto, the county judge may make an order directing the guardian to make, execute and deliver the conveyance or transfer of the ward's interest to the person entitled to it, or otherwise as justice may require. Such order, if the conveyance or transfer is directed, shall describe the property to be conveyed or transferred. Such order shall be prima facie evidence of the validity of the proceedings and of the authority of the guardian to make the conveyance or transfer. A certified copy of any such order relating to real property may be recorded in the judgment lien record in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in any county wherein such real property or any part thereof is situated.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.17 Sale of contract to purchase.—If the ward, at the time of the appointment of the guardian, possesses a contract for the purchase of real or personal property, his interest therein may be sold by the guardian in the same manner as if the ward had been the owner in fee simple or absolute owner of such property; provided, the owner of the interest or estate in such property which the ward has contracted to purchase and of the vendor's interest thereto shall execute a release to the guardian and the ward relieving them and the ward's property from liability upon such contract. In lieu of such release the guardian may, upon order of the county judge, take from the purchaser of such contract a bond to be approved by the county judge with sureties in a penal sum double the amount due and to become due under such contract, payable to the guardian, conditioned that the purchaser will make all payments upon such contract and perform all agreements therein contained according to the tenor thereof and indemnify and save harmless the guardian and the ward against all demands, costs, charges and expenses by reason of such contract.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.18 Sale of property subject to contract to purchase.—If the ward, at the time of the appointment of the guardian, is the owner of real or personal property subject to a contract to sell and convey such property, the interest of the ward in such property and such contract may be sold under the order of the county judge in the same manner as guardians may make other sales. No recourse shall be had against the guardian or the ward for the nonpayment or nonperformance by the vendee under any such contract. The consent of the vendee under said contract shall discharge the guardian and the ward from all obligations, duties and liabilities with respect to such contract.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.19 Sale of property subject to mortgage.—The county judge may, upon petition of the guardian and with or without the written consent of the holder of the mortgage, authorize the sale of any property owned by the ward in this state subject to mortgage, whether such mortgage was made by the guardian, the ward or some other person. The written consent of the mortgagee shall discharge the guardian and the ward from liability for the mortgage indebtedness or obligation.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.20 Power of guardian to execute instruments.—The guardian shall have power to execute and deliver in his name as guardian any instrument necessary or proper to carry out and give effect to the orders of the county judge.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.21 Purchasers and lenders protected.—No person purchasing or leasing from, or taking a mortgage, pledge or other lien from, a guardian shall be bound or concerned to see that the money or other things of value paid to such guardian are actually needed or properly applied; nor is such person otherwise bound as to the proprieties or expedencies of the acts of such guardian. In all such transactions the acts of the guardian shall prima facie be valid.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.22 Certain sales validated.—Any sale of real estate heretofore made by any guardian and any deed made pursuant thereto under an order of the circuit court or county judge is made as valid and effectual as if the law had authorized such sale and deed to be made under such order by the guardian conducting the same; provided, such sale was made three years prior to January 1, 1946.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.23 Power of election and of appointment.—The county judge, on his own motion or upon the petition of the guardian or of any person whose property interest might be affected thereby, may enter an order that any election, whether to dissent from a will or to exercise any other choice which the ward might exercise himself if sui juris or competent, shall be exercised or not exercised, or exercised in a particular manner or at a particular time, as the best interest of the ward may require. The county judge, on his own motion or on the petition of the guardian or of any person who is or may become an heir, legatee, devisee or successor in interest of or to the ward, may enter an order that the guardian, acting for the ward, shall do such act or acts or execute such documents as may be necessary or proper, to exercise, consummate or execute any power of appointment or other power which the ward might have lawfully exercised, consummated or executed if sui juris or competent, as the best interest of the ward requires. No order shall be entered under the authority of this section, except upon such notice or citation as the county judge may require, to all persons whose property interest might be affected thereby.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.24 Annual returns.—A guardian, unless otherwise ordered by the county judge, shall make his annual returns on or before April 1 of each year, for the calendar year or fractional calendar year expiring December 31 preceding. If he fails to make such returns before such time, he may in the discretion of the county judge forfeit all commission on such returns so to be made.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; §1, ch. 59-322.

745.25 Contents of returns.—A guardian in his returns shall render a full and correct account of the receipts and disbursements of all his ward's property of which he has control, and he shall include therein a statement of the ward's assets. The guardian shall also file with his returns evidence satisfactory to the county judge that the sureties on his bond, if individuals, are alive and solvent.

Substantiating papers shall not be filed with accountings, but pertinent substantiating papers and records shall be available at a trial of objections to accountings, and all substantiating papers and records shall be preserved by the guardian for three years after his discharge.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; 2nd par. n. by §2, ch. 59-322.

745.26 Objections to returns.—

(1) Upon the filing of returns with the county judge by the guardian as provided in this law, any person interested as creditor or otherwise, after the filing of such returns, may file objections in writing thereto or to any item thereof within thirty days after April 1st of each year, specifying the grounds of objection. No item previously approved by order of the county judge upon notice shall be subject to objection.

(2) If any guardian fails to file his annual returns on or before the first day of April in any year, any person interested in the estate may file in the office of the county judge a written demand for service of a copy of the returns, which demand shall contain the post-office address of the person filing it. If any demand is on file at the time the returns are filed, the guardian shall serve a copy of the returns upon the person who filed the demand therefor and shall file proof of service thereof in the office of the county judge. Objections may be filed to the returns at any time within thirty days after the service of a copy thereof.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.27 Hearing of objections.—If objections to the returns are filed, the guardian or the objecting person, after the expiration of the time limited for filing objections and upon reasonable notice to the other, may apply to the county judge for a hearing. After the hearing, the county judge shall enter an order finally sustaining or overruling the objections, and he shall thereupon proceed to enter his order thereon.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; §3, ch. 59-322.

745.28 Examination of returns not objected to.—If no objection is filed to any returns within the time limited by law for filing objections, the county judge shall proceed to examine said returns and enter his order approving the same or requiring such proof of the items contained therein as the county judge shall find desirable.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; §4, ch. 59-322.

745.29 Order requiring returns; contempt.—When any guardian fails or neglects to make the annual returns as required by this law, the county judge shall issue an order directing said guardian to make such returns within fifteen days from the service upon him of such order or show cause why he should not be compelled to do so. A copy of such order shall be served upon the guardian or upon his resident agent. If the said guardian fails, neglects or refuses without good cause shown to file his returns within the time specified by said order, the county judge shall forthwith issue a citation directed to said guardian to show cause why he should not be adjudged in contempt of court for such failure or neglect, and if such guardian fails to show just cause, the county judge may forthwith adjudge said guardian to be in contempt of court, and said person shall stand committed for contempt until he makes the annual returns.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945; §5, ch. 59-322.

745.30 Production of assets.—Upon the petition of any creditor or other interested person or upon his own motion, the county judge may require any guardian to produce satisfactory evidence that the assets of the ward are in his possession or under his control. If he deems it necessary or proper, the county judge may order the guardian to produce such assets for the inspection of such creditor or other interested person, or of said judge.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.31 Devastavit.—

(1) An action suggesting devastavit may be brought against the guardian of the property and his surety, jointly or separately, by any person interested in the ward or his property. When a guardian dies, resigns or is removed, an action suggesting devastavit may be brought also against him or his executor or administrator and against his surety by the remaining or successor guardian.

(2) When an action suggesting devastavit is brought against any guardian, if such guardian cannot show that he has fully administered according to law, he and his sureties shall be personally charged to the extent of assets not duly administered by him.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.32 Expenses and compensation.—A guardian of the property of a ward shall be allowed all necessary expenses and attorney's fees paid in the care, management and settlement of the ward's property. A guardian shall be allowed such compensation as the county judge may deem just and reasonable for his services, including services rendered in the sale of real or personal property, the conduct of litigation on behalf of or against the ward or his property, the carrying on of the ward's business pursuant to orders of the court and for any other services which may be found by the county judge to have been proper and necessary.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

745.33 Attorney's fees and expenses.—

(1) An attorney who has been employed by a guardian and who has rendered service to the ward or to the guardian in the ward's behalf, may apply to the county judge by petition for an order making an allowance for attorney's fees. After notice to the guardian, the county judge shall make such order with respect thereto as he shall deem proper.

(2) In annual and final returns the guardian shall be entitled to credit for such reasonable sums as he may have paid to an attorney for expenses and services rendered to the ward or to the guardian in behalf of the ward and to credit for his own reasonable expenses in connection with the guardianship. Objections may be made to the allowance of such items in the manner specified in §745.26, unless such items have been previously allowed by the county judge.

(3) If the guardian is a practicing attorney at law in this state and has rendered legal services in connection with his guardianship duties, he shall be allowed just and reasonable fees therefor in addition to his expenses and compensation provided by law for him as guardian.

History.—§2, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.01 Resignation of guardian. — Any guardian, upon petition to and with the approval of the county judge of the county where the guardianship is pending, may resign and be relieved of his guardianship after such notice as the county judge in his discretion may require; provided, that such notice shall also be served upon the surety or sureties on the bond of the guardian; and provided, further, that before making an order relieving the guardian from his duties and obligations as such, the county judge shall require him to make and file a true and correct account of his guardianship and to deliver to his successor guardian any and all property of the ward and all books of account, cash, bonds, notes or other securities, documents or other papers concerning the property of the ward, together with all the sums of money due by him. The county judge, before making such order, shall be satisfied that the interest of the ward will not be placed in jeopardy by such action; provided, always, that the acceptance of such resignation shall not be construed to exonerate any guardian or his surety from any liability previously incurred.

History.—§1, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(1); §1, ch. 20928, 1941; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.02 Appointment of successor.—A successor guardian must be appointed and duly qualified before a guardian shall be relieved of his duties and obligations as provided in the preceding section.

History.—§2, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(2); §2, ch. 20928, 1941; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.03 Reasons for removal of guardian.—Any guardian may be removed and the order appointing him revoked for any of the following reasons, and such removal shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other penalties prescribed by law:

- (1) Fraud in obtaining his appointment.
- (2) Failure to discharge his duties.
- (3) Abuse of his powers.
- (4) Insanity or other incompetency.
- (5) Habitual drunkenness or continued sickness rendering him incapable of the discharge of his duties.
- (6) Failure to comply with any order of the county judge unless such order has been superseded on appeal.
- (7) Failure to return schedules of property sold or accounts of sales of property or to produce and exhibit the ward's assets when so required.

(8) Wasting or embezzlement or other mismanagement of the ward's property.

(9) Failure to give bond or security for any purpose when so required by the county judge in accordance with the requirements of the law or failure to file with his annual returns the evidence required by §744.38 that the sureties on his bond are alive and solvent.

(10) Conviction of a felony.

(11) Appointment of a receiver or liquidator for any corporate guardian.

(12) Failure of a resident guardian who removes from Florida to designate a resident agent with the residence and post-office address of such agent.

History.—§3, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(3); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.04 Jurisdiction and proceedings for removal.—Proceedings for removal may be instituted by the county judge on his own motion or by any surety or other interested person. A petition for the removal of a guardian must be sworn to and filed in the office of the county judge having jurisdiction of the guardianship at the time the petition is filed. Reasonable notice shall be given to the guardian. Upon the hearing the county judge may enter such order as he deems proper under the pleadings and the evidence.

History.—§4, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(4); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.05 Accounting upon removal.—A removed guardian shall file, within twenty days after his removal, unless for good cause shown the time is extended by the county judge, a true, complete and final account of his guardianship in the office of the county judge removing him.

History.—§5, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(5); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.06 Surrender of assets upon removal.—The successor guardian shall demand of the removed guardian, or his heirs, personal representative or surety all the property of the ward and all books of account, cash, bonds, notes or other securities, documents or other papers concerning the property, together with all sums of money due the ward by him. The removed guardian, or his heirs, personal representative or surety shall turn over to his duly qualified successor all said property upon qualification of his successor and upon demand made as aforesaid.

History.—§6, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(6); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.07 Proceedings for commitment.—If a removed guardian fails or refuses to file a true, complete and final account of his guardianship as required, or if he fails to turn over, on demand, to his successor all the property of his ward and all the books of account, cash, bonds, notes, securities, documents and other papers which are in his control and which concern the property of the ward, or if he fails to pay over to such successor guardian all the sums of money due the ward by him, it shall be within the discretion and power of the county judge, and it shall be his duty when such default is not attributable to a cause which is justifiable, to commit such removed guardian until he complies fully with the requirements of the law in the respects indicated. If sufficient cause is shown for the default, the county judge shall then indicate a reasonable time within which compliance with the law shall be required; and upon failure to comply with this or any subsequent like order, the defaulting removed guardian may be committed by the county judge until said guardian does comply.

History.—§7, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(7); §3, ch. 20928, 1941; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.08 Commitment proceedings instituted by whom.—Proceedings for the commitment of such defaulting guardian may be instituted by the county judge sua sponte, or by any creditor, surety or other interested party, or by a successor guardian.

History.—§7, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(7); §3, ch. 20928, 1941; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.09 Order on proceedings for commitment.—If the proceedings for commitment are instituted by the county judge sua sponte, the order so entered addressed to such defaulting removed guardian directing compliance with the law shall be sufficient of itself. If proceedings are instituted by a person other than the county judge, they shall be by written petition filed with the county judge, stating the facts upon which the proceedings are based; the petition shall be sworn to by the petitioner, his agent or his attorney. Upon the filing of such petition under oath, the county judge, after notice to the removed guardian and a hearing on the petition, may issue his order of commitment and proceed in accordance with the provisions of this law.

History.—§7, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(7); §3, ch. 20928, 1941; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.10 Proceedings on bond of removed guardian.—In any case when a guardian is removed and when he is in default for thirty days either in the delivery of any part of the property or in the payment of the balances due the successor guardian, the bond of such removed guardian may be put in suit.

History.—§7, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(7); §3, ch. 20928, 1941; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.11 Survival of action upon resignation or removal.—All cases pending before any court by or against a guardian who is removed, or who resigns or dies, shall survive to or against the successor guardian, but no successor guardian shall be liable for any default on the part of any predecessor nor for any amount beyond the value of the property coming into his custody.

History.—§8, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(8); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.12 Termination of guardianship upon removal of ward's incapacity; exhaustion of assets.—When a ward becomes sui juris or when the property of a ward has been lawfully exhausted, the guardian of the property of such ward shall make final settlement and receive his discharge as provided in this law; provided, however, that before the county judge discharges such guardian, said county judge may require whatever proof of the removal of such incompetency or of the need of the continuance of the guardianship he may deem necessary.

History.—§8, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(8); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.121 Termination of guardianship on change of domicile of resident ward.—When the domicile of a resident ward has lawfully been changed in accordance with §744.10, and the foreign court having jurisdiction over the ward at his new domicile has appointed a guardian of the property of such ward and said guardian has qualified and posted in such foreign jurisdiction a bond in an amount deemed reasonable by the county judge, the Florida guardian of the property of such ward may thereupon file his accountings and proceed to close the Florida guardianship if, in the opinion of the county judge, the transfer of such guardianship proceedings to the new domicile of the ward is deemed advisable and in the best interest of said ward, and provided further, however, that at the time of the filing of his accounting the Florida guardian shall cause to be published once a week for four consecutive weeks, four publications being sufficient, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or where there is no newspaper of general circulation published in the county, by posting a copy thereof in three different places in said county, one of which shall be at the front door of the courthouse, of the fact that he has filed his accounting and will apply on a day certain, which shall not be less than twenty-eight nor more than sixty days from the date of the first publication of said notice, of his intent to apply for discharge, and therein stating that jurisdiction of said ward will be transferred to the state of foreign jurisdiction. If objection be filed to the termination of the Florida guardianship, the county judge, on the day set forth in said notice, shall proceed to hear said objection, and enter his order either sustaining or overruling said objection. Upon the disposition of any or all objections filed, or, if no objection be filed, final settlement shall be made by the Florida guardian and upon proof, acceptable to the county judge, that the remaining assets in such guardianship have been transferred to and received by the foreign guardian, the Florida guardian may be discharged and the Florida guardianship terminated. Provided further, however, that the entry of such order terminating the Florida guardianship shall not be construed to exonerate the guardian, or his surety, from any liability previously incurred thereto.

History.—§1, ch. 61-393.

746.13 Final returns and application for discharge; hearing.—

(1) When the need for a guardianship terminates, the guardian shall promptly file his final returns and his application to the county judge for discharge. If no objections are filed and if it appears to the county judge that said applicant has made full and complete distribution to his ward and has otherwise faithfully discharged his duties, said county judge may approve the applicant's final returns. If objections are filed, the county judge shall conduct a hearing under the same conditions as provided in this law for a hearing on objections to annual returns.

(2) The guardian applying for discharge is authorized to retain from the funds in his possession a sufficient amount to pay the final costs of administration accruing between the filing of his final returns and the order of discharge.

History.—§8, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(8); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.14 Order of discharge.—Upon the consideration of the application for discharge and of the objections thereto, if any, and of the evidence, if the county judge is satisfied that the guardian has faithfully and completely discharged his duties and has rendered complete and accurate final returns and has delivered the assets of the ward to the person entitled thereto, the county judge shall enter an order of discharge. Such discharge shall operate as a release from the duties of the guardianship and as a bar to any suit against said guardian or his surety, unless such suit is commenced within one year from the date of the discharge.

History.—§9, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(9); am. §7, ch. 22000, 1943; am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.15 Letters of discharge.—Any time after the discharge of a guardian the county judge may issue letters of discharge to the guardian of the person or of the property, or of both, and he shall issue them whenever a request is made by the guardian for such letters, and the costs of the letters of discharge shall be paid by the estate of the ward. Letters of discharge shall not be necessary to the validity of the discharge.

History.—§10, ch. 17976, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 5919(10); am. §3, ch. 22750, 1945.

746.16 Appeals and supersedeas.—All orders, judgments and decrees of the county judge finally determining rights of any party in any proceeding in guardianship matters may as a matter of right be appealed to the appropriate district court of appeal, except those appeals which may be taken to the supreme court as provided by §4, Art. V of the state constitution, in the manner and within the time provided by the Florida appellate rules.

History.—§3, ch. 22750, 1945; §33, ch. 63-559.

746.17 Effective date.—Chapters 744, 745 and 746, as amended, shall take effect on January 1, 1946.

History.—§5, ch. 22750, 1945.

747.01 Who are absentees under this law.—

(1) Any person serving in or with the armed forces of the United States, in or with the red cross, in or with the merchant marines, or otherwise, in connection with the war effort of the United States or any of her allies, during any period of time when a state of war exists between the United States and any other power and for one year thereafter, who has been reported or listed as missing in action, interned in a neutral country, beleaguered, besieged or captured by the enemy, shall be an "absentee" within the meaning of this law; and,

(2) Any resident of this state, or any person owning property herein, who disappears under circumstances indicating that he may have died, either naturally, accidentally or at the hand of another, or may have disappeared as the result of mental derangement, amnesia or other mental cause, shall also be an "absentee" within the meaning of this law.

History.—§1, ch. 22888, 1945.

747.02 Conservation of the property of absentees.—When any absentee, as defined in §747.01, has an interest in any form of property in this state, or is a legal resident of this state and has not provided an adequate power of attorney authorizing another to act in his behalf with regard to such property or interest, the county judge of the county of such absentee's legal residence, or of the county where such property is situate, shall have jurisdiction, upon the filing of a petition by any person who would have an interest in the property of the absentee were such person deceased, alleging the facts and showing the necessity for providing care for the property of such absentee, or on the court's own motion, after notice to, or on receipt of proper waivers from, the heirs and next of kin of the absentee, as defined by §731.23, and upon good cause shown, to appoint a conservator to take charge of the absentee's estate under the supervision and subject to the further orders of the court.

History.—§2, ch. 22888, 1945.

747.03 Qualification of conservator; powers.—The court shall have full discretionary authority to appoint any suitable person as such conservator and may require said conservator to post an adequate surety bond and to make such reports as the court may deem necessary. The conservator shall have powers and authority similar to that of the guardian of the property of an infant or incompetent and shall be considered as an officer or arm of the court.

History.—§3, ch. 22888, 1945.

747.04 Termination of conservatorship.—

(1) At any time upon petition signed by the absentee, or on petition of an attorney in fact acting under an adequate power of attorney granted by the absentee, the court shall direct the termination of the conservatorship and the transfer of all property held thereunder to the absentee or to the designated attorney in fact.

(2) Likewise, if at any time subsequent to the appointment of a conservator it shall appear that the absentee has died and an executor or administrator has been appointed for his estate, the court shall direct the termination of the conservatorship and the transfer of all property of the deceased absentee held thereunder to such executor or administrator.

History.—§4, ch. 22888, 1945.

747.06 Petition for.—The jurisdiction of the court shall be invoked by the filing of a petition in the circuit court of the county of his or her residence by the person for whose property a curator is sought; or by either the father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife or child or next of kin of such person; and, if any such relative fails to act, then by the sheriff of the county of the domicile or residence of such person, which petition shall set forth the facts and reasons why it is proper, appropriate or reasonably necessary for the best interest of such person that such appointment be made. The petition shall state names and addresses of all members of the immediate family and the names and addresses of husband or wife and next of kin, as particularly as is known to the petitioner.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.07 Hearing; notice and order.—

(1) The appointment shall be made only after a hearing upon due notice to one or more members of his or her family; or, if not a member of a family, to one or more relatives, or after such personal or such published notice as may be required by an order of court.

(2) The court shall by order determine what members of the family or relatives shall be given notice of the hearing and may determine the manner of giving such notice.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.08 Hearings; testimony; decree.—

(1) The person against whom the petition is presented shall attend or be summoned to attend or be given notice of the hearing of the petition before the court.

(2) At such hearing the court may take the testimony of all the parties in interest who shall appear and such witnesses as any member of his family whom he may see fit to call or summons.

(3) If the court on such hearing shall find that the petition is well founded, then the court shall appoint a curator of the estate of such person, herein referred to as a ward. Any person interested may intervene in such proceedings with leave of court.

(4) The testimony adduced at the hearing shall be transcribed and filed unless the court shall find it to be unnecessary, and so order.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.09 Appointment of guardian ad litem.—

The court may in its discretion appoint a guardian ad litem to represent at the hearing the person against whom the proceedings are taken.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.10 Appointment of committee of inquiry.—The court shall appoint a committee consisting of two practicing physicians to inquire into the report of its findings upon the question of the disability of such person.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.11 Effect of decree.—From and after the rendition of the decree appointing a curator, such person for whom appointed shall be a ward of the court appointing such curator, and the ward shall be wholly incapable of making any contract or gift whatever, or any instrument in writing, of legal force and effect, except after leave of court is granted upon a hearing after notice to the curator and such next of kin as the court shall order given notice of application.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.12 Bond of curator.—

(1) The curator so appointed shall, before entering upon his duties, file with the clerk of the court a good and sufficient bond, approved by the clerk, with such surety or sureties as required of a guardian's bond, payable to the governor of the state and his successors in office, in such penal sum as the court shall determine by order and conditioned to faithfully perform his duties according to the requirements of law and orders of the court.

(2) The court may at any time require of the said curator such additional or larger bond as may seem to be proper or necessary to protect the interests of the ward.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.13 Court to direct allowance for ward.—

The court appointing such curator shall have full power over the estate of the ward and allowances to or for the said ward, and may allow and assess against the estate of the ward all reasonable costs incurred in procuring the appointment of said curator and during the curatorship; and shall have full power to enter a decree for the selling, mortgaging, or leasing of the real or personal property of the said ward, after the court shall have made an affirmative finding that a mortgage, sale or lease for such purposes is reasonably necessary or expedient (1) for the maintenance and support of the ward or to secure advances for the same or (2) to discharge existing liens, or (3) to protect the ward's estate; such sale, mortgaging or leasing shall be upon such terms and rates as shall be approved by the court, but no property of the ward shall be mortgaged at a rate of interest greater than six per cent per annum.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.14 Special curator.—After a curator is appointed and qualified he may move the court for the appointment of a "special curator," to prosecute any causes of action, suits or claims or to recover any property or other assets of the ward or to establish any rights in respect to the ward's estate, and such appointee shall have such powers, duties and responsibilities in respect thereto as the court shall prescribe, to the same extent and with the same limitations as would the principal curator.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.15 Curator's account; procedure for confirmation.—Every curator shall file annually, and as often as otherwise ordered, in the court making said appointment, a full accounting of the administration of said trust. The curator shall present his accounts to the court in debit and credit form and shall petition the court to have them examined, approved and confirmed finally. The court shall by order direct to whom and what notice, if any, shall be given of the hearing of the petition or motion for approval.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.16 Audit and examination of accounts.—

(1) After filing proof of the service of the notice, the court may thereupon examine or audit the accounts, or may appoint an examiner or auditor to examine and audit such accounts and report thereon to the court.

(2) After the examination or audit of any accounting is completed, the court shall approve or disapprove the same, or any item thereof; and the court may at any time before the curator has been finally discharged, after notice, enter judgment against the curator and his sureties for failing to comply with or abide by the terms and conditions of his bond.

(3) The cost of the audit or examination shall be paid out of the estate, as the decree of the court shall otherwise direct.

(4) Upon the death or restoration to legal capacity of the ward, the curator shall file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court a full and complete account of such items and matters as were not included in any former account confirmed finally.

History.—Comp. §§12, 13, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.17 Curator and guardian, if any, to be discharged upon recovery.—If, at any time the ward shall become able to properly care for himself or his property, he may petition the court, setting forth such fact; and, after a hearing, of which due notice shall be given to the curator and some one or more of the family or next of kin of the said person, as the court shall order, and after the appearance of the ward before the court, if the court shall find that the said person has regained the ability to properly care for his property, the court shall decree accordingly, and shall thereafter discharge the curator upon the rendition of a proper accounting and after same has been confirmed after notice and hearing.

History.—Comp. §14, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.18 Curators, powers and duties.—Except as herein otherwise provided, a curator shall have the powers and be subject to the same duties over and concerning the property of a ward as may be by law had and exercised by the guardians of the property of infants, and the court shall have and exercise the same powers touching such curator and the property of such person as may be by law had and exercised touching the guardian of the property of infants.

History.—Comp. §15, ch. 25376, 1949.

747.19 Appeals.—Any orders or decrees of the circuit court relating to a curatorship may be reviewed as are other orders and decrees in equity, and such an appeal may be taken by any person as next friend of the ward after obtaining leave of the chancellor or by the curator or by the petitioner.

History.—Comp. §16, ch. 25376, 1949.

CHAPTER 767

DAMAGE BY DOGS

767.01 Owners responsible.

767.02 Sheep-killing dogs not to roam about.

767.01 Owners responsible. — Owners of dogs shall be liable for any damage done by their dogs to sheep or other domestic animals or livestock, or to persons.

History.—RS 2341; ch. 4979, 1901; GS 3142; RGS 4957; CGL 7044.

767.02 Sheep-killing dogs not to roam about. —It is unlawful for any dog known to have killed sheep to roam about over the country unattended by a keeper. Any such dog found roaming over the country unattended shall be deemed a run-about dog, and it is lawful to kill such dog.

History.—§1, ch. 4185, 1893; GS 3143; RGS 4958; CGL 7045.

767.03 Good defense for killing dog.—In any action for damages or of a criminal prosecution against any person for killing or injuring a dog, satisfactory proof that said dog had been or was killing sheep shall constitute a good defense to either of such actions.

History.—§1, ch. 4938, 1901; GS 3144; RGS 4959; CGL 7046.

767.04 Liability of owners.—The owners of any dog which shall bite any person, while

CHAPTER 768

NEGLIGENCE

- 768.01 Right of action for death.
- 768.02 Parties; damages; proviso.
- 768.03 Parties in actions for death of minor child; damages.
- 768.04 Limitation of action.
- 768.05 Liability of railroad company.
- 768.06 Comparative negligence.
- 768.07 Liability for injury to employees.

- 768.08 Liability of corporations having relief department for injury to employees; contracts in violation of act void.
- 768.09 Examination of injured party in personal damage cases.
- 768.10 Pits and holes not to be left open.
- 768.11 Pits and holes; measure of damages.
- 768.12 Motor vehicle colliding with any animal at large on a public highway.

768.01 Right of action for death.—

(1) Whenever the death of any person in this state shall be caused by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any individual or individuals, or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any corporation, or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any agent of any corporation, acting in his capacity of agent of such corporation (or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any ship, vessel or boat or persons employed thereon), and the act, negligence, carelessness or default, is such as would, if the death had not ensued, have entitled the party injured thereby to maintain an action (or to proceed in rem against the said ship, vessel or boat, or in personam against the owners thereof, or those having control of her) and to recover damages in respect thereof, then and in every such case the person or persons who, or the corporation (or the ship, vessel or boat), which would have been liable in damages if death had not ensued shall be liable to an action for damages (or if a ship, vessel or boat, to a libel in rem, and her owners or those responsible for her wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default, to a libel in personam), notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to a felony.

(2) The right of action as set forth in subsection (1) above shall extend to and include actions ex contractu and ex delicto.

History.—§1, ch. 3429, 1883; RS 2342; GS 3145; §1, ch. 6913, 1915; RGS 4960; CGL 7047; am. §1, ch. 28280, 1953.
cf.—Ch. 440, Workmen's compensation law.
§95.11, Limitation of actions.

768.02 Parties; damages; proviso.—Every such action shall be brought by and in the name of the widow or husband, as the case may be, and where there is neither widow nor husband surviving the deceased, then the minor child or children may maintain an action; and where there is neither widow nor husband, nor minor child or children, then the action may be maintained by any person or persons dependent on such person killed for a support; and where there is neither of the above classes of persons to sue, then the action may be maintained by the executor or administrator, as the case may be, of the person killed. In case of the death of any person solely entitled, or of all the persons jointly entitled to sue, before action brought or before the recovery of a final judgment in action brought by him or them, the right of action or the action as the case may be, shall survive to the person or persons next entitled to sue under this section, and in case of the death of one or more persons jointly entitled to sue before action brought or before the recovery of a final judgment in an action brought by them, the right of action or the action, as the case may be, shall survive to the survivor of such persons so jointly entitled to sue; and in every such action the jury shall give such damages as the party or parties entitled to sue may have sustained by reason of the death of the party killed; provided, that any person or persons to whom a right of action may survive under the provisions of this act shall recover such damages as by law such person or persons are entitled in their own right to recover, irrespective of the damages recoverable by the person or persons whom he or they may succeed.

(1) Whenever the death of any minor child shall be caused by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any individual, or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any private association or persons, or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any officer, agent or employee of any private association of persons, acting in his capacity as such officer, agent or employee, or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any corporation, or by the wrongful act, negligence, carelessness or default of any officer or agent, or employee of any corporation acting in his capacity as such officer, agent or employee, the father of such minor child, or if the father be not living, the mother may maintain an action against such individual, private association of persons, or corporation, and may recover, not only for the loss of services of such minor child, but in addition thereto, such sum for the mental pain and suffering of the parent (or both parents) if they survive, as the jury may assess.

(2) The right of action as set forth in subsection (1) shall extend to and include actions ex contractu and ex delicto.

History.—§1, ch. 4722, 1899; GS 3147; §1, ch. 6487, 1913; RGS 4962; CGL 7049; (2) n., §1, ch. 63-469.

768.04 Limitation of action.—All actions provided for by §768.03 shall be barred, unless brought within two years from the time the cause of action accrued.

History.—§2, ch. 6487, 1913; RGS 4963; CGL 7050.
cf.—Ch. 95, Limitations, generally.

768.05 Liability of railroad company.—A railroad company shall be liable for any damage done to persons, stock or other property, by the running of the locomotives, or cars, or other machinery of such company, or for damage done by any person in the employ and service of such company, unless the company shall make it appear that their agents have exercised all ordinary and reasonable care and diligence, the presumption in all cases being against the company.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 3744, 1887; §1, ch. 4071, 1891; GS 3148; RGS 4964; CGL 7051.

cf.—§356.04, Railroad killing livestock.
§860.02, Negligence of carrier.

768.06 Comparative negligence.—No person shall recover damages from a railroad company for injury to himself or his property, where the same is done by his consent, or is caused by his own negligence. If the plaintiff and the agents of the company are both at fault, the former may recover, but the amount of recovery shall be such a proportion of the entire damages sustained, as the defendant's negligence bears to the combined negligence of both the plaintiff and the defendant.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 3744, 1887; §2, ch. 4071, 1891; GS 3149; RGS 4965; CGL 7052.

768.07 Liability for injury to employees.—If any person is injured by a railroad company by the running of the locomotives or cars, or other machinery of such company, he being at the time of such injury an employee of the company, and the damage was caused by negligence of another employee, and without fault or negligence on the part of the person injured, his employment by the company shall be no bar to a recovery. No contract which restricts such liability shall be legal or binding.

cf.—§769.06, Contracts limiting liability.

768.08 Liability of corporations having relief department for injury to employees; contracts in violation of act void.—Any person, association of persons, or corporations that has, or shall hereafter have, a relief department for the benefit of their or its employees, or which shall contribute any money or other thing of value to any relief society or association for the benefit of their or its employees, to which such employee may also contribute any money, or other thing of value, shall not be relieved of liability to such employee, or in case of his death to any person authorized by law to sue for such death, for the negligent injury or killing of such employee, because such employee may have been a member of or contributed to any such relief department, or received any benefits therefrom, but such employee, and in case of his death any person or persons authorized by law to sue for such death, shall be entitled to demand, sue for and recover any benefit that such employee may have been entitled to receive by reason of having been a member of or contributed to any such relief department, society or association, and such employee, and in case of his death any person authorized by law to sue for such death, shall be entitled to institute suit against any such person, association of persons or corporations, and to recover for any injury suffered by such employee and for the death of such employee, suffered through the negligence of such person, association of persons, or corporation, and any contract, stipulation or provision in violation of this section is declared to be null and void.

768.09 Examination of injured party in personal damage cases.—In any action in which the mental or physical injury of a party or injury to property is in controversy, the court in which the action is pending may, in advance of the trial, order such party to submit to a physical or mental examination by a physician or other such qualified expert, or may order an examination of the property alleged to have been damaged or injured by the defendant or his agent, or of the party alleged to have caused the damage or injury. The compensation of the examining physician shall be fixed by the court in each particular case, and shall be in the first instance paid by the party petitioning for such examination, but shall be taxed up as a part of the costs of the case subject to the final disposition of the same.

cf.—§458.16 Furnishing copies of mental or physical examination reports.

768.10 Pits and holes not to be left open.—It is not lawful for any company or individual to leave open any pit or other hole outside of an enclosure of a greater depth and breadth than two feet; provided, however, such pit or hole may be left open by enclosing the same with a fence or other enclosure that would be a safeguard against horses, cattle or other domestic animals falling into the same; provided further, that this section shall not apply to pits or holes made by any company or individual while bona fide engaged in actual mining operations, such pits and holes to be enclosed as herein provided when said mining operations shall cease or be discontinued.

History.—§1, ch. 4051, 1891; GS 3152; RGS 4969; CGL 7056.

768.11 Pits and holes; measure of damages.—Any company or individual who may leave open pits or other holes contrary to the provisions of §768.10 shall be liable in damages to any person injured thereby in an amount double the actual damages sustained, which may be recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—§2, ch. 4051, 1891; GS 3153; RGS 4970; CGL 7057.

768.12 Motor vehicle colliding with any animal at large on a public highway.—That whenever a motor vehicle collides with any animal at large on a public highway of this state, and the operator of the motor vehicle dies as a result of the collision, the owner of such animal shall have no cause of action against the personal representative of the estate of the said deceased operator on account of any injuries to, or the death of, such animal, resulting from the collision.

CHAPTER 769

HAZARDOUS OCCUPATIONS

- 769.01 Employers affected by fellow servant act.
 769.02 Liability of certain persons and corporations for injuries from negligence of fellow servants.
 769.03 Recovery for injuries where employee and employer both at fault; damages; negligence of fellow servant.
 769.04 Doctrine of assumption of risk abrogated.
 769.05 Proceeds of recovery for injuries exempt from garnishment and execution.
 769.06 Contracts limiting liability invalid.

769.01 Employers affected by fellow servant act.—This chapter shall apply to persons engaged in the following hazardous occupations in this state; namely, railroading, operating street railways, generating and selling electricity, telegraph and telephone business, express business, blasting and dynamiting, operating automobiles for public use, boating, when boat is propelled by steam, gas or electricity.

 cf.—Ch. 440, Workmen's compensation law.

769.02 Liability of certain persons and corporations for injuries from negligence of fellow servants.—The persons mentioned in §769.01 shall be liable in damages for injuries inflicted upon their agents and employees, and for the death of their agents and employees caused by the negligence of such persons, their agents and servants, unless such persons shall make it appear that they, their agents and servants have exercised all ordinary and reasonable care and diligence, the presumption in all cases being against such persons.

History.—§2, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4972; CGL 7059.

769.03 Recovery for injuries where employee and employer both at fault; damages; negligence of fellow servant.—The persons mentioned in §769.01 shall not be liable in damages for injuries to their agents and employees, or for the death of such agents and employees, where same is done by their consent, or is caused by their own negligence. If the employees or agents injured or killed, and the persons mentioned in §769.01, or their agents and employees are both at fault, there may be a recovery, but the amount of the recovery shall be such a proportion of the entire damages sustained, as the defendant's negligence bears to the combined negligence of both the plaintiff and the defendant; provided, that damages shall not be recovered for injuries to an employee injured in part through his own negligence and in part through the negligence of another employee, when both of such employees are fellow servants, where the former and latter are jointly engaged in performing the act causing the injury and the employer is guilty of no negligence contributing to such injury.

History.—§3, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4973; CGL 7060.

769.04 Doctrine of assumption of risk abrogated.—The doctrine of assumption of risk shall not obtain in any case arising under the provisions of this chapter, where the injury or death was attributable to the negligence of the employer, his agents or servants.

History.—§4, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4974; CGL 7061.

769.05 Proceeds of recovery for injuries exempt from garnishment and execution.—Writs of garnishment, execution or other processes, shall not issue out of any court to reach any money due or likely to become due as damages under the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§5, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4975; CGL 7062.

769.06 Contracts limiting liability invalid.—Any contract, contrivance or device whatever, having the effect to relieve or exempt the persons mentioned in §769.01 from the liability prescribed by this chapter shall be illegal and void.

History.—§6, ch. 6521, 1913; RGS 4976; CGL 7063.

CIVIL ACTIONS FOR LIBEL

- 770.01 Notice condition precedent to action or prosecution for libel.
 770.02 Correction, apology, or retraction by newspaper.
 770.03 Civil liability of radio broadcasting stations, etc.

770.01 Notice condition precedent to action or prosecution for libel.—Before any civil action is brought for publication, in a newspaper or periodical, of a libel, the plaintiff shall, at least five days before instituting such action, serve notice in writing on defendant, specifying the article, and the statements therein, which he alleges to be false and defamatory.

 cf.—§836.07, Criminal prosecution for libel.

770.02 Correction, apology, or retraction by newspaper.—If it appears upon the trial that said article was published in good faith, that its falsity was due to an honest mistake of the facts, and that there were reasonable grounds for believing that the statements in said article were true, and that within ten days after the service of said notice a full and fair correction, apology and retraction was published in the same editions or corresponding issues of the newspaper or periodical in which said article appeared, and in as conspicuous place and type as was said original article, then the plaintiff in such case shall recover only actual damages.

 cf.—§836.08, Criminal provision.

770.03 Civil liability of radio broadcasting stations, etc.—The owner, lessee, licensee or operator of a radio broadcasting station shall have the right, but shall not be compelled, to require the submission of a written copy of any statement intended to be broadcast over such station twenty-four hours before the time of the intended broadcast thereof; and when such owner, lessee, licensee or operator has so required the submission of such copy, such owner, lessee, licensee or operator shall not be liable in damages for any libelous or slanderous utterance made by or for the person or party submitting a copy of such proposed broadcast which is not contained in such copy; but this section shall not be construed to relieve the person or party, or the agents or servants of such person or party, making any such libelous or slanderous utterance from liability therefor.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 19616, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 7064(4); §1, ch. 20869, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

770.04 Civil liability of radio or television broadcasting stations; care to prevent publication or utterance required.—The owner, licensee, or operator of a radio or television broadcasting station, and the agents or employees of any such owner, licensee or operator, shall not be liable for any damages for any defamatory statement published or uttered in or as a part of a radio or television broadcast, by one other than such owner, licensee or operator, or general agent or employees thereof, unless it shall be alleged and proved by the complaining party, that such owner, licensee, operator, general agent or employee, has failed to exercise due care to prevent the publication or utterance of such statement in such broadcasts, provided, however, the exercise of due care shall be construed to include the bona fide compliance with any federal law or the regulation of any federal regulatory agency.

ACTIONS FOR ALIENATION OF AFFECTIONS, ETC.

- 771.01 Certain tort actions abolished.
771.04 No act done in state to give cause of action.
771.05 Unlawful to file certain causes of action.

- 771.06 Validity of certain contracts.
771.07 Penalties.
771.08 Construction of law.

771.01 Certain tort actions abolished.—The rights of action heretofore existing to recover sums of money as damage for the alienation of affections, criminal conversation, seduction or breach of contract to marry are hereby abolished.

History.—§1, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.04 No act done in state to give cause of action.—No act hereafter done within this state shall operate to give rise, either within or without this state, to any of the rights of action abolished by this law. No contract to marry hereafter made or entered into in this state shall operate to give rise, either within or without this state, to any cause or right of action for the breach thereof.

History.—§4, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.05 Unlawful to file certain causes of action.—It shall hereafter be unlawful for any person, either as a party or attorney, or an agent or other person in behalf of either, to file or serve, cause to be filed or served or threaten to file or serve, or to threaten to cause to be filed or served, any process or pleading, in any court of the state, setting forth or seeking to recover a sum of money upon any cause of action abolished or barred by this law, whether such cause of action arose within or without the state.

History.—§5, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.06 Validity of certain contracts.—All contracts and instruments of every kind, name, nature or description, which may hereafter be executed within this state in payment, satisfaction, settlement or compromise of any claim or cause of action abolished or barred by this law, whether such claim or cause of action arose within or without this state, are hereby declared to be contrary to the public policy of this state and absolutely void. It shall be unlawful to cause, induce or procure any person to execute such a contract or instrument; or cause, induce or procure any person to give, pay, transfer or deliver any money or thing of value in payment, satisfaction, settlement or compromise of any such claim or cause of action; or to receive, take or accept any such money or thing of value as such payment, satisfaction, settlement or compromise. It shall be unlawful to commence or cause to be commenced, either as party or attorney, or as agent or otherwise in behalf of either, in any court of this state, any proceeding or action seeking to enforce or recover upon any such contract or instrument, knowing it to be such, whether the same shall have been executed within or without this state; provided, however, that this section shall not apply to the payment, satisfaction, settlement or compromise of any causes of action which are not abolished or barred by this law, or any contracts or instruments heretofore executed, or to the bona fide holder in due course of any negotiable instrument which may be hereafter executed.

History.—§6, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.07 Penalties.—Any person who violates any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

History.—§7, ch. 23138, 1945.

771.08 Construction of law.—This law shall be liberally construed to effectuate the objects and purposes thereof and the public policy of the state as hereby declared. This law shall supersede all laws and parts of laws, inconsistent with this law, to the extent of such inconsistency, but in all other respects shall be deemed supplemental to such laws and parts of laws. Nothing contained in this law shall be construed as a repeal of any of the provisions of the penal law or the code of criminal procedure or of any other law of this state relating to criminal or quasi-criminal actions or proceedings.

History.—§§8, 9, ch. 23138, 1945.

775.03 Benefit of clergy.—The doctrine of benefit of clergy shall have no operation in this state.

History.—§75, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2371; GS 3196; RGS 5026; CGL 7128.

775.04 What penal acts or omissions not public offenses.—Acts or omissions to which a pecuniary penalty is attached, recoverable by action by a person for his own use or for the use, in whole or in part, of the state or of a county or a public body, or of a corporation, are not public offenses within the meaning of these statutes.

775.05 "Crimes" include misdemeanors.—The word "crimes" shall include all misdemeanors.

History.—§2350, RS 1892; GS 3174; RGS 5003; CGL 7102.

775.06 Punishments.—Whenever punishment by imprisonment is prescribed, and the said imprisonment is not expressly directed to be in the state prison, it shall be taken and held to be imprisonment in the county jail, and whenever the punishment is prescribed to be fine or imprisonment (whether in the state prison or county jail), in the alternative, the court may, in its discretion, proceed to punish by both fine and such imprisonment.

History.—§2351, RS 1892; GS 3175; RGS 5004; CGL 7103.

775.07 Punishment for misdemeanors where not otherwise provided.—The punishment for commission of crimes other than felonies in this state, when not otherwise provided by statute, or when the penalty provided by such statute is ineffectual because of constitutional provisions, or because the same is otherwise illegal or void, shall be a fine not exceeding two hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding ninety days; and where punishment by fine alone is provided the court may, in his discretion, sentence the defendant to serve not exceeding sixty days in default of the payment of the said fine.

History.—§1, ch. 5920, 1909; §1, ch. 6222, 1911; RGS 5005; CGL 7104; §1, ch. 17910, 1937.

775.08 Felonies and misdemeanors defined.—Any crime punishable by death, or imprisonment in the state prison, is a felony, and no other crime shall be so considered. Every other offense is a misdemeanor.

History.—§1(11), ch. 1637, 1868; §2352, RS 1892; GS 3176; RGS 5006; CGL 7105.

775.09 Punishment for second conviction of felony.—A person who, after having been convicted within this state of a felony or an attempt to commit a felony, or under the laws of any other state, government or country, of a crime which, if committed within this state would be a felony, commits any felony within this state is punishable upon conviction of such second offense as follows: If the subsequent felony is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for any term less than his natural life then such person must be sentenced to imprisonment for a term no less than the longest term nor more than twice the longest term prescribed upon a first conviction. If the subsequent felony is such that upon a first conviction the offender would be punishable by imprisonment for life or for a term of years, in the alternative, then such person must be sentenced to imprisonment for life or for any number of years not less than twenty years.

History.—§1, ch. 12022, 1927; CGL 7106; §1, ch. 57-764.
 cf.—§811.10, Second conviction of larceny.

 §831.10, Second conviction of uttering forged bills.
 §849.13, Second conviction of violation of lottery laws.
 §849.23, Second conviction of violation of slot machine law.

775.10 Punishment for fourth conviction of felony.—A person who, after having been three times convicted within this state of felonies or attempts to commit felonies, or under the law of any other state, government or country of crimes which, if committed within this state, would be felonious, commits a felony within this state shall be sentenced upon conviction of such fourth or subsequent offense to imprisonment in the state prison for the term of his natural life. A person to be punishable under this and the preceding section need not have been indicted and convicted as a previous offender in order to receive the increased punishment therein provided, but may be proceeded against as provided in the following section.

History.—§2, ch. 12022, 1927; CGL 7107.

775.11 Procedure in prosecutions for second and subsequent offenses.—If at any time after sentence or conviction it shall appear that a person convicted of a felony has previously been convicted of crimes as set forth either in §775.09 or §775.10 the prosecuting attorney of the county in which such conviction was had, shall file an information accusing said person of such previous convictions, whereupon the court in which such conviction was had shall cause said person, whether confined in prison or otherwise, to be brought before it and shall inform him of the allegations contained in such information and of his right to be tried as to the truth thereof, according to law, and shall require such offender to say whether he is the same person as charged in such information or not.

If he says he is not the same person or refuses to answer or remains silent, his plea, or the fact of his silence, shall be entered of record and a jury shall be empaneled to inquire whether the offender is the same person mentioned in the several records as set forth in such information. If the jury finds that he is the same person or if he acknowledges or confesses in open court after being duly cautioned as to his rights that he is the same person the court shall sentence him to the punishment prescribed in §775.09 or §775.10 as the case may be, and shall vacate the previous sentence, deducting from the new sentence all time actually served on the sentence so vacated.

Whenever it shall become known to any warden or prison, probation, parole or police officer or other peace officer, that any person charged with or convicted of a felony has been previously convicted within the meaning of §775.09 or §775.10 he shall forthwith report the facts to the prosecuting attorney of the county.

History.—§3, ch. 12022, 1927; CGL 7108.

775.12 Limitation of repeal as to criminal cases.—No offense committed, and no penalty and forfeiture incurred, prior to the taking effect of these statutes, shall be affected thereby, and no prosecution had or commenced, shall be abated thereby, except that when any punishment, forfeiture or penalty shall have been mitigated by the provisions of these statutes, such provisions shall apply to and control any judgment or sentence to be pronounced, and all prosecutions shall be conducted according to the provisions of law in force at the time of such further prosecution and trial applicable to the case.

775.13 Registration of convicted felons, exemptions; penalties.—

(1) Any person who has been convicted of a felony in any court of this state shall within forty-eight hours after entering any county in this state, register with the sheriff of said county and shall be fingerprinted, photographed and list the crime for which convicted, place of conviction, sentence imposed, if any, name, aliases, if any, address, and occupation.

(2) Any person who has been convicted of a crime in any federal court or in any court of a state other than Florida, or of any foreign state or country, which crime if committed in Florida would be a felony, shall forthwith within forty-eight hours after entering any county in this state register with the sheriff of said county, in the same manner as provided for in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Any person who is presently within any county of the state as of the effective date of this section, shall likewise be required to register with the sheriff of such county within thirty days after the effective date of this section, if such person would be required to register under the terms of subsections (1) or (2), hereof, if he or she were entering such county.

(4) In lieu of registering with the sheriffs of the several counties of the state as required by this section, such registration may be made with the Florida sheriffs' bureau, and shall be subject to the same terms and conditions as required for registration with the several sheriffs of the state. Any person so registering with the Florida sheriffs' bureau shall not be required to make further registration in any county in the state.

(5) The provisions of this law shall not apply to any person who:

(a) Has had his civil rights restored; or

(b) Has received a full pardon for the offense for which convicted, or

(c) Whose conviction of a felony was more than ten years prior to the time provided for registration under the provisions of this law, and who has been lawfully released from incarceration under a felony conviction and sentence for more than five years prior to such time for registration unless such person is a fugitive from justice on a felony charge, or

(d) Is a parolee or probationer under the supervision of the Florida parole commission, or is a probationer under the supervision of any county probation officer of the state, or who has been lawfully discharged from such parole or probation.

(e) Is a parolee or probationer under the supervision of the United States parole commission which parole commission knows of and consents to the presence of such person in Florida, or is a probationer under the supervision of any federal probation officer in the state, or who has been lawfully discharged from such parole or probation.

(6) Failure of any such convicted felon to comply with this section upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than 6 months in county jail and fine of not more than $500, or both.

(7) All laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed, provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any law of this state relating to registration of criminals where the penalties are in excess of those imposed by this section.

History.—§§1-7, ch. 57-19; (5) (d) §1, ch. 57-371; (5) (e) n. §1, ch. 63-191.

775.14 Limitation on withheld sentences.—Any person receiving a withheld sentence upon conviction for a criminal offense, and such withheld sentence has not been altered for a period of five years, shall not thereafter be sentenced for the conviction of the same crime for which sentence was originally withheld.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-284.

CHAPTER 776

PRINCIPALS AND ACCESSORIES; ATTEMPTS

776.011 Principal in first degree.

776.03 Accessory after the fact.

776.011 Principal in first degree.—Whoever commits any criminal offense against the state, whether felony or misdemeanor, or aids, abets, counsels, hires, or otherwise procures such offense to be committed, is a principal in the first degree and may be charged, convicted and punished as such, whether he is or is not actually or constructively present at the commission of such offense.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-310.

776.03 Accessory after the fact.—Whoever, not standing in the relation of husband or wife, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild, brother or sister, by consanguinity or affinity to the offender, maintains or assists the principal or accessory before the fact, or gives the offender any other aid, knowing that he has committed a felony or been accessory thereto before the fact, with intent that he shall avoid or escape detection, arrest, trial or punishment, shall be deemed an accessory after the fact, and be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding seven years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§6, sub-ch. 11, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2356; GS 3180; RGS 5010; CGL 7112.

commission of such an offense, but fails in the perpetration, or is intercepted or prevented in the execution of the same, shall, when no express provision is made by law for the punishment of such attempt, be punished as follows:

(1) If the offense attempted to be committed is punishable with death, the person convicted of such attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years.

(2) If the offense attempted to be committed is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for life, or for five years or more, the person convicted of such attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year.

(3) If the offense attempted to be committed is punishable by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of less than five years, or by imprisonment in the county jail, or by fine, the person convicted of such attempt shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

In no case shall the punishment by imprisonment exceed one-half of the greatest punishment which might have been inflicted if the offense attempted had been committed.

779.01 Treason.—Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against the same, or in adhering to the enemies thereof, or giving them aid and comfort. Whoever commits treason against this state shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life at hard labor.

History.—§§1, 2, sub-ch. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2372; GS 3197; RGS 5027; CGL 7129.

779.02 Misprision of treason.—Whoever having knowledge of the commission of treason conceals the same and does not, as soon as may be, disclose and make known such treason to the governor or one of the justices of the supreme court or a judge of the circuit court, shall be judged guilty of the offense of misprision of treason, and be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§2, sub-ch. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2373; GS 3198; RGS 5028; CGL 7130.

779.03 Combination to usurp government.—If two or more persons shall combine by force to usurp the government of this state, or to overturn the same, or interfere forcibly in the administration of the government or any department thereof, the person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years.

History.—§5, sub-ch. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2374; GS 3199; RGS 5029; CGL 7131.

779.04 Combination against part of the people of the state.—If two or more persons shall combine to levy war against any part of the people of this state, or to remove them forcibly out of this state, or to remove them from their habitations to any other part of the state by force, or shall assemble for that purpose, every person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§6, sub-ch. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2375; GS 3200; RGS 5030; CGL 7132.

779.05 Inciting insurrection.—If any person shall incite an insurrection or sedition amongst any portion or class of the population of this state, or shall attempt by writing, speaking or by any other means to incite such insurrection or sedition, the person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding twenty years.

779.06 Definitions.—As used in §§779.06-779.19:

"Highway" includes any private or public street, way or other place used for travel to or from property.

"Highway commissioners" means any individual, board or other body having authority under then existing law to discontinue the use of the highway which it is desired to restrict or close to public use and travel.

"Public utility" includes any pipe line, gas, electric, heat, water, oil, sewer, telephone, telegraph, radio, railway, railroad, airplane, transportation, communication or other system, by whomsoever owned or operated for public use.

History.—§1, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.07 Intentional injury to or interference with property.—Whoever intentionally destroys, impairs, injures, interferes or tampers with real or personal property and such act hinders, delays or interferes with the preparation of the United States or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or of any of the states for defense or for war, or with the prosecution of war by the United States, shall be punished by death, or by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than twenty years; provided, if such person so acts with the intent to hinder, delay or interfere with the preparation of the United States or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or of any of the states for defense or for war, or with the prosecution of war by the United States, the minimum punishment shall be in the state prison for not less than one year.

History.—§2, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.08 Intentionally defective workmanship.—Whoever intentionally makes or causes to be made or omits to note on inspection any defect in any article or thing with reasonable grounds to believe that such article or thing is intended to be used in connection with the preparation of the United States or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or any of the states for defense or for war, or for the prosecution of war

by the United States, or that such article or thing is one of a number of similar articles or things, some of which are intended so to be used, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years, or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or both; provided, if such person so acts or so fails to act with the intent to hinder, delay or interfere with the preparation of the United States or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or of any of the states for defense or for war, or with the prosecution of war by the United States, the minimum punishment shall be imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year.

History.—§3, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.09 Attempts.—Whoever attempts to commit any of the crimes defined by this law shall be liable to one-half the punishment by imprisonment, or by fine, or both, as prescribed in §779.08 hereof. In addition to the acts which constitute an attempt to commit a crime under the law of this state, the solicitation or incitement of another to commit any of the crimes defined by this law not followed by the commission of the crime, the collection or assemblage of any materials with the intent that the same are to be used then or at a later time in the commission of such crime, or the entry, with or without permission, of a building, enclosure or other premises of another with the intent to commit any such crime therein or thereon shall constitute an attempt to commit such crime.

History.—§4, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.10 Conspirators.—If two or more persons conspire to commit any crime defined by this law, each of such persons is guilty of conspiracy and subject to the same punishment as if he had committed the crime which he conspired to commit, whether or not any act be done in furtherance of the conspiracy. It shall not constitute any defense or ground of suspension of judgment, sentence or punishment on behalf of any person prosecuted under this section, that any of his fellow conspirators has been acquitted, has not been arrested or convicted, is not amenable to justice or has been pardoned or otherwise discharged before or after conviction.

History.—§5, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.11 Witnesses' privileges.—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any books, papers, or other documents before any court, magistrate, referee or grand jury upon any investigation, proceeding or trial, for or relating to or concerned with a violation of any section of this law or attempt to commit such violation, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise required by the state may tend to convict him of a crime or to subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him, upon any criminal investigation, proceeding or trial, except upon a prosecution for perjury or contempt of court, based upon the giving or producing of such testimony.

History.—§6, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.12 Unlawful entry on property.—Any individual, partnership, association, corporation, municipal corporation or state or any political subdivision thereof engaged in, or preparing to engage in, the manufacture, transportation or storage of any product to be used in the preparation of the United States, or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations, or of any of the states for defense or for war or in the prosecution of war by the United States, or the manufacture, transportation, distribution or storage of gas, oil, coal, electricity or water, or any of said natural or artificial persons operating any public utility, whose property, except where it fronts on water or where there are entrances for railway cars, vehicles, persons or things, is surrounded by a fence or wall, or a fence or wall and buildings, may post around his or its property at each gate, entrance, dock or railway entrance and every one hundred feet of water front a sign reading "No Entry Without Permission." Whoever without permission of such owner shall willfully enter upon premises so posted shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten days, or a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or both.

History.—§7, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.13 Questioning and detaining suspected persons.—Any peace officer or any other person employed as watchman, guard, or in a supervisory capacity on premises posted as provided in §779.12 may stop any person found on any premises to which entry without permission is forbidden by §779.12 and may detain him for the purpose of demanding, and may demand, of him his name, address and business in such place. If said peace officer or employee has reason to believe from the answers of the person so interrogated that such person has no right to be in such place, said peace officer shall forthwith release such person or he may arrest such person without a warrant on the charge of violating the provisions of §779.12; and said employee shall forthwith release such person or turn him over to a peace officer, who may arrest him without a warrant on the charge of violating the provisions of §779.12.

History.—§8, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.14 Closing and restricting use of highway.—Any individual, partnership, association, corporation, municipal corporation or state or any political subdivision thereof engaged in or preparing to engage in the manufacture, transportation or storage of any product to be used in the preparation of the United States, or of any country with which the United States shall then maintain friendly relations or any of the states for defense or for war or in the prosecution of war by the United States, or in the manufacture, transportation, distribution or storage of gas, oil, coal, electricity or water, or any of said natural or artificial persons operating any public utility, who has property so used which he or it believes will be endangered if public use and travel is not restricted or prohibited on one or more highways or parts thereof upon which such property abuts, may petition the highway commissioners of any city, town or county to close one or more of said highways or parts thereof to public use and travel or to restrict by order the use and travel upon one or more of said highways or parts thereof.

Upon receipt of such petition, the highway commissioners shall set a day for hearing and give notice thereof by publication in a newspaper having general circulation in the city, town or county in which such property is located, such notice to be at least seven days prior to the date set for hearing. If after hearing the highway commissioners determine that the public safety and the safety of the property of the petitioner so require, they shall by suitable order close to public use and travel or reasonably restrict the use of and travel upon one or more of said highways or parts thereof; provided, the highway commissioners may issue written permits to travel over the highways so closed or restricted to responsible and reputable persons for such term, under such conditions and in such form as said commissioners may prescribe. Appropriate notices in letters at least three inches high shall be posted conspicuously at each end of any highway so closed or restricted by such order. The highway commissioners may at any time revoke or modify any order so made.

History.—§9, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.15 Penalty for going upon closed or restricted highway.—Whoever violates any order made under §779.14 shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten days, or a fine of not more than fifty dollars, or both.

History.—§10, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.16 Rights of labor.—Nothing in this law shall be construed to impair, curtail or destroy the rights of employes and their representatives to self-organization, to form, join, or assist labor organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing, and to engage in concerted activities, for the purpose of collective bargaining or other mutual aid or protection.

History.—§11, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.17 Relation to other statutes.—All laws and parts of laws inconsistent with §§779.06-779.20 are hereby suspended in their application to any proceedings under said sections. If conduct prohibited by said sections is also made unlawful by another or other laws, the offender may be convicted for the violation of said sections or of any other law or laws.

History.—§14, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.18 Construction.—§§779.06-779.20 shall be construed to the end that the greatest force and effect may be given to its provisions for the promotion of national and state safety.

History.—§15, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.19 Effective period of law.—All orders made under the provisions of §§779.06-779.20 shall be in full force until May 15, 1945, and thereafter whenever the United States is at war; provided, any violation of said sections, committed while they are in force, may be prosecuted and punished thereafter, whether or not said sections are in force at the time of such prosecution and punishment.

History.—§16, ch. 20252, 1941.

779.20 Short title.—§§779.06-779.20 may be cited as the Florida sabotage prevention law.

History.—§18, ch. 20252, 1941.

- 782.07 Manslaughter.
- 782.08 Assisting self-murder.
- 782.09 Killing of unborn child by injury to mother.

782.01 Homicide generally.—The killing of a human being is either justifiable or excusable homicide, or murder or manslaughter, according to the facts and circumstances of each case.

History.—§1, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2377; GS 3202; RGS 5032; CGL 7134.

782.02 Justifiable homicide.—Homicide is justifiable when committed by public officers and those acting by their command in their aid and assistance, either in obedience to any judgment of a competent court, or when necessarily committed in overcoming actual resistance to the execution of some legal process, or in the discharge of any other legal duty, or when necessarily committed in retaking felons who may have been rescued or who have escaped, or when necessarily committed in arresting felons fleeing from justice.

Homicide is justifiable when committed by any person in either of the following cases: (1) When resisting any attempt to murder such person, or to commit any felony upon him, or upon or in any dwelling house in which such person shall be; or (2) when committed in the lawful defense of such person of his or her husband, wife, parent, grandparent, mother-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, child, grandchild, sister, brother, uncle, aunt, niece, nephew, guardian, ward, master, mistress or servant, when there shall be a reasonable ground to apprehend a design to commit a felony or to do some great personal injury, and there shall be imminent danger of such design being accomplished; or (3) when necessarily committed in attempting by lawful ways and means to apprehend any person for any felony committed, or in lawfully suppressing any riot, or in lawfully keeping and preserving the peace.

History.—§§4, 5, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2378; ch. 4967, 1901; §1, ch. 4964, 1901; GS 3203; RGS 5033; CGL 7135.

782.03 Excusable homicide.—Homicide is excusable when committed by accident and misfortune in lawfully correcting a child or servant, or in doing any other lawful act by lawful means with usual ordinary caution, and without any unlawful intent, or by accident and misfortune in the heat of passion, upon any sudden and sufficient provocation, or upon a sudden combat, without any dangerous weapon

782.08 Assisting self-murder.—Every person deliberately assisting another in the commission of self-murder shall be guilty of manslaughter.

History.—§9, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2385; GS 3210; RGS 5040; CGL 7142.

782.09 Killing of unborn child by injury to mother.—The willful killing of an unborn quick child, by any injury to the mother of such child which would be murder if it resulted in the death of such mother, shall be deemed manslaughter.

History.—§10, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2386; GS 3211; RGS 5041; CGL 7143.

782.10 Abortion.—Every person who shall administer to any woman pregnant with a quick child any medicine, drug or substance whatever, or shall use or employ any instrument or other means, with intent thereby to destroy such child, unless the same shall have been necessary to preserve the life of such mother, or shall have been advised by two physicians to be necessary for such purpose, shall, in case the death of such child or of such mother be thereby produced, be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

cf.—§797.01, Performing abortion.

782.11 Unnecessary killing to prevent unlawful act.—Whoever shall unnecessarily kill another, either while resisting an attempt by such other person to commit any felony, or to do any other unlawful act, or after such attempt shall have failed, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

History.—§13, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2388; GS 3213; RGS 5043; CGL 7145.

782.12 Killing by mischievous animal.—If the owner of a mischievous animal, knowing its propensities, shall willfully suffer it to go at large, or shall keep it without ordinary care, and such animal while so at large or not confined kills any human being, who shall have taken all the precautions which the circumstances may permit to avoid such animal, such owner shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

History.—§16, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2389; GS 3214; RGS 5044; CGL 7146.

782.13 Drowning in overloaded vessel.—Any person navigating any boat or vessel for gain who shall willfully or negligently receive so many passengers or such a quantity of loading, that by reason thereof such boat or vessel shall sink or overset, and thereby any human being shall be drowned or otherwise killed, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

History.—§17, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2390; GS 3215; RGS 5045; CGL 7147.

782.14 Death from racing steamboat.—If the captain or any other person having charge of any steamboat used for the conveyance of passengers, or if the engineer or other person having charge of the boiler of such boat or of any other apparatus for the generation of steam, shall, from ignorance or gross negligence, or for the purpose of excelling any other boat in speed, create or allow to be created such an undue quantity of steam as to burst or break the boiler or other apparatus in which it shall be generated, or any apparatus or machinery connected therewith, by which bursting or breaking any person shall be killed, every such captain, engineer or other person, shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

History.—§18, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2391; GS 3216; RGS 5046; CGL 7148.

782.15 Killing by intoxicated physician.—If any physician, while in a state of intoxication, shall without a design to effect death, administer any poison, drug or medicine, or do any other act to another person which shall produce the death of such other person, he shall be deemed guilty of manslaughter.

History.—§19, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2392; GS 3217; RGS 5047; CGL 7149.

782.16 Concealing death of bastard child.—If any woman conceals the death of any issue of her body, which if born alive would be a bastard, so that it may not be known whether such child was born alive or not, or whether or not it was murdered, she shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§11, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2393; GS 3218; RGS 5048; CGL 7150.

782.17 Indictment and verdict.—Any woman indicted for the murder of her infant bastard child may also be charged in the same indictment with the offense described in §782.16 and if upon the trial she be acquitted of the murder, she may be found guilty of the concealment.

History.—§12, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2394; GS 3219; RGS 5049; CGL 7151.

790.04 Indictments, where tried.—All indictments or informations mentioned in §790.03 shall be by the clerk of the circuit court transmitted and certified to the county judge for trial, except in counties where criminal courts of record and county courts have been established. In such counties all such indictments and informations shall be transmitted and certified to criminal courts of record or to the county court for trial.

History.—§2, ch. 4926, 1901; GS 3265; RGS 5098; CGL 7200.

790.05 Penalty for carrying pistol or repeating rifle without first obtaining license.—Whoever shall carry around with him, or have in his manual possession, in any county in this state, any pistol, winchester rifle or other repeating rifle, without having a license from the county commissioners of the respective counties of this state, shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days; provided, this section shall not apply to sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, city or town marshals, policemen, constables or United States marshals or their deputies as to the carrying of concealed weapons.

History.—§1, ch. 4147, 1893; §1, ch. 4923, 1901; GS 3267; RGS 5100; CGL 7202.

790.06 How license procured.—The county commissioners of the respective counties of this state may at any regular or special meeting grant a license to carry a pistol, winchester or other repeating rifle, only to such persons as are over the age of twenty-one years and of good moral character, for a period of two years, upon such person giving a bond payable to the governor of the state in the sum of one hundred dollars, conditioned for the proper and legitimate use of said weapons, with sureties to be approved by the county commissioners. The commissioners shall keep a record of the names of the persons taking out such a license, the name of the maker of the firearm so licensed to be carried, and the caliber and number of the same.

History.—§2, ch. 4147, 1893; §1, ch. 5139, 1908; GS 3268; RGS 5101; CGL 7203.

790.07 Persons engaged in criminal offense, having weapons.—Whoever, when lawfully arrested while committing a criminal offense or a breach or disturbance of the public peace, is armed with or has on his person any slung shot, metallic knuckles, billies, firearms or other dangerous weapon, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§10, sub-ch. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2423; §2, ch. 4124, 1893; GS 3269; RGS 5102; CGL 7204.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

790.08 Taking possession of weapons and arms; disposition; custody.—

(1) Every officer making an arrest under the preceding section, or under any other law or municipal ordinance within the state, shall take possession of any weapons or arms mentioned in the preceding section, found upon the person arrested and deliver them to the sheriff of the county, or the chief of police of the municipality wherein the arrest is made, who shall retain the same until after the trial of the person arrested.

(2) If the person arrested as aforesaid be convicted of violating §790.07, or of a similar offense under any municipal ordinance, or any other offense involving the use or attempted use of such weapons or arms, such weapons or arms shall become forfeited to the state, without any order of forfeiture being necessary although the making of such an order shall be deemed proper, and shall be forthwith delivered by the sheriff or chief of police having custody thereof to the adjutant general of the military department of the state, who is hereby made the custodian of such weapons and arms for the state.

(3) If the person arrested as aforesaid be acquitted of the offenses mentioned in the preceding subsection, the said weapons or arms taken from him as aforesaid shall be returned to him; provided, however, if he fails to call for or receive the same within sixty days from and after his acquittal or the dismissal of the charges against him, the same shall be delivered to the adjutant general as aforesaid to be held by him as hereinafter provided. This subsection shall likewise apply to persons and their weapons who have heretofore been acquitted or the charges against them dismissed.

(4) All such weapons and arms now in, or hereafter coming into, the hands of any of the peace officers of this state or any of its political subdivisions, which have been found abandoned or otherwise discarded, or left in their hands and not reclaimed by the owners shall, within sixty days, be delivered by such peace officer to the adjutant general as aforesaid.

(5) Weapons and arms coming into the hands of the adjutant general pursuant to subsections (3) and (4) aforesaid shall, unless reclaimed by the owner thereof within six months from the date the same come into the hands of the said adjutant general, become forfeited to the state and no action or proceeding for their recovery shall thereafter be maintained in this state.

(6) Weapons and arms coming into the hands of the adjutant general as aforesaid shall be listed, kept and held by him as custodian for the state. Any or all of such arms suitable for use by the military department of the state may be so used under the direction of the adjutant general; and all such weapons and arms not needed by the said military department may be loaned to other departments of the state, or to any county or municipality having use for such weapons and arms. The adjutant general shall take the receipt of such other state department, county or municipality for such weapons and arms loaned to them. All weapons and arms which are not needed and are useless or unfit for use shall be destroyed or otherwise disposed of under the direction of the adjutant general, who shall make and preserve a list of such weapons destroyed or otherwise disposed of.

790.09 Manufacturing or selling slung shot.

—Whoever manufactures or causes to be manufactured, or sells or exposes for sale any instrument or weapon of the kind usually known as slung shot, or metallic knuckles, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§11, sub-ch. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2425; §3, ch. 4124, 1893; GS 3271; RGS 5104; CGL 7206.

790.10 Improper exhibition of dangerous weapons.—If any person having or carrying any dirk, dirk-knife, sword, sword-cane, gun, pistol or other deadly weapon, shall in the presence of one or more persons exhibit the same in a rude, careless, angry or threatening manner, not in necessary self-defense, the person so offending shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 4532, 1897; GS 3272; RGS 5105; CGL 7207.

790.11 Carrying firearms in national forests prohibited.—No person without first having obtained a valid hunting license, and within the season covered by such hunting license, shall carry on or about his person, or in any vehicle in which such person may be riding, or on any animal which such person may be using, within the limits of a national forest area within the state, any gun or firearm of any description whatever, without first having obtained a permit as hereinafter prescribed; provided, that the provisions of §§790.11, 790.12 and 790.14 shall not apply to the Choc-tawhatchee national forest.

History.—§1, ch. 17911, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7203(5).

790.12 Permit may be granted by county commissioners.—The board of county commissioners of the county, or counties, where such national forest area is located, may grant special permit for the carrying of firearms to be specifically described in such permit, when the granting of such permit shall have been recommended in writing by the officer or employee of the United States government in charge of such national forest area; and where such area lies in more than one county, such permit must be granted by the board of county commissioners of each of the several counties involved before the same shall be valid.

History.—§2, ch. 17911, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 7203(6).

790.14 Penalty for violation of §§790.11 and 790.12.—Any person violating the provisions of §§790.11 and 790.12 shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not to exceed six months.

cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

790.15 Discharging firearms in public.—Any person who discharges firearms in any public place or on any paved public road, highway or street or whosoever knowingly discharges any firearms over any paved public road, highway or street or occupied premises, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months or by fine not exceeding $500.00 or both. This section shall not apply to a person lawfully defending life or property or performing official duties requiring the discharge of firearms.

cf.—Ch. 16,249 acts 1933, Discharging firearms upon Tamiami Trail.

790.16 Throwing bombs; discharging machine guns; penalty.—It is unlawful for any person to throw any bomb or to shoot or discharge any machine guns upon, across or along any road, street or highway in the state, or upon or across any public park in the state, or in, upon or across any public place where people are accustomed to assemble in the state. The casting of such bomb or the discharge of such machine gun in, upon or across such public street, or in, upon or across such public park, or in, upon or across such public place, whether indoors or outdoors, including all theatres and athletic stadiums, with intent to do bodily harm to any person or with intent to do damage to the property of any person, shall be a felony and shall be punishable by death.

This section shall not apply to the use of such bombs or machine guns by any United States or state militia, or by any sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, marshals, constables, chief of police or police officer while in the discharge of their lawful duty in suppressing riots and disorderly conduct, and in preserving and protecting the public peace or in the preservation of public property, or where said use shall be authorized by law.

A majority of the jurors trying said cause may in their discretion recommend the defendant to the mercy of the court in which event the penalty shall be changed from death to life imprisonment.

The circuit judge before whom said cause shall be tried, should he deem the circumstances under which said offense was committed of such nature and character as to justify clemency, may, in his discretion, change the penalty from death to imprisonment in the penitentiary for life.

cf.—§822.02, Throwing explosive with intent to injure building.

790.161 Throwing, placing or discharging any bomb or other deadly explosive or attempt so to do, felony; penalties.—It shall be unlawful for any person to throw, place, discharge, or attempt to discharge any bomb, dynamite, or other deadly explosive with intent to do bodily harm to any person or with intent to do damage to the property of any person and any person convicted thereof shall be guilty of a felony and punished in the following manner:

(1) When such action, or attempt at such action, results in the death of the person intended, or any person, the person so convicted of such felony shall be punished by death, unless a majority of the jurors trying said cause shall request mercy, in which event the penalty shall be changed from death to life imprisonment in the state prison.

(2) When such action, or attempt at such action, results not in the death of any person, but does result in personal injury to a person or in damage to the property of any person, the person convicted of such felony shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for life, or for any number of years not less than twenty years.

History.—§1, ch. 59-29.

790.162 Threat to throw, place or discharge bomb or other deadly explosive, felony; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person to threaten to throw, place, or discharge any bomb, dynamite, or other deadly explosive with intent to do bodily harm to any person or with intent to do damage to any property of any person and any person convicted thereof shall be guilty of a felony and punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than twenty years.

History.—§2, ch. 59-29.

790.163 False reports of bombing, etc., felony; penalty.—It shall be unlawful for any person to make a false report, with intent to deceive, mislead, or otherwise misinform any person, concerning the placing or planting of any bomb, dynamite, or other deadly explosive and any person convicted thereof shall be guilty of a felony and punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than ten years.

History.—§3, ch. 59-29.

790.17 Furnishing weapons to minors, etc.—Whoever sells, hires, barter, lends or gives any minor under sixteen years of age any pistol, dirk, or other arm or weapon, other than an ordinary pocket knife, or a gun or rifle used for hunting, without permission of the parent of such minor, or the person having charge of such minor, or sells, hires, barter, lends or gives to any person of unsound mind any dangerous weapon, other than an ordinary pocket knife, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 3285, 1881; RS 2684; GS 3627; RGS 5553; CGL 7744.

790.18 Selling arms to minors by dealers.—It is unlawful for any dealer in arms to sell to minors any pistol, Springfield rifle or other repeating rifle, bowie knife or dirk knife, brass knuckles or sling shot, and every person violating this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of fifty dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months.

History.—§11, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 5559; CGL 7745.

790.19 Shooting into or throwing deadly missiles into dwellings, public or private buildings, occupied or not occupied; vessels, aircraft, buses, railroad cars, street cars or other vehicles.—Whoever, wantonly or maliciously shoots at, within, or into, or throws any missile which would produce death or great bodily harm, at, within, or in any public or private building, occupied or unoccupied, or public or private buses, or any railroad car or locomotive, street car, or vehicle of any kind which is being used or occupied by any person, or any boat, vessel, ship or barge lying in or plying the waters of this state, or aircraft flying through the air space of this state, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than ten years or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than five years, or by fine not more than five thousand dollars.

History.—§2, ch. 3281, 1881; RS 2696; §§1, 2, ch. 4987, 1901; §§1, 2, ch. 4988, 1901; GS 3628; RGS 5560; CGL 7746. §1, ch. 59-458.

790.21 Duty of sheriff in such cases.—Any sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable of any county where a river or water is the dividing line between two counties, or of such county in which the violation occurred, may board any passenger boat, with or without warrant, if he has reason to believe that any person on board said passenger boat has violated any of the provisions of the preceding section, and take into his custody any and all persons violating or who have violated any of the provisions thereof. Said sheriff, deputy sheriff or constable shall as soon as practical thereafter appear before the proper court and cause a formal charge to be made. The trial of any persons violating the provisions of said section may be had in the county wherein the arrest was made.

cf.—§11, Declaration of rights, Florida constitution.

790.22 Use of BB guns and rifles by child under sixteen; limitation.—

(1) The use for any purpose whatsoever of BB guns, air rifles, and 22-calibre rifles by any child under the age of sixteen years is prohibited unless such use is under the supervision and in the presence of an adult.

(2) Any adult responsible for the welfare of any child under the age of sixteen years who knowingly permits such child to use or have in his possession any BB gun, air rifle, or 22-calibre rifle in violation of the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not longer than thirty days.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 26946, 1951.

790.23 Felons; possession of firearms unlawful; exception; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person who has been convicted of a felony in the courts of this state, or convicted of an offense in any other state, territory or country which if committed in Florida would be deemed a felony, to own or to have in his care, custody, possession or control any pistol, sawed-off rifle or sawed-off shotgun. A sawed-off rifle or sawed-off shotgun is defined for the purposes of this section as being any rifle or shotgun with a caliber greater than twenty-two caliber and with a barrel less than sixteen inches long.

(2) This section shall not apply to a person having been convicted of a felony whose civil rights have been restored.

(3) Any person convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 29766, 1955; §1, ch. 63-31.

790.24 Report of medical treatment of gunshot wounds; penalty for violation.—Any physician, nurse or employee thereof and any employee of a hospital, sanitarium, clinic, or nursing home knowingly treating any person suffering from a gunshot wound or other wound indicating violence, or receiving a request for such treatment shall report the same immediately to the sheriff's department of the county in which said treatment is administered or request therefor received. Any such person willfully failing to report such treatment or request therefor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for a period not to exceed six months or by fine not to exceed one hundred dollars.

SALE OF FIREWORKS

791.01 Fireworks defined.

791.02 Sale of fireworks regulated; rules and regulations.

791.03 Bond of licensees.

791.01 Fireworks defined.—

(1) The term "fireworks" shall mean and include any combustible or explosive composition, or any substance or combination of substances, or, except as hereinafter provided, any article prepared for the purpose of producing a visible or an audible effect by combustion, explosion, deflagration or detonation, and shall include blank cartridges and toy cannons in which explosives are used, the type of balloons which require fire underneath to propel the same, firecrackers, torpedoes, skyrockets, roman candles, daygo bombs, and any fireworks containing any explosives or flammable compound or any tablets or other device containing any explosive substance.

(2) The term "fireworks" shall not include sparklers, toy pistols, toy canes, toy guns, or other devices in which paper caps containing twenty-five hundredths grains or less of explosive compound are used, providing they are so constructed that the hand cannot come in contact with the cap when in place for the explosion, and toy pistol paper caps which contain less than twenty hundredths grains of explosive mixture, the sale and use of which shall be permitted at all times.

History.—§1, ch. 20445, 1941; §1, ch. 57-338.

791.02 Sale of fireworks regulated; rules and regulations.—Except as hereinafter provided it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, co-partnership or corporation to offer for sale, expose for sale, sell at retail, or use or explode any fireworks; provided that the board of county commissioners shall have power to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the granting of permits for supervised public display of fireworks by fair associations, amusement parks, and other organizations or groups of individuals when such public display is to take place outside of any municipality; provided, further, that the governing body of any municipality shall have power to adopt reasonable rules and regulations for the granting of permits for supervised public display of fireworks within the boundaries of any municipality. Every such display shall be handled by a competent operator to be approved by the chiefs of the police and fire departments of the municipality in which the display is to be held, and shall be of such a character, and so located, discharged or fired as in the opinion of the chief of the fire department, after proper inspection, shall not be hazardous to property or endanger any person. Application for permits shall be made in writing at least fifteen days in advance of the date of the display. After such privilege shall have been granted, sales, possession, use and distribution of fireworks for such display shall be lawful for that purpose only. No permit granted hereunder shall be transferable.

History.—§2, ch. 20445, 1941; §1, ch. 61-312.

791.03 Bond of licensees.—The board of county commissioners shall require a bond deemed adequate by the board of county commissioners from the licensee in a sum not less than five hundred dollars conditioned for the payment of all damages which may be caused either to a person or to property by reason of the licensee's display, and arising from any acts of the licensee, his agents, employees or subcontractors.

History.—§3, ch. 20445, 1941; §1, ch. 61-312.

791.04 Sale at wholesale, etc., exempted.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit any resident wholesaler, dealer, or jobber to sell at wholesale such fireworks as are not herein prohibited; or the sale of any kind of fireworks provided the same are to be shipped directly out of state; or are to be used by a person holding a permit from any board of county commissioners at the display covered by such permit, or the use of fireworks by railroads or other transportation agencies for signal purposes or illumination or when used in quarrying or for blasting or other industrial use, or the sale or use of blank cartridges for a show or theatre, or for signal or ceremonial purposes in athletics or sports, or for use by military organizations, or organizations composed of the armed forces of the United States; provided, nothing in this chapter shall be construed as barring the operations of manufacturers, duly licensed, from manufacturing, experimenting, exploding and storing such fireworks in their compounds or proving grounds.

History.—§4, ch. 20445, 1941; §1, ch. 61-312.

791.05 Seizure of illegal fireworks.—Each sheriff, or his appointee, or any other police officer, shall seize, take, remove or cause to be removed at the expense of the owner, all stocks of fireworks or combustibles offered or exposed for sale, stored, or held in violation of this chapter.

History.—§5, ch. 20445, 1941.

791.06 Penalties.—Any person, firm, co-partnership, or corporation violating the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or in the case of individuals, the members of a partnership and the responsible officers and agents of an association or corporation, by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§6, ch. 20445, 1941.

791.07 Agricultural and fish hatchery use.— Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit the importation, purchase, sale or use of firecrackers used or to be used solely and exclusively in frightening birds from agricultural works and fish hatcheries and such use shall be governed entirely by the rules and regulations prescribed by the commissioner of agriculture.

History.—§1, ch. 29780, 1955; §1, ch. 57-336.

CHAPTER 794

RAPE

794.01 Rape and forcible carnal knowledge; penalty.

794.02 Capability to be determined by the jury.

794.03 Unlawful to publish name of female raped, etc.

794.01 Rape and forcible carnal knowledge; penalty.—Whoever ravishes and carnally knows a female of the age of ten years or more, by force and against her will, or unlawfully or carnally knows and abuses a female child under the age of ten years, shall be punished by death, unless a majority of the jury in their verdict recommend mercy, in which event punishment shall be by imprisonment in the state prison for life, or for any term of years within the discretion of the judge. It shall not be necessary to prove the actual emission of seed, but the crime shall be deemed complete upon proof of penetration only.

History.—§40, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2396; GS 3221; RGS 5051; CGL 7153; am. §1, ch. 24285, 1947. cf.—§741.22, Incest; §§801.02, 801.03, Child molester law.

794.02 Capability to be determined by the jury.—The common law rule "that a boy under fourteen years of age is conclusively presumed to be incapable of committing the crime of rape" shall not be in force in the state; the capability of a person to commit the crime of rape shall be determined by the jury.

History.—§1, ch. 4964, 1901; GS 3222; RGS 5052; CGL 7154.

794.03 Unlawful to publish name of female raped, etc.—No person shall print and publish or cause to be printed and published in any newspaper, magazine, periodical or any other publication in the state the name or identity of any female raped or upon whom an assault with intent to commit rape has been committed or may be committed.

fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the judge.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 21662, 1943.

796.06 Prostitution, etc.; renting space.—

(1) After May 1, 1943, it shall be unlawful to let or rent any place, structure or part thereof, trailer or other conveyance, with the knowledge that such place, structure, trailer or conveyance will be used for the purpose of lewdness, assignation or prostitution.

(2) Anyone violating this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the judge.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 21663, 1943 and §§1, 2, ch. 22025, 1943.

796.07 Prohibiting prostitution, etc.; evidence; penalties.—

(1) As used in this section, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) The term "prostitution" shall be construed to include the giving or receiving of the body for sexual intercourse for hire, and shall also be construed to include the giving or receiving of the body for licentious sexual intercourse without hire.

(b) The term "lewdness" shall be construed to include any indecent or obscene act.

(c) The term "assignation" shall be construed to include the making of any appointment or engagement for prostitution or lewdness or any act in furtherance of such appointment or engagement.

(d) The term "prostitution" as used in paragraph (a) shall be construed so as to exclude sexual intercourse between a husband and his wife.

(2) After May 1, 1943, it shall be unlawful in the state:

(a) To keep, set up, maintain or operate any place, structure, building or conveyance for the purpose of lewdness, assignation or prostitution.

(b) To offer, or to offer or agree to secure, another for the purpose of prostitution, or for any other lewd or indecent act.

(c) To receive, or to offer or agree to receive, any person into any place, structure, building or conveyance for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness or assignation, or to permit any person to remain there for such purpose.

(d) To direct, take or transport, or to offer or agree to take or transport, any person to any place, structure or building, or to any other person, with knowledge or reasonable cause to believe that the purpose of such directing, taking or transporting is prostitution, lewdness or assignation.

(3) It shall further be unlawful in the state:

(a) To offer to commit, or to commit, or to engage in, prostitution, lewdness or assignation.

(b) To solicit, induce, entice or procure another to commit prostitution, lewdness or assignation with himself or herself.

(c) To reside in, enter or remain in, any place, structure or building, or to enter or remain in any conveyance, for the purpose of prostitution, lewdness or assignation.

(d) To aid, abet or participate in the doing of any of the acts or things enumerated in subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(4) In the trial of any persons charged with the violation of any of the provisions of this section, testimony concerning the reputation of any place, structure, building or conveyance involved in said charge, and of the person or persons who reside in, operate or frequent the same, and of the defendant, shall be admissible in evidence in support of the charge.

(5) Any person who shall violate any provision of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§§1-5, ch. 21664, 1943.

801.01 Short title.—This chapter shall be known as the "child molester act."

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26843, 1951.

801.02 Definitions.—An offense under the provisions of this chapter shall include attempted rape, sodomy, attempted sodomy, crimes against nature, attempted crimes against nature, lewd and lascivious behavior, incest and attempted incest, assault (when a sexual act is completed or attempted) and assault and battery (when a sexual act is completed or attempted), when said acts are committed against, to, or with a person fourteen years of age or under.

History.—§2, ch. 26843, 1951; am. §1, ch. 28158, 1953.
Am. §1, ch. 29923, 1955; §1, ch. 57-1990.

801.03 Powers and duties of judge after convictions.—

(1) When any person has been convicted of an offense within the meaning of this chapter, it shall be within the power and jurisdiction of the trial judge to:

(a) Sentence said person to a term of years not to exceed twenty-five years in the state prison at Raiford.

(b) Commit such person for treatment and rehabilitation to the Florida state hospital, or to the hospital or the state institution to which he would be sent as provided by law because of his age or color provided the hospital or institution possesses a maximum security facility as prescribed by the board of commissioners of state institutions. When, as provided for in this law, there shall have been created and established a Florida research and treatment center then the trial judge shall, instead of committing a person to the Florida state hospital, commit such person instead to the Florida research and treatment center. In any such case the court may, in its discretion, stay further criminal proceedings or defer the imposition of sentence pending the discharge of such person from further treatment in accordance with the procedure as outlined in this chapter.

(2) When a person has been convicted of an offense within the meaning of this chapter and the trial judge shall determine to follow the procedure prescribed in subsection (1) (b), the trial judge shall order a psychiatric and psychological examination and require written reports on the person so convicted prior to committing said person or passing sentence on said person. In the event said person is committed under subsection (1) (b), the clerk of the court where such commitment is made shall transmit certified copies of the examiners' reports to each of the following: The superintendent of the Florida state prison, the chief psychiatrist of the Florida research and treatment center, the chairman of the Florida mental health staff board of review and the board of commissioners of state institutions.

(3) When a person has been committed to an institution for treatment under the provisions of this chapter and the superintendent of such institution certifies to the committing court that such person is not insane and further that institution has exhausted its curative abilities upon such person, such person shall be returned to the committing court for further disposition of his case by said court. The superintendent of such institution shall also return with said committed person all records and data pertaining to said person. The superintendent of such institution shall make to the committing court in such cases a report on the treatment received by such person while in the institution. Said report shall contain a diagnosis of the person's condition, a prognosis and the report of the superintendent of such institution as to whether or not such person is dangerous to society.

History.—§§ 3, 4, ch. 26843, 1951; sub. §§ (1) (a), (2) am. § § 2, 3, ch. 28158, sub. § (3) comp. §6, ch. 28158, 1953; (1) (b) and (2) by §2, ch. 57-1990.
cf.—§965.01 Creation of divisions of correction and mental health.

801.04 Court to designate psychiatrist; reports.—Psychiatric and psychological examinations and written reports on a defendant shall be made by a psychiatrist and clinical psychologist designated by the court, provided, however, that where possible said psychiatrist shall have had not less than five years exclusive practice in the diagnosis and treatment of mental disorders and said psychologist shall have had not less than five years experience in diagnostic testing. Psychiatrists and psychologists with the above qualifications are to be called by the court for examinations within the purview of this chapter wherever possible.

History.—§5, ch. 26843, 1951; §3, ch. 57-1990.

801.05 Requirements of written reports.—

Written reports made for the court under this section shall include the defendant's social history, criminal record, if any, the circumstances of the offense, a physical and mental examination and all facts and findings necessary to assist the judge in passing sentence, including likelihood of repetition of the offense.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 26843, 1951.

801.06 Examinations by psychiatrists; where made.—Psychiatrists and clinical psychologists designated by the court shall forthwith examine the defendant. Examinations may be made in the place where the defendant is detained, or, upon recommendation of the psychiatrist the court may commit the defendant for a reasonable period for observation and examination to another place of detention or to such hospital as may be designated by the psychiatrist. When the defendant is committed to a hospital, the court may require the sheriff of the county where the defendant is tried or other properly constituted officer to furnish sufficient personnel to guard such defendant.

History.—§6, ch. 26843, 1951; §4, ch. 57-1990.

801.07 Examination fees; payment.—Each psychiatrist and clinical psychologist designated to examine a defendant shall receive a reasonable fee for each examination of the defendant which fee shall be fixed by the trial judge, plus reasonable traveling expenses; such fees, traveling expenses and the costs of sending a defendant to another place of detention or to a hospital for examination, and expense of the defendant's maintenance therein and returning him, when approved by the court, shall be a charge on the county in which the defendant is being tried. The county may recover such fees, traveling expense and costs from the estate of the defendant. If a psychiatrist or clinical psychologist employed by the state is designated to examine the defendant, the state shall be entitled to reimbursement by the county wherein the defendant is tried in the reasonable amount fixed by the trial judge for each examination, plus reasonable traveling expenses.

History.—§6, ch. 26843, 1951; §5, ch. 57-1990.

801.08 Execution of judgment may be suspended; probation; requirements.—

(1) The trial judge under whose jurisdiction a conviction is obtained may suspend the execution of judgment and place the defendant upon probation.

(2) The trial court placing a defendant on probation may at any time revoke the order placing such defendant on probation and impose such sentence or commitment as might have been imposed at the time of conviction.

(3) No defendant shall be placed on probation or continue on probation until the court is satisfied that the defendant will take regular psychiatric, psychotherapeutic or counseling help, and the individual helping the defendant shall make written reports at intervals of not more than six months to the court and the probation officer in charge of the case. The costs, fees and charges for treatment of a defendant on probation shall not be a charge of the county where the defendant was tried.

History.—§7, ch. 26843, 1951; sub. §(3) am. §4, ch. 28158, 1953.
(2) by §6, ch. 57-1990.

801.09 Recovery of cost of treatment.—The cost of treatment of a person committed under this chapter and confined in a state institution may be recovered by the state, from the estate, if any, of the defendant.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 26843, 1951.

801.10 Examination; petition for, court order.—When any person is charged with an offense within the purview of this chapter, said person may petition the court for a psychiatric and psychological examination as heretofore set out and the written report shall be filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the offense for the purpose of assisting the court in the trial of the case. The court may, of its own initiative, or upon petition of an interested person, order such examination and report as heretofore set out.

History.—§9, ch. 26843, 1951; §7, ch. 57-1990.

801.101 Examination of complaining witness upon request of defendant.—A defendant may ask the court for a psychiatric-psychological examination of the complaining witness before trial. The court may order such examinations and written reports in accordance with the procedure in §§801.04 and 801.10.

History.—§11, ch. 57-1990.
cf.—§801.16 Florida research and treatment center; treatment of persons not committed under child molester act.

801.11 Committed persons; supervision and treatment.—A chief psychiatrist, chief clinical psychologist and chief psychiatric social worker, comprising a psychiatric-psychological team shall administer and supervise psychotherapy treatments at the Florida research and treatment center of persons committed under this chapter. They shall make recommendations from time to time for extending treatment, improving facilities and they shall conduct research into the nature and causes of psychiatrically deviated sex behavior and criminal sexual psychopathic behavior and into methods for preventing the fashioning of such mental and emotional disorders and into improved methods of treating such mental and emotional disorders. They shall make such recommendations and report the progress of such research to the board of commissioners of state institutions and to the citizens therapy advisory board. The chief psychiatrist shall be in complete charge of the therapy and research programs under the jurisdiction of the board of commissioners of state institutions. The chief psychiatrist and all personnel of the Florida research and treatment center shall serve subject to the approval of the citizens therapy advisory board, as provided for under the terms of this chapter.

History.—§10, ch. 26843, 1951; §8, ch. 57-1990.

801.12 Assignment of psychiatrists, etc.; records, availability. —

(1) A citizens therapy advisory board consisting of the heads of the departments of psychology and psychiatry at Florida state university, university of Florida, and university of Miami, chairmen of the departments or such persons who may be designated from time to time by the said institutions, provided such designated persons shall be approved by the Florida psychological association and/or the Florida psychiatric association shall function as follows: The citizens therapy advisory board shall make recommendations to the board of commissioners of state institutions as to personnel and their compensation to staff the therapy and research team at the treatment center. It shall supervise and evaluate the research program and data and place educational material at the disposal of governmental departments, welfare agencies and such other individuals and organizations as they desire, for preventing the fashioning of psychiatrically deviated sex offenders. It shall recommend research and training course programs. It shall approve the design, furnishings and equipment of the Florida research and treatment center. It shall recommend psychiatric and psychological personnel to the board of commissioners of state institutions for the mental health staff board of review and it shall recommend personnel for special assignments on a temporary or permanent basis. It shall meet with the board of commissioners of state institutions and with the mental health staff board of review at least once annually.

(a) Each member of the citizens therapy advisory board and its secretary shall receive a reasonable daily fee for each meeting, which fee shall be fixed by the board of commissioners of state institutions, plus reasonable traveling expenses.

(b) From the recommendations of the citizens therapy advisory board the board of commissioners of state institutions shall forthwith employ a chief psychiatrist, chief clinical psychologist, chief psychiatric social worker and a secretary for the Florida research and treatment center, and shall appoint for a two year period, and thereafter every two years for a two year period, a psychiatrist and clinical psychologist and secretary to meet with the director of the division of mental health of the state board of health, as hereinafter provided for in this chapter, or a person designated by him, and the three shall comprise the mental health staff board of review. It shall also employ personnel for special assignments as recommended by the citizen therapy advisory board.

(c) Each member of the mental health staff board of review and its secretary shall receive a reasonable daily fee for each meeting, which fee shall be fixed by the board of commissioners of state institutions, plus reasonable traveling expenses.

(d) The director of the division of mental health of the state board of health, or the person designated by him, shall be the chairman of the mental health staff board of review. This board shall meet at least three times annually for considering the release or furlough or continuing treatment of persons receiving treatment at the Florida research and treatment center and for discussion of ways to improve the purpose of the law: namely, protection of society from physical harm, research into the causes of psychiatric sex deviation, methods of preventing such deviation, methods for treating such deviation, methods for informing the community as to dealing with psychiatric sexual deviation. Recommendations for such improvement shall be made to the board of commissioners of state institutions and to the citizens therapy advisory board from time to time.

(e) When considered desirable members of the Florida research and treatment center therapy team may meet with the mental health staff board of review and committed persons may be interviewed by them.

(f) When committed persons are interviewed by the mental health staff board of review, and in regard to security at the Florida research and treatment center the superintendent of the state prison shall be in charge of security. The superintendent of the state prison shall furnish subsistence, food, clothing and housekeeping personnel for the proper operation of the Florida research and treatment center.

(g) Personnel of the Florida research and treatment center therapy team and security personnel shall receive reasonable travel expenses when business of the Florida research and treatment center or carrying out the purpose of the chapter makes travel necessary.

(2) The committing court shall be notified by the superintendent of the state prison and the chief psychiatrist of the Florida research and treatment center of the receipt of the said person and copies of all records of said person committed. The clerk of the court that sentenced the person, the prosecuting attorney and all probation officers having information on such persons shall make such information available to the persons treating said committed persons. The committing court shall be notified by the superintendent or administrative head of the institution or hospital having custody of a person committed under this chapter of the receipt of the said person and copies of all records of said person.

History.—§10, ch. 26843, 1951; sub. §(2) am. §5, ch. 28158, 1953; §9, ch. 57-1990.

801.13 Review of records after commitment.—

(1) The mental health staff board of review shall cause to be brought before them within six months after commitment the complete record of a person committed under the provisions of this chapter for the purpose of considering and for ordering, the release, furlough or further treatment at the Florida research and treatment center of such person, subject to the provisions of this chapter. Thereafter at least once every two years such review shall be made. Upon recommendation of the psychiatrist treating said person or the superintendent of the state prison, said person's record shall be brought for review at any time earlier than the two year period. Prior to the consideration by the mental health staff board of review of a person's record, the Florida research and treatment center therapy team and also a psychiatrist and clinical psychologist other than the ones so treating said person shall make a complete examination and a complete report on said person giving diagnosis, prognosis, and recommendation as to further treatment and consideration of any other factors which would aid the mental health staff board of review in determining the disposition of said person's case. The superintendent of the state prison shall also make a complete report and recommendation concerning factors which would aid the mental health staff board of review in disposing of the said person's case.

(2) The release or furlough procedure provided for under the terms of this chapter shall follow in substance the terms of the procedure practiced by the state mental hospital and the tuberculosis hospital and shall provide for recommitment of persons when necessary for their own or society's protection, their taking outpatient treatment if required, provided no person shall be released or furloughed without the approval of the trial court. Reports from the released and furloughed persons and from sources who are treating outpatients, or caring for them, or from persons otherwise interested shall be sent at regular intervals to the Florida research and treatment center therapy team, the citizens therapy advisory board, the board of commissioners of state institutions, and the mental health staff board of review. The Florida research and treatment center shall have authority to order the proper authorities to recommit or otherwise detain a person not making a good sexual adjustment in the community and the report of such action shall be given to the mental health staff board of review. No person shall be discharged without the approval of the trial court. Any discharged person may be placed on probation at the court's discretion.

History.—§11, ch. 26843, 1951; am. §7, ch. 28158, 1953; §10, ch. 57-1990.

801.141 Sex offenses; publication of name under age sixteen prohibited.—No person shall print, publish, broadcast or televise, or cause to be printed, published, broadcast or televised, in any manner, the name or identity of any unmarried person under the age of sixteen who commits, or is the victim of or who is a witness to or concerning any sex offense. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished according to law.

*History.—*Comp. §1, ch. 29931, 1955.

801.15 Sex offenses; trial person under age sixteen; courtroom cleared; exceptions.—In the trial of any case, civil or criminal, when any person under the age of sixteen is testifying concerning any sex offense, the court shall clear the courtroom of all persons except the parties to the cause and their relatives, attorneys, officers of the court, jurors, if any, newspaper reporters or broadcasters and court reporters, which shall constitute a public trial within the meaning of Sec. 11 of the declaration of rights of the constitution.

*History.—*Comp. §2, ch. 29931, 1955.

801.16 Florida research and treatment center; treatment of persons not committed under child molester act.—

(1) The superintendent of the state prison, the chief psychiatrist and the chief clinical psychologist of the Florida research and treatment center shall act as a board to recommend to the board of commissioners of state institutions such persons other than those committed under this chapter and who are confined at the state prison who would likely benefit in their efforts toward rehabilitation if they received treatment at the Florida research and treatment center. The board of commissioners of state institutions may, upon such recommendation, refer such persons to the Florida research and treatment center for such time as the chief psychiatrist and the chief clinical psychologist deem advisable.

(2) When the said Florida research and treatment center is fully operative in accordance with the purposes of the chapter all non-psychotic and non-mentally defective persons committed to the state hospital under the chapter shall be transferred to the Florida research and treatment center. Any psychotic or mentally defective person committed under the chapter to the said treatment center shall be transferred forthwith to the state hospital upon the request in writing of the chief psychiatrist and chief clinical psychologist of the Florida research and treatment center.

(3) Any person may voluntarily seek the aid of a state's attorney, county solicitor or circuit judge in full confidence of no exposure or publicity, knowing that he has committed or is likely to commit psychiatrically deviated sexual acts, and ask for commitment to the Florida research and treatment center. The court may at its discretion commit such person to the Florida research and treatment center. Such a commitment should not be of a criminal nature. The person so committed shall be subject to the rules of the treatment center while there. The said person shall agree to remain at the said treatment center for at least one year unless the mental health staff board of review releases or furloughs him. After the said person has remained the agreed time he should be allowed to leave after thirty days notice of his intention to the mental health staff board of review. If the patient has made a confession while seeking commitment such confession should not be used to bring him to trial or convict him on a criminal charge. If, however, it can be proved that he sought commitment only to forestall indictment or criminal charges his commitment should be subject to the release, furlough, or continued treatment at the Florida research and treatment center as provided in §801.13.

History.—§11, ch. 57-1990.

- 811.27 Larceny of citrus fruit or trees from groves.
- 811.28 Personal property; presumption.

811.021 Larceny defined; penalties; sufficiency of indictment, information or warrant.—

(a) Takes from the possession of the true owner, or of any other person; or obtains from such person possession by color or aid of fraudulent or false representations or pretense, or of any false token or writing; or obtains the signature of any person to a written instrument, the false making whereof would be punishable as forgery; or secretes, withholds, or appropriates to his own use, or that of any person other than the true owner, any money, personal property, goods and chattels, thing in action, evidence of debt, contract, or property, or article of value of any kind; or

(b) Having in his possession, custody or control, as a broker, bailee, servant, attorney, agent, employee, clerk, trustee, or officer of any person, association, or corporation, member of co-partnership, pool or joint adventure, or as a person authorized by agreement, or by competent authority, to hold or take such possession, custody, or control, any money, personal thing or action, goods and chattels, evidence of debt, contract, property, or article of value of any kind, appropriates the same to his own use, or that of any other person other than the true owner or person entitled to the benefit thereof; or

(c) While acting as executor, administrator, committee, guardian, receiver, collector or trustee of any description, appointed by a deed, will, or other instrument, or by an order or judgment of a court or officer, secretes, withholds or otherwise appropriates to his own use, or that of any person other than the true owner, or person entitled thereto, any money, personal property, goods and chattels, thing in action, evidence of debt, contract, property or article of value of any kind, in his possession or custody by virtue of his office, employment or appointment; steals such property, and is guilty of larceny.

(2) If the property stolen is of the value of one hundred dollars or more, the offender shall be deemed guilty of grand larceny, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding 5 years, or in the county jail not exceeding 12 months, or by fine not exceeding $1,000.00.

(3) If the value of the property stolen as mentioned in the preceding section is less than $100.00 the offender shall be deemed guilty of petit larceny and upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding 6 months or by fine not exceeding $300.00.

(4) Hereafter it shall not be a defense to a prosecution for larceny, or for an attempt or for conspiracy to commit the same, or for being accessory thereto, that the purpose for which the owner was induced by color of aid of fraudulent or false representation or pretense, or of any false token or writing, to part with his property or the possession thereof, was illegal, immoral or unworthy.

(5) It shall be sufficient for any indictment, information or warrant returned, filed or issued under this section to charge generally that the defendant at the time and in the county specified, did steal the personal property, thing in action, evidence of debt or contract or article of value out of which the prosecution arose, describing the same in general terms and alleging generally the ownership and value thereof. This section shall not be construed as intending to interfere with the power of the court to require the state to furnish the defendant with a bill of particulars in proper cases and on sufficient showing that cause exists for the same.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed as in any way altering, modifying or repealing the following statutes or any part thereof, §§706.19, 811.03, 811.04, 811.05, 811.07, 811.08, 811.11, 811.13, 811.14, 811.15, 811.19, 811.20, 811.21, 812.10, 812.12, 821.10, 821.22, 821.23.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 26912, 1951; (2) by §1, (3) by §2, ch. 57-344.

811.022 Shoplifting; exemption from false arrest.—

(1) A peace officer, or a merchant, or a merchant's employee who has probable cause for believing that goods held for sale by the merchant have been unlawfully taken by a person and that he can recover them by taking the person into custody, may, for the purpose of attempting to effect such recovery, take the person into custody and detain him in a reasonable manner for a reasonable length of time. Such taking into custody and detention by a peace officer, merchant, or merchant's employee shall not render such police officer, merchant, or merchant's employee criminally or civilly liable for false arrest, false imprisonment, or unlawful detention.

(2) Any peace officer may arrest without warrant any person he has probable cause for believing has committed larceny in retail or wholesale establishments.

(3) A merchant or a merchant's employee who causes such arrest as provided for in subsection (1) hereof of a person for larceny of goods held for sale shall not be criminally or civilly liable for false arrest or false imprisonment where the merchant or merchant's employee has probable cause for believing that the person arrested committed larceny of goods held for sale.

History.—Comp. §§1-3, ch. 29668, 1955.

811.03 Larceny in burning building.—Whoever steals in a building that is on fire, or steals any property removed in consequence of an alarm caused by fire, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

§828.12, Cruelty to animals.

§767.01, Damage by dogs.

811.20 Larceny of automobiles.—The larceny of any automobile, locomobile, motorcycle, or other like vehicle propelled by electricity, gasoline or kerosene in this state, shall be deemed a felony; and any person convicted thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a term not exceeding five years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 7353, 1917; RGS 5142; CGL 7243.
cf.—§818.05, Sale of property held under contract or conditional sale.

811.201 Larceny; return of property to owner; procedure.—In every instance in which any money or motor vehicle shall have been taken from its rightful owner under circumstances constituting larceny of such money or motor vehicle and such money or motor vehicle is being held by state, county or municipal officials as evidence, the rightful owner of such money or motor vehicle may obtain the return and possession thereof in the following manner:

(1) The rightful owner shall file a petition in the court having criminal jurisdiction describing the money or motor vehicle, the time and manner in which the same was taken from the rightful owner, the value thereof if the same is money or motor vehicle, and that the petitioner is the true and lawful owner thereof. Such petition shall be under oath, sworn to by the petitioner or, if the petitioner is a corporation, by a duly authorized officer or agent thereof, or by such person other than the petitioner who shall have actual knowledge of the facts alleged in such petition.

(2) Notice of the filing of such petition and a copy thereof shall be served upon any person charged with the larceny of the money or motor vehicle involved in the same manner and for the same fee as the service of a summons.

(3) If no person has been charged by indictment or information with larceny of the money or motor vehicle involved, or if a person has been so charged and cannot be found within the jurisdiction of the court out of which capias has issued and that fact has been noted on the return of such capias, then the petitioner shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation within the county in which the alleged larceny occurred once a week for two consecutive weeks, two publications being sufficient, notice of the filing of such petition. Such notice shall describe the money or motor vehicle involved and the time and particular place of its taking.

(4) Copies of the mentioned petition shall be furnished the officer having custody of the money or motor vehicle involved and also the prosecuting officer of the court having criminal jurisdiction and such officers shall be notified of any hearings and proceedings had upon such petition.

(5) Within five days after receipt of service of the notice hereinabove provided or within ten days after the last publication of the mentioned notice, any person other than the petionner claiming title or right of possession to the money or motor vehicle involved shall file his objections to the granting of such petition. Such objections shall be under oath of the person making them and shall set forth facts showing that the petitioner is not the rightful owner or not entitled to possession. If the person interposing objections to the petition desires that the question of ownership or right to possession be resolved by a jury, he shall make and file a demand for a jury trial at the time of filing his objections. If the objector fails to demand a jury trial at such time he shall be deemed to have waived such right.

(6) If objections are filed, as herein provided, the court having criminal jurisdiction may order the pleadings transferred to the court having civil jurisdiction of the cause where the same shall be adjudicated upon the pleadings, or he may defer hearing the matter until the criminal case has been adjudicated.

(7) If no objections are filed within the time herein provided, the court having criminal jurisdiction shall hear the matter and may, if satisfied that the petitioner is the rightful owner of the money or motor vehicle involved, order such money or motor vehicle returned to the petitioner. The court may, in its discretion, require the petitioner to post a bond in such amount as the court shall deem proper, conditioned that the petitioner will return the motor vehicle or the value of the money to the court within such time as shall be fixed by the court in the event it should be subsequently determined in judicial proceedings that the petitioner is not the rightful owner of such money or motor vehicle.

(8) When money or motor vehicle is returned to the rightful owner, as hereinabove provided, the court shall direct the clerk to make a detailed inventory description of such money or motor vehicle. The clerk in compliance with such direction shall make such inventory and description, including photographs of the motor vehicle involved where practicable and certify the same as being a true and correct inventory and description. The certified inventory and description shall then be filed by the clerk among the records of his office.

(9) In any trial involving the larceny of money or motor vehicle which has been returned to the rightful owner, as hereinabove provided, and it shall be necessary therein to adduce testimony concerning such money or motor vehicle, secondary evidence, including the certified inventory and description thereof shall be admissible in the same manner and to the same effect as would the admission of the said money or motor vehicle, had the same not been returned.

(10) The fact that any person charged with the larceny of money or motor vehicle has failed to object to the return of such money or motor vehicle to the alleged rightful owner thereof, or the fact that such money or motor vehicle has been returned to the alleged rightful owner thereof under the provisions of this law, shall not be offered, received or considered as evidence either for or against the defendant in such criminal action.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 29677, 1955.

811.21 Taking or using temporarily any vehicle or animal of another without authority.—Whoever willfully, mischievously and without right takes or uses any boat or vehicle, or takes, drives, rides or uses any horse, ass, mule, ox or any other draught animal, the property of another, without the consent of the owner or other person having the legal custody, care or control of the same, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as to apply to any case where the taking of the property of another is with intent to steal the same, or when it is taken under a claim of right, or with the presumed consent of the owner or other person having the legal control, care or custody of the same.

811.24 Impounding hogs.—Any person who shall drive, carry or toll any cattle or any hog within the corporate limits of any town, village or hamlet belonging to persons who reside without said limits, with the intention of impounding them, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than twenty dollars or imprisoned for not more than thirty days.

History.—§2, ch. 4190, 1893; §2, ch. 4349, 1895; GS 3387; RGS 5235; CGL 7354.

811.25 Driving cattle from range.—Whoever drives any cattle, the property of another, directly from their own range, or more than five miles from the house of the owner, without the permission of the owner, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

History.—§§2, 3, ch. 1669, 1868; RS 2504; GS 3388; RGS 5236; CGL 7355.

811.26 Maliciously driving or penning cattle.—Whoever, without the consent of the owner, shall interfere with cattle or other domestic animals on the ranges of the state, either for the purpose of annoying or injuring the owner or person in charge thereof, or to obtain some personal benefit for himself or for any person other than the owner thereof, by willfully or maliciously driving from one place to another or by penning such cattle or other domestic animals, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

cf.—§707.21, Refusing entrance to pasture to seek strayed domestic animals.

811.27 Larceny of citrus fruit or trees from groves.—

(1) Whoever commits larceny by stealing any grapefruit, oranges, tangerines or other citrus fruit, or any citrus fruit tree or budwood from any citrus fruit tree, or from any grove, orchard or farm, the property of another, shall be punished as follows:

(a) If the property stolen is of the value of fifty dollars or more, the offender shall be deemed guilty of grand larceny and be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding five years or by a fine not exceeding $2,000.00 or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

(b) If the property stolen is of a value less than fifty dollars, the offender shall be deemed guilty of petit larceny and be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by fine not exceeding $1,000.00, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

(2) Nothing in this act shall be construed as repealing §811.10 or §822.23, but shall be cumulative to existing statutes.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 61-308.
cf.—§822.23 Entering farm, etc., in nighttime to commit larceny offense; punishment.

811.28 Personal property; presumption.—It shall be prima facie evidence of larceny for any person who has obtained personal property, including but not limited to, any trailer, equipment or tool, under a contract of hire, to have obtained same by way of any material false statement or pretense or to fail to return such personal property to the owner or other lawful custodian thereof within ten days after demand has been made upon such person for the return of such personal property by the owner or lawful custodian thereof. This act shall not apply to motor vehicles.

History.—§1, ch. 63-166.

812.07 What shall be deemed such taking.—In prosecutions for offenses under §812.06 the fraudulent taking or receiving by any person of any bullion, money, note, bill or other security for money, belonging to such bank, by reason of an unlawful confederacy or agreement by him with an officer of said bank, or any person in the employment thereof, with intent to defraud the same, shall be deemed to be a fraudulent taking by such officer or person in the employment of the bank, to his own use, within the meaning of §812.06, and it shall not be necessary on trial to identify the particular bullion, money, note, bill or security for money taken or received.

History.—§36, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2460; GS 8314; RGS 5149; CGL 7250.

812.08 Embezzlement of bank funds, etc.—Every president, cashier, director, teller, clerk or other officer or agent of any banking or trust company or corporation, doing a banking business in the state, who embezzles, abstracts, or willfully misapplies any of the moneys, funds or credits of any banking or trust company or corporation, or who, without authority from the directors, issues or puts forth any certificate of deposit, draws any order or bill of exchange, makes any acceptance, assigns any note, bond, draft, bill of exchange, mortgage, judgment or decree; or who makes any false entry in any book, report or statement of any banking or trust company or corporation, with intent, in either case, to injure or defraud any such banking or trust company or corporation, body politic or corporate, or any individual person, or to deceive any officer of the banking or trust company or corporation, or any agent appointed to examine the affairs of the banking or trust company or corporation; and every person who with like intent aids or abets any officer, clerk or agent in any violation of this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than ten years.

cf.—§661.34, Embezzlement by conservator of bank or trust company.

812.09 Embezzlement of pledge by pledgee.—If a consignee or factor deposits or pledges any merchandise, bill of lading, certificate or order for the delivery of merchandise consigned or entrusted to him as security for money borrowed, or negotiable instrument received by him, and disposes of or applies the same to his own use in violation of good faith, and with intent to defraud the owner thereof; or with the like fraudulent intent applies or disposes of any money or negotiable instrument raised or acquired by the sale or other disposition of such merchandise, bill of lading, certificate or order, to his own use, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—§60, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2462; GS 8316; RGS 5151; CGL 7252.

812.10 Embezzlement by state, county or municipal officers.—Any state, county or municipal officer who shall:

- (1) Convert to his own use;

- (2) Secrete with the intent to convert to his own use; or

- (3) Withhold with the intent to convert to his own use,

(b) Any money, property or effects of another, the duty of which office requires him to receive said money, property or effects, shall in every such act be deemed guilty of an embezzlement of the money, property or effects so converted, secreted or withheld, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding twenty years, and by a fine equal to the value of the money, property or effect so converted, secreted or withheld.

The failure, neglect, omission or refusal of any such officer to pay over or deliver to any official or person authorized or having the right by law to receive the same, for more than thirty days after the same has been collected or received by him, shall be prima facie evidence of the conversion to one's own use, or the secreting with intent to convert to one's own use, or the withholding with the intent to convert to one's own use the said money, property or effects.

This section shall apply to any deputy, clerk or employee in any state, county or municipal office, and to all school officers.

business is required to pay state, county and city occupational license taxes.

History.—§§1, 1a, ch. 22726, 1945.

817.37 Touting; defining; providing punishment; ejection from race tracks.—

(1) Any person who knowingly and designedly by false representation attempts to, or does persuade, procure or cause another person to wager on a horse in a race to be run in this state or elsewhere, and upon which money is wagered in this state, and who asks or demands compensation as a reward for information or purported information given in such case is a tout, and is guilty of touting.

(2) Any person who is a tout, or who attempts or conspires to commit touting, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. For a second like offense in this state, he shall be imprisoned.

(3) Any person who in the commission of touting falsely uses the name of any official of the Florida state racing commission, its inspectors or attaches, or of any official of any race track association, or the names of any owner, trainer, jockey or other person licensed by the Florida state racing commission, as the source of any information or purported information shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the state prison for a term of not less than one, nor more than five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) Any person who has been convicted of touting by any court, and the record of whose conviction on such charge is on file in the office of the Florida state racing commission, any court of this state, or of the federal bureau of investigation, or any person who has been ejected from any race track of this or any other state for touting or practices inimical to the public interest shall be excluded from all race tracks in this state. Any such person who refuses to leave such track when ordered to do so by inspectors of the Florida state racing commission or by any peace officer, or by an accredited attache of a race track or association shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars.

History.—§§1, 2, 3, & 4, ch. 24344, 1947.
Sub. §(3) am, §10, ch. 26484, 1951.

817.38 Simulated process.—

(1) CIRCULATION PROHIBITED.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to send or deliver, or cause to be sent or delivered any letter, paper, document, notice of intent to bring suit, or other notice or demand, which simulates a summons, complaint, writ, or other court process, with intent to lead the recipient or sendee to believe the same to be genuine, for the purpose of obtaining any money or thing of value whatsoever.

The sending of such simulating document shall be prima facie evidence of such intent, and it shall be no defense to show that the document bears any statement to the contrary, nor shall it be a defense to show that the money or thing of value sought to be obtained was to apply as payment on a valid obligation.

(2) EVIDENCE OF DELIVERY.—In prosecutions for violation of this section, the prosecution may show that the simulating document was deposited in the post office for mailing or was delivered to any person with intent to be forwarded, and such showing shall be sufficient proof of the sending or delivery.

(3) VENUE.—Any person violating this section may be tried therefor in the county where such simulating document was so deposited, or the county where the same was received.

(4) EXCEPTION.—Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the printing, publication or distribution of blank forms of genuine summons and other court process.

(5) PENALTIES.—Any person, firm or corporation violating this section shall be fined, for the first offense, not less than $10 nor more than $100, and for the second and subsequent offenses not less than $100 nor more than $500 or imprisoned not more than 6 months, or both.

History.—Comp. §§1-5, ch. 57-73.

817.39 Simulated forms of court or legal process; publication, sale or circulation unlawful; penalty.—

(1) Any person, firm or corporation who shall print for the purpose of sale or distribution, for use in the state or who shall circulate, publish or offer for sale any letter, paper, document, notice of intent to bring suit, or other notice or demand, which simulates a form of court or legal process, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10.00 or more than $100.00 for the first offense, and not less than $100.00 or more than $500.00 for the second or any subsequent offense, or imprisoned not more than 6 months or both.

(2) It shall be no defense that the paper or other instrument referred to in subsection (1) shall declare that it is not a court or legal process.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent the printing, publication, sale or distribution of genuine legal forms for the use of attorneys, clerks of courts, or justices of the peace.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 57-265.

817.40 False, misleading and deceptive advertising and sales; definitions.—When construing this act, and each and every word, phrase or part thereof, where the context will permit:

(1) The word or term "wholesale" or "wholesale sale" shall extend to and include an "at cost sale," "below cost sale," and terms of similar purport, and embraces all sales purporting to be made at or below the seller's net delivered cost price, or below the average wholesale cost of the items sold or to be sold, but which are in fact made for a price in excess of the average wholesale of like items.

(2) The word or term "retail" means the sale or offering for sale of individual items of merchandise to the ultimate consumer.

(3) The term or word "retailer" means one who acquires for the purpose of sale, keeps for sale, offers or exposes for sale, or sells individual units of merchandise to the ultimate consumer and not for resale.

(4) The term or word "merchandise" includes goods, wares and merchandise, as generally understood, and in addition thereto services and other things of value.

(5) The phrase "misleading advertising" includes any statements made, or disseminated, in oral, written or printed form or otherwise, to or before the public, or any portion thereof, which are known, or through the exercise of reasonable care or investigation could or might have been ascertained, to be untrue or misleading, and which are or were so made or disseminated with the intent or purpose, either directly or indirectly, of selling or disposing of real or personal property, services of any nature whatever, professional or otherwise, or to induce the public to enter into any obligation relating to such property or services.

(6) The definitions contained in §1.01, in so far as the context of this act will permit, shall be applicable hereto.

History.—§1, ch. 59-301.

817.41 Misleading advertising prohibited.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to make or disseminate or cause to be made or disseminated before the general public of the state, or any portion thereof, any misleading advertisement. Such making or dissemination of misleading advertising shall constitute and is hereby declared to be fraudulent and unlawful, designed and intended for obtaining money or property under false pretenses.

(3) Any retailer using the term or phrase "wholesale sale," "below cost sale," or terms of similar purport, in connection with the sale of goods, wares or merchandise at retail, shall, upon demand by a customer, forthwith make available, unless the same shall have theretofore been made available, to the better business bureau, the merchant's division of the chamber of commerce, or to the state attorney's office for inspection, invoices or shipping charges or true and correct copies thereof, of any goods, wares or merchandise so offered for sale, described or represented, indicating the delivery net cost to the seller of the particular goods, wares or merchandise sold or offered for sale, from which the seller's delivered net cost may be determined. The said retailer shall also and at the same time give all reasonable assistance in determining and ascertaining his net cost price of said goods, wares or merchandise. The said better business bureau, merchant's division of the chamber of commerce or state attorney, upon determining the said delivered net cost, shall forthwith issue a certificate evidencing such delivered net cost, as determined, and deliver the same to the retailer for delivery or exhibition to the customer. Unless such certificate shall show a delivered net cost equal to or in excess of the advertised price, the retailer shall be presumed to have violated this law.

(4) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that the person named in or obtaining the benefits of any misleading advertisement or any such sale is responsible for such misleading advertisement or unlawful sale.

History.—§2, ch. 59-301.

817.411 False information; advertising.—

No person, firm or corporation shall knowingly publish, disseminate, circulate, or place before the public, or cause directly or indirectly, to be made, published, disseminated, circulated, or placed before the public, in a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or in the form of a notice, circular, pamphlet, letter or poster, or over any radio or television station, or in any other way, any advertisement, announcement or statement containing any assertion, representation or statement that commodities, mortgages, promissory notes, securities or other things of value offered for sale are covered by insurance guaranties where such insurance is nonexistent or does not in fact insure against the risks covered.

History.—§1, ch. 61-110.

817.42 Advertising former or comparative prices.—No price shall be advertised as a former or comparative price of the thing advertised unless the alleged former price was the prevailing price for not less than thirty consecutive days within the four months next immediately preceding the date of the advertisement, or unless the date when the alleged former price did prevail is clearly and conspicuously stated in the advertisement, and on any price listing otherwise used, which must be available to customers and police officers.

History.—§3, ch. 59-301.

817.43 Exemption.—The provisions of §§817.40-817.42 shall not apply to any publisher of a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or the owner or operator of a radio or television station, or any other owner or operator of a media primarily devoted to advertising, who publishes, broadcasts or otherwise disseminates an advertisement in good faith without knowledge of its false, deceptive or misleading character.

History.—§4, ch. 59-301.

817.44 Intentional false advertising prohibited.—

(1) WHAT CONSTITUTES INTENTIONAL FALSE ADVERTISING.—It is unlawful to offer for sale or to issue invitations for offers for the sale of any property, real or personal, tangible or intangible, or any services, professional or otherwise, by placing or causing to be placed before the general public, by any means whatever, an advertisement describing such property or services as part of a plan or scheme with the intent not to sell such property or services so advertised, or with the intent not to sell such property or services at the price at which it was represented in the advertisement to be available for purchase by any member of the general public.

(2) PRESUMPTION OF VIOLATION.—The failure to sell any article or a class of articles advertised, or the refusal to sell at the price at which it was advertised to be available for purchase, shall create a rebuttable presumption of an intent to violate this section.

(3) EXEMPTION.—This section shall not apply to any publisher of a newspaper, magazine or other publication, or the owner or operator of a radio station, television station or other advertising media, who places before the public an advertisement in good faith without knowledge that the person so engaging or hiring such owner, operator or publisher has the intent not to sell the property or services so advertised or with the intent not to sell such property or services at the price at which it was represented in the advertisement to be available for purchase by any member of the general public.

History.—§5, ch. 59-301.

817.45 Penalty.—Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $500 or by imprisonment for a period not exceeding 60 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§6, ch. 59-301.

817.46 Violations may be enjoined.—In addition to the punishment provided in §817.45, the state attorney and his assistants of the various judicial circuits throughout the state are hereby vested with authority and power to invoke the jurisdiction of courts of equity within their respective judicial circuits to enjoin or obtain other equitable relief against persons violating the provisions of this law.

History.—§7, ch. 59-301.

817.47 Insurance advertising exempt.—Nothing in this act shall be deemed to apply to advertising in connection with sales of insurance which are regulated under the insurance laws of this state.

History.—§9, ch. 59-301.

817.481 Credit cards; obtaining goods by use of false, expired, etc.; penalty.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person knowingly to obtain or attempt to obtain credit, or to purchase or attempt to purchase any goods, property or service, by the use of any false, fictitious, counterfeit or expired credit card, telephone number, credit number or other credit device, or by the use of any credit card, telephone number, credit number or other credit device of another without the authority of the person to whom such card, number or device was issued, or by the use of any credit card, telephone number, credit number or other credit device in any case where such card, number or device has been revoked and notice of revocation has been given to the person to whom issued.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to obtain or attempt to obtain, by the use of any fraudulent scheme, device, means or method, telephone or telegraph service or the transmission of a message, signal or other communication by telephone or telegraph, or over telephone or telegraph facilities with intent to avoid payment of the lawful price, charge or toll therefor.

(3) Any person who violates any provision of subsection (1) or (2) is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than $50.00 nor more than $500.00 or imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 61-83.

817.49 False reports of commission of crimes; penalty.—Whoever willfully imparts, conveys or causes to be imparted or conveyed to any law enforcement officer false information or reports concerning the alleged commission of any crime under the laws of this state, knowing such information or report to be false, in that no such crime had actually been committed, shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not more than $500 or imprisoned not exceeding 6 months, or both.

History.—§1, ch. 59-204.

817.50 Fraudulently obtaining goods, services etc., from hospital.—

(1) Whoever shall, wilfully and with intent to defraud, obtain or attempt to obtain goods, products, merchandise or services from any hospital in this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $100.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(2) If any person shall give to any hospital in this state a false or fictitious name, a false or fictitious address, any other false or fictitious information required to be obtained by such hospital in compliance with §382.31, et seq., or shall assign to any hospital the proceeds of any insurance contract, then knowing that such contract is no longer in force or is invalid or is void for any reason, any such action shall be prima facie evidence of the intent of such person to defraud such hospital.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 61-154.
cf.—§382.31 Hospitals and almshouses required to keep records.

817.51 Obtaining groceries; intent to defraud.—Any person who shall obtain any items from retail grocery establishments with intent to defraud the owner or keeper thereof shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and shall upon conviction be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed three months or by fine not exceeding $100.00; provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply where there has been an agreement for delay in payments.

History.—§1, ch. 61-206.

817.52 Obtaining vehicles with intent to defraud, failing to return hired vehicle, or tampering with mileage device of hired vehicle.—

(1) OBTAINING BY TRICK, FALSE REPRESENTATION, ETC.—Whoever, with intent to defraud the owner or any person lawfully possessing any motor vehicle obtains the custody of such motor vehicle by trick, deceit, fraudulent or wilful false representation, shall be guilty of a felony and punished as herein after provided.

(2) HIRING WITH INTENT TO DEFRAUD.—Whoever, with intent to defraud the owner or any person lawfully possessing any motor vehicle, of the rental thereof, hires a vehicle from such owner, or such owner's agents, or any person in lawful possession thereof, such person shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. The absconding without paying or offering to pay such hire, shall be prima facie evidence of such fraudulent intent.

(3) FAILURE TO REDELIVER HIRED VEHICLE.—Whoever, after hiring a motor vehicle under an agreement to redeliver the same to the person letting such motor vehicle or his agent, at the termination of the period for which it was let, shall, without the consent of such person or persons and with intent to defraud, abandon, or willfully refuse or neglect to redeliver such vehicle as agreed shall, upon conviction, be guilty of a misdemeanor. The failure to return the motor vehicle within seventy-two hours of the time agreed shall be prima facie evidence of fraudulent intent.

(4) TAMPERING WITH MILEAGE DEVICE.—Whoever, after hiring a motor vehicle from any person or persons under an agreement to pay for the use of such motor vehicle a sum of money determinable either in whole or in part upon the distance such motor vehicle travels during the period for which hired, removes, attempts to remove, tampers with, or attempts to tamper with or otherwise interfere with any odometer or other mechanical device attached to said hired motor vehicle for the purpose of registering the distance such vehicle travels, with the intent to deceive the person or persons letting such vehicle or their lawful agent as to the actual distance traveled thereby, shall upon conviction be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor. Any person who shall knowingly aid, abet or assist another in violating the provisions of this subsection shall, upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor as a principal in the first degree. Any person violating this section may be informed against or indicted in the county where such odometer or such other mechanical device is removed, or attempted to be removed, or tampered with, or attempted to be tampered with, or in otherwise interfered with, or in the county where such persons knowingly aid, abet, or assist another in violating the provisions of this section, or in the county where any part of such motor vehicle upon which is attached such odometer, or such other mechanical device, is removed or attempted to be removed.

(5) Any person convicted of violation of any provision of subsection (1) shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than 1 year or by fine not to exceed $1,000.00, or both.

(6) Any person convicted of violation of any provision of subsection (2), (3) or (4) shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 6 months or by fine not to exceed $500.00, or both.

History.—§1, ch. 63-177.

817.53 False charges for radio and television repairs and parts; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for a person to knowingly charge for any services which are not actually performed in repairing a radio or television set, or to knowingly charge for any parts which are not actually furnished, or to knowingly misinform a customer concerning what is wrong with his radio or television set, or to knowingly and fraudulently substitute parts when such substitution has no relation to the repairing or servicing of the radio or television set.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided by law.

History.—§1, ch. 63-383.

817.54 Obtaining of mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note, etc., by false representation.—Any person who, with intent to defraud, obtains any mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note or other instrument evidencing a debt from any person or obtains the signature of any person to any mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note or other instrument evidencing a debt by color or aid of fraudulent or false representation or pretenses, or obtains the signature of any person to a mortgage, mortgage note, promissory note or other instrument evidencing a debt, the false making whereof would be punishable as forgery, shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding 5 years or by a fine not exceeding $10,000.00 or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§1, ch. 63-142.

817.55 Tourist attraction advertisement; misleading use of the word "free."—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, including corporations, operating a tourist attraction, event, show, or similar places of business for profit catering to the public to use or advertise in connection therewith the words "free" or "free admission" or any similar words or words of similar or like import and meaning, in a false, misleading, deceptive, or fraudulent manner, calculated to cause or actually causing any member of the public to be misled, deceived or defrauded to his detriment.

(2) The state attorney, the county prosecuting attorney, the county solicitor or other prosecuting attorney of any county in which any violation of this act occurs, or the Florida development commission may enjoin the use of such word or words by temporary and permanent injunction by application to any court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) Violations of this act whether or not enjoined as provided herein, shall be punishable as a misdemeanor.

821.041 Unauthorized entry on land; prima facie evidence of trespass.—

(1) The unauthorized entry by any person into or upon any legally enclosed and legally posted land shall be prima facie evidence of the intention of such person to commit an act of trespass and of intent to commit any other act pertaining to said land, the improvements thereto or growth thereon, committed while within said enclosure.

(2) The act of entry upon legally enclosed and legally posted land without permission of the owner of said land by any workman, servant, employee or agent while actually engaged in the performance of his work or his duties incident to such employment and while under the supervision, direction or through the procurement of any other person acting as supervisor, foreman, employer, principal, or in any other capacity, shall be prima facie evidence of the causing and of the procurement of such act by the supervisor, foreman, employer, principal or other person, and shall further be prima facie evidence of intent of such supervisor, foreman, employer, principal or other person, to cause or procure the commission of any other act pertaining to said land, the improvement thereto or the growth thereon, actually committed by such workman, servant, employee or agent, while the latter is on the said land.

(3) The act committed by any person or persons of taking, transporting, operating or driving, or the act of permitting or consenting to the taking or transporting of any machine, tool, motor vehicle or draft animal into or upon any legally enclosed and legally posted land without the permission of the owner of said land by any person who is not the owner of such machine, tool, vehicle or animal, but with the knowledge or consent of the owner of such machine, tool, vehicle or animal or the person then having the legal right to possession and use thereof, shall be prima facie evidence of the intent of such owner of such machine, tool, vehicle or animal, or of the person then entitled to the possession and use thereof, to cause or procure an act of trespass and any other illegal act pertaining to such land, the improvements thereto and the property and growth thereon, in the accomplishment of which act the said machine, tool, vehicle or animal is used.

(4) As used herein, the term "owner of said land" shall include the beneficial owner, lessee, occupant, or other person having any interest in said land under and by virtue of which that person is entitled to possession thereof, and shall also include the agents or authorized employees of such owner. However, this section shall not apply to any official or employee of the state or a county, municipality or other governmental agency now authorized by law to enter upon lands.

History.—Comp. §§1-4, ch. 25245, 1949.

821.05 Throwing down fences, etc.—Every person in this state who shall willfully lay or throw down the fence or bars or open a gate of another, or with evil intent, by any other means interfere with the fence of another person, thereby exposing crops or other property to waste, destruction or freedom, or shall enter upon the enclosed lands of another, or lands bounded or formed by a sea, gulf, bay, river, creek or lake, that are posted as provided in this chapter, without the consent of said owner or person occupying the same, authorized to give such permission to hunt or fish, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed three months.

History.—§2, ch. 4045, 1891; GS 3406; §2, ch. 5684, 1907; RGS 5260; CGL 7379.

821.06 Lands must be posted.—The provisions of §§821.04 and 821.05 shall not apply to lands which have not been posted in at least three conspicuous places around the enclosure, where it is enclosed by a fence, or lands which have not been posted in conspicuous places every eight hundred yards where the same is bounded or formed by a sea, gulf, bay, river, creeks or lakes, and when so posted as herein provided, such sea, gulf, bay, river, creeks or lakes shall be taken and considered as an enclosure. The parties posting the notices or those present at the time of posting such notices shall be competent to prove the posting. Such notices shall be kept in position where they can be seen.

History.—§3, ch. 4045, 1891; GS 3407; §3, ch. 5684, 1907; RGS 5261; CGL 7380.

821.07 Posting certain enclosed land not necessary.—It shall not be necessary to give notice by poster on any enclosed tract of land not exceeding two hundred acres on which there is a dwelling house, in order to obtain the benefits of the statutes of this state prohibiting trespass on enclosed lands.

History.—§1, ch. 5418, 1905; RGS 5262; CGL 7381.

821.071 Posted land; removing notices unlawful; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to willfully remove, destroy, mutilate or commit any act designed to remove, mutilate or reduce the legibility or effectiveness of any posted notice placed by the owner, tenant, lessee, or occupant of legally enclosed or legally posted land pursuant to any law of this state for the purpose of legally enclosing the same.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 25246, 1949.

821.14 Trespass with intent to injure growing trees, etc.—Whoever willfully commits a trespass by entering upon the garden, orchard or other improved land of another without permission of the owner, with intent to cut, take, carry away, destroy or injure the trees, grains, grass, hay, fruit or vegetables there growing or being, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§78, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2519; GS 3412; RGS 5268; CGL 7387.

821.15 Trespass by injuring fruit trees, etc.—Whoever willfully and maliciously, or wantonly and without cause, cuts down or destroys by girdling or by lopping, or otherwise injures any fruit or other tree, or any shrub, plant, vine or flower not his own, standing or growing for shade or ornament or other useful purpose, or maliciously and injuriously severs from the freehold of another any product thereof, or anything attached thereto, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

History.—§76, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2520; GS 3413; RGS 5269; CGL 7388.

821.16 Boxing timber on land of another.—Whoever cuts, boxes, girdles, or causes or procures to be cut, boxed or girdled, any kind of timber standing, growing or being on the land of another, without the consent of the owner, or removes or causes or procures to be removed from any land of another, without his consent, any timber or wood of any kind, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding six months.

cf.—§811.07, Stealing logs or timber.

821.17 Penalty for cutting tree across fence.

—Whoever shall carelessly or maliciously cut or fell a tree onto or across the fence of any enclosed field, garden or grove, and does not at once remove the same and repair any damage that may be done to the fence, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding six months; and such person and his employer shall be liable and responsible for any and all damage to the crops or trees on the premises resulting from the breaking of the fence and the consequent depredation of stock.

History.—§2, ch. 4780, 1899; GS 3415; RGS 5271; CGL 7390.

821.18 Other trespasses.—Every trespass upon the property of another, committed with a malicious and mischievous intent, the punishment of which is not specially provided for, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§2521, RS 1892; GS 3416; RGS 5272; CGL 7391.

821.19 Trespass upon state lands prohibited.—Trespass upon state lands is prohibited, and any person found guilty of such trespass shall be deemed guilty of, and punished as for, a misdemeanor; provided, this section shall not apply to any lands, title to which is now vested or which may hereafter vest in the state by reason of any tax sale certificate.

cf.—§775.07, Punishment for a misdemeanor.

§822.03, Injuring state buildings.

821.20 Same; "trespass" and "state lands" defined.—The word "trespass" when used in §§821.19-821.21 shall be deemed to be used in its broadest and most liberal sense, and shall include the cultivation, living upon, or any other use of such lands, or the use or removal of anything growing thereon, or the use or removal of the soil of said land or anything except wild game in, on or under such soil, without written lease from the state.

The term "state lands" when used in §§821.19-821.21 shall include all state owned lands, lands vested in the state board of education and the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund.

History.—§2, ch. 16185, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7393(2); §2, ch. 61-119.

821.21 Same; duties of sheriffs and prosecuting officers.—The sheriff and deputy sheriffs in each of the several counties of this state shall see that the state lands are not trespassed upon and shall arrest all persons found trespassing upon state lands and report the same to the proper prosecuting officer and to the governor of the state.

All prosecuting officers of the state or any county shall prosecute all offenders against the provisions of §§821.19-821.21.

History.—§3, ch. 16185, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7393(3).

821.22 Cutting timber from lands sold for taxes.—If any person shall cut, or cause or procure to be cut, or aid, assist or be employed in cutting, any cedar, juniper, cypress, oak, pine, palmetto or other timber standing, growing or being on any lands that have been sold for taxes, before the lands are redeemed or a tax deed issued for the same; or if any person shall remove, or cause or procure to be removed, or aid or assist, or be employed in removing, from any of such lands any cedar, juniper, cypress, oak, pine, palmetto or other timber; or if any person shall cut or box, or cause or procure to be cut or boxed, or aid, assist or be employed in cutting or boxing any pine timber on said lands for the purpose of extracting and gathering the turpentine therefrom, or shall gather or remove, or cause to be gathered or removed, or aid, assist or be employed in gathering or removing, any turpentine extracted from the pine timber so cut or boxed; or if any person shall in any way, by cutting, felling, girdling or otherwise, destroy or injure any timber standing, growing or being upon said lands, he shall for every such offense be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars; provided, however, this section shall not apply to the owner of said lands at the time the lands were sold for taxes.

cf.—§811.07, Stealing logs or timber.

821.221 Trespass and damage to timber and timber products.—Whoever wrongfully enters upon, or causes to be entered upon the land or lands of another and severs, cuts, chips, saws, chops, scrapes, turpentines, girdles, kills or otherwise damages or removes any timber, tree, or forest products, standing, lying or growing upon said land, without the consent of the legal owner, shall be liable to the owner in an action at law for damages in an amount equal to three times the sum which would compensate the owner for the actual damage suffered by the lawful owner.

Provided, however, that where the wrongful entry was involuntary, or the defendant in an action brought under this act had probable cause to believe that the entry upon such land was lawful, then the measure of damages shall be two times the sum which would compensate the owner for the actual damage suffered by the lawful owner. Provided, further, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the trimming or cutting of trees or timber by municipal or private public utilities or their employees, when such trimming or cutting is required for the establishment or maintenance of the service furnished by any such utility.

History.—§1, ch. 61-355.

821.23 Removing, or working for turpentine, timber on land sold for taxes.—No person shall cut and remove or remove or cause or procure to be cut and removed, or removed, or aid, assist or be employed in cutting and removing or removing, or in any manner working for turpentine purposes any timber on any land in this state when there shall be any unredeemed and outstanding tax sale certificates against such land, timber and turpentine privileges.

No person shall cut and remove, or remove or cause or procure to be cut and removed or removed, or aid, assist or be employed in cutting and removing or removing any timber from any lands in this state when there shall be any unredeemed or outstanding tax sale certificates against any such timber or timber privileges.

No person shall in any manner work for turpentine purposes or cause or procure to be worked for turpentine purposes or aid, assist or be employed in working for turpentine purposes any pine timber or any lands in this state when there shall be any unredeemed and outstanding tax sale certificates against such timber or turpentine privileges.

Provided, that this section shall not apply to the cutting of timber when the taxes on the timber shall have been paid or the turpentine privilege when the taxes on the turpentine privileges shall have been paid.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction therefor be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned not exceeding one year.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 5683, 1907; RGS 5279; CGL 7398.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.
§811.07, Stealing logs or timber.

821.24 Punishment for use of timber or turpentine by owner after sale for nonpayment of taxes.—If, at any time after six months after the sale of the timber or turpentine rights for nonpayment of taxes due thereon, the former owner thereof, or his agents or servants, shall take or use any of such timber or turpentine, they shall each be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars or be imprisoned not more than six months.

History.—§1, ch. 5725, 1907; RGS 5280; CGL 7399.

821.25 Injuring flowers, grounds, etc., of state institutions prohibited.—

(1) It is unlawful to injure, cut, interfere with, molest or disturb the forests, woodlands, ornamental plantings, orchards, groves, vegetable plantings, field crops, experimental plants, flowers, grounds, drives, roadways, and other property belonging to, leased by, operated by or under the control of the state road department, Florida state university, the agricultural and mechanical college for negroes, the Florida school for the deaf and blind, the university of Florida, the university of Florida agricultural experiment stations, field laboratories or biological stations, laboratories or the state plant board, or to steal, pilfer, pick, break or otherwise molest any natural or cultivated trees, shrubs, vines, fruits, flowers, vegetables, grasses, plants, or parts thereof belonging to, leased by, operated by or controlled by the state road department, Florida state university, the agricultural and mechanical university for negroes, the Florida school for the deaf and blind, the university of Florida, the university of Florida experiment stations, field laboratories or biological stations or laboratories or the state plant board; except when authorized by the officials of the state board of control or the state plant board, state road department or employees in charge of said property.

(2) Persons violating the provisions of this section, as amended shall be subject to the penalty provisions of §821.28.

History.—§1, ch. 10265, 1925; CGL 7429.
Am. §§1, 2, ch. 26903, 1951.
cf.—§822.03, Injuring state buildings.

821.26 Removing natural products from property of state institutions prohibited.—It is unlawful for any person to remove any soil, muck, clay, wood, minerals, timber or other natural products from any of the property belonging to the state board of control or the state plant board and controlled by, leased, held by or operated by the Florida state university, the agricultural and mechanical university for negroes, the Florida school for the deaf and blind, the university of Florida, the university of Florida agricultural experiment stations, field laboratories or biological stations or laboratories or the state plant board.

History.—§2, ch. 10265, 1925; CGL 7430.

821.27 Molesting game or fish on property of state institutions prohibited.—It is unlawful to kill, hunt, shoot at or wound any of the game, song birds or wild animals on property belonging to, leased by, operated by or controlled by the Florida state university, the agricultural and mechanical college for negroes, the Florida school for the deaf and blind, the university of Florida, the university of Florida agricultural experiment stations, field laboratories or biological stations or laboratories or the state plant board; or to use, hunt with, fire off or shoot any firearms, air rifles, slung shots or other weapons, whether deadly or not, commonly or ordinarily used for the destruction of wild life, or to trap or use nets on such property; or to fish, seine, use rod and reel or fish with hook and line or otherwise fish or disturb the fish or fish products or to shoot, hunt, or otherwise kill or to catch with net any fish or fish products out of waters on such property; provided, however, that the officers or members of the board of control or employees of the board of control, as state plant board of either of the above institutions, may hunt and fish and kill wild birds and animals to prevent their injury to crops or for experiments.

History.—§3, ch. 10265, 1925; CGL 7431.

821.28 Penalty for violation of §§821.25-821.27.—Any persons violating any of the provisions of §§821.25-821.27 shall be guilty of a misdeemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as for the commission of a misdemeanor.

History.—§4, ch. 10265, 1925; CGL 7432.
cf.—§775.07, Punishment for misdemeanor.

821.29 Sheriff combining with trespassers on state lands.—Any sheriff, or his deputies, who shall combine with any person trespassing upon the state lands, or engaged in getting logs or other timber therefrom for sale, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding three years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§3, ch. 3020, 1877; RS 2523; GS 3418; RGS 5274; CGL 7393.
cf.—Ch. 839, Misconduct by auctioneers, public officers and employees.

821.30 Forcible entry.—Whoever forcibly enters into the possession of the lands and tenements of another, and does not, upon demand made by the party entitled to possession, vacate the same within four days after the demand, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§23, ch. 1630, 1868; RS 2524; GS 3419; RGS 5275; CGL 7394.

821.31 Holding over by lessee whose lease has expired; penalty.—It is unlawful for any lessee whose lease has expired and no new lease thereon has been executed or agreed upon to hold possession of lands or houses after ten days' written notice to vacate from the owner of such property or his agent to such lessee.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding three months.

History.—§1, ch. 3144, 1879; RS 2525; GS 3420; RGS 5276; CGL 7395; §§1, 2, ch. 16066, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7395(1).
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

821.32 Trespasser may be arrested on Sunday without warrant.—Whoever is discovered in the act of willfully injuring any fruit or forest trees, or committing any kind of malicious mischief on Sunday, may be arrested by any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, watchman, police officer or other person, and lawfully detained by imprisonment in the jail or otherwise until a complaint can be made against him for the offense for which he was arrested, and he be taken upon a warrant issued upon such complaint, but such detention without warrant shall not continue more than twenty-four hours.

History.—§80, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2526; GS 3421; RGS 5277; CGL 7396.

821.33 Trespassing on property of waterworks.—Whoever, without the consent of any water company or municipal corporation owning waterworks doing business within the state, shall tap any pipe or main belonging to such waterworks company for the purpose of taking or using water of such company from such pipe or main, or for any other purpose; or whoever, without the consent of such waterworks company, shall take or use any water from such pipe or main, or from any hydrant used for the purpose of taking or drawing water from said pipe or main, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not more than ninety days.

History.—§1, ch. 4424, 1895; GS 3423; RGS 5281; CGL 7400.

cf.—§822.19, Tampering with meters, etc., belonging to electric, gas, or water plants.

821.34 Trespass in counties where fences dispensed with.—Whenever fences or enclosures have been or shall hereafter be dispensed with in any county or part of a county in this state, by reason of any no-fence law, or law making it unlawful for live stock to run at large in such county or part of a county, the laws of this state applicable to offenses of trespass against realty or injury thereto, or to property thereon, or connected therewith, and in regard to hunting or fishing, or other kinds of trespass on lands, shall not become inoperative, but shall apply to such unenclosed or unfenced land with the same force and effect as if such enclosures or fences had not been so dispensed with. Notices required to be posted on lands shall be sufficient if the sign board shall have thereon in letters easily seen and read the word "Posted" in letters not less than two inches long and followed by the owner's name.

History.—§1, ch. 4410, 1895; GS 3424; §1, ch. 6485, 1913; RGS 5282; CGL 7401.

821.35 Turning in stock where parties farming under one fence.—When two or more persons are conducting and carrying on farming operations under one and the same fence enclosure, it shall be unlawful for any one or more of said farmers operating a farm within one fence enclosure to turn in any live stock, or permit or allow any of their own live stock to run upon any of said enclosed farming territory at any time between the first day of March and the first day of December of any year, without first having obtained the written consent of all the occupants of said territory actually conducting farms within said one fence enclosure; provided, that hogs shall be kept out from the first day of March to the first day of November. Any person convicted of violating this section shall be punished by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding three months.

821.36 Dumping garbage, refuse, rubbish, etc.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to dump, or cause to be dumped, or place, or cause to be placed, any garbage, refuse or rubbish of any kind whatsoever on or upon any public park, state designated highway, county road, city street or other public lands, or upon private property, without the prior consent of the owner thereof.

(2) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine of not more than $100.00, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than 3 months, or by both fine and imprisonment. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section, upon a second conviction, shall be fined up to $500.00 or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than 6 months or by both fine and imprisonment.

(3) The Florida highway patrol, county sheriffs, constables, city police officers, officers of Florida game and fresh water fish commission and any other law enforcement officer are charged with the responsibility of enforcement of this section.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 21914, 1943; (1) §1, ch. 28168, 1953; §1, ch. 63-503.
cf.—§339.29 Dumping trash on highways; penalty.

821.37 Trespass on fruit groves; with deadly weapon.—

(1) No person in this state shall willfully and with the view of trespassing, enter within the boundaries of any citrus fruit or other fruit grove or orchard without permission of the owner or occupant authorized to give such permission having been obtained.

(2) No person in this state shall enter within the boundaries of any citrus fruit or other fruit grove or orchard while carrying a deadly weapon without permission of the owner or occupant authorized to give such permission, being previously obtained.

(3) The unauthorized entry of any person within the boundaries of any citrus fruit or other fruit grove or orchard shall be prima facie evidence of the intention of such person to commit an act of trespass and of intent to commit any other act pertaining to said land, the improvements thereto or growth thereon committed while within the boundaries of said grove or orchard.

(4) Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction therefor, be punished by fine of not more than $1,000.00 or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than twelve months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(5) This act shall not repeal §822.23.

§821.33, Trespassing on property of waterworks.

822.22 Prima facie evidence of violation of §822.21.—The existence of any connection, wire, conductor, meter alteration, or any device whatsoever, which effects the diversion of electricity, gas or water without the same being measured or registered by or on a meter installed by any person, firm or corporation, private or municipal, engaged in the business of furnishing such electricity, gas or water to users thereof, or which effects the use of electricity, gas or water furnished by such person, firm or corporation without its being measured or registered on a meter provided therefor, by such person, firm or corporation, shall be prima facie evidence of intent to violate and of the violation of §822.21 by the person using or receiving the direct benefits from the use of electricity, gas or water passing through such connection, wire, conductor, device or altered meter, or being used without being measured or registered on a meter as aforesaid.

History.—§2, ch. 17472, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 7428(4).

822.23 Entering farm, etc., in nighttime to commit offense; punishment.—Whoever in the nighttime enters any farm, garden, orchard or fruit grove with intent to commit in such garden, farm, orchard or fruit grove any larceny or depredation or other offense, if he be armed with a dangerous weapon, or if he make an assault upon any person lawfully therein, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period not exceeding ten years.

If the offender be not armed nor make an assault upon any person lawfully in said farm, garden, orchard or fruit grove, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for a period not exceeding two years.

History.—§1, ch. 14501, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 7433(2).

823.02 Building bonfires.—Whoever is concerned in causing or making a bonfire within ten rods of any house or building, shall be punished by fine not exceeding twenty dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding one month.

History.—§12, sub-ch. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2705; GS 3681; RGS 5625; CGL 7818.

823.03 False alarms of fires.—Whoever without reasonable cause by outcry or the ringing of bells, or otherwise, makes or circulates, or causes to be made or circulated a false alarm of fire, shall be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

History.—§13, sub-ch. 7, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2706; GS 3682; RGS 5626; CGL 7819.

823.04 Diseased animals.—It is unlawful for any person to bring into this state or to offer for sale therein any horses, mules, cattle, hogs or other domestic animals, knowing at the time of such introduction or offering for sale of any such animals that they are suffering from disease known as glanders, farcy, cholera, Texas fever or other virulent, contagious or infectious diseases; and any person convicted of such offense shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than four years in the state prison, or by fine of not more than one thousand dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 4351, 1895; GS 3692; RGS 5637; CGL 7830.

- 823.06 Doors of public buildings to open outward.
 823.07 Abandonment of certain iceboxes, refrigerators, etc., unlawful; intent of law.
 823.08 Same; attractive nuisance to children.
 823.09 Penalty.

823.041 Disposal of bodies of dead animals; penalty.—

(1) Any owner, custodian, or person in charge of domestic animals, upon the death of such animals due to disease, shall dispose of the carcasses of such animals by burning or burying at least two feet below the surface of the ground; provided, however, nothing in this section shall prohibit the disposal of such animal carcasses to rendering companies licensed to do business in this state.

(2) It is unlawful to dispose of the carcass of any domestic animal by dumping such carcass on any public road or right of way, or in any place where such carcass can be devoured by beast or bird.

(3) Any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $500.00 or by imprisonment not exceeding six months.

(4) For the purposes of this act the words domestic animal shall include any equine or bovine animal, goat, sheep, swine, dog, cat, poultry or other domesticated beast or bird.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 61-359.

823.05 Places declared a nuisance; may be abated and enjoined.—Whoever shall erect, establish, continue, or maintain, own or lease any building, booth, tent or place which tends to annoy the community or injure the health of the community, or become manifestly injurious to the morals or manners of the people as described in §823.01, or shall be frequented by the class of persons mentioned in §856.02, or any house or place of prostitution, assignation, lewdness or place or building where games of chance are engaged in violation of law or any place where any law of the state is violated, shall be deemed guilty of maintaining a nuisance, and the building, erection, place, tent or booth and the furniture, fixtures and contents are declared a nuisance. All such places or persons shall be abated or enjoined as provided in §§64.11-64.15.

History.—§1, ch. 7367, 1917; RGS 5639; CGL 7832.

Ch. 796, Prostitution.

823.06 Doors of public buildings to open outward.—All buildings erected in this state for theatrical, operatic or other public entertainments of whatsoever kind shall be so constructed that the shutters to all entrances to said building shall open outwardly and be so arranged as to readily allow any person inside said building to escape therefrom in case of fire or other accident. Any owner, manager, lessee, or other person having charge of any public building for the use expressed herein who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three years in the state prison.

History.—§§1, 3, ch. 4053, 1891; GS 3694; RGS 5640; CGL 7834.

823.07 Abandonment of certain iceboxes, refrigerators, etc., unlawful; intent of law.—

(1) The purpose of §§823.07-823.09 is to prevent the deaths due to suffocation of children locked in abandoned iceboxes, refrigerators, and other containers having airtight doors which, when closed, cannot be opened from the inside.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to allow any used icebox, container, or refrigerator with an interior storage area of more than one and one-half cubic feet of clear space, having airtight doors which, when closed, cannot be opened from the inside, to remain on his property or property under his control, or to discard or abandon same; provided that this shall not apply to an icebox, container, or refrigerator which is crated or is securely locked from the outside or from which the locking device or door or hinges has been removed, or which is in normal use in a home, rental unit, or place of business.

History.—Comp. §§1 and 2, ch. 29707, 1955.

823.08 Same; attractive nuisance to children.—Abandoned, unattended or discarded iceboxes, containers, or refrigerators having airtight doors which, when closed cannot be opened from the inside, are hereby declared to be an attractive nuisance to children, whether or not such children are trespassers, and a menace to their health and safety when accessible to them.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 29707, 1955.

823.09 Penalty.—Any person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this law shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding $100.00 or by imprisonment for not in excess of ten days. Each day such violation is committed or permitted to continue shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such hereunder.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 29707, 1955.

828.01 Duties of sheriff and constables, etc.—When a sheriff, constable, marshal, police officer or any agent of any duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to children and animals has reason to believe that any person of lewd and lascivious practices or reputation within his jurisdiction has charge or custody of any child under the age of sixteen years, whether as parent, guardian or otherwise, he shall forthwith arrest such person and take him before a magistrate having jurisdiction of such case.

Upon the proper affidavit being filed, such magistrate shall hear the witnesses produced on oath, and if he find by the evidence that the person so in charge of such child is guilty of lewd and lascivious practices and reputation, or lives in a house where such practices are carried on, and is unfit to have custody of such child, he shall issue his warrant to the said officer, commanding him to take possession of such child, and put it into a suitable home with a private family, or in an orphan asylum or home, either in this state or out of it, under terms and conditions to be approved by the court, where such child will have proper moral and intellectual training.

Such child shall be kept in a home or asylum until he reaches the age of sixteen years, unless sooner adopted, or otherwise taken into the home of a private family of good character, who will bind themselves to properly clothe, provide for and educate such child.

History.—§3, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3155; RGS 4981; CGL 7070.

828.02 Definition of "Animal."—In this chapter, and in every law of the state relating to or in any way affecting animals, the word "animal" shall be held to include every living dumb creature; the words "torture," "torment" and "cruelty" shall be held to include every act, omission or neglect whereby unnecessary or unjustifiable pain or suffering is caused, except when done in the interest of medical science, permitted or allowed to continue when there is reasonable remedy or relief; and the words "owner" and "person" shall be held to include corporations, and the knowledge and acts of agents and employees of corporations in regard to animals transported, owned, employed by or in the custody of a corporation, shall be held to be the knowledge and act of such corporation.

cf.—§1.01, General definitions.

828.03 Agents of societies, etc., may prosecute violators.—Any society or association for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, organized under the laws of this state, may appoint agents for the purpose of prosecuting any person guilty of any act of cruelty to children or animals within this state, who may arrest without warrant any person found violating any of the provisions of this chapter, or any other law of the state for the purpose of protecting children and animals or preventing any act of cruelty thereto.

Upon making such arrest, such agent shall convey the person so arrested before some court or magistrate having jurisdiction of the offense, within the municipal corporation or county wherein the offense was committed, and there forthwith make complaint, on oath or affirmation, of the offense.

All appointments of such agents by such societies or corporations must have the approval of the mayor of the city in which the society or association exists, and if it exists or works outside of any city, the appointment must be approved by the county judge or the judge of the circuit court of the county, and the mayor or judge shall keep a record of such appointment.

828.04 Torturing or unlawfully punishing children.—Whoever tortures, torments, cruelly or unlawfully punishes, or willfully, unlawfully or negligently deprives of necessary food, clothing or shelter any person under the age of sixteen years; and whoever torments, deprives of necessary sustenance or raiment, or unnecessarily or excessively chastises, or mutilates his child or ward, or whoever deprives such child or ward of necessary treatment and attention, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 4721, 1899; §1, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3236, 3238; RGS 5069, 5071; §1, ch. 9831, 1923; CGL 7171, 7173.
cf.—§450.151, Hiring and employing children.

828.041 Abuse of children.—

(1) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this act is to provide for the protection of children whose health and welfare are adversely affected and further threatened by the conduct of those responsible for their care and protection. This is often manifest by the infliction, other than by accidental means, of physical injury requiring the attention of a physician. It is intended that the mandatory reporting of such cases by physicians and institutions to appropriate court authority will cause the protective services of the state to be brought to bear on the situation in an effort to prevent further abuses, protect and enhance the welfare of these children, and preserve family life wherever possible.

(2) REPORTS BY PHYSICIANS AND INSTITUTIONS.—Any physician, including any licensed doctor of medicine, licensed osteopathic physician, intern and resident, having cause to believe that a child under the age of sixteen brought to him or coming before him for examination, care or treatment has had physical injury or injuries inflicted upon him, other than by accidental means, by a parent or caretaker, shall report or cause reports to be made to the appropriate juvenile judge in accordance with the provisions of this act; provided, when the attendance of a physician with respect to a child is pursuant to the performance of services as a member of the staff of a hospital or similar institution he shall notify the person in charge of the institution or his designated delegate who shall report or cause reports to be made in accordance with the provisions of this act.

(3) NATURE AND CONTENT OF REPORT.—Such reports shall be in writing and shall contain the names and addresses of the child and his parents or caretakers, if known, the child's age, the nature and extent of the child's injuries (including any evidence of previous injuries), and any other information that the physician believes might be helpful in establishing the cause of the injuries and the identity of the perpetrator.

(4) IMMUNITY FROM LIABILITY.—Anyone participating in the making of a report pursuant to this act or participating in a judicial proceeding resulting therefrom shall be presumed to be acting in good faith and in so doing shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed unless the person acted in bad faith or with malicious purpose.

(5) EVIDENCE NOT PRIVILEGED.—The physician-patient privilege shall not be a ground for excluding evidence regarding a child's injuries or the cause thereof, in any judicial proceeding resulting from a report pursuant to this act.

(6) PENALTY.—Anyone knowingly and wilfully violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 63-24.

828.05 Killing an animal when useless.—In case any horse, mule, ox, cow or other domestic animal shall be so injured or diseased as to be utterly useless, and of no value to the owner, and is in a suffering condition, and it shall appear by the certificate of a veterinary surgeon that such animal cannot be cured or rendered fit for service, the city or town marshal or chief of police shall, upon the application of the officers of any society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, cause such animal to be immediately killed.

History.—§2, ch. 4151, 1893; GS 3159; RGS 4985; CGL 7074.

828.06 Owner of insufficiently fenced premises, killing, etc., animals of another thereon.—Whoever, not having a sufficient fence or other enclosure to prevent the intrusion of animals upon his premises, shall, in attempting to expel therefrom any horse, cow, hog or other animal of another person found intruding thereon, kill, maim, wound or disfigure any such animal, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 1846, 1871; RS 2506; §1, ch. 5158, 1903; GS 3390; RGS 5239; CGL 7358.

828.07 Maliciously killing animal of another.—Whoever willfully and maliciously kills, maims or disfigures any horse, cattle or other beast of another person, or willfully and maliciously administers poison to any such beasts, or exposes any poisonous substance with intent that the same shall be taken and swallowed by them, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§74, sub-ch. 4, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2507; GS 3391; RGS 5240; CGL 7359.

cf.—§811.19, Larceny and injury to dogs.

828.08 Penalty for exposing poison.—Whoever leaves or deposits any poison or any substance containing poison, in any common street, alley, lane or thoroughfare of any kind, or in any yard or enclosure other than the yard or enclosure occupied or owned by such person, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than thirty days, and shall be liable for all damages sustained thereby.

History.—§8, ch. 4971, 1901; GS 3399; RGS 5248; CGL 7367.

828.09 Wantonly killing, etc., animals of another.—Whoever willfully or wantonly and without malice towards the owners kills, maims or disfigures any horse, cattle or other animals belonging to another person, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 3274, 1881; RS 2508; GS 3392; RGS 5241; CGL 7360.

cf.—§811.19, Larceny and injury to dogs.

828.10 Owner of sheep-killing dogs allowing them to run at large.—Any person who, owning or having in his possession and under his control any dog which said person knows to have injured or killed, or to be in the habit of injuring or killing sheep belonging to other persons, knowingly permits and allows such dog to run at large, shall be punished by fine not exceeding fifty dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty days.

828.20 Interfering with control of dependent and delinquent children; refusing to obey order of court; interfering with probation officer.—

(1) Any person who shall interfere with the custody or control of any child who shall have become the ward of any court under the provisions of this chapter, or who shall refuse to obey any order of any court made under the provisions hereof, or any person to whom the custody of a child is committed under the provisions hereof who shall refuse to produce such child to the court when ordered so to do, or any person who shall interfere with any probation officer in the discharge of his duties, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding six months.

(2) Any parent, guardian or other legal custodian of any child who is alleged to have committed an act of delinquency as defined under the laws of Florida, who allows or induces such child to leave the state in order to avoid judicial proceedings shall be guilty of encouraging or contributing to child delinquency and shall be punishable as provided in §828.19.

cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

828.201 Misuse of child support money.—Any person who wilfully misapplies funds paid by another or by any governmental agency for the purpose of support of a child shall, for the first offense, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, be punished by fine not exceeding $200.00 or imprisonment not exceeding ninety days, and for a second or subsequent conviction under this section, be guilty of a felony and be punished by imprisonment in the state prison at hard labor, not exceeding two years, or by fine not to exceed $2,000.00, or by both fine and imprisonment. A person shall be deemed to have misapplied child support funds when such funds are spent for any purpose other than for necessary and proper home, food, clothing, and the necessities of life, which expenditure results in depriving the child of the above named necessities. All public welfare agencies shall give notice of the provisions of this section at least once to each payee of any public grant made for the benefit of any child and shall report violations of this section to the proper prosecuting officer.

History.—§1, ch. 61-216.

828.21 Causing minor under eighteen to become a delinquent or dependent child.—

(1) Any person who shall commit any act which causes or tends to cause or encourage any person under the age of eighteen years to become a delinquent or dependent child, as defined under the laws of Florida, or which act contributes thereto, or any person who shall by act, or by threats, or commands, or persuasion, induce or endeavor to induce any such person, under the age of eighteen years, to do or to perform any act or to follow any course of conduct, or to so live as would cause or tend to cause any such person under the age of eighteen years to become or to remain a dependent or delinquent child, as defined under the laws of this state shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(2) Any person convicted of violating this act shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than one year, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 21978, 1943; §§1, 2, ch. 61-320. Transferred from §415.31 by §3, ch. 26880, 1951.

828.22 Humane slaughter requirement.—

The legislature of this state finds that the use of humane methods in the slaughter of livestock prevents needless suffering, results in safer and better working conditions for persons engaged in the slaughtering industry, brings about improvement of products and economy in slaughtering operations, and produces other benefits for producers, processors and consumers which tend to expedite the orderly flow of livestock and their products.

It is therefore declared to be the policy of this state to require that the slaughter of all livestock and the handling of livestock in connection with slaughter shall be carried out only by humane methods and to provide that methods of slaughter shall conform generally to those employed in other states where humane slaughter is required by law and to those authorized by the federal humane slaughter act of 1958, and regulations thereunder.

Nothing in this act shall construed to prohibit, abridge, or in any way hinder the religious freedom of any person or group. Notwithstanding any other provision of this act, in order to protect freedom of religion, ritual slaughter and the handling or other preparation of livestock for ritual slaughter are exempted from the terms of this act. For the purposes of this action the term ritual slaughter means slaughter in accordance with §828.23 (7) (b).

History.—§1, ch. 61-254.

828.23 Definitions.—As used in this act the following words shall have the meaning indicated:

(1) Commissioner means the commissioner of agriculture.

(2) Person means any individual, partnership, corporation, or association doing business in this state, in whole or in part.

(3) Slaughterer means any person regularly engaged in the commercial slaughtering of livestock.

(4) Livestock means cattle, calves, sheep, swine, horses, mules, goats and any other animal which can or may be used in and for the preparation of meat or meat products.

(5) Packer means any person engaged in the business of slaughtering, or of manufacturing or preparing meat or meat products for sale, either by such person or others; or of manufacturing or preparing livestock products for sale by such person or others.

(6) Stockyard means any place, establishment or facility commonly known as a stockyard, conducted or operated for compensation or profit as a public market, consisting of pens, or other enclosures, and their appurtenances, for the handling, keeping and holding of livestock for the purpose of sale or shipment.

(7) Humane method means either:

(a) A method whereby the animal is rendered insensible to pain by mechanical, electrical, chemical or other means that are rapid and effective, before being shackled, hoisted, thrown, cast or cut; or

(b) A method in accordance with ritual requirements of any religious faith whereby the animal suffers loss of consciousness by anemia of the brain caused by the simultaneous and instantaneous severance of the carotid arteries with a sharp instrument.

History.—§1, ch. 61-254.

828.24 Prohibited acts; exemption.—

(1) No slaughterer, packer or stockyard operator shall shackle, hoist, or otherwise bring livestock into position for slaughter, by any method which shall cause injury or pain.

(2) No slaughterer, packer or stockyard operator shall bleed or slaughter any livestock except by a humane method; provided, however, that the commissioner may, by administrative order, exempt from compliance with this act, for a period not to exceed one year after October 1, 1961, any slaughterer, packer or stockyard operator if he finds that an earlier compliance would cause such person an undue hardship.

(3) This act shall not apply to any person, firm or corporation slaughtering or processing for sale within the state not more than twenty head of cattle nor more than thirty-five head of hogs per week.

History.—§1, ch. 61-254.

828.25 Administration; rules and regulations; inspection; fees.—

(1) The commissioner shall administer the provisions of this act. He shall promulgate and may from time to time revise rules and regulations which shall conform substantially to the rules and regulations promulgated by the secretary of agriculture of the United States pursuant to the federal humane slaughter act of 1958, public law 85-765, 72 Stat. 862 and any amendments thereto; provided, however, that the use of a manually operated hammer, sledge or poleax is declared to be an inhumane method of slaughter within the meaning of this act.

(2) The commissioner may appoint any member of his staff as an official inspector for the purposes of this act. Such inspector shall have the power to enter the premises of any slaughterer for the purposes of verifying compliance or noncompliance with the provisions of this act.

(3) As soon as practicable after October 1, 1961, an inspection shall be made of the premises of each slaughterer. Additional inspections shall be made not less frequently than quarterly. No fee shall be charged for such inspection.

History.—§1, ch. 61-254.

828.26 Penalty.—

(1) No slaughterer found by the commissioner in accordance with the above not to be in compliance with the provisions of this act shall sell any meat or meat products to any public agency in the state, or to any institution supported by state, county, or municipal funds. Failure to comply with this provision shall be a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine of $500.00 for each violation of this provision.

(2) Upon failure to be in compliance with the provisions of this act after a period of one year from the date of the first inspection required under §828.25, the commissioner shall direct the slaughterer to cease slaughtering livestock. Failure to comply with this directive shall be a misdemeanor, the penalty for which shall be a fine of $100.00 for each day of continued slaughtering operations beyond the first week following mailing of such directive to the slaughterer by the commissioner.

CHAPTER 832

ISSUING WORTHLESS CHECKS AND DRAFTS

- 832.04 Stopping payment; purchase of farm or grove products.
- 832.05 Knowingly making, issuing, etc., worthless checks, drafts; obtaining property in return for worthless checks, etc.; penalty; duty of drawee; evidence.

832.04 Stopping payment; purchase of farm or grove products.—

(1) Whoever, with intent to defraud any producer of farm or grove products or product of such products or product shall, in person or by agent, make, draw, utter, deliver, or give to such producer any check, draft or written order for the payment of money upon any bank, person or corporation, and secure from such producer such products or product for or on account of such check, draft or written order, whether such products or product be valued at the amount of such check, draft or written order or at a greater or lesser value, and shall, pursuant to and in furtherance of such intent to defraud, stop payment on such check, draft or written order, shall be deemed to be guilty of a felony if the value of the products or product secured for or on account of such check, draft or written order be fifty dollars or more, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars; and if the value of the products or product secured for or on account of such check, draft or written order be less than fifty dollars, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(2) In all prosecutions under this section, the introduction in evidence of any unpaid and dishonored check, draft or written order for the payment of money upon any bank, person or corporation, bearing the drawee's refusal to pay the same because of payment having been stopped, stamped or written thereon or attached thereto, shall be prima facie evidence of the making or uttering of said check, draft or written order, and of due presentation to the drawee for payment, and of the dishonor thereof, and that the same was properly dishonored because of payment thereof having been stopped by the maker or drawer. And, as against the maker or drawer thereof, the stopping of payment of any such check, draft or written order made, drawn, uttered, delivered, or given to a producer of farm or grove products or product in payment for any such products or product, the possession or control of which shall have been transferred upon faith of payment of such check, draft or written order, whether such products or product be valued at the amount of such check, draft or written order or at a greater or lesser amount, shall be prima facie evidence that such maker or drawer had the above mentioned intent to defraud such producer, if such maker or drawer, or his agent, shall have personally inspected such products or product at or before such transfer of possession or control.

(3) This section shall be taken to be cumulative and shall not be construed to repeal any other statute now in effect.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, 4, ch. 26884, 1951.

832.05 Knowingly making, issuing, etc., worthless checks, drafts; obtaining property in return for worthless checks, etc.; penalty; duty of drawee; evidence.—

(1) PURPOSE.—The purpose of this section is to remedy the evil of giving checks, drafts, bills of exchange and other orders on a bank without first providing funds in or credit with the depository on which the same are made or drawn to pay and satisfy the same, which tends to create the circulation of worthless checks, drafts, bills of exchange and other orders on banks, bad banking, check kiting and a mischief to trade and commerce.

(2) WORTHLESS CHECKS; PENALTY.—

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to draw, make, utter, issue or deliver to another any check, draft, or other written order on any bank or depository for the payment of money or its equivalent, knowing at the time of the drawing, making, uttering, issuing or delivering such check or draft that the maker or drawer thereof has not sufficient funds on deposit in or credit with such bank or depository with which to pay the same on presentation; provided, that this section shall not apply to any check where the payee or holder knows or has been expressly notified prior to the drawing or uttering of same or has reason to believe that the drawer did not have on deposit or to his credit with the drawee sufficient funds to insure payment as aforesaid, nor shall this section apply to any post dated check.

(b) Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by fine not exceeding $300.00, unless the check, draft or other written order drawn, made, uttered, issued or delivered be in the amount of fifty dollars, or its equivalent, or more and the payee or a subsequent holder thereof receives something of value therefor. In that event the violation shall constitute a felony and shall be punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by fine not exceeding $1000.00.

(3) OBTAINING PROPERTY IN RETURN FOR WORTHLESS CHECKS, ETC.; PENALTY.—

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to obtain any services, goods, wares or other things of value by means of a check, draft or other written order upon any bank, person, firm or corporation, knowing at the time of the making, drawing, uttering, issuing or delivering of said check or draft that the maker thereof has not sufficient funds on deposit in or credit with such bank or depository with which to pay the same upon presentation, provided however that no crime may be charged in respect to the giving of any such check or draft or other written order where the payee knows or has been expressly notified or has reason to believe that the drawer did not have on deposit or to his credit with the drawee sufficient funds to insure payment thereof.

(b) Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall, if the check, draft or other written order be for an amount less than fifty dollars or its equivalent, constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by fine not exceeding $300.00. Violation of the provisions of this subsection shall, if the check, draft or other written order be in the amount of fifty dollars, or its equivalent, or more, constitute a felony and be punishable by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by fine not exceeding $1,000.00.

(4) PAYMENT NO DEFENSE.—Payment of a dishonored check, draft, bill of exchange or other orders shall not constitute a defense or ground for dismissal of charges brought under this section.

(5) CREDIT DEFINED.—The word "credit" as used herein shall be construed to mean an arrangement or understanding with the drawee for the payment of such check, draft, or other written order.

(6) REASON FOR DISHONOR, DUTY OF DRAWEE.—It shall be the duty of the drawee of any check, draft, or other written order, before refusing to pay the same to the holder thereof upon presentation, to cause to be written, printed, or stamped in plain language thereon or attached thereto, the reason for drawee's dishonor or refusal to pay same. In all prosecutions under this section, the introduction in evidence of any unpaid and dishonored check, draft or other written order, having the drawee's refusal to pay stamped or written thereon, or attached thereto, with the reason therefor as aforesaid, shall be prima facie evidence of the making or uttering of said check, draft, or other written order, and the due presentation to the drawee for payment and the dishonor thereof, and that the same was properly dishonored for the reasons written, stamped or attached by the drawee on such dishonored checks, draft, or other written orders; and, as against the maker or drawer thereof, the withdrawing from deposit with the drawee named in the check, draft or other written order, the funds on deposit with such drawee necessary to insure payment of said check, draft or other written order upon presentation within a reasonable time after negotiation; or the drawing, making, uttering or delivering of a check, draft or written order, payment of which is refused by the drawee, shall be prima facie evidence of knowledge of insufficient funds in or credit with such drawee; provided, however, if it is determined at the trial in a prosecution hereunder, that the payee of any such check, draft or written order at the time of accepting such check, draft or written order, had knowledge of or reason to believe that the drawer of such check, draft or other written order did not have sufficient funds on deposit in or credit with such drawee, then the payee instituting such criminal prosecution shall be assessed all costs of court incurred in connection with such prosecution.

(7) COSTS.—Where prosecutions are initiated under §832.05 before any committing magistrate, the party applying for the warrant shall be held liable for costs accruing in the event the case is dismissed for want of prosecution. No costs shall be charged to the county in such dismissed cases.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 28096, 1953; §1, ch. 61-284; (7) n. by §1, ch. 61-185.
cf.—ch. 811, Larceny.

832.06 Prosecution for worthless checks given tax collector for licenses, etc., relative to motor vehicles and motorboats, etc.; refunds.—

lector, and the county tax collector may request that the sum of money certified by him be forthwith refunded by the state motor vehicle commissioner or the state director of conservation to the county tax collector and within thirty days after receipt of the request the state motor vehicle commissioner or the state director of conservation upon being satisfied as to the correctness of the certificate shall refund the sums of money so certified to the county tax collector. If any officer, of any court issuing the warrant, is unable to serve it within sixty days after the issuance and delivery of it to the officer for service, the officer shall make a written return to the county tax collector to this effect. Thereafter, the county tax collector may certify that the warrant has been issued and that service has not been had upon the defendant, and to further certify the amount of the worthless check or draft and the amount of court costs expended by the county tax collector, and the county tax collector may file the certificate in the office of the state motor vehicle commissioner relative to motor vehicles and airplanes, or in the office of the state director of conservation relative to boats together with a request that the sums of money so certified be forthwith refunded by the state motor vehicle commissioner or state director of conservation to the county tax collector and within thirty days after receipt of the request, the state motor vehicle commissioner or the state director of conservation upon being satisfied as to correctness of the certificate shall refund the sums of money so certified to the county tax collector.

(2) The provisions of this act shall be liberally construed in order to effectively carry out the purposes of this act in the interest of the public.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 63-343.

838.011 Bribery.—Any person who shall corruptly give, offer or promise to any public officer, agent, servant or employee, after the election or appointment or employment of such public officer, agent, servant or employee and either before or after he shall have been qualified or shall take his seat, any commission, gift, gratuity, money, property or other valuable thing, or to do any act beneficial to such public officer, agent, servant or employee or another, with the intent or purpose to influence the act, vote, opinion, decision, judgment or behavior of such public officer, agent, servant or employee on any matter, question, cause or proceeding which may be pending or may by law be brought before him in his public capacity, or with the intent or purpose to influence any act or omission relating to any public duty of such public officer, agent, servant or employee, or with the intent or purpose to cause or induce such public officer, agent, servant or employee to use or exert or to procure the use or exertion of any influence upon or with any other public officer, agent, servant or employee in relation to any matter, question, cause or proceeding that may be pending or may by law be brought before such other public officer, agent, employee or servant, shall be guilty of the crime of bribery.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29722, 1955.

838.012 Accepting bribe.—Any public officer, agent, servant, or employee who, after his election, appointment or employment and either before or after he shall have been qualified or shall take his seat, corruptly requests, solicits or accepts for himself or another any commission, gift, gratuity, money, property or other valuable thing or a promise to pay or give any commission, gift, gratuity, money, property or other thing of value or to do any act beneficial to such public officer, agent, servant or employee or another, under an agreement or with an understanding between such public officer, agent, servant or employee and any other person to the effect that such commission, gift, gratuity, money, property, other thing of value or promise will influence the act, vote, opinion, decision, judgment or behavior of such public officer, agent, servant or employee on any matter, question, cause or proceeding which may be pending or may by law be brought before him in his public capacity or will influence his act or omission relating to any of his public duties or will cause or induce him to use or exert or procure the use or exertion of any influence upon or with any other public officer, agent, servant or employee in relation to any matter, question, cause or proceeding that may be pending or may by law be brought before such other public officer, agent, servant or employee, shall be guilty of the crime of accepting a bribe.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 29722, 1955.

838.013 Penalty.—Any person who shall be convicted of the violation of any provision of §§838.011, 838.012 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison for not more than five years or in the county jail for not more than one year or by fine not exceeding $5,000.

History.—§3, ch. 29722, 1955; §24, ch. 57-1.

838.02 Officer accepting bribe.—Every officer, state, county or municipal, or any public appointee, or any deputy of any such officer or appointee, who corruptly accepts, requests or solicits a gift or gratuity, or a promise to make a gift, or do an act beneficial to such officer, public appointee or deputy, under an agreement or with an understanding that his vote, opinion or judgment shall be given in any particular manner or upon a particular aside of any question, cause or proceeding which is or may be by law brought before him, in his official capacity, or that in such capacity he shall make any particular nomination or appointment, shall forfeit his office or appointment, be forever disqualified to hold any public office, trust or appointment under the constitution or laws of this state, and be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five thousand dollars.

History.—§8, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2565; GS 3477; RGS 5347; CGL 7482; am. §1, ch. 28052, 1953.

838.03 Bribery of court officers, jurors, etc.—Whoever corrupts, or attempts to corrupt, any master in chancery, auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, by giving, offering or promising any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to bias the opinion or influence the decision of such master in chancery, auditor, juror, arbitrator, umpire, or referee in relation to any cause or matter pending in court, or before an inquest, or for the decision of which such arbitrator, umpire or referee has been chosen or appointed, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§9, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2566; GS 3578; RGS 5348; CGL 7483.

838.04 Such officer accepting bribe.—If any person summoned as juror or chosen or appointed as an arbitrator, umpire or referee, or if any master in chancery or arbitrator corruptly takes anything to give his verdict, award or report, or corruptly receives any gift or gratuity whatever from a party to a suit, cause or proceeding, for the trial or decision of which such juror has been summoned, or for the hearing or determination of which such master in chancery, auditor, arbitrator, umpire or referee has been chosen or appointed, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§10, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2567; GS 3479; RGS 5349; CGL 7484.

838.05 Sheriffs, etc., accepting bribe.—If a sheriff, constable or other officer authorized to serve legal process, receives from a defendant or any other person, any money or other valuable thing, as a consideration, reward or inducement for omitting or delaying to arrest a defendant, or to carry him before a magistrate, or for delaying to take a person to prison, or for postponing the sale of property under an execution, or for omitting or delaying to perform any duty pertaining to his office, he shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding three months, or by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

History.—§11, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2568; GS 3480; RGS 5350; CGL 7485.

838.06 Unlawful for officers to accept unauthorized compensation for performance or nonperformance of duty.—It is unlawful for any public officer, agent, servant or employee to request, solicit, exact or accept any reward, compensation, or other remuneration, other than those provided by law, from any person whatsoever for the past, present or future performance, nonperformance or violation of any act, rule or regulation that may be or may have been incumbent upon such public officer, agent, servant or employee to administer, respect, perform, execute or have executed; provided that nothing herein shall be construed so as to preclude a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, deputy constable, city marshal or policeman from accepting rewards or remuneration for services performed in apprehending any criminal.

History.—§§1, 4, ch. 5416, 1905; RGS 5351; CGL 7486; §1, ch. 61-268.

838.07 Penalty for violation of §838.06.—Whoever violates the provisions of §838.06 shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years or by fine not exceeding $1,000.00.

History.—§3, ch. 5416, 1905; RGS 5352; CGL 7487; §2, ch. 61-268.

cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

838.071 Unlawful to offer to public officer reward or compensation not authorized by law.

—It is unlawful for any person to pay, give, offer or promise to any public officer, agent, servant or employee any reward, compensation or other remuneration other than those provided by law, for the past, present or future performance, nonperformance or violation of any act, rule or regulation that may be or may have been incumbent upon such public officer, agent, servant or employee to administer, respect, perform, execute or have executed; provided that nothing herein shall be considered to preclude any person from paying, giving, offering or promising to any sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, deputy constable, city marshal or policeman for services performed or to be performed in apprehending any criminal. Whoever violates the provisions of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years or by fine not exceeding $1,000.00.

History.—§3, ch. 61-268.

838.08 Person giving reward not privileged from testifying.—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any book, paper or other document, before any court upon any investigation, proceeding or trial for a violation of either §838.06 or §838.071, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture. However, no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding.

History.—§2, ch. 5416, 1905; RGS 5353; CGL 7488; §4, ch. 61-268.

838.09 Bribery of attache, or employee of the legislature.—Whoever corruptly gives, offers or promises to any employee or attache of the legislature anything of value with intent to induce such employee or attache to exert his or her efforts or influence for the passage or defeat of any proposed law or resolution shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding three thousand dollars.

History.—§1, ch. 23956, 1947.

838.10 Bribery of candidate for elective public office.—Whoever corruptly gives, offers or promises to any candidate for any elective public office anything of value with intent to influence his act, vote, opinion, decision or judgment on any matter, question or proceeding which may by law come or be brought before him in his official capacity while serving in such elective public office shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding $3,000.00.

History.—§2, ch. 23956, 1947; §1, ch. 61-181.

838.12 Bribery in athletic contests.—

(1) Whoever gives, promises, offers or conspires to give, promise or offer, to anyone who participates or expects to participate in any professional or amateur game, contest, match, race or sport; or to any umpire, referee, judge or other official of such game, contest, match, race or sport; or to any owner, manager, coach or trainer of, or to any relative of, or to any person having any direct, indirect, remote or possible connection with, any team, individual, participant or prospective participant in any such professional or amateur game, contest, match, race or sport, or the officials aforesaid, any bribe, money, goods, present, reward or any valuable thing whatsoever, or any promise, contract or agreement whatsoever, with intent to influence him or them to lose or cause to be lost any game, contest, match, race or sport, or to limit his or their or any person's or any team's margin of victory in any game, contest, match, race, or sport, or to fix or throw any game, contest, match, race or sport, shall be sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison not exceeding ten years or to pay a fine of not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or both.

(2) Any participant or prospective participant in any professional or amateur game, contest, match, race or sport; or any umpire, referee, judge or other official of such game, contest, match, race or sport; or any owner, manager, coach or trainer of, or any relative of, or any person having any direct, indirect, remote or possible connection with, any team, individual, participant or prospective participant in any such professional or amateur game, contest, match, race or sport, or the officials aforesaid; who in any way solicits, receives or accepts, or agrees to receive or accept, or who conspires to receive or accept, any bribe, money, goods, present, reward or any valuable thing whatsoever, or any promise, contract or agreement whatsoever, with intent to lose or cause to be lost any game, contest, match, race or sport, or to limit his, their or any person's or any team's margin of victory in any game, contest, match, race or sport, or to fix or throw any game, contest, match, race or sport, shall be sentenced to be imprisoned in the state prison not exceeding ten years or to pay a fine of not exceeding ten thousand dollars, or both.

History.—Comp. § § 1, 2, ch. 23024, 1953.

839.021 Prohibited bidding by employees of auctioneers; penalty.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any employee or agent of an auctioneer or any one interested directly or indirectly in the outcome of an auction to bid without notice to all bidders on any article offered for sale at any auction. No person without notice to all bidders on any article offered for sale at any auction shall act as a fictitious bidder or what is commonly known as a "capper," "booster," "by-bidder," or "shiller" and no person shall bid, offer to bid or pretend to buy any article sold or offered for sale at any auction by a prearranged agreement with any person interested in the sale directly or indirectly as seller; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to auctions of livestock and agricultural products.

(2) Any person violating the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon second conviction the auctioneer's license shall be revoked.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 59-219.

839.04 County officers not to speculate in county warrants or certificates.—Any county judge, clerk of the circuit court, sheriff, tax collector, tax assessor or their deputies, county commissioner, school commissioner, superintendent of public instruction, or any other county officer who buys up at a discount, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, speculates in jurors' or witnesses' certificates or in any warrants drawn upon the county treasurer for the payment of money out of any public fund of this state or of any county, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not more than one thousand dollars, and shall be removed from office.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 3419, 1883; RS 2558; GS 3465; RGS 5334; CGL 7467.

839.05 Municipal officers not to speculate in municipal script.—Any mayor, marshal, treasurer, clerk, tax collector or other officer of any incorporated city or town, or any deputy of such officer, who buys up at a discount, or in any manner, directly or indirectly, speculates in any script or other evidence of indebtedness issued by the municipal corporation of which he is an officer, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, and shall be removed from office.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 3464, 1883; RS 2559; GS 3466; RGS 5335; CGL 7468.

839.06 Collectors not to deal in warrants, etc.; removal.—No tax collector of any county shall, either directly or indirectly, purchase or receive in exchange any comptroller's warrants, county orders, jurors' certificates or school district orders for a less amount than expressed on the face of such orders or demand, and any such person so offending shall, for each offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars nor more than ten thousand dollars, and be removed from office.

History.—Ch. 4010, 1891; §40, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 8467; §39, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 5336; CGL 7469.

839.07 Officers prohibited from bidding, etc., for public work.—It is unlawful for any commissioned or other officer of this state, or for any officer elected or otherwise of any county or incorporated town or city therein, to bid or enter into, or be in any way interested in, a contract for the working of any public road or street, the construction or building of any bridge, the erecting or building of any house, or for the performance of any other public work in which the said officer was a party to the letting, and any person upon conviction thereof shall be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year.

History.—§1, ch. 4020, 1891; GS 8468; RGS 5337; CGL 7470.

839.08 Public officer not to purchase supplies for public use from himself.—No state or county officer shall purchase supplies or materials for public use from himself or from any firm or corporation in which he is interested, nor in any manner share in the proceeds of such purchase. Any person violating this section shall upon conviction be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year.

History.—§1, ch. 5186, 1903; GS 8469; RGS 5338; CGL 7471.

839.09 Boards not to purchase supplies from members of boards.—No state or county board or municipal board or council shall purchase supplies, goods or materials for public use from any firm or corporation in which any member of such board is either directly or indirectly interested, nor shall any such board pay for such supplies, goods or materials so purchased. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished, upon conviction, by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year; provided, that no member of any board aforesaid who shall have recorded his vote against such illegal purchase, or who shall have been absent at the taking of the vote thereon, shall be convicted of a violation of this section.

History.—§2, ch. 5186, 1903; GS 8470; §1, ch. 5692, 1907; RGS 5339; CGL 7472.

839.091 Purchasing supplies; exemption from penalties.—

(1) No person shall be subject to prosecution under §§839.08 and 839.09 when such purchases are:

(a) made from the lowest bidder under sealed bids, or

(b) where such purchases are made at current market prices under a rotation system by which purchases are rotated among the different suppliers; or

(c) where purchases are made at current market prices and are for an aggregate amount in any calendar year of not more than one thousand dollars.

(d) For utility services, newspaper advertising, telephone or telegraph service, insurance premiums or similar services.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not apply to counties of the state with population of more than one hundred thousand.

History.—Comp. §§1, 3, ch. 26934, 1951.

839.10 No officer or board to bid for public work.—No state or county officer nor member of any state or county board shall bid for, or enter into, or be in any manner interested in any contract for public work for which the said officer or state or county board is or may be a party to the letting. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year; provided, that no member of any board aforesaid who shall have recorded his vote against the letting of such contract, or who shall have been absent at the taking of the vote thereon, shall be convicted of a violation of this section.

History.—§3, ch. 5186, 1903; GS 8471; RGS 5340; CGL 7473.

839.11 Extortion and malpractice generally.—Any officer of this state who willfully charges, receives or collects any greater fees than he is entitled to charge, receive or collect by law, or who is guilty of any malpractice in office not otherwise especially provided for, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§2569; RS 1892; GS 8481; RGS 5354; CGL 7489. cf.—§116.13, Superintendent of state asylums and presidents of educational institutions.

cf.—§933.15, Obstruction of service or execution of search warrant.

§951.19, Interference with county convicts.

843.09 Voluntary escape by officer.—If a jailer or other officer voluntarily suffers a prisoner in his custody, upon conviction of any criminal charge, to escape, he shall suffer the like punishment and penalties as the prisoner suffered to escape was sentenced to or would be liable to suffer, upon conviction of the crime or offense wherewith he stood charged.

History.—§13, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2588; GS 3509; RGS 5395; CGL 7535.

843.10 Escape by negligence of officer.—If a jailer or other officer, through negligence, suffers a prisoner in his custody upon conviction of any criminal charge to escape, he shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§14, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2589; GS 3510; RGS 5396; CGL 7536.

843.11 Conveying tools into jail to aid escape; forcible rescue.—Whoever conveys into a jail or other like place of confinement, any disguise, instrument, tool, weapon or other thing adapted or useful to aid a prisoner in making his escape, with intent to facilitate the escape of any prisoner there lawfully committed or detained, or, by any means whatever, aids or assists such prisoner in his endeavors to escape therefrom, whether such escape is effected or attempted or not; and whoever forcibly rescues any prisoner held in custody upon any conviction or charge of an offense, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding ten years; or if the person whose escape or rescue was effected or intended, was charged with an offense not capital nor punishable by imprisonment in the state prison, then by imprisonment in the jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding $500.00; or if the prisoner while his escape or rescue is being effected or attempted commits any crime with the weapon, tool or instrument conveyed to him, the person conveying the weapon, tool or instrument to him shall be subject to whatever fine, imprisonment or other punishment the law imposes for the crime committed, as an accessory before the fact.

History.—§11, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2590; GS 3511; RGS 5397; CGL 7537; §1, ch. 29895, 1955.

843.12 Aiding escape.—Whoever knowingly aids or assists a person in escaping, or attempting to escape, from an officer or person who has or is entitled to the lawful custody of such person, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§12, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2591; §1, ch. 5154, 1903; GS 3512; RGS 5398; CGL 7538.

843.13 Aiding escape of inmates of Florida schools for boys or girls.—Whoever in any manner knowingly aids or assists any inmate of any correctional institution for boys or girls in the state to escape therefrom, or who knowingly, or having good reason to believe that any person is an inmate of such schools and is escaping or attempting to escape therefrom, aids or assists such inmate to make his escape or to avoid detention or recapture, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall upon conviction be punished as by the statutes in such cases made and provided.

History.—§1, ch. 9138, 1923; CGL 7539; §1, ch. 63-128

cf.—§775.07, Punishment for misdemeanor.

§956.01, Florida school for girls.

843.14 Compounding felony.—Whoever, having knowledge of the commission of an offense punishable with death or by imprisonment in the state prison, takes money or a gratuity or reward, or an engagement therefor, upon an agreement or understanding, expressed or implied, to compound or conceal such offense, or not to prosecute therefor, or not to give evidence thereof, shall when such offense of which he has knowledge is punishable with death or imprisonment in the state prison for life, be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years, or in the county jail not exceeding one year; and where the offense of which he so had knowledge was punishable in any other manner, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§20, sub-ch. 3, 1637, 1868; RS 2592; GS 3513; RGS 5399; CGL 7540.

843.15 Unlawful to forfeit bail bond; penalty.—It is unlawful for any person, who is charged by affidavit, information or indictment with the commission of any criminal offense within the state, and who has entered into and executed any bail bond, conditioned upon his appearance before any court in this state, to forfeit such bail bond by not appearing in the court at the time and place designated in the said bail bond.

Any person, who shall violate this section shall, upon said bail bond being estreated by order of the court having jurisdiction over such bond, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 8468, 1921; CGL 7545, 7546.

cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

§903.26, Forfeiture of undertaking.

843.16 Unlawful to install radio equipment using assigned frequency of state or law enforcement officers; definitions; exceptions; penalties.—

(1) No person, firm or corporation shall install in any motor vehicle or business establishment, except emergency vehicles as herein defined, or places established by municipal, county, state, or federal authority for governmental purposes, any frequency modulation radio receiving equipment so adjusted or tuned as to receive messages or signals on frequencies assigned by the federal communications commission to police or law enforcement officers of any city or county of the state or to the state or any of its agencies. Provided, nothing herein shall be construed to affect any radio station licensed by the federal communications system.

(2) As used in this section the term "emergency vehicle" shall specifically mean:

(a) any motor vehicle used by any law enforcement officer or employee of any city, county, the state, federal bureau of investigation, or armed forces of the United States while on official business;

(b) any fire department vehicle of any city or county of the state, or any state fire department vehicle;

(c) any motor vehicle designated as an emergency vehicle by the director of the department of public safety, and approved by the executive board, department of public safety, when said vehicle is to be assigned the use of frequencies assigned to the state;

(d) any motor vehicle designated as an emergency vehicle by the sheriff of any county in Florida when said vehicle is to be assigned the use of frequencies assigned to the said county;

(e) any motor vehicle designated as an emergency vehicle by the chief of police of any city in the state when said vehicle is to be assigned the use of frequencies assigned to the said city.

(3) This section shall not apply to any holders of a valid amateur radio operator or station license issued by the federal communications commission.

(4) Any person, firm or corporation, violating any of the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished according to law.

CHAPTER 847

OBSCENE LITERATURE; PROFANITY

- 847.011 Prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscene, lewd, etc., materials; penalty.
 847.02 Confiscation of obscene books, etc.
 847.03 Officer to seize books, etc.

- 847.04 Open profanity.
 847.05 Using indecent or obscene language.
 847.06 Obscene matter; transportation into state prohibited; penalty.

847.011 Prohibition of certain acts in connection with obscene, lewd, etc., materials; penalty.—

(1) (a) A person who knowingly sells, lends, gives away, distributes, transmits, shows or transmits, or offers to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, show or transmute, or has in his possession, custody, or control with intent to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, show, transmute, or advertise in any manner, any obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, immoral, sadistic, or masochistic book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing, paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, phonograph record, or wire or tape or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of such character, or any article or instrument of indecent or immoral use, or purporting to be for indecent or immoral use or purpose; or who knowingly designs, copies, draws, photographs, poses for, writes, prints, publishes, or in any manner whatsoever manufactures or prepares any such material, matter, article, or thing of any such character; or who knowingly writes, prints, publishes, or utters, or causes to be written, printed, published, or uttered, any advertisement or notice of any kind, giving information, directly or indirectly, stating, or purporting to state, where, how, of whom, or by what means any, or what purports to be any, such material, matter, article, or thing of any such character can be purchased, obtained, or had; or who in any manner knowingly hires, employs, uses, or permits any person to do or assist in doing, either knowingly or innocently, any act or thing mentioned above, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding $1,000.00, or both. A person who, after having been convicted of a violation of this section, thereafter violates any of its provisions, is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years or in the county jail not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding $10,000.00, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) The knowing possession by any person of six or more identical or similar materials, matters, articles or things coming within the provisions of the foregoing paragraph (a) is presumptive evidence of the violation of said paragraph.

(2) A person who knowingly has in his possession, custody, or control any obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, immoral, sadistic, or masochistic book, magazine, periodical, pamphlet, newspaper, comic book, story paper, written or printed story or article, writing, paper, card, picture, drawing, photograph, motion picture film, figure, image, phonograph record, or wire or tape or other recording, or any written, printed, or recorded matter of any such character which may or may not require mechanical or other means to be transmuted into auditory, visual, or sensory representations of such character, or any article or instrument of indecent or immoral use, or purporting to be for indecent or immoral use or purpose, without intent to sell, lend, give away, distribute, transmit, show, transmute, or advertise the same, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months or by fine not exceeding $500.00, or both. In any prosecution for such possession, it shall not be necessary to allege or prove the absence of such intent.

(3) No person shall as a condition to a sale, allocation, consignment, or delivery for resale of any paper, magazine, book, periodical, or publication require that the purchaser or consignee receive for resale any other article, paper, magazine, book, periodical, or publication reasonably believed by the purchaser or consignee to be obscene, lewd, lascivious, filthy, indecent, immoral, sadistic, or masochistic, and no person shall deny or threaten to deny or revoke any franchise or impose or threaten to impose any penalty, financial or otherwise, by reason of the failure of any person to accept any such article, paper, magazine, book, periodical, or publication, or by reason of the return thereof. Whoever violates this section is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not exceeding five years or in the county jail not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding $10,000.00, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(4) Every act, thing, or transaction forbidden by this section shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such.

(5) Proof that a defendant knowingly committed any act or engaged in any conduct referred to in this section may be made by showing that at the time such act was committed or conduct engaged in he had actual knowledge of the contents or character of the material, matter, article, or thing possessed or otherwise dealt with, or by showing facts and circumstances from which it may fairly be inferred that he had such knowledge, or by showing that he had knowledge of such facts and circumstances as would put a man of ordinary intelligence and caution on inquiry as to such contents or character.

(6) There shall be no right of property in any of the materials, matters, articles, or things possessed or otherwise dealt with in violation of this section, and upon the seizure of any such material, matter, article, or thing by any authorized law enforcement officer the same shall be delivered to and held by the clerk of the court having jurisdiction to try such violation. When the same is no longer required as evidence, the prosecuting officer or any claimant may move the court in writing for the disposition of the same and after notice and hearing, the court, if it finds the same to have been possessed or otherwise dealt with in violation of this section, shall order the sheriff to destroy the same in the presence of the clerk; otherwise, the court shall order the same returned to the claimant if he shows that he is entitled to possession. If destruction is ordered, the sheriff and clerk shall file a certificate of compliance.

(7) (a) The circuit court has jurisdiction to enjoin a threatened violation of this section upon complaint filed by the state attorney, county solicitor, or county prosecuting attorney in the name of the state upon the relation of such state attorney, county solicitor, or county prosecuting attorney.

(b) After the filing of such a complaint, the judge to whom it is presented may grant an order restraining the person complained of until final hearing or further order of the court. Whenever the relator state attorney, county solicitor or county prosecuting attorney shall request a judge of said court to set a hearing upon an application for such a restraining order, such judge shall set such hearing for a time within three days after the making of such request. No such order shall be made unless such judge shall be satisfied that sufficient notice of the application therefor has been given to the party restrained of the time when and place where the application for such restraining order is to be made, provided, however, that such notice shall be dispensed with when it is manifest to such judge, from the sworn allegations of the complaint or the affidavit of the plaintiff or other competent person, that the apprehended violation will be committed if an immediate remedy is not afforded.

(c) The person sought to be enjoined shall be entitled to a trial of the issues within one day after joinder of issue and a decision shall be rendered by the court within two days of the conclusion of the trial.

(d) In the event that a final decree of injunction is entered, it shall contain a provision directing the defendant having the possession, custody, or control of the materials, matters, articles, or things affected by the injunction to surrender the same to the sheriff and requiring the sheriff to seize and destroy the same. The sheriff shall file a certificate of his compliance.

(e) In any action brought as provided in this section, no bond or undertaking shall be required of the state or the state attorney or county solicitor or county prosecuting attorney before the issuance of a restraining order provided for by paragraph (b) of this subsection, and there shall be no liability on the part of the state or the state attorney or the county solicitor or the county prosecuting attorney for costs or for damages sustained by reason of such restraining order in any case where a final decree is rendered in favor of the person sought to be enjoined.

(f) Every person who has possession, custody, or control of, or otherwise deals with any of the materials, matters, articles, or things described in this section, after the service upon him of a summons and complaint in an action for injunction brought under this section, is chargeable with knowledge of the contents and character thereof.

(8) The several sheriffs, constables, state attorneys, county solicitors, and county prosecuting attorneys shall vigorously enforce this section within their respective jurisdictions.

(9) This section shall not apply to the exhibition of motion picture films permitted by §521.02.

(10) For the purposes of this section, the test of whether or not material is obscene is: Whether to the average person, applying contemporary community standards, the dominant theme of the material taken as a whole appeals to prurient interest.

(11) For the purposes of this section, the word person includes individuals, firms, associations, corporations, and all other groups and combinations.

849.091 Chain letters, pyramid clubs, etc., declared a lottery; prohibited; penalties.—The organization of any chain letter club, pyramid club, or other group organized or brought together under any plan or device whereby fees or dues or anything of material value to be paid or given by members thereof are to be paid or given to any other member thereof, which plan or device includes any provision for the increase in such membership through a chain process of new members securing other new members and thereby advancing themselves in the group to a position where such members in turn receive fees, dues or things of material value from other members, is hereby declared to be a lottery, and whoever shall participate in any such lottery by becoming a member of, or affiliating with, any such group or organization or who shall solicit any person for membership or affiliation in any such group or organization shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not more than two years or in the state penitentiary not less than one year nor more than ten years.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 25096, 1949.

849.092 Retail merchandising business; certain activities permitted.—The provisions of §849.09, shall not be construed to prohibit or prevent persons who are licensed to conduct business under chapter 204 or chapter 208, from giving away articles of merchandise to persons selected by lot, if such gifts are made upon the following conditions:

(1) That such gifts are conducted as advertising and promotional undertakings, in good faith, solely for the purpose of advertising the goods, wares, merchandising and business of such licensee; and

(2) That the principal business of such licensee is the business permitted to be licensed under §204.02 or under §208.01; and

(3) That no person to be eligible to receive such gift shall ever be required to:

(a) Pay any tangible consideration to such licensee in the form of money or other property or thing of value,

(b) Purchase any goods, wares, merchandise or anything of value from such licensee,

(c) Nor enter into or upon the business premises of the licensee at the time of any drawing or selection; and

(4) That the person selected to receive any such gift or prize offered by any such licensee in connection with any such advertising or promotion is notified of his selection and the gift or prize is delivered to him at his last known address at no expense to such selected recipient.

Newspapers, magazines, television and radio stations may, without violating any law, publish and broadcast advertising matter describing such advertising and promotional undertakings of such licensees which may contain instructions pursuant to which persons desiring to become eligible for such gifts or prizes may make their name and address known to such licensee.

History.—§1, ch. 63-553.

849.10 Printing lottery tickets, etc., prohibited.—It is unlawful for any person, in any house, office, shop or building in this state to write, typewrite, print, or publish any lottery ticket or advertisement, circular, bill, poster, pamphlet, list or schedule, announcement or notice, of lottery prizes or drawings or any other matter or thing in any way connected with any lottery drawing, scheme or device, or to set up any type or plate for any such purpose, to be used or distributed in this state, or to be sent out of this state.

It is unlawful for the owner or lessee of any such house, shop or building knowingly to permit the printing, typewriting, writing or publishing therein of any lottery ticket or advertisement, circular, bill, poster, pamphlet, list, schedule, announcement or notice of lottery prizes or drawings, or any other matter or thing in any way connected with any lottery drawing, scheme or device, or knowingly to permit therein the setting up of any type or plate for any such purpose to be used or distributed in this state, or to be sent out of the state.

Any violation of this section shall be a felony, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than three thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the state penitentiary not less than one year nor more than five years.

(1) To manufacture, own, store, keep, possess, sell, rent, lease, let on shares, lend or give away, transport, or expose for sale or lease, or to offer to sell, rent, lease, let on shares, lend or give away, or permit the operation of, or for any person to permit to be placed, maintained, or used or kept in any room, space, or building owned, leased or occupied by him or under his management or control, any slot machine or device or any part thereof; or

(2) To make or to permit to be made with any person any agreement with reference to any slot machine or device, pursuant to which the user thereof, as a result of any element of chance or other outcome unpredictable to him, may become entitled to receive any money, credit, allowance, or thing of value or additional chance or right to use such machine or device, or to receive any check, slug, token or memorandum entitling the holder to receive any money, credit, allowance or thing of value.

History.—§1, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-a).

849.16 Machines or devices which come within provisions of law.—Any machine or device is a slot machine or device within the provisions of this chapter if it is one that is adapted for use in such a way that, as a result of the insertion of any piece of money or coin or other object such machine or device is caused to operate or may be operated, and by reason of any element of chance or of other outcome of such operation unpredictable by him, the user may receive or become entitled to receive any piece of money, credit, allowance or thing of value, or any check, slug, token or memorandum, whether of value or otherwise, which may be exchanged for any money, credit, allowance or thing of value, or which may be given in trade, or the user may secure additional chances or rights to use such machine, apparatus or device, even though it may, in addition to any element of chance or unpredictable outcome of such operation, also sell, deliver or present some merchandise, indication of weight, entertainment or other thing of value.

History.—§2, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-b).

849.17 Confiscation of machines by arresting officer.—Upon the arrest of any person charged with the violation of any of the provisions of §§849.15-849.23 the arresting officer shall take into his custody any such machine, apparatus or device, and its contents, and the sheriff, at the place of seizure, shall make a complete and correct list and inventory of all such things so taken into his custody, and deliver to the person from whom such article or articles may have been seized, a true copy of the list of all such articles. Upon making such a seizure the sheriff shall, forthwith and without delay, deliver each and every item of the things taken into his custody to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which such seizure is made, and upon delivery, deliver therewith to said clerk the original list and inventory so made by said sheriff at the time and place of such seizure; and upon such delivery the clerk shall verify said list and inventory and mark each item for identification and make a complete and correct list and inventory of the things delivered to him by the sheriff, in duplicate, duly certified by him officially, and deliver one copy thereof to the sheriff, and deposit one copy in proper safety files in his office. The clerk of the circuit court shall keep and preserve all things so delivered to him and have the same forthcoming at any investigation, prosecution or other proceedings, incident to charges of violation of any of the provisions of §§849.15-849.23.

History.—§4, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-c).

849.18 Disposition of machines upon conviction.—Upon conviction of the person arrested for the violation of any of the provisions of §§849.15-849.23, the judge of the court trying the case, after such notice to the person convicted, and any other person whom the judge may be of the opinion is entitled to such notice, and as the judge may deem reasonable, shall issue to the sheriff of the county a written order adjudging and declaring any such machine, apparatus or device forfeited, and directing such sheriff to destroy the same, with the exception of the money. The order of the court shall state the time and place and the manner in which such property shall be destroyed, and the sheriff shall destroy the same in the presence of the clerk of the circuit court of such county.

History.—§5, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-d).

849.19 Property rights in confiscated machine.—The right of property in and to any machine, apparatus or device as defined in §849.16 and to all money and other things of value therein, is declared not to exist in any person, and the same shall be forfeited and such money or other things of value shall be forfeited to the county in which the seizure was made and shall be delivered forthwith to the clerk of the circuit court and shall by him be placed in the fine and forfeiture fund of said county.

History.—§6, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-e).
cf.—§1.01(3), "Person" defined.

849.20 Machines and devices declared nuisance; place of operation subject to lien for fine.—Any room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place wherein any machine or device, or any part thereof, the possession, operation or use of which is prohibited by §§849.15-849.23, shall be maintained or operated, and each of such machines or devices, is declared to be a common nuisance. If a person has knowledge, or reason to believe, that his room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place is occupied or used in violation of the provisions of §§849.15-849.23 and by acquiescence or consent suffers the same to be used, such room, house, building, boat, vehicle, structure or place shall be subject to a lien for and may be sold to pay all fines or costs assessed against the person guilty of such nuisance, for such violation, and the several state attorneys shall enforce such lien in the courts of this state having jurisdiction.

History.—§7, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-f);
am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

849.21 Injunction to restrain violation.—An action to enjoin any nuisance as herein defined may be brought by any person in the courts of equity in this state. If it is made to appear by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court, or judge in vacation, that such nuisance exists, a temporary writ of injunction shall forthwith issue restraining the defendant from conducting or permitting the continuance of such nuisance until the conclusion of the action. Upon application of the complainant in such a proceeding, the court or judge may also enter an order restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing, or in any way interfering with the machines or devices or other things used in connection with the violation of §§849.15-849.23 constituting such a nuisance. No bond shall be required in instituting such proceedings.

History.—§8, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-g).

849.22 Fees of clerk of circuit court and sheriff.—The clerks of the courts and the sheriffs performing duties under the provisions of §§849.15-849.23 shall receive the same fees as prescribed by general law for the performance of similar duties, and such fees shall be paid out of the fine and forfeiture fund of the county as costs are paid upon conviction of an insolvent person.

History.—§9, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 4151(405-h).

849.23 Penalty for violations of §§849.15-849.22.—Whoever shall violate any of the provisions of §§849.15-849.22 shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and punished by a fine of not less than $250, nor more than $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 3 months nor more than 6 months; provided, that any person convicted of violating any provision of §§849.15-849.22, a second time shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed a second offender and guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500, nor more than $750, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than 6 months nor more than 8 months; provided, further, that any person violating any provision of §§849.15-849.22, after having been twice convicted already, shall, upon conviction thereof, be deemed a "common offender," and shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and punished by a fine of not less than $1000, nor more than $5000, or by imprisonment in the state prison for a period of not less than 1 year, nor more than 5 years.

History.—§3, ch. 18143, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 8135(21).
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

849.231 Gambling devices; manufacture, sale, purchase or possession unlawful.—Except in instances where the following described implements or apparatus are being held by authorized persons for the purpose of destruction, as hereinafter provided, it shall be unlawful for any person to manufacture, sell, offer for sale, purchase, own or have in his possession any roulette wheel or table, faro layout, crap table or layout, chemin de fer table or layout, chuck-a-luck wheel, bird cage such as used for gambling, bolita balls, chips with house markings or any other device, implement, apparatus or paraphernalia ordinarily or commonly used or designed to be used in the operation of gambling houses or establishments, excepting ordinary dice and playing cards.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29665, 1955.

849.232 Property right in gambling devices; confiscation.—There shall be no right of property in any of the implements or devices enumerated or included in §849.231 and upon the seizure of any such implement, device, apparatus or paraphernalia by an authorized enforcement officer the same shall be delivered to and held by the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of such offenses and shall not be released by such clerk until he shall be advised by the prosecuting officer of such court that the said implement is no longer required as evidence and thereupon the said clerk shall deliver the said implement to the sheriff of the county who shall immediately cause the destruction of such implement in the presence of the said clerk or his authorized deputy.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 29665, 1955.

849.233 Penalty for violation of §849.231.—Any person, including any enforcement officer, clerk or prosecuting official who shall violate the provisions of §849.231 shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one year or by a fine not exceeding $1,000.00 or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 29665, 1955.

849.24 Bookmaking on the grounds of a permit holder; penalty for violation; ejection.—

(1) Any betting on the grounds of a permit holder of a horse or dog track or jai alai fronton license other than through the legalized pari-mutuel pools is declared to be illegal.

(2) Any person who shall engage in bookmaking or who shall solicit for, or bet with a bookmaker on the grounds of a permit holder shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months or by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, or both such fine and imprisonment. For a second like offense in this state, he shall be imprisoned.

(3) Any person who has been convicted of bookmaking, and the record of whose conviction on such charge is on file in the office of the Florida state racing commission, any court of this state, or of the federal bureau of investigation, or any person who has been ejected from any race track of this or any other state for bookmaking shall be excluded from all race tracks in this state.

(4) If the activities of an individual indicate that this law is being violated it shall be the duty of every officer, director, official and employee of the permit holder to investigate the actions of the person, or persons, believed to be violating this law. If after an investigation it shall be apparent to the investigating official that this law has been violated, then such person or persons shall be ejected from the premises of the permit holder and an ejection slip filed with the Florida state racing commission.

(5) Any such person who refuses to leave such track when ordered to do so by any proper authority or any person who has been ejected from a race track or jai alai fronton and an ejection slip filed with the Florida state racing commission who thereafter returns to a race track or jai alai fronton without having been reinstated by the commission is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as for a misdemeanor.

(6) It shall be the duty of each and every officer, director, official and employee of said permit holder to observe and enforce this section.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 24345, 1947; (5) by §1, ch. 57-179.

849.25 Bookmaking defined; penalties.—

(1) As used in this section, the term bookmaking shall be deemed to be the taking or receiving of any bet or wager upon the result of any trial or contest of skill, speed, power, or endurance of man, beast, fowl or motor vehicle.

(2) Whoever engages in bookmaking shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ninety days nor more than one year; provided that any person who, having been convicted of violating this act, thereafter violates this act, shall be punished, upon conviction, by imprisonment in the state prison for not less than one year nor more than five years.

(3) This section shall not apply to parimutuel wagering in Florida as authorized by the laws of the state; provided further, however, this section shall not apply to any prosecutions filed and pending at the time of the passage hereof, but all such cases shall be disposed of under existing law at the time of the institution of such prosecutions.

History.—Comp. §§1-3, ch. 26847, 1951.

849.26 Gambling contracts declared void; exception.—All promises, agreements, notes, bills, bonds or other contracts, mortgages or other securities, when the whole or part of the consideration is for money or other valuable thing won or lost, laid, staked, betted or wagered in any gambling transaction whatsoever, regardless of its name or nature, whether heretofore prohibited or not, or for the repayment of money lent or advanced at the time of a gambling transaction for the purpose of being laid, betted, staked or wagered, are void and of no effect; provided, that this act shall not apply to wagering on parimutuels or any gambling transaction expressly authorized by law.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.27 Suits to recover payment on gambling contracts for loser's benefit; state's share.—Whoever in person or by agent loses to another money or thing of value in any gambling transaction whatsoever, regardless of its name or nature, whether heretofore prohibited or not, and pays or delivers it or a part of it to the winner thereof or upon the winner's order, may, within ninety days after such loss and payment or delivery, sue for and recover (a) for his, the loser's own use and benefit, the money so lost and paid, and the thing of value so lost and delivered or its value, at his option, together with a reasonable attorney's fee, and (b) for the use and benefit of the state, an amount equal to the amount of money so lost and paid and an amount equal to the value of the thing of value so lost and delivered; provided, that this chapter shall not apply to wagering on pari-mutuels or any gambling transaction expressly authorized by law. If such loser has a legal guardian or curator, such guardian or curator may bring such suit within such ninety day period, and may exercise the option given the loser by clause (a) of this section to recover the property itself or the value thereof.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.28 Loser's failure to institute recovery suit; institution by wife, child, parent, etc.—

(1) If the loser or his legal guardian or curator does not institute such suit within the ninety day period prescribed by §849.27 and effectively prosecute the same, without collusion or deceit, then, within ninety days after the expiration of the ninety-day period prescribed by said §849.27, such suit for the recovery of said items may be brought by

(a) the wife or husband of the loser; or

(b) if the loser has a wife or husband and/or minor child, such suit may be brought by any relative of the loser or of the loser's wife or husband; or

(c) if the loser is an unmarried minor, such suit may be brought by his or her parents or either of them.

(2) If the suit is brought by any person mentioned in paragraphs (a) or (b) of subsection (1) of this section, it shall be brought for the recovery of the item specified in clause (a) of §849.27 for the use and benefit of the loser's wife or husband and minor children, or such of them as there may be, and for the recovery of the items specified in clause (b) of §849.27 for the use and benefit of the state.

(3) If the suit be brought by any person or persons mentioned in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section, it shall be for the recovery of the items specified in clause (a) of §849.27 for the use and benefit of the loser's parents, and for the recovery of the items specified in clause (b) of §849.27 for the use and benefit of the state. If property shall have been lost and delivered, any plaintiff suing under authorization of this section shall have the option given the loser in clause (a) of §849.27 to recover the property itself or the value thereof.

History.—§3, ch. 26543, 1951; (1)(b), (c) by §24, ch. 57-1.

849.29 Persons against whom suits may be brought to recover on gambling contracts.—The following persons shall be jointly and severally liable for the items which are authorized by this act to be sued for and recovered, and any suit brought under the authorization of this act may be brought against all or any of such persons, to-wit: The winner of the money or property lost in the gambling transaction; every person who, having direct or indirect charge, control or management, either exclusively or with others, of the place where the gambling transaction occurs, procures, suffers or permits such place to be used for gambling purposes; whoever promotes, sets up or conducts the gambling transaction in which the loss occurs or has an interest in it as backer, vendor, owner or otherwise; and, as to anything of value other than money, the transferees and assignees, with notice, of the persons hereinabove specified in this section; and the personal representatives of the persons specified in this section.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.30 Plaintiff entitled to writs of attachment, garnishment and replevin.—In any suit under §§849.26-849.34, the plaintiff shall be entitled to writs of attachment and garnishment for the sums of money, exclusive of attorney's fees, sued for the use and benefit of persons other than the state, in the same manner and to the same extent as in an action on contract; and, in any suit under this chapter for the recovery of a thing of value other than money, the plaintiff shall be entitled to a writ of replevin for the recovery of such thing of value, in the manner and to the extent provided by the replevin statutes of the state.

History.—§5, ch. 26543, 1951; §24, ch. 57-1.

849.31 Loser's testimony not to be used against him.—In the event that suit is brought under the authorization of §§849.26-849.34 by someone other than the loser of the money or thing of value involved in the suit, such loser shall not be excused from being required to attend and testify or produce any book, paper or other document or evidence in such suit, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or to subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so be required to testify or produce evidence, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or prosecution. If the loser of money or thing of value involved in a suit brought under authorization of §§849.26-849.34, whether by him or by someone else, voluntarily attends or produces evidence in such suit, he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or prosecution. Also, neither the fact of the bringing of suit under this act by a loser nor any statement or admission in his pleadings which is material and relevant to the subject matter of the suit shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.32 Notice to state attorney; prosecution of suit.—The summons in any such suit, and copies of all pleadings and notices of all hearings in the suit, and notice of the trial and of application for the entry of final judgment, shall be served on the state attorney, whose duty it shall be to protect the interests of the state and, if the plaintiff fails to diligently prosecute the suit, to bring such failure to the attention of the court. If the plaintiff fails to effectively prosecute any such suit without collusion or deceit and without unnecessary delay, the court shall direct the state attorney to proceed with the action. No such suit shall be dismissed except upon a sworn statement filed by the plaintiff or the state attorney which satisfies the court that the suit should be dismissed.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.33 Judgment and collection of money; execution.—Any judgment recovered in such a suit shall adjudge separately the amounts recovered for the use of the state, and the plaintiff shall not have execution therefor, and such amounts shall not be paid to the plaintiff, but shall be payable to the state attorney, who shall promptly transmit the sums collected by him to the state treasurer. The state attorney shall diligently seek the collection of such amounts and may cause a separate execution to issue for the collection thereof.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.34 Loser's judgment; recovery of property; writ of assistance.—If the plaintiff in any such suit seek to recover property lost, and if he shall prevail as to any such property, he shall take judgment for the property itself and for the value thereof, the judgment as to such property to be satisfied by the recovery of the property or of the value thereof. The plaintiff may, at his option, sue out a separate writ of possession for the property and a separate execution for any other moneys and costs adjudged in his favor, or he may sue out an execution for the value of the property and any other moneys and costs adjudged in his favor. If he elect to sue out a writ of possession for the property, and if the officer shall return that he is unable to find the property, or any of it, the plaintiff may thereupon sue out execution for the value of the property not found. In any proceeding to ascertain the value of the property, the value of each article shall be found so that judgment for such value may be entered.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 26543, 1951.

849.35 Definitions.—In construing §§849.36-849.46 and each and every word, phrase, or part thereof, where the context permits:

(1) The singular includes the plural and vice versa.

(2) The masculine includes the feminine and neuter and vice versa.

(3) The term "vessel" includes every description of watercraft, vessel or contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation in or on water, or in or on the water and in the air.

(4) The term "vehicle" includes every description of vehicle, carriage, animal or contrivance used, or capable of being used, as a means of transportation on land, in the air, or on land and in the air.

(5) The term "gambling paraphernalia" includes every description of apparatus, implement, machine, device or contrivance used in, or in connection with, any violation of the lottery, gaming and gambling statutes, and laws of this state, except facilities and equipment furnished by a public utility in the regular course of business, and which remain the property of such utility while so furnished.

(6) The term "lottery ticket" shall include every ticket, token, emblem, card, paper or other evidence of a chance, interest, prize or share in, or in connection with any lottery, game of chance or hazard or other things in violation of the lottery and gambling statutes and laws of this state (including bolita, cuba, bond, New York bond, butter and eggs, night house and other like and similar operations, but not excluding others). The said term shall also include so-called run down sheets, tally sheets, and all other papers, records, instruments, and things designed for use, either directly or indirectly, in, or in connection with, the violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling in this state.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.36 Seizure and forfeiture of property used in the violation of lottery and gambling statutes.—

(1) Every vessel or vehicle used for, or in connection with, the removal, transportation, storage, deposit or concealment of any lottery tickets, or used in connection with any lottery or game in violation of the statutes and laws of this state, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture, as hereinafter provided; provided that no vehicle, vessel or aircraft used by any person as a common carrier in the transaction of business as such carrier shall be forfeited under the provisions of §§849.36-849.46 unless it shall appear that (a) in the case of a railway car or engine, the owner, or (b) in the case of any other such vehicle, vessel or aircraft the owner or the master of such vessel or the owner or conductor, driver, pilot or other person in charge of such vehicle or aircraft was at the time of the alleged illegal act a consenting party or privy thereto; provided further that this subsection shall not apply to vessels or ships operating under a foreign registry, flying foreign flags, which vessels or ships are engaged in the transportation of passengers and/or freight for hire in a continuous voyage between ports in Florida and ports outside the continental limits of the United States, provided said equipment or paraphernalia referred to herein is sealed prior to entering the jurisdiction of the state and remains in such inoperative condition within the said jurisdiction.

(2) All gambling paraphernalia and lottery tickets as herein defined used in connection with a lottery, gambling, unlawful game of chance or hazard, in violation of the statutes and laws of this state, found by an officer in searching a vessel or vehicle used in the violation of the gambling laws shall be safely kept so long as it is necessary for the purpose of being used as evidence in any case, and as soon as may be afterwards, shall be destroyed by order of the court before whom the case is brought or certified to any other court having jurisdiction, either state or federal.

(3) The presence of any lottery ticket in any vessel or vehicle owned or being operated by any person charged with a violation of the gambling laws of the state, shall be prima facie evidence that such vessel or vehicle was or is being used in connection with a violation of the lottery and gambling statutes and laws of this state and as a means of removing, transporting, depositing or concealing lottery tickets and shall be sufficient evidence for the seizure of such vessel or vehicle.

(4) The presence of lottery tickets in any room or place, including vessels and vehicles, shall be prima facie evidence that such room, place, vessel or vehicle, and all apparatus, implements, machines, contrivances or devices therein, (herein referred to as "gambling paraphernalia") capable of being used in connection with a violation of the lottery and gambling statutes and laws of this state and shall be sufficient evidence for the seizure of such gambling paraphernalia.

(5) It shall be the duty of every peace officer in this state finding any vessel, vehicle or paraphernalia being used in violation of the statutes and laws of this state as aforesaid to seize and take possession of such property for disposition as hereinafter provided. It shall also be the duty of every peace officer finding any such property being so used, in connection with any lawful search made by him, to seize and take possession of the same for disposition as hereinafter provided.

History.—§2, ch. 29712, 1955; (1) by §1, ch. 57-236.

849.37 Disposition and appraisal of property seized under this chapter.—

(1) Every peace officer, other than the sheriff, seizing property pursuant to the provisions of §§849.36-849.46 shall forthwith make return of the seizure thereof and deliver the said property to the sheriff of the county wherein the same was seized. The said return to the sheriff shall describe the property seized and give in detail the facts and circumstances under which the same was seized and state in full the reason why the seizing officer knew, or was led to believe, that the said property was being used for or in connection with a violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling in this state. The said return shall contain the names of all persons, firms and corporations known to the seizing officer to be interested in the seized property.

(2) When property is seized by the sheriff pursuant to this chapter, or when property seized by another is delivered to the sheriff as aforesaid, he shall forthwith fix the approximate value thereof and make return thereof to the clerk of the circuit court as hereinafter provided.

(3) The return of the sheriff aforesaid shall contain a schedule of the property seized describing the same in reasonable detail and give in detail the facts and circumstances under which it was seized and state in full the reason why the seizing officer knew or was led to believe that the property was being used for or in connection with a violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries or gambling in this state; and a statement of the names of all persons, firms and corporations known to the sheriff to be interested in the seized property; and in cases where the said property was seized by another the sheriff shall attach to his said return, as an exhibit thereto, the return of the seizing officer to him.

(4) The sheriff shall hold the said property seized pending its disposal by the court as hereinafter provided.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.38 Proceedings for forfeiture; notice of seizure and order to show cause.—

(1) The return of the sheriff aforesaid to the clerk of the circuit court shall be taken and considered as the state's petition or libel in rem for the forfeiture of the property therein described, of which the circuit court of the county shall have jurisdiction without regard to value under and by virtue of that provision in §6, art. V, of the state constitution, under which the circuit courts may be given jurisdiction of "such other matters as the legislature may provide." The said return shall be sufficient as said petition or libel notwithstanding the fact that it may contain no formal prayer or demand for forfeiture, it being the intention of the legislature that forfeiture may be decreed without a formal prayer or demand therefor. The said return shall be subject to amendment at any time before final hearing, provided that copies thereof shall be served upon all persons, firms or corporations who may have filed a claim prior to such amendment.

(2) Upon the filing of said return the clerk of the circuit court shall issue a citation, directed to all persons, firms and corporations owning, having or claiming an interest in or a lien upon the seized property, giving notice of the seizure and directing that all persons, firms or corporations owning, having or claiming an interest therein or lien thereon, to file their claim to, on, or in said property within the time fixed in said citation, as to persons, firms and corporations not personally served, and within twenty days from personal service of said citation, when personal service is had. Personal service shall be made on all parties, in Florida, having liens noted upon a certificate of title as shown by the records in the office of the motor vehicle commissioner.

(3) The said citation may be in, or substantially in, the following form:

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE _____ JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR _____ COUNTY, FLORIDA.

IN RE FORFEITURE OF THE FOLLOWING DESCRIBED PROPERTY:

(Here describe property)

THE STATE OF FLORIDA TO:

ALL PERSONS, FIRMS AND CORPORATIONS OWNING, HAVING OR CLAIMING AN INTEREST IN OR LIEN ON THE ABOVE DESCRIBED PROPERTY.

YOU AND EACH OF YOU are hereby notified that the above described property has been seized, under and by virtue of chapter _____, laws of Florida, Acts of 1955, and is now in the possession of the sheriff of this county, and you, and each of you, are hereby further notified that a petition, under said chapter, has been filed in the Circuit Court of the _____ Judicial Circuit, in and for _____ County, Florida, seeking the forfeiture of the said property, and you are hereby directed and required to file your claim, if any you have, and show cause, on or before _____, 19____, if not personally served with process herein, and within twenty days from personal service if personally served with process herein, why the said property should not be forfeited pursuant to said chapter _____, laws of Florida, Acts of 1955. Should you fail to file claim as herein directed judgment will be entered herein against you in due course. Persons not personally served with process may obtain a copy of the petition for forfeiture filed herein from the undersigned clerk of court.

WITNESS my hand and the seal of the above mentioned court, at _____ Florida, this _____ 19____.

(COURT SEAL)

Clerk of the above mentioned Court.
By _____

Deputy Clerk

(4) Such citation shall be returnable, as to persons served constructively, as therein directed, not less than twenty-one nor more than thirty days, from the posting or publication thereof, and as to personally served with process within twenty days from service thereof. A copy of the petition shall be served with the process when personally served. Personal service of process may be made in the same manner as a summons in chancery.

(5) If the value of the property seized is shown by the sheriff's return to have an appraised value of four hundred dollars or less, the above citation shall be served by posting at three public places in the county, one of which shall be the front door of the courthouse; if the value of the property is shown by the sheriff's return to have an approximate value of more than four hundred dollars, the citation shall be published once a week for three consecutive weeks in some newspaper of general publication published in the county, if there be such a newspaper published in the county and if not, then said notice of such publication shall be made by certificate of the clerk if publication is made by posting, and by affidavit as provided in chapter 49, if made by publication in a newspaper, which affidavit or certificate shall be filed and become a part of the record in the cause. Failure of the record to show proof of such publication shall not affect any judgment made in the cause unless it shall affirmatively appear that no such publication was made.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.39 Delivery of property to claimant.—Any person, firm or corporation filing a claim in the cause, which claim shall state fully his right, title, claim or interest, in and to the seized property, may, at any time after said claim is filed with the clerk of the court, obtain possession of the seized property by filing a petition therefor with the sheriff and posting with him, to be approved by him, a surety bond, payable to the governor of the state in twice the amount of the value of the said property as fixed in the sheriff's return to the clerk of the circuit court, with a corporate surety duly authorized to transact business in this state as surety, conditioned upon his paying to the sheriff the value of the property together with costs of the proceeding, if judgment of forfeiture be entered by the court. Upon the posting of such bond with the sheriff and the release of the property to the applicant the cause shall proceed to final judgment in the same manner as it would have had no such bond been filed, except that any execution to be issued in the cause pursuant to judgment may run against and be enforced against the person posting said bond and his surety.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.40 Proceeding when no claim filed.—When no claim is filed in the cause within the time required the clerk shall enter a default against all persons, firms and corporations owning, claiming or having an interest in and to the property seized and the cause may then proceed in the same manner as a common law cause after default, and final judgment shall be entered therein ex parte, except as may be herein otherwise provided.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.41 Proceeding when claim filed.—When one or more claims are filed in the cause the cause shall be tried upon the issues made thereby with the petition for forfeiture with any affirmative defenses being deemed denied without further pleading. Judgment by default shall be entered against all other persons, firms and corporations owning, claiming or having an interest in and to the property seized, after which the cause shall proceed as in other common law cases; except any claimant shall prove to the satisfaction of the court that he did not know or have any reason to believe, at the time his right, title, interest, or lien arose, that the property was being used for or in connection with the violation of any of the statutes or laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling and further that at said time there was no reasonable reason to believe that the said property might be used for such purpose. Where the owner of the property has been convicted of a violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries or gambling such conviction shall be prima facie evidence that each claimant had reason to believe that the property might be used for or in connection with a violation of such statutes and laws, and it shall be incumbent upon such claimant to satisfy the court that he was without knowledge of such conviction. Trial of all such causes shall be without a jury, except in such cases as a trial by jury may be guaranteed by the state constitution and in such cases trial by jury shall be deemed waived unless demanded in the claim filed.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.42 State attorney to represent state.—Upon the filing of the sheriff's return with the clerk of the circuit court the said clerk shall furnish the state attorney with a copy thereof and the said state attorney shall represent the state in the forfeiture proceedings. The attorney general shall represent the state in all appeals from judgments of forfeiture to the appropriate district court of appeal or direct to the supreme court when authorized by §4, Art. V of the state constitution. The state may appeal any judgment denying forfeiture in whole or in part or that may be otherwise adverse to the state.

History.—§8, ch. 29712, 1955; §34, ch. 63-559.

849.43 Judgment of forfeiture.—On final hearing the return of the sheriff to the clerk of the circuit court shall be taken as prima facie evidence that the property seized was or had been used in, or in connection with, the violation of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling in this state and shall be sufficient predicate for a judgment of forfeiture in the absence of other proofs and evidence. The burden shall be upon the claimants to show that the property was not so used or if so used that they had no knowledge of such violation and no reason to believe that the seized property was or would be used for the violation of such statutes and laws. Where such property is encumbered by a lien or retained title agreement under circumstances wherein the lienholder had no knowledge that the property was or would be used in violating such statutes and laws, and no reasonable reason to believe that it might be so used, then the court may declare a forfeiture of all other rights, titles and interests, subject, however, to the lien of such innocent lienholder, or may direct the payment of such lien from the proceeds of any sale of the said property. The proceedings and the judgment of forfeiture shall be in rem and shall be primarily against the property itself. Upon the entry of a judgment of forfeiture the court shall determine the disposition to be made of the property, which may include the destruction thereof, the sale thereof, the allocation thereof to some governmental function or use, or otherwise as the court may determine. Sales of such property shall be at public sale to the highest and best bidder therefor for cash after two weeks public notice as the court may direct. Where the property has been delivered to a claimant upon the posting of a bond the court shall determine the value of the property or portion thereof subject to forfeiture and shall enter judgment against the principal and surety of the bond in such amount for which execution shall issue in the usual manner. Upon the application of any claimant the court may fix the value of the forfeitable interest or interests in the seized property and permit such claimant to redeem the said property upon the payment of a sum equal to said value which sum shall be disposed of as would the proceeds of a sale of the said property under a judgment of forfeiture.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.44 Disposition of proceeds of forfeiture.—All sums received from a sale or other disposition of the seized property shall be paid into the county fine and forfeiture fund and shall become a part thereof; provided, however, that in instances where the seizure is by a municipal police officer within the limits of any municipality having an ordinance requiring such vehicles, vessels or conveyances to be forfeited, the city attorney shall act in behalf of the city in lieu of the state attorney and shall proceed to forfeit the property as herein provided, and all sums received therefrom shall go into the general operating fund of the city.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 29712, 1955; §24, ch. 57-1.

849.45 Fees for services.—Fees for services required hereunder shall be the same as provided for sheriffs and clerks for like and similar services in other cases and matters.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 29712, 1955.

849.46 Exercise of police power.—It is deemed by the legislature that this chapter is necessary for the more efficient and proper enforcement of the statutes and laws of this state prohibiting lotteries and gambling, and a lawful exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the public welfare, health, safety and morals of the people of the state. All the provisions of this chapter shall be liberally construed for the accomplishment of these purposes.

CHAPTER 851

BUCKET SHOPS

851.01 "Bucket shop" defined; purpose of chapter.

851.02 Penalty for maintaining bucket shop.

851.01 "Bucket shop" defined; purpose of chapter.—A bucket shop within the meaning of this chapter is defined to be an office, store, or other place wherein the proprietor or keeper thereof, or other person or agent in his behalf, or any agent or correspondent of any other person, within or without the state, conducts the business of making or offering to make contracts, agreements, trades or transactions respecting the purchase or sale or purchase and sale of any stocks, bonds, cotton, grain, provisions or other commodities or personal property wherein both parties thereto, or said proprietor or keeper contemplated or intended that the contracts, agreements, trades or transactions shall be or may be closed, adjusted, or settled according to or on the basis of the market quotations or prices made on any board of trade or exchange upon which the commodities or securities referred to in such contracts, agreements, trades or transactions are dealt in and without a bona fide transaction on such board of trade or exchange.

The maintenance of any such office, store or other place of business, and the making of such contracts or agreements are unlawful. The said offense shall be complete against any proprietor, person, agent or keeper thus offering to make any such contracts, trades or transactions, whether such offer is accepted or not.

It is the intention of this chapter to prevent, punish and prohibit within this state the business now engaged in and conducted in places commonly known and designated as "bucket shops," and also to include the practice now commonly known as "bucket shopping" by any person or agent who ostensibly carries on the business or occupation of commission merchant or broker in stocks, bonds, cotton, grain, provisions or other commodities, whatsoever.

Provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to forbid or to declare unlawful the business of receiving and executing orders to buy or sell for immediate or future delivery any of the property or commodities set out in this section, where the person receiving such order shall act solely and exclusively as an agent, broker, or commission merchant, for the person giving such order, and where the agent, broker or commission merchant receiving such order shall either in person or through another agent execute the same upon, and in accordance with the rules and regulations of any legitimate produce, stock or cotton exchange or board of trade, or other similar body, located either within or without this state where bona fide trading in those commodities or property is actually carried on, where the rules or regulations thereof forbid the practice or mode of trading hereinbefore declared to be unlawful, and where said rules or regulations require both the buyer to accept and the seller to make delivery upon all transactions entered into upon said exchange, or board of trade, and all such transactions are hereby declared to be lawful and enforceable; and

Provided, further, that no such contract for the purchase or sale as aforesaid, executed as aforesaid upon any legitimate exchange or board of trade, shall be deemed unlawful as lacking the essential elements of any actual delivery thereon for the reason that said contract has been subsequently offset or settled between the members of such exchange or board of trade with or through whom any such contract was made or executed, where the only effect of said offset or settlement has been to substitute other parties, either as buyers or sellers, for those with or through whom the transaction was originally made.

The plain intent of this section is, while declaring unlawful all the transactions conducted in and through a bucket shop as described and defined herein, to make lawful and enforceable and to withdraw from the provisions of the gaming and wagering statutes of this state, all transactions executed upon and in accordance with the rules of a legitimate produce, stock or cotton exchange or board of trade, and this chapter shall be liberally construed at all times so as to effectuate this object.

History.—§1, ch. 9334, 1923; CGL 7899.
cf.—§1.01(3), "Person" defined.

851.02 Penalty for maintaining bucket shop.

—It is a misdemeanor for any person or agent to keep or cause to be kept within this state any bucket shop, and any person or agent, whether acting individually or as a member, officer, agent or employee of any corporation, association, or copartnership, who shall keep, maintain, or assist in the keeping or maintaining of any such bucket shop within this state, shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months.

History.—§2, ch. 9334, 1923; CGL 7900.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

851.03 Displaying, etc., quotations of prices; penalty.

—Any person or agent who shall communicate, receive, exhibit or display in any manner any statement of quotations of the prices of any property mentioned in §851.01, with a view to any transaction or transactions in this chapter prohibited, shall be deemed an accessory, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined and punished the same as the principal, as provided in §851.02.

History.—§3, ch. 9334, 1923; CGL 7901.
cf.—Ch. 776, Principals and accessories.

851.04 Statement as to proposed purchase.— Every commission merchant, person, agent or broker in this state, engaged in the business of buying or selling or buying and selling stocks, bonds, cotton, grain, provisions, or other commodities, or personal property for any person, principal, customer, or purchaser, shall furnish to any customer or principal for whom such merchant, broker, person, or agent has executed any order for the actual purchase or sale of the commodities hereinbefore mentioned, either for immediate or future delivery, a written statement containing names of the parties from whom the property was bought or to whom it shall have been sold, as the case may be; the time when, the place where, and the price at which the same was either bought or sold; and in case such commission merchant, broker, person, or agent shall refuse promptly to furnish the statement upon reasonable demand, the fact of such refusal shall be prima facie evidence that such property was not sold or bought in a legitimate manner, but was sold or bought in violation thereof.

History.—§4, ch. 9334, 1923; CGL 7902.

856.03 Arrest of vagrant without written warrant.—Upon proper information made upon oath before an officer authorized to act in such cases he shall issue his warrant for the arrest of any person therein named or described who is charged therein with being a vagrant under any of the provisions of §856.02, and such warrant shall be executed by any sheriff, constable, policeman, or by private person duly authorized thereto by the officer issuing such warrant.

Any sheriff, constable, policeman or other lawful officer may arrest any vagrant described in §856.02 without a warrant in case delay in procuring one would probably enable such alleged vagrant to escape arrest. Any person so arrested by virtue of a warrant or without a warrant shall be given a speedy trial, and upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment not more than six months.

859.06 Sale of cigarettes and wrappers to minors.—No person shall sell, barter, furnish or give away, directly or indirectly, to any minor, any cigarette, cigarette wrapper or any substitute for either; or procure for, or persuade, advise, counsel or compel any child under said age to smoke any cigarette. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, for the first offense, upon a conviction thereof, be fined not more than fifty dollars, nor less than ten dollars; and for a second and any subsequent offense, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than one hundred dollars nor less than ten dollars, and to which may be added imprisonment in the county jail for any period not exceeding sixty days.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 5716, 1907; RGS 5530; CGL 7696.

859.07 Duty of officers to enforce §859.06.—Sheriffs, constables, their deputies or any police officer shall enforce the provisions of §859.06, and he may summon any minor who may have or have had in his possession any cigarettes or cigarette material, and compel him to testify before the county judge or any justice of the peace as to where and from whom he obtained such cigarettes or cigarette material.

History.—§3, ch. 5716, 1907; RGS 5531; CGL 7697.

859.08 Penalty for selling adulterated drugs.—Every registered pharmacist, and the owner or proprietor of any store dealing in drugs or medicines, shall be held responsible for the quality of all drugs, chemicals or medicines he may sell or dispense, with the exception of those sold in the original packages of the manufacturer and those known as proprietary; and any person who fraudulently adulterates, for the purpose of sale, any drug or medicine or sells any fraudulently adulterated drug or medicine, knowing the same to be adulterated, shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding four hundred dollars, and such adulterated drugs and medicine shall be forfeited and destroyed under the direction of the court; and if the offender be a registered pharmacist his name shall be stricken from the register.

- 876.31 Short title; §§876.22-876.30.

876.01 Criminal anarchy, communism, etc., prohibited.—Criminal anarchy, criminal communism, criminal nazism, or criminal fascism are doctrines that existing form of constitutional government should be overthrown by force or violence or by any other unlawful means, or by assassination of officials of the government of the United States or of the several states. The advocacy of such doctrines either by word of mouth or writing or the promotion of such doctrines independently or in collaboration with or under the guidance of officials of a foreign state or an international revolutionary party or group is a felony.

History.—§1, ch. 20216, 1941.
cf.—§§870.02, 870.04, Unlawful assemblies generally.

876.02 Criminal anarchy, communism, etc., defined and made a felony; penalty.—Any person who—

(1) By word of mouth or writing advocates, advises, or teaches the duty, necessity or propriety of overthrowing or overturning existing forms of constitutional government by force or violence; of disobeying or sabotaging or hindering the carrying out of the laws, orders, or decrees of duly constituted civil, naval or military authorities; or by the assassination of officials of the government of the United States or of the state, or by any unlawful means or under the guidance of or in collaboration with officials, agents or representatives of a foreign state or an international revolutionary party or group; or

(2) Prints, publishes, edits, issues or knowingly circulates, sells, distributes, or publicly displays any book, paper, document, or written or printed matter in any form, containing or advocating, advising or teaching the doctrine that constitutional government should be overthrown by force, violence, or any unlawful means; or

(3) Openly, willfully and deliberately urges, advocates, or justifies by word of mouth or writing the assassination or unlawful killing or assaulting of any official of the government of the United States or of this state because of his official character, or any other crime, with intent to teach, spread, or advocate the propriety of the doctrines of criminal anarchy, criminal communism, criminal nazism or criminal fascism; or

(4) Organizes or helps to organize or becomes a member of any society, group or assembly of persons formed to teach or advocate such doctrines; or

(5) Becomes a member of, associated with or promotes the interest of any criminal anarchistic, communistic, nazi-istic or fascistic organization, or helps to organize or becomes a member of or affiliated with any subsidiary organization or associated group of persons who advocates, teaches, or advises the principles of criminal anarchy, criminal communism, criminal nazism or criminal fascism;

Shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof be subject to imprisonment for not more than ten years or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

History.—§2, ch. 20216, 1941.

876.03 Unlawful assembly for purposes of anarchy, communism, etc.—Whenever two or more persons assemble for the purpose of promoting, advocating or teaching the doctrine of criminal anarchy, criminal communism, criminal nazism or criminal fascism, as defined in §876.01 of this law, such an assembly or organization is unlawful, and every person voluntarily participating therein by his presence, aid or instigation shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to imprisonment for not more than ten years or a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars, or both.

History.—§3, ch. 20216, 1941.

876.04 Allowing unlawful assembly in building prohibited.—No owner, agent, superintendent, janitor, caretaker or occupant of any place, building or room, shall willfully and knowingly permit therein any assemblage of persons prohibited by §876.03, and if such person after notification that the premises are so used, permits such use to be continued, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof subject to imprisonment for not more than one year or fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or both.

History.—§4, ch. 20216, 1941.

876.05 State employees; oath.—All persons who now or hereafter are employed by or who now or hereafter are on the payroll of the state, or any of its departments and agencies, subdivisions, counties, cities, school boards and districts of the free public school system of the state or counties, or institutions of higher learning and all candidates for public office, are hereby required to take an oath before any person duly authorized to take acknowledgments of instruments for public record in the state in the following form:

I, _____, a citizen of the State of Florida and of the United States of America, and being employed by or an officer of _____ and a recipient of public funds as such employee or officer, do hereby solemnly swear or affirm that I will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of Florida; that I am not a member of the Communist Party; that I have not and will not lend my aid, support, advice, counsel or influence to the Communist Party; that I do not believe in the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of the State of Florida by force or violence; that I am not a member of any organization or party which believes in or teaches, directly or indirectly, the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of Florida by force or violence.

And said oath shall be filed with the records of the governing official or employing governmental agency prior to the approval of any voucher for the payment of salary, expenses, or other compensation.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 25046, 1949.

Note.—See 7 L.Ed. 2d 285 and 137 So. 2d 828 as to constitutionality of section.

cf.—§90.01, Oaths, requirements.

876.06 Discharged for refusal to execute.—If any person required by §§876.05-876.10 to take the oath herein provided for fails to execute the same, the governing authority under which such person is employed shall cause said person to be immediately discharged, and his name removed from the payroll, and such person shall not be permitted to receive any payment as an employee or as an officer where he or she was serving.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.07 Persons giving aid, advice, etc., to communist party.—Any person having taken the oath provided for in §876.05 and who thereafter should become a member of the communist party or who lends aid, support, advice, counsel or influence to the communist party or who expresses any belief in or advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States or of the state by violence or force or thereafter becomes a member of an organization or party which believes in or teaches directly or indirectly the overthrow of the government of the United States or of the state by force or violence, shall immediately be discharged from his employment by the employing authority and his name shall be removed from the payroll, and thereafter such person shall not be permitted to receive any payment as an employee or an officer where he or she then was serving. Any person seeking to qualify for public office who fails or refuses to file the oath required by this act shall be held to have failed to qualify as a candidate for public office, and the name of such person shall not be printed on the ballot as a qualified candidate.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.08 Penalty for not discharging.—Any governing authority or person, under whom any employee is serving or by whom employed who shall knowingly or carelessly permit any such employee to continue in employment after failing to comply with the provisions of §§876.05-876.10, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or by imprisonment not exceeding six months or by both fine and imprisonment.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.09 Scope of law.

(1) The provisions of §§876.05-876.10 shall apply to all employees and elected officers of the state, including the Governor and constitutional officers and all employees and elected officers of all cities, towns, counties and political subdivisions, including the educational system.

(2) This act shall take precedence over all laws relating to merit, and of civil service law.

History.—Comp. §§5, 7, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.10 False oath; penalty.—If any person required by the provisions of §§876.05-876.10 to execute the oath herein required executes such oath, and it is subsequently proven that at the time of the execution of said oath said individual was guilty of making a false statement in said oath, he shall be guilty of perjury, and shall be prosecuted and punished for the crime of perjury in the event of conviction.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 25046, 1949.

876.11 Public place defined.—For the purpose of §§876.11-876.21 the term "public place" includes all walks, alleys, streets, boulevards, avenues, lanes, roads, highways or other ways or thoroughfares dedicated to public use or owned or maintained by public authority; all grounds and buildings owned, leased by, operated or maintained by public authority.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.12 Unlawful to wear hood, etc.; on street, etc.—No person or persons over sixteen years of age shall, while wearing any mask, hood or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, enter upon, or be or appear upon any lane, walk, alley, street, road, highway or other public way in this state.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.13 Same; on public property.—No person or persons shall in this state, while wearing any mask, hood or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed, or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, enter upon, or be, or appear upon or within the public property of any municipality or county of the state.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.14 Same; on property of another.—No person or persons over sixteen years of age shall, while wearing a mask, hood or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, demand entrance or admission or enter or come upon or into the premises, enclosure or house of any other person in any municipality or county of this state.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.15 Same; demonstration or meeting.—No person or persons over sixteen years of age, shall, while wearing a mask, hood, or device whereby any portion of the face is so hidden, concealed or covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, hold any manner of meeting, make any demonstration upon the private property of another unless such person or persons shall have first obtained from the owner or occupier of the property his or her written permission to so do.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.16 Certain exemptions.—The following are exempted from the provisions of §§876.11-876.15:

- (1) Any person or persons wearing traditional holiday costumes;
- (2) Any person or persons engaged in trades and employment where a mask is worn for the purpose of ensuring the physical safety of the wearer, or because of the nature of the occupation, trade or profession;
- (3) Any person or persons using masks in theatrical productions including use in Gasparilla celebrations and masquerade balls;
- (4) Persons wearing gas masks prescribed in civil defense drills and exercises, or emergencies.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.17 Burning or flaming cross; in public.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place or cause to be placed in a public place in the state a burning or flaming cross or any manner of exhibit in which a burning or flaming cross, real or simulated, is a whole or a part.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.18 Same; on property of another.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place or cause to be placed on the property of another in the state a burning or flaming cross or any manner of exhibit in which a burning or flaming cross, real or simulated, is a whole or part without first obtaining written permission of the owner or occupier of the premises to so do.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.19 Exhibits that intimidate.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to place or cause to be placed anywhere in the state, any exhibit of any kind whatsoever with the intention of intimidating any person or persons, to prevent them from doing any act which is lawful to cause them to do any act which is unlawful.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.20 Wearing mask and placing exhibit to intimidate.—It shall be unlawful for any person or persons while wearing a mask or any device whereby the face is so covered as to conceal the identity of the wearer, to place or to cause to be placed at, on or in any place any exhibit of any kind whatsoever.

History.—Comp. §10, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.21 Penalty.—Any person or persons violating §§876.11-876.20 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished upon conviction thereof, by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 26542, 1951.

876.22 Definitions.—As used in §§876.23-876.31:

(1) "Organizations" means an organization, corporation, company, partnership, association, trust, foundation, fund, club, society, committee, political party, or any group of persons, whether or not incorporated, permanently, or temporarily associated together for joint action or advancement of views on any subject or subjects.

(2) "Subversive organization" means any organization which engages in or advocates, abets, advises, or teaches, or a purpose of which is to engage in or advocate, abet, advise, or teach activities intended to overthrow, destroy, or to assist in the overthrow, destruction of, the constitutional form of the government of the United States, the constitution or government of the state, or of any political subdivision of either of them, by revolution, force, violence or other unlawful means.

(3) "Foreign subversive organization" means any organization, directed, dominated or controlled directly or indirectly by a foreign government which engages in or advocates, abets, advises, or teaches, or a purpose of which is to engage in or to advocate, abet, advise, or teach, activities intended to overthrow, destroy, or to assist in the overthrow, destruction of the constitutional form of the government of the United States, or of this state, or of any political subdivision of either of them, and to establish in place thereof any form of government the direction and control of which is to be vested in, or exercised by or under, the domination or control of any foreign government, organization, or individual.

(4) "Foreign government" means the government of any country, nation or group of nations other than the government of the United States or of one of the states thereof.

(5) "Subversive person" means any person who commits, attempts to commit, or aids in the commission, or advocates, abets, advises or teaches by any means any person to commit, attempt to commit, or aid in the commission of any act intended to overthrow, destroy, or to assist in the overthrow, destruction of the constitutional form of the government of the United States, or of this state, or any political subdivision of either of them, by revolution, force, violence or other unlawful means; or who is a member of a subversive organization or a foreign subversive organization.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 28221, 1953.

876.23 Subversive activities unlawful; penalty.—

(1) It shall be a felony for any person knowingly and willfully to:

(a) Commit, attempt to commit, or aid in the commission of any act intended to overthrow, destroy, to assist the overthrow, destruction of, the constitutional form of the government of the United States, or of the state, or any political subdivision of either of them, by revolution, force, violence, or other unlawful means; or

(b) Advocate, abet, advise, or teach by any means any person to commit, attempt to commit, or assist in the commission of any such act under such circumstances as to constitute a clear and present danger to the security of the United States, or of this state, or of any political subdivision of either of them; or

901.01 Judicial officers to be committing magistrates.—All judicial officers of this state shall be conservators of the peace and committing magistrates, and may issue warrants against persons charged on oath with violating the criminal laws of the state, and may commit offenders to jail or recognize them to appear before the proper court at the next ensuing term thereof to answer the charge, or may discharge them from custody, according to the circumstances of the case and may require sureties of the peace when the same has been violated or threatened. When a complaint is made to a magistrate that an offense has been committed within his jurisdiction, he shall examine on oath the complainant and any witnesses he may produce.

History.—§1, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(1).
cf.—§932.38, Parent or guardian to be notified before trial of offense against minor.

901.02 When warrant of arrest to be issued.
—A warrant may be issued, for the arrest of the person complained against if the magistrate, from the examination of the complainant and the other witnesses, if any, has reasonable ground to believe that any offense was committed within his jurisdiction and that the person against whom the complaint was made committed it; provided, however, that a warrant may be issued by said magistrate for the arrest of the person complained against, upon presentation to him of affidavits sworn to by the complaining witness or witnesses before the prosecuting attorney, provided such prosecuting attorney is authorized to administer oaths as a notary public or otherwise.

History.—§2, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(2).

901.03 Form and contents of warrant.—The warrant of arrest shall:

- (1) Be in writing and in the name of the state;
- (2) Set forth substantially the nature of the offense;
- (3) Command that the person against whom the complaint was made be arrested and brought before the magistrate issuing the warrant or, if he be absent or unable to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the same county;
- (4) Specify the name of the person to be arrested or, if his name is unknown to the magistrate, designate such person by any name or description by which he can be identified with reasonable certainty;
- (5) State the date when issued and the county and justice district where issued;
- (6) Be signed by the magistrate with the title of his office; and
- (7) In all offenses bailable as of right be indorsed with the amount of bail and the return day on the back of the warrant.

History.—§3, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(3).

901.04 Direction and execution of warrant.
—The warrant shall be directed to all and singular the sheriffs and constables of the state. It shall be executed only by a sheriff or constable of the county in which the arrest is made, unless the arrest is made in hot pursuit, in which event it may be executed by any sheriff or constable who is advised of the existence of said warrant. An arrest may be made on any day and at any time of the day or night.

History.—§4, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(4).
cf.—§821.32, Trespasser may be arrested on Sunday without warrant.

901.05 Procedure when warrant defective.

—(1) No warrant of arrest shall be quashed or abated nor shall any person in custody for an offense be discharged from custody because of any informality in the warrant, but the warrant may be amended, so as to remedy any informality.

(2) If during the preliminary examination of any person who has been arrested for the commission of an offense it appears to the magistrate conducting the examination that the warrant of arrest does not properly name or describe the person arrested or does not properly set forth the nature of the offense for which he was arrested or that although not guilty of the offense specified in the warrant he is guilty of some other offense, the magistrate shall not discharge such person, but shall forthwith issue a new warrant for his arrest upon proper affidavit being made.

History.—§5, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(5).

901.06 Duty of officer after arresting with warrant.—When the arrest by virtue of a warrant occurs in the county where the alleged offense was committed and where the warrant was issued, the officer making the arrest shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested before the magistrate who issued the warrant or, if that magistrate is absent or unable to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the same county.

History.—§6, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(6).

901.07 Admission to bail when arrest occurs in another county.—(1) When the arrest by virtue of a warrant occurs in a county other than that in which the alleged offense was committed and the warrant issued, if the person arrested is bailable as of right in respect of the offense set forth in the warrant, the officer making the arrest shall, upon being so requested by the person arrested, take him before a magistrate or other official of such county having authority to admit to bail for such offense, who shall admit him to bail for his appearance before the magistrate who issued the warrant.

(2) If the person arrested is not bailable as of right in respect of the offense set forth in the warrant, or if, on the admission to bail of the person arrested, bail is not forthwith given, the officer who made the arrest or the officer having the warrant, shall take the person arrested before the magistrate who issued the warrant.

History.—§7, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(7).

901.08 Issue of warrant when offense triable in another county.—(1) When a complaint is made before a magistrate of the commission of an offense which is punishable by death or imprisonment for more than five years and is triable in another county of the state, but it appears that the person against whom the complaint is made is in the county where the complaint is made, the same proceedings for the issuing of a warrant shall be had as prescribed in this chapter, except that the warrant shall require the person, against whom the complaint is made, to be taken before a named or otherwise designated magistrate of the county in which the offense is triable.

(2) If the person arrested is bailable as of right in respect of the offense set forth in the warrant, the officer making the arrest, shall, upon being so requested by the person arrested, take him before a magistrate or other official, having authority to admit to bail for such offense, of the county in which the arrest is made, who shall admit him to bail for his appearance before the magistrate named or otherwise designated in the warrant.

(3) If the person arrested is not bailable as of right in respect of the offense set forth in the warrant, or if, on the admission to bail of the person arrested, bail is not given, the person arrested shall be taken before the magistrate named or otherwise designated in the warrant.

History.—§8, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(8).

901.09 When summons shall be issued.—(1) Where the complaint is for the commission of an offense which the magistrate is empowered to try summarily he shall issue a summons instead of a warrant of arrest, unless he has reasonable ground to believe that the person against whom the complaint was made will not appear upon a summons, in which case he shall issue a warrant of arrest.

(2) Where the complaint is for a misdemeanor, which the magistrate is not empowered to try summarily, he shall issue a summons instead of a warrant of arrest, if he has reasonable ground to believe that the person against whom the complaint was made will appear upon a summons.

(3) The summons shall set forth substantially the nature of the offense, and shall command the person against whom the complaint was made to appear before the magistrate issuing the summons at a time and place stated therein.

History.—§9, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(9).

901.10 How summons served.—The summons may be served in the same manner as the summons in a civil action.

History.—§10, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(10).
cf.—§47.13, Service of process in civil action.

901.11 Effect of not answering summons.—If the person fails, without good cause, to appear as commanded by the summons, he shall be considered in contempt of court, and may be punished by a fine of not more than twenty dollars. Upon such failure to appear the magistrate shall issue a warrant of arrest. If after issuing a summons the magistrate becomes satisfied that the person summoned will not appear as commanded by the summons he may at once issue a warrant of arrest.

History.—§11, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(11).

901.12 Summons against corporation.—Upon complaint against a corporation for the commission of an offense, the magistrate before whom the complaint is made shall issue a summons, which shall recite substantially the nature of the offense and shall command the corporation to appear before him at a place stated therein.

History.—§12, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(12).

901.13 Service of summons upon corporation.—The summons for the appearance of a corporation may be served in the manner provided for service upon a corporation in a civil action.

History.—§13, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(13).

901.14 Effect of failure by corporation to answer summons.—If, after being summoned, the corporation does not appear, a plea of not guilty shall be entered by the magistrate if he is empowered to try the offense for which the summons was issued, and he shall proceed to trial and judgment without further process. If the magistrate is not empowered to try the offense he shall proceed as though the corporation had appeared.

History.—§14, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(14). cf.—§908.03, Failure of a corporation to appear.

901.15 When arrest by officer without warrant is lawful.—A peace officer may without warrant arrest a person:

(1) When the person to be arrested has committed a felony or misdemeanor or violation of a municipal ordinance in his presence. In the case of such arrest for a misdemeanor or violation of a municipal ordinance, the arrest shall be made immediately or on fresh pursuit.

(2) When a felony has in fact been committed, and he has reasonable ground to believe that the person to be arrested has committed it.

(3) When he has reasonable ground to believe that a felony has been or is being committed and reasonable ground to believe that the person to be arrested has committed or is committing it.

(4) When a warrant has been issued charging any criminal offense and has been placed in the hands of any peace officer for execution.

History.—§15, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(15); am. §1, ch. 21782, 1943.

cf.—§828.03, Cruelty to children; arrest without warrant.
§828.17, Cruelty to animals; arrest without warrant.
§856.03, Arresting vagrant without warrant.
§821.32, Trespasser may be arrested without warrant.

901.16 Method of arrest by officer by virtue of warrant.—When making an arrest by virtue of a warrant the officer shall inform the person to be arrested of the cause of arrest and of the fact that a warrant has been issued for his arrest, except when he flees or forcibly resists before the officer has opportunity so to inform him, or when the giving of such information will imperil the arrest. The officer need not have the warrant in his possession at the time of the arrest, but after the arrest, if the person arrested so requests, the warrant shall be shown to him as soon as practicable.

History.—§16, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(16).

901.17 Method of arrest by officer without warrant.—When making an arrest without a warrant, the officer shall inform the person to be arrested of his authority and the cause of the arrest, unless the person to be arrested is then engaged in the commission of an offense, or is pursued immediately after its commission or after an escape, or flees or forcibly resists before the officer has opportunity so to inform him, or unless the giving of such information will imperil the arrest.

History.—§17, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(17).

901.18 Officer may summon assistance.—Any officer making a lawful arrest may orally summon as many persons as he deems necessary to aid him in making the arrest. Every person when so requested by an officer shall aid him in making such arrest.

History.—§18, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(18).
cf.—§843.04, Refusing to assist prison officers in arresting escaped convicts.

§843.06, Neglect or refusal to aid peace officers.

901.19 Right of officer to break into building.—(1) An officer, in order to make an arrest either by virtue of a warrant, or when authorized to make such arrest for a felony without a warrant, may break open a door or window of any building in which the person to be arrested is or is reasonably believed to be, if he is refused admittance after he has announced his authority and purpose.

(2) Whenever an officer has entered a building in accordance with the provisions herein, he may break open a door or window of the building, if detained therein, when necessary for the purpose of liberating himself.

(3) The sheriff, deputy sheriff, city marshal, constable, or police officer, when any of the implements, devices, or apparatus commonly used for gambling purposes are found in any house, room, booth or other place used for the purpose of gambling, shall seize the same and hold them subject to the discretion of the court, to be used as evidence and afterwards the same shall be publicly destroyed in the presence of witnesses under order of the court to that effect.

History.—§19, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(19).
cf.—§849.05, Finding of gambling implements prima facie evidence of gambling.

901.20 Right to break into building in order to effect release of person making arrest detained therein.—A peace officer or any deputized person, may break open a door or window of any building when necessary for the purpose of liberating a person who entered the building for the purpose of making an arrest.

History.—§20, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(20).

901.21 Search of person arrested; admission in evidence of property found.—(1) When any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or other police officer in this state shall lawfully arrest any person, the officer making such arrest, or his assistant, may search the person so arrested, and if such search reveals the violation of any law, the officer shall hold such person upon a charge of violating the law, the violation of which has been so revealed, and anything found on such person or in his possession which tends to show the guilt of such person of the violation of law shall be admitted in evidence upon a trial in which such violation is charged, and such violation shall be deemed to be one committed in the presence of the officer.

(2) When any sheriff, deputy sheriff, or other police officer of this state, shall lawfully arrest any person for the violation of the road or speed laws, or for reckless driving, or driving while drunk or intoxicated, and shall find upon making such arrest that such person has unlawfully in his possession or control, concealed weapons, intoxicating liquors or stolen or embezzled property, contrary to law, it shall be deemed to be a violation of the law committed in the presence of the officer so making the arrest, and the officer shall immediately take such person before a magistrate, and upon affidavit, charge such person with the commission of the offense so committed in the presence of the officer, and such person shall thereafter be dealt with as for the commission of such offense. The officer making the arrest, and thereupon finding such person engaged in the violation of the law, may immediately seize all evidence of such violation and give to the person so arrested and so found violating the law of this state an itemized inventory and receipt for the articles seized to be used as evidence, and hold the same to be used at the trial of such person for the violation of the law. The articles so seized shall be deemed to have been seized from a person in the act of violating the law in the presence of the officer making the arrest, and shall be admitted in evidence; provided, the possession of such articles shows or tends to show the person arrested to be guilty of the violation of the law.

History.—§21, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(21).

901.22 Arrest after escape or rescue.—If a person lawfully arrested escapes or is rescued, the person from whose custody he escapes or was rescued or any other officer may immediately pursue and retake him without a warrant at any time and in any place within the state.

History.—§22, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(22).

901.23 Duty of officer after arrest without warrant.—An officer who has arrested a person without a warrant, shall without unnecessary delay take the person arrested before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the county in which the arrest occurs, having jurisdiction, and shall make before the magistrate a complaint, which shall set forth the facts showing the offense for which the person was arrested; or, if that magistrate is absent or unable to act, before the nearest or most accessible magistrate in the same county.

History.—§23, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(23).

901.24 Right of attorney to visit person arrested.—Any attorney at law entitled to practice in the courts of this state shall, at the request of the person arrested or of some one acting in his behalf, be permitted, forthwith upon his request, to visit the person arrested and to interview him privately.

History.—§24, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(24).

901.25 Municipal officer, arrest outside corporate limits in fresh pursuit.—When a person violates a municipal ordinance or commits a misdemeanor within any municipality having a population of not less than twenty-five thousand according to the latest official decennial census, or when any police officer of any such municipality has reasonable grounds to believe that a person found within any such municipality has committed or is committing a felony, any such municipal police officer may in fresh and continuous pursuit, whenever necessary to effect the arrest of such person, pursue such person outside of any such municipality to any point within the county in which any such municipality is located, and there arrest him.

History.—§1, ch. 63-515.

- 902.08 Presence of defendant and cross-examination of witnesses.
- 902.09 Examination of witnesses for defendant.
- 902.10 Exclusion and separation of witnesses.

902.01 Duty of magistrate.—When the defendant is brought before the magistrate upon an arrest, either with or without a warrant, on a charge of having committed an offense which the magistrate is not empowered to try and determine, the magistrate shall immediately inform him:

- (1) Of the charge against him.
- (2) Of his right to the aid of counsel during the preliminary examination,
- (3) Of his right to waive such examination, and
- (4) Of his right to refuse to testify, and also caution him that in the event he does testify, anything which he says may be used against him in a subsequent proceeding.

History.—§25, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(25).
cf.—§909.04, Accused in custody under Caplas.

902.02 Waiver of examination.—(1) The defendant may waive a preliminary examination. If he does waive preliminary examination, the magistrate shall hold him to answer and shall either admit him to bail or commit him to custody.

(2) Notwithstanding a waiver of examination by the defendant, the magistrate, on the demand of the prosecuting attorney, shall examine the witnesses for the state and have their testimony reduced to writing or taken in shorthand by a stenographer. After hearing the testimony, if it appears that there is not probable cause to believe the defendant guilty of any offense, the magistrate shall order that he be discharged.

History.—§26, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(26).

902.03 Sending for counsel.—The magistrate shall allow the defendant a reasonable time to send for counsel and shall, if necessary, postpone the examination for that purpose. He shall also, upon request of the defendant, require an officer to communicate a message to such counsel in the county as the defendant may name. The officer shall with diligence and without cost perform that duty.

History.—§27, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(27).

902.04 Magistrate to proceed with examination unless waived.—(1) If the defendant does not request the aid of counsel, the magistrate shall immediately proceed to examine the case unless the defendant waives examination.

(2) If the defendant requests the aid of counsel the magistrate shall, immediately after the appearance of counsel, or, after waiting a reasonable time therefor, if none appears, proceed to examine the case unless the defendant waives examination.

History.—§28, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(28).

902.05 Postponement of examination.—The magistrate may for good cause postpone the examination. If no postponement is had, the examination shall be completed at one session. No postponement shall be for more than two days, nor shall the postponements in all exceed six days, except for good cause.

History.—§29, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(29).

902.06 Bail after postponement.—Where a postponement is had, unless the defendant is already admitted to bail, the magistrate, if the defendant is bailable as of right and by him, shall admit him to bail for his appearance at the time to which the examination is postponed. If the defendant is not admitted to bail by the magistrate or if bail is not furnished, the magistrate shall commit him to custody for further examination of the case.

History.—§30, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(30).

902.07 Summoning of witnesses.—The magistrate shall issue such process as may be necessary to secure attendance of witnesses within the state, for the state or the defendant.

History.—§31, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(31).

cf.—§932.40, Witnesses, recognizance.

§11, Decl. of rights, const.

902.08 Presence of defendant and cross-examination of witnesses.—All witnesses shall be examined in the presence of the defendant and may be cross-examined.

History.—§32, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(32).

902.09 Examination of witnesses for defendant.—At the conclusion of the testimony for the prosecution the defendant shall, if he so elects, be sworn and testify in his own behalf, and shall in such cases be warned that anything he may say can be used against him at a subsequent trial, and be subject to examination as other witnesses, and whether he testifies or not any witness produced by him shall be sworn and examined.

History.—§33, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(33).

902.10 Exclusion and separation of witnesses.—Prior to the examination of any witness in the cause, the magistrate may and on request of the defendant shall exclude all other witnesses. He may also cause the witnesses to be kept separate and to be prevented from communicating with each other until all are examined.

History.—§34, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(34).

902.11 Testimony of witnesses.—At the request of the prosecuting attorney the testimony of the witnesses and of the defendant, if he testifies, shall either be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, or be taken in shorthand by a stenographer and transcribed. The magistrate shall give the defendant an opportunity to sign his deposition. If the testimony, or any part thereof, is reduced to writing at the request of the prosecuting attorney, a copy of such testimony, or of the part thereof which has been reduced to writing, shall be furnished free of cost to defendant or his counsel.

History.—§35, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(35).

902.12 When deposition admissible at trial.—In case the defendant testified, his deposition, if signed by him, shall be admissible in evidence against him at the trial without further authentication. Nothing herein contained shall prevent the state from giving evidence at the trial of any admission or confession or other statement by the defendant, made at any time, which by law is admissible as evidence against such person.

History.—§36, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(36).

902.13 When defendant to be discharged.—After hearing the evidence, if it appears either that an offense has not been committed, or that, if committed, there is not probable cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof, the magistrate shall order that he be discharged.

History.—§37, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(37).

902.14 When defendant to be held to answer; when to be admitted to bail or committed.—If it appears that any offense has been committed and that there is probable cause to believe the defendant guilty thereof, the magistrate shall hold him to answer. If the defendant is bailable as of right by the magistrate, he shall be admitted to bail. If he is not admitted to bail or if sufficient bail is not furnished, the magistrate shall commit him to custody.

History.—§38, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(38).

902.15 Undertaking by witness.—If the defendant is held to answer on any charge of murder, rape, robbery, arson or kidnapping, the magistrate may require each material witness for the state and each material witness for the defendant, if so requested by him, to enter into a written recognizance to appear and testify at the trial of the cause or to forfeit such sum as the magistrate may fix.

History.—§39, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(39).

902.16 When further security may be required.—When the magistrate from the proceedings had before him or from testimony on oath has reasonable ground to believe that any witness who has entered into such recognizance will not appear and testify unless further security is required, he may order the witness to give further security for his appearance, by entering into a written undertaking with such sureties and in such sum as the magistrate may deem proper.

History.—§40, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(40).

902.17 Procedure when witness does not give security.—(1) If a witness required to enter into an undertaking or recognizance to appear to testify, either with or without security, refuses compliance with an order for that purpose, the magistrate shall commit him to custody until he complies or is legally discharged.

(2) If the magistrate requires the witness to give security for his appearance, and the witness is unable to give such security, he may move the court having ultimate jurisdiction to try the defendant, for a reduction of said security.

(3) When it satisfactorily appears by examination on oath of the witness, or any other person, that the witness is unable to give security, the magistrate in the first instance, and the trial court having jurisdiction in the second instance, shall make an order finding such fact, and the witness shall be detained pending application for his conditional examination. Within three days from the entry of the order last mentioned, the witness so detained shall be conditionally examined on behalf of the state or the defendant on application made for that purpose. Such examination shall be by question and answer in the presence of the other party and counsel, and shall be taken down by a court reporter or a stenographer selected by the parties, and reduced to writing. At the completion of the examination, the witness shall be discharged, and his deposition may be introduced in evidence by the defendant at the forthcoming trial, or if the prosecuting attorney and the defendant and his counsel agree, the deposition may be admitted in evidence at the trial, by stipulation. No such deposition shall be admitted on behalf of the state, unless the defendant consents thereto.

(4) If no conditional examination is had within the above mentioned period of three days, the witness so detained shall be forthwith discharged.

(5) A witness so committed shall be entitled to his fees as a witness for the period of his commitment.

History.—§41, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(41).
cf.—§916.05, Continuance on ground of absent witness.

902.18 Transmission of papers by magistrate.—(1) When the magistrate has discharged the defendant, or has held him to answer, he shall transmit without delay to the clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the offense:

- (a) The warrant;
- (b) The depositions of the witnesses;
- (c) The defendant's deposition, if he testified;
- (d) The recognizance or undertaking for the appearance of witnesses;
- (e) A copy of the order discharging or holding the defendant;
- (f) Every article, writing, money, or other exhibit used in evidence; provided, however, that such articles, writings, moneys, or other exhibits so used in evidence before said magistrate may be returned to the owner thereof upon written order of the judge of the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant.

(2) Any magistrate who refuses or fails to transmit the papers so mentioned, may be ordered to do so by the court having jurisdiction, and in case he disobeys such orders may be held for contempt.

History.—§42, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(42).

902.19 When prosecutor liable for costs.—

(1) If any person shall make complaint before a justice of the peace that a crime or misdemeanor has been committed, and if such person be recognized by the justice to appear at the next term of the proper court to give his evidence as to such crime or misdemeanor, on his failure to appear to give such evidence, he shall be liable to the justice for all the costs occasioned by his complaint, and the justice may obtain a judgment and execution for the same as in other cases.

(2) No person who voluntarily appears before any grand jury, or before any prosecuting attorney of any criminal court of record, or any justice of the peace, or any county judge, shall be paid a per diem or mileage as a witness unless the grand jury finds a true bill or the prosecuting attorney files an information, or the justice of the peace or county judge holds the party charged for trial in the case or cases about which said witness appeared to testify, or caused himself to be summoned to testify.

(3) No person who voluntarily appears or has himself summoned before a justice of the peace or county judge, upon the trial of any misdemeanor before such justice or county judge, shall be paid a per diem or mileage as a witness unless the trial results in a conviction of the defendant.

(4) No sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable, deputy constable, highway patrolman, or other person employed or paid by the state or any county thereof as a law enforcement officer, shall be entitled to witness fees or to mileage when summoned to testify in any court sitting in the county in which he holds office, is employed, or has his residence.

History.—§43, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(43).

903.01 Offenses less than capital.—All persons in custody for the commission of an offense, not capital, shall before conviction be entitled as of right to be admitted to bail, and after conviction bail may be granted at the discretion of either the trial or appellate court.

History.—§44, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(44).
Am. §1, ch. 29932, 1955.
cf.—§932.39, Provisions supplementary to this chapter.

903.02 Application for bail denied.—If application for bail is made to an authorized court and denied, no court of inferior jurisdiction shall admit applicant to bail, unless such court of inferior jurisdiction is the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant.

History.—§45, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(45).

903.03 Jurisdiction of trial court to admit to bail.—After a person is held to answer by a magistrate, the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant shall, before indictment or information is filed, have jurisdiction to hear and decide all preliminary motions as to bail and production or impounding of all articles, writings, moneys, or other exhibits expected to be used at the trial by either the state or the defendant.

History.—§46, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(46).
cf.—§925.04, Production and discovery of documents, etc., for inspection or copying.

903.04 Notice of application for admission to bail; subsequent application.—

(1) The court to whom an application for admission to bail is made, shall in all cases require written notice thereof to be given to the prosecuting attorney of the court having jurisdiction of the offense at least one hour before the hearing, unless notice is waived in writing by such prosecuting attorney.

(2) When a committing magistrate, not possessing trial jurisdiction orders a defendant held to answer before a court having jurisdiction to try defendant, and bail has been denied, or is alleged to be excessive, application by motion may be made to the court having jurisdiction to try the defendant, or in the absence of the judge of said trial court, in counties having a criminal court of record, court of crimes, or both, or either, application may be made to the judge of the circuit court of the county where the crime was committed.

(3) In the event any trial court fixes bail, before trial, the defendant may institute habeas corpus proceedings seeking reduction of bail.

(4) If application is made to the supreme court notice shall be given to the attorney general.

History.—§47, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(47).

903.05 Qualification of sureties.—Each surety for the release of a person on bail, other than a surety company duly authorized by law to act as such surety, shall be a resident of or owner of real estate within the state.

History.—§48, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(48).
cf.—§903.25, Qualification of sureties after order of recommitment.

903.06 Validity of undertaking by minor or married woman.—Minors and married women shall be capable of binding themselves by an undertaking for the purpose of securing their release on bail in like manner and with like effect as persons sui juris.

History.—§49, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(49).

903.07 Persons prohibited from signing undertaking.—No attorney at law and no official authorized to admit to bail, nor any state, or county officer shall become surety on any undertaking.

History.—§50, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(50).

903.08 Sufficiency of sureties.—If there is only one surety he shall be worth the amount specified in the undertaking exclusive of the amount of any other undertaking on which he may be principal or surety, and exclusive of property exempt from execution and over and above all liabilities; if there are several sureties they shall in the aggregate be worth that amount exclusive of the amount of other undertakings, and of the exemptions and liabilities mentioned above.

History.—§51, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(51).

903.09 Justification of sureties.—

(1) Each surety shall justify by affidavit that he possesses the qualifications and sufficiency to become a surety, and in such affidavit shall describe his property, to which he proposes to justify as to his sufficiency, stating the encumbrances thereon, and the number and amount of undertakings, if any, in any court, entered into by him and remaining undischarged. The false making of any such affidavit shall be considered perjury.

(2) Each bondsman as defined in §903.37 (3) shall justify his suretyship by attaching a copy of the power of attorney issued by the company to each bond, or by attaching to the bond United States currency, United States postal money order or cashier's check in the amount of the bond; provided further that the United States currency, United States postal money order or cashier's check cannot be used to secure more than one bond.

History.—§52, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(52).
Am. §1, ch. 57-63.
cf.—Ch. 837, Perjury.

903.101 Sureties; licensed persons; to have equal access.—Every surety who meets the requirements pursuant to §§903.05-903.09 and every person who holds a currently effective license issued to such person by the insurance commissioner and registered as required in §903.50 shall be entitled to equal access to the jails of this state for the purpose of making bond, subject to the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations adopted and promulgated by the insurance commissioner.

History.—§1, ch. 61-406.

903.12 Bail before conviction; condition of the undertaking.—(1) If a person is admitted to bail for his appearance for a preliminary examination, or on a charge that a magistrate is empowered to try, the condition of the undertaking shall be that he will appear for such examination, or to answer the charge, and will submit himself to the orders and process of the magistrate trying the same, and will not depart without leave.

(2) If he is admitted to bail after he has been held to answer by a magistrate, or after an indictment has been found or an information filed against him, the condition of the undertaking shall be that he will appear to answer the charge before the court in which he may be prosecuted and submit to the orders and process of the court, and will not depart without leave.

History.—§55, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(55).

903.13 Bail on appeal; condition of the undertaking.—If the defendant is admitted to bail, after conviction and upon appeal, the condition of the undertaking shall be:

(1) That he will duly prosecute his appeal;

(2) That he will surrender himself in execution of the judgment or sentence upon its being affirmed or modified, or upon the appeal being dismissed; or in case the judgment is reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial, that he will appear in the court to which said cause may be remanded and submit himself to the orders and process thereof, and will not depart without leave.

History.—§56, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(56).

903.14 Contracts to indemnify sureties.—Every surety for the release of any person on bail, shall file with the undertaking an affidavit stating whether or not he or any one for his use has been promised or has received any security or consideration for his undertaking, and if so, the nature and amount thereof, and the name of the person by whom such promise was made or from whom such security or consideration was received. Any willful misstatement in such affidavit or any intentional omission to set forth in the affidavit all the security or consideration promised or given shall render the person making it subject to the same prosecution and penalty as one who commits perjury. An action to enforce any indemnity agreement shall not lie in favor of the surety against such indemnitor, except with respect to agreements set forth in such affidavit. In an action by the indemnitor against the surety to recover any collateral or security given by the indemnitor, such surety shall have the right to retain only such security or collateral as is mentioned in the affidavit required above.

History.—§57, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(57).
cf.—§837.01, Perjury.

903.16 Deposit of money or bonds as bail.—When the defendant has been admitted to bail he, or another in his behalf, may deposit with an official authorized to take bail, a sum of money, or nonregistered bonds of the United States, or of the state, or of any county, city or town within the state, equal in market value to the amount mentioned in the order admitting the defendant to bail, together with his personal undertaking, and an undertaking of such other person, if the money or bonds are deposited by another.

When bonds as herein provided are deposited as bail, the consent of the person depositing such bonds to the sale of the bonds deposited, by the clerk of the circuit court after forfeiture of the undertaking, shall be conclusively presumed.

Upon delivery to the official in whose custody the defendant is of a certificate of such deposit, he shall be discharged from custody in the cause.

History.—§59, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(59); §1, ch. 59-353.

903.17 Substitution of cash bail for other bail.—When bail other than a deposit of money or bonds has been given, the defendant or the surety may, at any time before a breach of the undertaking, deposit the sum mentioned in the undertaking, and upon such deposit being made, accompanied by a new undertaking, the original undertaking shall be canceled.

History.—§60, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(60).

903.18 Bail after deposit of money or bonds.—If money or bonds have been deposited, bail by sureties may be substituted therefor at any time before a breach of the undertaking, and the official taking the new bail shall make an order that the money or bonds be refunded to the person depositing the same and they shall be refunded accordingly, and the original undertakings shall be canceled.

History.—§61, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(61).

903.19 Increase or reduction of bail.—The court in which a prosecution is pending may for good cause, after notice, either increase or reduce the amount of bail or require new or additional bail.

History.—§62, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(62).

903.20 Surrender of defendant.—At any time before there has been a breach of the undertaking any surety may surrender the defendant, or the defendant may surrender himself, to the official to whose custody the defendant was committed at the time bail was taken, or to the official into whose custody the defendant would have been given had he been committed.

History.—§63, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(63).

903.21 Method of surrender; exoneration of obligors.—(1) The person desiring to make a surrender of the defendant shall procure a certified copy of the undertakings and deliver them together with the defendant to the official in whose custody the defendant was at the time bail was taken, or to the official into whose custody he would have been given had he been committed, who shall detain the defendant in his custody thereon, as upon a commitment, and by a certificate in writing acknowledge the surrender.

(2) Upon the presentation of a certified copy of the undertakings and the certificate of the official, the court before which the defendant has been held to answer, or the court in which the preliminary examination, indictment, information or appeal, as the case may be, is pending, shall upon notice of three days given by the person making the surrender to the prosecuting officer of the court having jurisdiction of the offense, together with a copy of the undertakings and certificate, order that the obligors be exonerated from liability of their undertakings; and, if money or bonds have been deposited as bail, that such money or bonds be refunded. On filing the order and the papers used in the application all persons bound are thereby exonerated, and if money or bonds have been deposited as bail, such money or bonds shall be refunded.

History.—§64, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(64).

903.22 Arrest of principal by surety before forfeiture.—For the purpose of surrendering the defendant, the surety may arrest him before the forfeiture of the undertaking, or, by written authority indorsed on a certified copy of the undertaking, may empower any peace officer to make arrest, first paying the lawful fees therefor.

History.—§65, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(65).

903.23 Arrest and commitment by court.—The court in which the cause is pending, or a judge thereof, may, by an order entered in the minutes of the court, direct the arrest of the defendant who is at large on bail, and his commitment, in the following cases:

(1) When there has been a breach of the undertaking;

(2) When it appears that his sureties or any of them are dead or cannot be found or are insufficient or have ceased to be residents of the state;

(3) When the court or judge is satisfied that the bail should be increased or new or additional security required;

(4) When an indictment has been found against the defendant for an offense in respect of which he is not bailable.

The order for the commitment of the defendant shall recite generally the facts upon which it is founded, and shall direct that the defendant be arrested by any official authorized to make arrests, and that the defendant be committed to the official in whose custody he would be had he not given bail, to be detained by such official until legally discharged.

The defendant shall be arrested pursuant to such order upon a certified copy thereof, in any county, in the same manner as upon a warrant of arrest.

If the order provided for is made because of the failure of the defendant to appear for judgment or because an indictment has been found against him for an offense in respect of which he is not bailable, the defendant shall be committed.

If the order is made for any other cause and the defendant is bailable the court or judge may fix the amount of bail and direct in the order that the defendant be admitted to bail in the sum fixed, which sum shall be specified in the order.

History.—§66, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(66).

903.24 Bail after recommitment. — If the defendant applies to be admitted to bail after recommitment and he is bailable, he may be admitted to bail by the court which recommitted him.

History.—§67, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(67).

903.25 Qualifications of surety after order of recommitment.—If the defendant offers bail after recommitment, each surety shall possess the qualifications and sufficiency, and the bail shall be furnished in all respects in the manner prescribed for admission to bail before recommitment.

History.—§68, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(68).

903.26 Forfeiture of the undertaking; when and how directed; discharge; how and when made; effect of payment.—

(1) Before a bail undertaking is forfeited it shall be shown that (a) the information or indictment was filed within six months from the date of arrest, and (b) the bondsman or surety was given notice seventy-two hours or more before the time of required appearance of the defendant, unless the time of required appearance was within a period of seventy-two hours from the time of arrest or unless a specific time of appearance was stated on the face of the bond.

(2) If there is a breach of the undertaking, the state or municipal court before which the cause is pending shall make a record thereof, and shall declare the undertaking, and any money or bonds that have been deposited as bail forfeited. The forfeiture shall be paid within thirty days of the date of forfeiture, provided the forfeiture has not been previously discharged.

(3) Thirty days after the forfeiture;

(a) All state and county officials having in their custody moneys deposited as bail, which has been forfeited, shall turn such moneys over to the county to be deposited in the county fine and forfeiture fund, provided the forfeiture has not been previously discharged;

(b) All municipal officials having in their custody moneys deposited as bail, which has been forfeited, shall turn such moneys over to the municipality to be deposited in a designated municipal fund, provided the forfeiture has not been previously discharged.

(4) Thirty days after forfeiture, all officials having in their custody bonds as authorized by §903.16, shall turn such bonds over to the clerk of the circuit court who shall immediately sell such bonds at market value, and the proceeds of such sale shall be disbursed to the county or municipality for deposit as provided in subsection (3), provided the forfeiture has not been previously discharged. The fee of the clerk of the circuit court in connection with each such sale shall be $3.50.

(5) (a) Upon said undertaking being forfeited, the clerk of the trial court shall immediately transmit the undertaking and any affidavits to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said undertaking and affidavits are filed, who shall record the same in the deed book of said county. If said undertaking and affidavits describe real property in another county, the clerk of the trial court shall transmit said undertaking and affidavits to the clerk of the circuit court of such other county, who shall likewise record same, and return said undertakings and affidavits to said first mentioned clerk. The undertaking and affidavits shall be a lien on any real property described in the same, from the time of the recording thereof in the county in which the property is situated. Upon the filing of an order by the court having jurisdiction with the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the property is situated, canceling the undertaking, the lien shall be discharged.

(b) The undertaking and affidavits shall be a lien on any real property described in the same for a period of two years from the time of the recording thereof in the county in which the property is situated, and thereafter until the final determination of any action or suit brought thereon instituted within such two year period. If no action is instituted within two years from date of recording, the lien shall stand discharged. After the expiration of two years from the date on which the undertaking and affidavits were recorded the same shall not continue a lien even though an action or suit is instituted unless in connection with the institution of such action or proceeding a lis pendens notice is filed and recorded.

(6) At any time within thirty days from the date of forfeiture, the court before which the cause is pending upon a proper showing:

(a) Of a satisfactory explanation of the breach of the undertaking; or

(b) That the defendant was at the time of required appearance adjudicated insane and confined and is still confined in an institution or hospital; or

(c) That the defendant has been surrendered to the official in whose custody he was at the time bail was taken or to the official into whose custody he would have been given had he been committed provided that the failure to sooner apprehend or return the defendant has not defeated the ends of justice or thwarted the successful prosecution of the defendant, the court shall direct that the forfeiture of the undertaking be discharged, or if the forfeiture has been paid, shall direct that remission of the forfeiture be made to the surety; provided that the court may require, as a condition to discharge or remission, the payment of costs and expenses incurred.

(7) The payment by a bondsman or surety of a forfeiture under the provisions of this chapter shall have the same effect as to a contract of indemnity as the payment of a judgment.

History.—§69, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(69); (1) by §1, ch. 59-354; §2, ch. 61-406.

cf.—§932.45, Calling of sureties upon breach of undertaking.

§843.15, Unlawful to forfeit bail bond; penalty.

903.27 Forfeiture to judgment.—If the forfeiture is not paid or discharged within thirty days from the date of forfeiture and the undertaking is one secured otherwise than by a deposit of money or bonds as authorized by §903.16, the prosecuting attorney of the court ordering the forfeiture or the state attorney on behalf of justice of peace courts or other courts not having a prosecuting attorney shall immediately file a certified copy of the order of the court ordering such forfeiture in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein such order shall have been made, and thereupon said clerk shall enter a judgment against the person bound by the undertaking for the amount of the penalty of said undertaking and shall issue execution thereon. Upon the entry of such judgment, the clerk of the circuit court where such judgment is entered shall give notice to the surety company thereof within ten days by furnishing the surety company at its home office a certified copy of said judgment. If said judgment is not paid within sixty days the clerk of the circuit court where such judgment is entered shall give notice to the insurance commissioner by furnishing two certified copies of said judgment together with a certificate showing said judgment remains unsatisfied, whereupon the insurance commissioner shall proceed pursuant to §627.0126.

History.—§70, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(70); §3, ch. 61-406.

903.271 No remission of judgment.—Under this chapter no remission shall be made where a forfeiture has been reduced to judgment.

History.—§24, ch. 61-406.

903.28 Remission of forfeiture; conditions.—After the payment of the forfeiture the court before which the case is pending may, for reasonable cause shown, within six months of the date of forfeiture, direct a remission of forfeiture in whole or in part upon such terms as are just; and shall direct a remission of forfeiture if it shall appear there was no breach of the undertaking or the defendant was at the time of required appearance adjudicated insane and confined and is still confined in an institution or hospital; provided, however, if the bail bondsman or his surety company shall apprehend the defendant whose failure to appear or to fulfill his bond contract which resulted in the forfeiture of the undertaking and cause him to be returned to the custody of the official in whose custody he was at the time bail was taken or official into whose custody he would have been given had he been committed, within six months from the date of forfeiture, said forfeiture shall be refunded, except where the trial court shall find that the failure to sooner apprehend or return the defendant has defeated the ends of justice and thwarted the successful prosecution of the defendant.

History.—§71, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(71); §2, ch. 59-354; §4, ch. 61-406.

903.29 Arrest of principal by surety or bail bondsmen after forfeiture.—At any time within six months from the date of forfeiture of undertaking which has been paid, the bail bondsman or surety may arrest the principal for the purpose of surrendering him to the official in whose custody he was at the time bail was taken or the official into whose custody he would have been given had he been committed.

History.—§72, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(72); §1, ch. 59-192; §5, ch. 61-406.

903.30 Application for remission of forfeitures; how made and on what terms granted.—Application under §903.28 shall be accompanied by affidavits setting forth the facts on which it is founded. The prosecuting attorney for the court ordering the forfeiture shall be furnished with a copy of the application, the accompanying affidavits, and any other paper upon which the application is founded, together with notice of hearing on said application at least five days prior to said hearing on the application. The application shall be granted only upon the payment of the costs and expenses incurred in the proceeding for the enforcement of the forfeiture, unless it is granted on the ground that there was no breach of the undertaking.

History.—§73, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(73); §6, ch. 61-406.

903.31 Canceling the undertaking. — When the condition of the undertaking is satisfied or the forfeiture of the undertaking has been discharged or remitted the court shall make an order canceling the undertaking. Conviction or acquittal of the defendant shall satisfy the terms of the undertaking written by any bail bondsman, except where the court shall in the judgment of conviction or acquittal otherwise provide.

History.—§74, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(74); §2, ch. 59-192.

903.32 Defects in undertaking. — (1) No undertaking shall be invalid, nor shall any person be discharged from his undertaking, nor a forfeiture thereof be stayed, nor shall judgment thereon be stayed, set aside or reversed, or the collection of any such judgment be barred or defeated by reason of any defect of form, omission of recital or of condition, failure to note or record the default of any principal or surety, or because of any other irregularity, or because the undertaking was entered into on Sunday or other holiday, if it appear from the tenor of the undertaking before what magistrate or at what court the principal was bound to appear, and that the official before whom it was entered into was legally authorized to take it and the amount of bail is stated.

(2) If no day is fixed for the appearance of the defendant, or an impossible day, or a day in vacation, the undertaking, if for his appearance before a magistrate for a hearing, shall bind the defendant to appear in ten days from the receipt of notice so to do by the defendant, his counsel, or any surety on the undertaking; and if for his appearance in a court for trial, shall bind the defendant so to appear on the first day of the next term of the court which shall commence more than three days after the giving of the undertaking.

History.—§75, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(75).

903.33 Bail not discharged for certain defects.—The liability of a person on an undertaking shall not be affected by reason of the lack of any qualifications, sufficiency or competency provided in the criminal procedure law, or by reason of any other agreement than that expressed in the undertaking, or because the defendant has not joined in the undertaking.

History.—§76, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(76).

903.34 Who may admit to bail.—(1) Except as otherwise provided in the criminal procedure law, admission to bail at any stage of the proceedings shall be made by the same official now authorized by law in this state to admit to bail at a similar stage.

(2) In all criminal cases instituted or pending in the courts of county judges or justices of the peace or other committing magistrates, all bonds given by defendants therein at any time before the trial, shall be approved by the sheriff, county judge, justice of the peace, or other judge trying the case, as the case may be; and all bonds given by defendant after preliminary hearing shall be approved by the sheriff, county judge, justice of the peace or other committing magistrates, except appeal bonds which in the county judge or justice of the peace court shall be approved by such county judge or justice of the peace; and in appeals from the circuit court, court of crimes, criminal courts of records, or other courts having a clerk, the bond may be approved by the judge or the clerk of the court.

cf.—§903.03, Allowance of bail by trial court.

903.35 Officer taking insufficient bail.—Any official who takes bail, which he knows to be insufficient, or accepts a surety in an undertaking knowing such surety not to possess the qualifications or sufficiency required by law, or accepts as surety any professional bondsman who is not duly registered with the clerk of the circuit court, and qualified to act as surety, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be imprisoned not exceeding thirty days or fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, and may be removed from office by the governor.

History.—§78, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(78).
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

903.36 Guaranteed arrest bond certificates as cash bail.—Any guaranteed arrest bond certificate with respect to which a surety company has become surety, as provided in §627.0907, shall, when posted by the person whose signature appears thereon, be accepted in lieu of cash bail in an amount not to exceed two hundred dollars, as a bail bond, to guarantee the appearance of such person in any court, including municipal courts, in this state, at such time as may be required by the court, when such person is arrested for violation of any motor vehicle law of this state or ordinance of any municipality in this state (except for the offense of driving while intoxicated or for any felony) committed prior to the date of expiration shown on such guaranteed arrest bond certificate; provided, that any such guaranteed arrest bond certificate so posted as a bail bond in any court in this state shall be subject to the forfeiture and enforcement provisions with respect to bail bonds posted in criminal cases as set forth in Chapter 903 as it now exists or may hereafter be amended, and that any such guaranteed arrest bond certificate posted as a bail bond in any municipal court in this state shall be subject to the forfeiture and enforcement provisions of the charter or ordinance of the particular municipality pertaining to bail bonds posted.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 26897, 1951.

903.37 Definitions for §§903.38-903.58.—The following words when used in §§903.38-903.58 shall have the meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section:

- (1) "Commissioner" shall mean the state treasurer as ex officio insurance commissioner.
- (2) "Insurer" shall mean any domestic, foreign or alien surety company which has qualified to transact surety business in this state.

(3) "Bail bondsman" shall mean a limited surety agent or a professional bail bondsman as hereafter defined.

(4) "Limited surety agent" shall mean any individual appointed by an insurer by power of attorney to execute or countersign bail bonds in connection with judicial proceedings and receives or is promised money or other things of value therefor.

(5) "Professional bondsman" shall mean any person who pledges United States currency, United States postal money orders, or cashier's checks or other property as security for a bail bond in connection with a judicial proceeding and receives or is promised therefor money or other things of value.

(6) "Runner" shall mean a person employed by a bail bondsman for the purpose of assisting the bail bondsman in presenting the defendant in court when required, or employed by the bail bondsman to assist in the apprehension and surrender of defendant to the court, or keeping the defendant under necessary surveillance. This does not affect the right of a bail bondsman to hire counsel, or to ask assistance of law enforcement officers.

History.—§1, ch. 29621, 1955; (5) by §2, ch. 57-63.

903.38 State treasurer designated insurance commissioner.—

(1) The commissioner shall have full power and authority to administer the provisions of §§903.37-903.58, which regulate bail bondsmen and runners, and to that end, to adopt and promulgate rules and regulations pursuant to §624.0107 of the insurance code, and enforce rules and regulations necessary and proper to effectuate and enforce the purposes and provisions of said sections. The commissioner may employ and discharge such employees, examiners, counsel, and such other assistants as shall be deemed necessary, and he shall prescribe their duties, and their compensation shall be the same as other state employees receive for similar services.

(2) The commissioner shall adopt a seal by which his proceedings are authenticated. Any written instrument purporting to be a copy of any action, proceeding, or finding of fact by the commissioner, or any record of the commissioner authenticated under the hand of the commissioner by the seal, shall be accepted by all the courts of this state as prima facie evidence of the contents thereof.

(3) The commissioner's papers, documents, reports or evidence shall not be subject to subpoena without his consent until after the same shall have been published at a hearing held under said sections, unless after notice to the commissioner and hearing, the court shall determine that the commissioner shall not be unnecessarily hindered or embarrassed.

History.—§2, ch. 29621, 1955; (1) a. by §7, ch. 61-406.

903.39 Licenses; general.—

(1) No license shall be issued except in compliance with this chapter and none shall be issued except to an individual. A firm, partnership, association, or corporation, as such, shall not be licensed.

(2) For the protection of the people of this state, the commissioner shall not issue nor renew, nor permit to exist any license except in compliance with this chapter. The commissioner shall not issue nor renew, nor permit to exist a license for any individual found to be untrustworthy or incompetent, or who has not established to the satisfaction of the commissioner that he is qualified therefor in accordance with this chapter.

(3) The commissioner may propound any reasonable interrogatories to an applicant for a license under this chapter or on any renewal thereof, relating to his qualifications, residence, prospective place of business, and any other matters which, in the opinion of the commissioner, are deemed necessary or expedient in order to protect the public and ascertain the qualifications of the applicant. The commissioner may also conduct any reasonable inquiry or investigation he sees fit, relative to the determination of the applicant's fitness to be licensed or to continue to be licensed.

(4) If upon the basis of the completed application for a license and such further inquiry or investigation the commissioner deems the applicant to be unfit as to character and background or lacking in one or more of the required qualifications for the license, the commissioner shall disapprove the application and notify the applicant thereof, stating the grounds for disapproval.

(5) (a) The license of a limited surety agent and a professional bail bondsman shall continue in force, without further examination unless deemed necessary by the commissioner, until suspended, revoked or otherwise terminated but subject to annual continuation by the insurer or professional bondsman named therein on or before September 1 by payment of the fee and license taxes for renewal or continuation of the license as prescribed in §903.41 and miscellaneous fees as prescribed in §624.0300 of the insurance code.

(b) The license of a bail bond runner shall continue in force until expired, suspended, revoked or otherwise terminated but subject to annual continuation by the appointing limited surety agent or professional bondsman named therein on or before September 1 by payment of the fee and license taxes for renewal or continuation of the license as prescribed in §903.41 and miscellaneous fees as prescribed in §624.0300 of the insurance code.

(6) Any such license as to which request for renewal or continuation is not received by the commissioner at his offices at Tallahassee as required by subsection (5) above, shall be deemed to have expired as at midnight on the September 30 next following such failure. Request for renewal or continuation of any such license or payment of fee and license taxes therefor which is received by the commissioner after such September 1 but on or before the next following October 15 may be accepted and effectuated by the commissioner, in his discretion; and any such request and payment received by the commissioner after such October 15 and on or before the next following November 15, may be accepted and effectuated by the commissioner, in his discretion, only if accompanied by an additional license continuation fee in the amount of $5.00.

(7) The original license certificate issued to any such licensee shall remain outstanding and in effect for so long as the license represented thereby continues in force as hereinabove provided.

(8) Any person who represents a surety company and whose duties are restricted to bail bonds only but who comes under the definition of service representative as provided in §626.081 of the insurance code may be licensed as a bail bondsman provided such person meets the qualification requirements of this chapter. Provided further, such person must either be licensed as a bail bondsman or qualify as a service representative and shall engage in such activities as provided in §§626.081, 626.0117 and 626.0118.

History.—§3, ch. 29621, 1955; (6) by §1, ch. 59-326; (4)-(6) a., (7), (8) n. by §8, ch. 61-406.

903.40 License required.—No person shall act in the capacity of a professional bail bondsman, limited surety agent, or runner, or perform any of the functions, duties or powers prescribed for bail bondsmen or runners under the provisions of this chapter unless that person shall be qualified and licensed as provided in this chapter.

History.—Comp. §4, ch. 29621, 1955.

903.41 License tax and fee.—

(1) The commissioner shall collect in advance all license taxes and fees for the issuance of any license to a bail bondsman, limited surety agent, or runner, as follows:

(a) Original license:

Appointment fee	$1.00
State license tax	$6.00
County license tax	$3.00
Total	$10.00

(b) Annual renewal or continuation of license:

Appointment fee	$1.00
State license tax	$6.00
County license tax	$3.00
Total	$10.00

(2) The commissioner shall deposit all license taxes and fees in such funds and for such uses as is provided by laws applicable to like license taxes and like fees in the case of general lines agents.

History.—§5, ch. 29621, 1955; §2, ch. 59-326.

903.411 Effective date and initial period of license.—

(1) All licenses as to which all requisite applications, payment of fees and taxes, passing of examinations, and waiting periods have been completed and evidence thereof in the customary form received by the commissioner at his office in Tallahassee within one calendar month prior to the expiration of the applicable license year then current or within one calendar month after the commencement of the next following new license year, shall be dated and be effective as of the first day of such new license year and shall be as for the entire such license year (subject to suspension, revocation, renewal, continuation, or termination as otherwise provided for in this chapter); but such a license, if issued pursuant to qualification therefor during the last calendar month of the preceding license year as hereinabove provided, shall be deemed to relate back in effectiveness to the date within such calendar month on which the last of such qualifying requirements was received by the commissioner at his offices in Tallahassee.

(2) All other licenses shall be dated and become effective as of the date of issue.

History.—§3, ch. 59-326.

903.42 Bail bond rates.—Bail bond rates shall be subject to the provisions of part I of chapter 627 of the insurance code. It shall be unlawful for a bail bondsman to execute a bail bond without charging a premium therefor and the premium rate shall not exceed nor be less than the premium rate as filed with and approved by the commissioner.

History.—§6, ch. 29621, 1955; §4, ch. 59-326.

903.43 Bail bondsmen; qualifications.—

(1) Application for filing for examination for bail bondsmen shall be submitted on forms furnished by the commissioner.

(2) To qualify as a bail bondsman it must affirmatively appear:

(a) Applicant is a natural person who has reached the age of twenty-one years.

(b) Applicant is a citizen of the United States; has been a bona fide resident of the state for one year last past and will actually reside in this state at least six months out of each year.

(c) That the place of business of the applicant will be located in this state and that such applicant will be actively engaged in the bail bond business and maintain a place of business accessible to the public.

(d) No applicant for a license as a limited surety agent or professional bondsman shall be qualified therefor or be so licensed unless within the two years immediately preceding the date his application for license is filed with the commissioner, he has:

1. Successfully completed a correspondence course for bail bondsmen approved by the commissioner; or

2. He has been engaged as a licensed runner for a period of one year; or

3. He has held a valid general lines agent's license for one year; or

4. He has had at least one year with responsible duties as a substantial fulltime bona fide employee of a licensed agent, professional bondsman or an insurer engaged in writing bail bonds in which field he has specialized.

(e) Applicant shall be vouched for and recommended upon sworn statements by at least three bail bondsmen licensed by the commissioner, or three other reputable citizens who are residents of the same counties in which applicant proposes to engage in the bail bond business.

(f) Applicant shall be a person of high character and approved integrity.

(3) A fee of ten dollars shall be submitted to the commissioner with each application which shall be credited in a continuing fund created in the state treasury designated "insurance commissioner's miscellaneous service trust fund." Such fee to defray the cost of conducting character investigations of applicants.

(4) Applicant shall furnish with his application, a complete set of his fingerprints and a recent credential-size full face photograph of himself. The applicant's fingerprints shall be certified by an authorized law enforcement officer.

History.—§7, ch. 29621, 1955; (2) (d), (3) by §5, ch. 59-326; (1), (2) (c), (d) a. by §9, ch. 61-406; (3) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

903.44 Professional bondsmen; qualifications.—In addition to the qualifications prescribed in §903.43, to qualify as a professional bondsman an applicant shall:

(1) File with his application for filing for examination and with each application for renewal or continuation of his license a detailed financial statement under oath; and

(2) File with his application for filing for examination the rating plan he proposes to use in writing bail bonds; such rating plan must be approved prior to issuance of the license.

History.—§8, ch. 29621, 1955; §10, ch. 61-406.

903.441 Bail bondsman's records.—

(1) Every bail bondsman must maintain in his office such records of bail bonds executed or countersigned by him to enable the public to obtain all necessary information concerning such bail bonds for at least one year after the liability of the surety has been terminated.

(2) On or before August 15 of each year, a sworn statement on a form furnished by the insurance commissioner shall be filed with the commissioner by:

(a) Every bail bondsman listing his assets and liabilities, and

(b) Every bail bondsman or every firm or agency if the bail bondsman is employed by, associated with or is a member of such firm or agency, listing every outstanding or unpaid forfeiture, estreature and judgment, together with the name of the court in which such forfeiture, estreature and judgment is recorded, and submitting all other pertinent information requested by the insurance commissioner.

History.—§11, ch. 61-406.

903.45 Runners; qualifications.—To qualify as a runner:

(1) It must affirmatively appear from the application:

(a) That the applicant is a natural person who has reached the age of twenty-one years.

(b) That the applicant is a citizen of the United States; has been a bona fide resident of this state for more than six months last past.

(c) That the applicant will be employed by only one bail bondsman, who will supervise the work of the applicant, and be responsible for the runner's conduct in the bail bond business.

(d) The application must be endorsed by the appointing bail bondsman, who shall obligate himself to supervise the runner's activities in his behalf.

(2) A fee of ten dollars shall be submitted to the commissioner with each application which shall be credited in a continuing fund created in the state treasury designated "insurance commissioner's miscellaneous service trust fund." Such fee to defray the costs of conducting character investigations of applicants.

(3) Applicant shall furnish with his application, a complete set of his fingerprints and a recent credential-size full face photograph of himself. The applicant's fingerprints shall be certified by an authorized law enforcement officer.

History.—§9, ch. 29621, 1955; (2) by §6, ch. 59-326; (2) a. by §2, ch. 61-119; (3) n. by §12, ch. 61-406.

903.46 Examination; time; place; fee; scope.—

(1) (a) If upon the basis of the completed application for examination and such further inquiry or investigation as the commissioner may make concerning the fitness and qualifications of the applicant, the commissioner is satisfied that, subject to any examination required to be taken and passed by the applicant for a license, the applicant is qualified to take the examination applied for and that all pertinent taxes and fees have been paid, he shall approve the application.

(b) If upon the basis of the completed application for examination and such further inquiry or investigation as to the fitness and qualifications of the applicant, the commissioner deems the applicant to be unfit or lacking in any one or more of the required qualifications as specified in §903.43 as to limited surety agent, and §§903.43 and 903.44 as to professional bondsmen, the commissioner shall disapprove the application and notify the applicant thereof, stating the grounds for disapproval.

(2) Upon approval by the commissioner the applicant shall be required to appear in person at a place hereinafter designated to take a written examination prepared by the commissioner, testing his ability and qualifications to be a bail bondsman.

(3) Each applicant shall become eligible for examination sixty days after the date the application is received by the insurance department in Tallahassee provided the commissioner is satisfied as to the applicant's fitness to take the examination. Examinations shall be held in the commissioner's offices where an adequate and designated examination room is available. Each applicant shall be entitled to take the examination at such of the said offices which is located closest to his place of residence, and he shall be entitled to notice of the time and place not less than fifteen days prior to taking the examination.

(4) At the time of filing an application for examination a ten dollar fee shall be paid to the commissioner, which shall be credited in a continuing fund created in the state treasury designated "insurance commissioner's miscellaneous service trust fund" as provided in §624.0324 of the insurance code. The fee for filing application for examination shall not be subject to refund.

(5) The failure of the applicant to secure approval of the commissioner shall not preclude him from applying as many times as he desires, but no application will be considered by the commissioner within sixty days subsequent to the date upon which the commissioner denied the last application.

(6) The failure of an applicant to pass an examination, after having been approved by the commissioner to take the examination, shall not preclude him from taking subsequent examinations. A separate and additional application and fee for filing application for examination shall be filed with the commissioner for each subsequent examination; provided, however, that at least sixty days must intervene between examinations.

(7) The ten dollar fee for filing application for examination shall apply to each examination, but once an applicant has been approved by the commissioner he will not have to file another application as set forth in §§903.43 and 903.44 unless specifically so ordered by the commissioner. Any bail bondsman who successfully passes an examination must be licensed within twenty-four months from date of examination or be subject to another examination unless failure to be so licensed was due to military service, in which event the period within which another examination is not required may, in the commissioner's discretion, be extended to twelve months following the date of discharge from military service, if the military service does not exceed three years, but in no event to extend under this clause for a period of more than four years.

(8) The scope of the examination shall be as broad as the bail bond business.

History.—§10, ch. 29621, 1955; (1), (4), (6) and (7) by §7, ch. 59-326; (1) a. by §13, ch. 61-406; (4) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

903.47 Notice of appointment of limited surety agents; termination.—

(1) The insurer shall annually prior to September 1 file with the commissioner an alphabetical list of all limited surety agents appointed, giving the type and class of license, names and addresses of each licensee whose appointment and license in this state is being renewed or is to be continued in effect, accompanied by payment of the applicable renewal or continuation fees and taxes. Every such insurer who shall, subsequent to the filing of this list expect to appoint a limited surety agent in this state, shall give notice thereof to the commissioner along with a written application for license for said agents. All such appointments shall be subject to the issuance of a license to such agents.

(2) The commissioner shall promptly notify any applicant who has passed the limited surety agent's examination. Upon receipt of application for license and proper taxes and fees, the commissioner shall issue a license in the name of the individual to the insurer.

(3) An insurer terminating the appointment of a limited surety agent shall, within thirty days after such termination, file written notice thereof with the commissioner, together with a statement that it has given or mailed notice to the limited surety agent. Such notice filed with the commissioner shall state the reasons, if any, for such termination. Information so furnished the commissioner shall be privileged and shall not be used as evidence in or basis for any action against the insurer or any of its representatives.

(4) Every insurer shall within five days after terminating appointment of any limited surety agent give written notice thereof to any clerk of the circuit court and sheriff with which the agent is registered.

History.—§11, ch. 29621, 1955; (1) by §8, ch. 59-326.

903.48 Notice of appointment of professional bondsmen; termination.—

(1) Any person applying to qualify as a professional bondsman shall at the time of filing his application for examination also file with the commissioner an application for license and upon the applicant's passing the examination for bail bondsmen the commissioner shall promptly issue proper license.

(2) Any professional bail bondsman who discontinues writing bail bonds during the period for which he is licensed shall notify the clerks of the circuit court and the sheriffs with whom he is registered and return his license to the commissioner for cancellation within thirty days from such discontinuance.

History.—§12, ch. 29621, 1955; (1) by §9, ch. 59-326.

903.49 Notice of appointment of runners; termination.—

(1) Every person duly licensed as a bail bondsman may appoint as runner any person who holds or has qualified for a runner's license. Each bail bondsman shall annually prior to September 1 file with the commissioner an alphabetical list of all runners appointed, giving the type and class of license, names and addresses of each licensee whose appointment and license in this state is being renewed or is to be continued in effect, accompanied by payment of the applicable renewal or continuation fees and taxes. Each such bail bondsman who shall, subsequent to the filing of this list, expect to appoint additional persons as runners shall file written notice with the commissioner and request a license for the said runner.

(2) A bail bondsman terminating the appointment of a runner shall within thirty days file written notice thereof with the commissioner, together with a statement that he has given or mailed notice to the runner. Such notice filed with the commissioner shall state the reasons, if any, for such termination. Information so furnished the commissioner shall be privileged and shall not be used as evidence in any action against the bail bondsman.

History.—§13, ch. 29621, 1955; (1) by §10, ch. 59-326.

903.50 Registration of bail bondsmen.—No bail bondsman shall become a surety on an undertaking unless he has registered in the office of the sheriff and with the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which the bondsman resides and he may register in a like manner in any other county and any limited surety agent shall file a certified copy of his appointment by power of attorney from each insurer which he represents as agent with each of said officers. Registration and filing of certified copy of renewed power of attorney shall be performed annually on October 1. The clerk of the circuit court and the sheriff shall not permit the registration of a bail bondsman unless such bondsman is currently licensed by the commissioner.

History.—Comp. §14, ch. 29621, 1955.

903.51 Power of attorney; to be approved by commissioner; filing of copies.—

(1) Every insurer engaged in the writing of bail bonds through limited surety agents in this state shall submit and have approved by the commissioner a sample power of attorney which will be the only form of power of attorney the insurer will issue to limited surety agents in Florida.

(2) Every professional bondsman who authorizes a licensed professional bondsman directly employed by him to sign his name to bonds must file copy of the power of attorney given to such licensed bondsman with the sheriff and the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which he resides and with the insurance commissioner. Such power of attorney to remain in full force and effect until written notice revoking the power of attorney has been received by the above named officials.

History.—§15, ch. 29621, 1955; §14, ch. 61-406.

903.52 Prohibitions.—

(1) No bail bondsman or runner shall:

(a) Suggest or advise the employment of or name for employment any particular attorney to represent his principal.

(b) Solicit business in or about any place where prisoners are confined or in or about any court.

(c) Pay a fee or rebate or give or promise anything of value to a jailer, policeman, peace officer, committing magistrate, or any other person who has power to arrest or to hold in custody; or to any public official or public employee in order to secure a settlement, compromise, remission or reduction of the amount of any bail bond or estreatment thereof.

(d) Pay a fee or rebate or give anything of value to an attorney in bail bond matters, except in defense of any action on a bond.

(e) Pay a fee or rebate or give or promise anything of value to the principal or anyone in his behalf.

(f) Participate in the capacity of an attorney at a trial or hearing of one on whose bond he is surety.

(g) Accept anything of value from a principal except the premium, provided that the bondsman shall be permitted to accept collateral security or other indemnity from the principal which shall be returned upon final termination of liability on the bond. Such collateral security or other indemnity required by the bondsman must be reasonable in relation to the amount of the bond.

(2) When a bail bondsman accepts collateral he shall give a written receipt for same, and this receipt shall give in detail a full account of the collateral received.

(3) The following persons or classes shall not be bail bondsmen or runners and shall not directly or indirectly receive any benefits from the execution of any bail bond:

(a) Jailers

(b) Police officers

(c) Committing magistrates

(d) Justices of the peace

(e) Municipal or small claims court judges

(f) Sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and constables

(g) Any person having the power to arrest or having anything to do with the control of federal, state, county or municipal prisoners.

(4) A bail bondsman shall not sign nor countersign in blank any bond, nor shall he give a power of attorney to, or otherwise authorize, anyone to countersign his name to bonds unless the person so authorized is a licensed bondsman directly employed by the bondsman giving such power of attorney.

(5) No bail bond agency shall advertise as or hold itself out to be a bail bond or surety company.

History.—Comp. §16, ch. 29621, 1955.

903.53 Denial, suspension, refusal to renew, or revocation of license.—

(1) The commissioner may deny, suspend, revoke or refuse to renew any license issued under this law for any of the following causes or for any violation of the laws of this state relating to bail:

(a) For any cause for which issuance of the license could have been refused had it then existed and been known to the commissioner.

(b) Violation of any law relating to the business of bail bond insurance in the course of dealings under the license issued him by the commissioner.

(c) Material mis-statement, misrepresentation or fraud in obtaining the license, or failure to pass any examination required under this chapter.

(d) Misappropriation, conversion or unlawful withholding of moneys belonging to insurers or others and received in the conduct of business under the license.

(e) Conviction of a felony.
(f) Fraudulent or dishonest practices in the conduct of business under the license.

(g) Willful failure to comply with, or willful violation of any proper order, rule or regulation of the commissioner.

(h) Failure or refusal, upon demand, to pay over to any insurer he represents or has represented, any money coming into his hands belonging to the insurer.

(i) Willful failure to return collateral security to the principal when the principal is entitled thereto.

(2) When, in the judgment of the commissioner, the licensee has, in the conduct of affairs under the license, demonstrated incompetency, or untrustworthiness, or conduct or practices rendering him unfit to carry on the bail bond business, or making his continuance in such business detrimental to the public interest, or that he is no longer in good faith carrying on the bail bond business, or that he is guilty of rebating, or offering to rebate, or unlawfully dividing, or offering to divide his commissions in the case of limited surety agents, or premiums in the case of professional bondsmen, and for such reasons is found by the commissioner to be a source of detriment, injury or loss to the public.

(3) In case of the suspension or revocation of license of any bail bondsman, the license of any or all other bail bondsmen who are members of the same agency, whether incorporated or unincorporated, any or all runners employed by such agency who knowingly were parties to the act which formed the ground for the suspension or revocation shall likewise be suspended or revoked for the same period as that of the offending bail bondsman, but this shall not prevent the licensing of any bail bondsman or runner except the one whose license was first suspended or revoked and those persons who knowingly were parties to the act, from being licensed as a member of, or bail bondsman or runner for some other agency.

(4) No license under this chapter shall be issued, renewed, or permitted to exist when the same is used directly or indirectly to circumvent any of the provisions of this law.

History.—§17, ch. 29621, 1955; (4) n. by §3, ch. 57-63; (1) (e) a. by §15, ch. 61-406.

903.54 Procedure for denial, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew license. —

(1) If any bail bondsman or runner is convicted by a court of a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, the license of such individual shall thereby be deemed to be immediately revoked, without any further procedure relative thereto by the commissioner.

(2) As to licenses denied by the commissioner upon application therefor, the applicant if aggrieved thereby shall have the right to a hearing thereon and may appeal to the court from any adverse decision of the commissioner relative thereto as provided in §903.55.

(3) As to licenses issued under this chapter and thereafter suspended or revoked, or renewal or continuation thereof refused by the commissioner except for failure of the licensee to pass any examination required under this chapter, the procedures hereinafter set forth in this section shall apply.

(4) If after an investigation or upon other evidence the commissioner has reason to believe that there may exist any one or more causes for suspension, revocation, or refusal to renew or continue the license of any bail bondsman or runner as such causes are specified in §903.53 or that a bail bondsman or runner has been guilty of violating any of the laws of this state relating to bail bonds, the commissioner shall mail written notice of his intention to suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew or continue the license, as the case may be, accompanied by a copy of the charges against the licensee to the licensee, and to the insurer represented by the licensee if a limited surety agent. Such notice and charges shall be mailed by registered mail, addressed to the licensee at his residence or principal business address last of record with the commissioner, and to the insurer, if a limited surety agent, at its address last of record with the commissioner. The notice shall be deemed given when so addressed and mailed postage prepaid at a United States post office or branch thereof.

(5) If within twenty days after the date of mailing the notice and charges as provided for in subsection (4), the licensee has not filed with the commissioner at his office in Tallahassee a written answer to such charges coupled with a written request for a hearing thereon, the commissioner may proceed to suspend, revoke or refuse to renew the license.

(6) If within such twenty days an answer and request for hearing is so filed with the commissioner, the commissioner shall hold a hearing with respect to the charges, the hearings to be held within sixty days of the date of the mailing of the notice and charges referred to in subsection (4), unless postponed by mutual consent of the parties. The commissioner shall give the licensee and each insurer that has filed with him the answer to the charges and request for hearing as provided in subsection (5), written notice of the hearing and of the matters to be considered thereat not less than ten days in advance of the hearing date.

(7) The commissioner's statement of charges, papers, documents, reports or evidence relative to the subject of a hearing under this section shall not be subject to subpoena without his consent until after the same shall have been published at the hearing, unless after notice to the commissioner and hearing the court determines that the commissioner would not be unnecessarily hindered or embarrassed by such subpoenas.

(8) Following the hearing the commissioner shall make his order thereon as required under §624.0126 (order on hearing) and mail a copy thereof by registered mail to the address last of record in his office of each party to the hearing. If by his findings made upon the hearing the commissioner finds that one or more of the causes therefor exist as specified in §903.53, his order shall incorporate the taking of action relative to suspension, revocation or refusal to renew or continue the license as authorized.

History.—§18, ch. 29621, 1955; §16, ch. 61-406.

903.541 Conduct of hearings.—

(1) The hearing may be held in the commissioner's office at Tallahassee or at such other place in this state deemed by the commissioner to be more convenient to parties and witnesses.

(2) The commissioner or an assistant, deputy or examiner designated by him shall preside at the hearing and shall sit in the capacity of a quasi-judicial officer.

(3) All hearings shall be public.

(4) The commissioner shall allow any party to the hearing to appear in person and by counsel, to be present during the giving of all evidence, to have a reasonable opportunity to inspect all documentary and other evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses, to present evidence in support of his interest, and to have subpoenas issued by the commissioner to compel attendance of witnesses and production of evidence in his behalf. Testimony may be taken orally or by deposition, and any party shall have such right of introducing evidence by deposition as he may obtain in the circuit courts of this state.

(5) Upon good cause shown the commissioner shall permit to become a party to the hearing by intervention, if timely, only such persons who were not original parties thereto and whose interests are to be directly and immediately affected by the commissioner's order made upon the hearing.

(6) Formal rules of pleading or of evidence need not be observed at the hearing, except that the right of any person to invoke such rules and the rule of exclusion of witnesses is preserved.

(7) Unless waived in writing by the other parties to the hearing, the commissioner shall cause a full stenographic record of the proceedings at the hearing to be made by a competent reporter and at the cost of the state. If transcribed, a copy of such stenographic record shall be made a part of the commissioner's record of the hearing. A transcription shall be made if requested by any party in order that such party may have a copy thereof. A copy of the transcribed stenographic record shall be furnished to any party to the hearing requesting the same, and at such reasonable charge therefor as the commissioner may fix. If no stenographic record is made or transcribed the commissioner shall prepare an adequate record of the evidence and of the proceedings. The state's portion of the cost of the stenographic record and transcription thereof shall be paid out of the enforcement trust fund provided for in §624.0321. Any sums received from parties for copies of the stenographic record shall be deposited by the commissioner into the state treasury to the credit of such enforcement trust fund.

History.—§17, ch. 61-406; (7) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

903.542 Witnesses and evidence.—

(1) As to the subject of any examination, investigation or hearing being conducted by him the commissioner or any assistant, deputy or examiner appointed by him may administer oaths, examine and cross-examine witnesses, receive oral and documentary evidence, and shall have the power to subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance and testimony, and require by subpoena the production of books, papers, records, files, correspondence, documents or other evidence which he deems relevant to the inquiry.

(2) If any person refuses to comply with any such subpoena or to testify as to any matter concerning which he may be lawfully interrogated, the circuit court of Leon county or of the county wherein such examination, investigation or hearing is being conducted, or of the county wherein such person resides, on the commissioner's application may issue an order requiring such person to comply with the subpoena and to testify; and any failure to obey such an order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof.

(3) Subpoenas shall be served and proof of such service made in the same manner as if issued by a circuit court. Witness fees and mileage, if claimed, shall be allowed the same as for testimony in a circuit court.

(4) Any person wilfully testifying falsely under oath as to any matter material to any such examination, investigation or hearing shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of perjury and shall be punished accordingly.

(5) If any person asks to be excused from attending or testifying or from producing any books, papers, records, contracts, documents, or other evidence in connection with any examination, hearing or investigation being conducted by the commissioner or his examiner, on the ground that the testimony or evidence required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, and shall notwithstanding be directed to give such testimony or produce such evidence, he must, if so directed by the commissioner and the attorney general, nonetheless comply with such direction, but he shall not thereafter be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may have so testified or produced evidence, and no testimony so given or evidence produced shall be received against him upon any criminal action, investigation or proceeding; except, however, that no such person so testifying shall be exempt from prosecution or punishment for any perjury committed by him in such testimony, and the testimony or evidence so given or produced shall be admissible against him upon any criminal action, investigation or proceeding concerning such perjury; nor shall he be exempt from the refusal, suspension, or revocation of any license, permission, or authority conferred, or to be conferred, pursuant to this code.

(6) Any such individual may execute, acknowledge and file in the office of the commissioner a statement expressly waiving such immunity or privilege in respect to any transaction, matter or thing specified in such statement, and thereupon the testimony of such individual or such evidence in relation to such transaction, matter or thing may be received or produced before any judge or justice, court, tribunal, grand jury or otherwise, and if so received or produced such individual shall not be entitled to any immunity or privileges on account of any testimony he may so give or evidence so produced.

(7) Any person who refuses or fails, without lawful cause, to testify relative to the affairs of any person when subpoenaed and requested by the commissioner to so testify shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to the penalties provided under §903.58.

History.—§18, ch. 61-406.

903.543 Duration of suspension or revocation.—

(1) The commissioner shall, in his order suspending a license, specify the period during which the suspension is to be in effect, but such period shall not exceed one year. The license shall remain suspended during the period so specified, subject, however, to any rescission or modification of the order by the commissioner, or modification or reversal thereof by the court, prior to expiration of the suspension period. A license which has been suspended shall not be reinstated except upon request for such reinstatement, but the commissioner shall not grant such reinstatement if he finds that the circumstances for which the license was suspended still exist or are likely to recur.

(2) No individual licensed under any license which has been revoked by the commissioner, shall have the right to apply for another license under this chapter within two years from the effective date of such revocation, or, if judicial review of such revocation is sought, within two years from the date of final court order or decree affirming the revocation. The commissioner shall not, however, grant a new license to any individual if he finds that the circumstances for which the previous license was revoked still exist or are likely to recur.

(3) If licenses as bail bondsman or runner as to the same individual have been revoked at two separate times, the commissioner shall not thereafter grant or issue any license under this chapter as to such individual.

(4) During the period of suspension, or after revocation of the license, the former licensee shall not engage in or attempt to profess to engage in any transaction or business for which a license is required under this chapter.

History.—§19, ch. 61-406.

903.544 Effect of suspension, revocation upon associated licenses and licensees.—

(1) Upon suspension, revocation or refusal to renew or continue any license of a bail bondsman or runner the commissioner shall at the same time likewise suspend or revoke all other licenses held by the licensee under the Florida insurance code.

(2) In case of the suspension or revocation of license of any bail bondsman, the license of any and all bail bondsmen who are members of a bail bond agency, whether incorporated or unincorporated, and any and all runners employed by such bail bond agency, who knowingly are parties to the act which formed the ground for the suspension or revocation may likewise be suspended or revoked for the same period as that of the offending bail bondsman; but this shall not prevent any bail bondsman or runner, except the one whose license was first suspended or revoked, from being licensed as a member of or a runner for some other bail bond agency.

(3) The procedures provided for in §903.54 shall likewise apply as to suspension, revocation and refusals to renew or continue as referred to in subsection (2).

History.—§20, ch. 61-406.

903.545 Surrender of license or permit.—

(1) Though issued to a licensee all certificates of licenses issued under this chapter are at all times the property of the state, and upon notice of any suspension, revocation, refusal to renew, expiration or other termination of the license, the licensee or other person having either the original or copy of the license shall promptly deliver the certificate of license or copy thereof to the commissioner for cancellation.

(2) As to any certificate of license lost, stolen or destroyed while in the possession of any such licensee or person, the commissioner may accept in lieu of return of the certificate the affidavit of the licensee or other person responsible for or involved in the safekeeping of such certificate, concerning the facts of such loss, theft, or destruction. Wilful falsification of any such affidavit shall, upon conviction, be subject to punishment as for perjury.

(3) This section shall not be deemed to require the delivery to the commissioner of any certificate of license which, as shown by specific date of expiration on the face of the license, has already expired, unless such delivery has been requested by the commissioner.

History.—§21, ch. 61-406.

903.546 Administrative fine in lieu of suspension, revocation of license.—

issued under this chapter, the commissioner may, in his discretion, in lieu of such suspension, revocation or refusal, and except on a second offense, impose upon the licensee an administrative penalty in the amount of $100.00, or if the commissioner has found wilful misconduct or wilful violation on the part of the licensee, $500.00. The administrative penalty may, in the commissioner's discretion, be augmented in amount by an amount equal to any commissions received by or accruing to the credit of the licensee in connection with any transaction as to which the grounds for suspension, revocation or refusal related.

(2) The commissioner may allow the licensee a reasonable period, not to exceed thirty days, within which to pay to the commissioner the amount of the penalty so imposed. If the licensee fails to pay the penalty in its entirety to the commissioner at his office at Tallahassee within the period so allowed, the licenses of the licensee shall stand suspended, revoked or renewal or continuation refused, as the case may be, upon expiration of such period and without any further proceedings.

(3) All such fines, monetary penalties, and costs received by the commissioner shall be deposited in the insurance commissioner's enforcement trust fund as provided in §624.0321.

History.—§22, ch. 61-406; (3) a. by §2, ch. 61-119.

903.547 Probation.—

(1) If, upon procedures provided for in §903.54, the commissioner finds that one or more causes exist for the suspension, revocation or refusal to renew or continue any license issued under this chapter the commissioner may, in his discretion, in lieu of such suspension, revocation or refusal, or in connection with any administrative monetary penalty imposed under §903.546, place the offending licensee on probation for a period, not to exceed two years, as specified by the commissioner in his order.

(2) As a condition to such probation or in connection therewith, the commissioner may specify in his order reasonable terms and conditions to be fulfilled by the probationer during the probation period. If during the probation period the commissioner has good cause to believe that the probationer has violated such terms and conditions or any of them, he shall forthwith suspend, revoke or refuse to renew or continue the license of the probationer, as upon the original causes referred to in subsection (1), by his order given to the licensee, without the necessity of further advance notice, hearing, or procedure.

History.—§23, ch. 61-406.

903.55 Review of denial, suspension, revocation or refusal to renew license.—Any applicant for license as bail bondsman or runner whose application has been denied or whose license shall have been so suspended or revoked, or renewal thereof denied, shall have the right of appeal from such final order of the commissioner by appeal to the district court of appeal, first district. Such an appeal shall be commenced within sixty days after the rendition of such order, and in compliance with the rules of procedure as prescribed by the supreme court of Florida for appeals.

History.—§19, ch. 29621, 1955; §11, ch. 59-326.

903.56 All bondsmen of same agency; licensed by same companies.—All bail bondsmen who are members of the same agency, partnership, corporation or association shall be licensed for the same companies. If any member of such agency, partnership, corporation or association is licensed as a professional bondsman, all members thereof shall be so licensed. It shall be the responsibility of each company to see that each agent in an agency is licensed to represent that particular company.

History.—§20, ch. 29621, 1955; §4, ch. 57-63.

903.57 Exemption.—Nothing in §§903.37-903.58 shall be construed as to prevent any duly licensed general lines agent as defined in §626.041 of the insurance code, from writing bail bonds for any company authorized to write fidelity and surety bonds which he represents as agent, provided such agent shall be subject to and governed by all laws, rules, and regulations relating to bail bondsmen when engaged in the activities thereof.

History.—§21, ch. 29621, 1955; §12, ch. 59-326.

903.58 Penalty.—Any person or corporation, who is found guilty of violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall, upon conviction, be fined not more than $500.00 for each offense, or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than six months, or both.

History.—Comp. §22, ch. 29621, 1955.

CHAPTER 904

METHODS OF PROSECUTIONS

904.01 Prosecution by information or indictment.

904.01 Prosecution by information or indictment.—All capital offenses shall be tried on indictment by a grand jury, and all other cases may be tried either by indictment by grand jury or information filed by the prosecuting attorney under oath, except as is otherwise provided in the constitution of the state, and excepting cases of impeachment and in cases in the militia when in active service in time of war, or which the state with consent of congress may keep in time of peace.

History.—§79, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(79).

904.02 Indictments triable in county judge's court.

904.02 Indictments triable in county judge's court.—Upon the finding of an indictment by a grand jury for an offense triable in the county judge's court, the clerk of the circuit court in which the indictment is returned shall certify such indictment and deliver it to the county judge, and the defendant may be tried in the county judge's court upon such indictment.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-131.

CHAPTER 905

GRAND JURY

- 905.01 Number and procurement of grand jury.
- 905.02 Who may challenge.
- 905.03 Ground for challenge to panel.
- 905.04 Grounds for challenge to individual grand juror.
- 905.05 When challenge or objection to be made.
- 905.06 How challenge made and tried.
- 905.07 Effect of sustaining challenge to panel.
- 905.08 Appointment of foreman.
- 905.09 Discharge and recall of grand jury.
- 905.10 Oath of grand jurors.
- 905.11 Charge of court.
- 905.12 Retirement of grand jurors.
- 905.13 Appointment of clerk.
- 905.15 Appointment of interpreter.
- 905.16 Duties of grand jurors.

905.01 Number and procurement of grand jury.—

(1) Every grand jury shall consist of not less than fifteen, nor more than eighteen persons, the assent of at least twelve of whom shall be necessary to the finding of any indictment. All the provisions of law covering the qualifications, disqualifications, exemptions, drawing, summoning, supplying deficiencies, in whole or in part, and compensation and procurement of petit jurors, shall apply to grand jurors.

(2) The judge of any circuit court may dispense with the summoning, empaneling, and convening of the grand jury at any term of the court by making, entering and filing, either in vacation or term time, with the clerk of the court, a written order directing that no grand jury be summoned at such term of court.

History.—§80, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(80).
cf.—§932.15, Provisions supplemental to this chapter.

905.02 Who may challenge.—The state or a person who has been held to answer may challenge the panel or an individual grand juror.

History.—§81, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(81).

905.03 Ground for challenge to panel.—A challenge to the panel may be made only on the ground that the grand jurors were not selected or drawn according to law.

History.—§82, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(82).

905.04 Grounds for challenge to individual grand juror.—A challenge to an individual grand juror may be made:

(1) By either party for the reason:

(a) That the juror has not the qualifications required by law,

(b) That a state of mind exists on his part which will prevent him from acting impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, 905.17 Who may be present during sessions of grand jury.

905.18 Duty of court.

905.19 Duty of prosecuting attorney.

905.20 Duty of grand juror having knowledge of offense.

905.21 When grand jury of another county may indict in other cases.

905.22 Swearing of witnesses.

905.23 Number of grand jurors required to return indictment.

905.24 Proceedings of grand jury to be kept secret.

905.25 What grand juror not permitted to state or testify.

905.26 Not to disclose finding of indictments.

905.27 Testimony not to be disclosed; exceptions.

(c) That the juror is related by blood or marriage within the third degree to the defendant or to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted.

(2) By the state, because the juror is surety on the bail undertaking of any person whose case will come before the grand jury.

History.—§83, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(83).

cf.—§§40.02, 40.07, Qualifications of jurors.

905.05 When challenge or objection to be made.—After the grand jurors have been empaneled and sworn, no objection shall be raised by plea or otherwise, to the grand jury. The empaneling and swearing of the grand jury shall be conclusive evidence of its competency and qualifications, but the provisions of this section shall apply only to defendants who knew, or had reasonable ground to believe, that cases in which they were or might be involved would be investigated by the grand jury at the time it was empaneled and sworn.

History.—§84, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(84).

905.06 How challenge made and tried.—A challenge to the panel shall be in writing, but a challenge to an individual grand juror may be either oral or in writing. All challenges shall be tried by the court.

History.—§85, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(85).

905.07 Effect of sustaining challenge to panel.—If a challenge to the panel is sustained, the grand jury shall be discharged.

History.—§86, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(86).

905.08 Appointment of foreman.—When the grand jury is completed the court shall appoint one of the jurors to be foreman, and also another of the jurors to act as foreman in case of the absence of the foreman.

History.—§87, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(87).

905.09 Discharge and recall of grand jury.—When the grand jury attending any court shall have been dismissed before the court is adjourned without day, they may be summoned to attend again in the same term at such time as the court shall direct, for the dispatch of any business that may come before them.

History.—§88, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(88).

905.10 Oath of grand jurors.—The clerk of the court shall prepare a list of the names of all the persons returned as grand jurors, and when the jury is empaneled, the following oath shall be administered to them:

"You, as grand jurors for the body of this county of _____ do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be) that you will diligently inquire, and true presentment make, of all such matters and things as shall be given you in charge; the counsel of the State of Florida, your fellows and your own, you shall keep secret, unless required to disclose the same by some competent court; you shall present no man for envy, hatred, or malice, neither shall you leave any man unrepresented for love, fear, favor, affection, reward, or hope thereof, but you shall present things truly as they come to your knowledge, according to the best of your understanding. So help you God."

History.—§89, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(89).

905.11 Charge of court.—After the grand jurors are sworn the court shall charge them concerning their duties.

History.—§90, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(90).

905.12 Retirement of grand jurors.—After the charge by the court, the members of the grand jury shall retire to a private room and perform their duties, as prescribed by law.

History.—§91, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(91).

905.13 Appointment of clerk.—The foreman shall appoint one of the grand jurors to be clerk, who shall keep minutes of the proceedings.

History.—§92, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(92).
cf.—§932.18, Delivering minutes to state attorney.

905.15 Appointment of interpreter.—The foreman or acting foreman, whenever necessary, shall appoint an interpreter, and shall swear him not to disclose any testimony or the name of any witnesses except when testifying in court.

History.—§94, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(94).

905.16 Duties of grand jurors.—The grand jurors shall inquire into every offense triable within the county for which any person has been held to answer, if an indictment has not been found or an information filed for such offense, and all other indictable offenses triable within the county which are presented to them by the prosecuting attorney or otherwise come to their knowledge.

History.—§95, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(95).

905.17 Who may be present during sessions of grand jury.—No person shall be present at the sessions of the grand jury except the witness under examination, the prosecuting attorney, the court reporter or stenographer, and the interpreter, if any. The stenographic records, notes or any transcript thereof made by the court reporter or stenographer shall be filed with the clerk of the court and kept by him in a sealed container not subject to inspection by the public. Such notes, records and transcriptions shall be opened and released by the clerk upon the request of any grand jury for the use of such grand jury and shall be opened and released by the clerk upon the order of the trial judge for use pursuant to the provisions of §905.27, but not otherwise. No person shall be present while the grand jurors are deliberating or voting. Any person violating either of the above prohibitions may be held in contempt of court.

History.—§96, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(96). Am. §1, ch. 26584, 1951.

905.18 Duty of court.—The court shall advise the grand jurors at all reasonable times regarding their legal duties, when requested by them. But the court shall not, in its original charge, or thereafter, restrict the grand jury in its investigation of any matter into which the grand jury is by law entitled to inquire.

History.—§97, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(97).

905.19 Duty of prosecuting attorney.—The prosecuting attorney or assistant prosecuting attorney shall attend the grand jurors for the purpose of examining witnesses in their presence, or of giving grand jurors legal advice regarding any matter cognizable by them. He shall also draft indictments.

History.—§98, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(98).

905.20 Duty of grand juror having knowledge of offense.—If a grand juror knows or has reason to believe that an indictable offense, triable within the county, has been committed, he shall declare such fact to his fellow jurors who shall investigate it. In such investigation the grand juror may be sworn as a witness.

History.—§99, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(99).

905.21 When grand jury of another county may indict in other cases.—Whenever the judge shall deem it impracticable or inexpedient to form a grand jury in any county for want of sufficient number of qualified jurors therein, or on account of any undue excitement or prejudice among the people, the grand jury of any county within the circuit, or in an adjoining circuit to which the cause may be sent by the judge of the circuit court in the county in which the crime was committed, may indict any person for crime committed in the county first mentioned. Upon the return of any such indictment, the same shall be certified and transferred to the county where the crime was committed and trial thereon shall be had in such county unless a motion for removal of cause should be made on behalf of the prosecution or the defense and such motion should be granted.

History.—§100, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(100).

905.22 Swearing of witnesses.—The foreman, acting foreman, state attorney, acting state attorney, or assistant state attorney commissioned by the governor, shall administer an oath or affirmation, in the manner prescribed by law, to any witness who shall testify before the grand jury.

History.—§101, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(101).

905.23 Number of grand jurors required to return indictment.—An indictment shall not be found without the concurrence of twelve grand jurors. When so found, the same shall be signed by the state attorney, or acting state attorney, and the foreman or acting foreman shall indorse it "A true bill," sign it, and return it into court. When not so found, the foreman shall endorse the words "No true bill" on the file, sign same, and return it into open court.

History.—§102, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(102).

905.24 Proceedings of grand jury to be kept secret.—Every member of the grand jury shall keep secret whatever he or any other grand juror has said, and how he or any other grand juror has voted.

History.—§103, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(103).

905.25 What grand juror not permitted to state or testify.—No grand juror shall be permitted to state or testify in any court how he or any other grand juror voted on any question before them or what opinion was expressed by himself or any other grand juror regarding such question.

History.—§104, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(104).

905.26 Not to disclose finding of indictments.—No grand juror, reporter, interpreter, stenographer, or officer of the court, unless the court shall so order, shall disclose the fact that any indictment for a felony has been found against any person not in custody or under recognizance, otherwise than by issuing or executing process on such indictment, until such person has been arrested.

History.—§105, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(105).

905.27 Testimony not to be disclosed; exceptions.—No grand juror, prosecuting attorney, or special legal counsel, court reporter, interpreter, or any other person appearing before the grand jury, shall disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury or other evidence received by it except when required by a court to disclose the testimony of a witness examined before the grand jury for the purpose of ascertaining whether it is consistent with that of the witness given before the court, or to disclose the testimony given before the grand jury by any person upon a charge against such person for perjury in giving his testimony or upon trial therefor, or when permitted by the court in the furtherance of justice. Any person violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a criminal contempt of court, and punished accordingly.

History.—§106, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(106). Am. §1, ch. 26940, 1951.

- 906.28 Copy of indictment or information to be furnished defendant.
- 906.29 Witnesses on indictment or information.

906.03 Conclusion.—The indictment or information need contain no formal conclusion.

History.—§109, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(109).

906.04 Subscription and verification of information.—(1) All informations shall be subscribed by the prosecuting attorney, and verified by the oath of the prosecuting attorney.

(2) No objection to any information on the ground that it was not subscribed or verified, as above provided, shall be made or entertained after moving to quash or pleading to the merits.

History.—§110, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(110).

906.05 Form of indictment.—The indictment may be in substantially the following form:

In the (state name of court) the _____ day of _____ 19____.

The State of Florida versus A. B.

In the name and by the authority of the State of Florida;

The Grand Jurors of the County of _____ charge that A. B. (state offense).

History.—§111, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(111).

906.06 Form of informations.—The information may be in substantially the following form:

In the (state name of court) the _____ day of _____ 19____.

The State of Florida vs. A. B.

In the name and by the authority of the State of Florida:

X. Y. (title of prosecuting officer) for the County of _____ charges that A. B. (state offense).

History.—§112, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(112).

cf.—Ch. 832, Issuing worthless checks and drafts.

§932.49, Form of information of particular offenses.

906.07 Bill of particulars.—The court, on motion, may order the prosecuting attorney to furnish a bill of particulars, when the indictment or information fails to inform the defendant of the particulars of the offense sufficiently to enable him to prepare his defense.

History.—§113, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(113).

906.08 Name of person other than defendant.—(1) In an indictment, information or bill of particulars it is sufficient for the purpose of identifying any person other than the defendant to state his true name, or to state the name, appellation or nickname by which he has been or is known, or if no better way of identifying such person is practicable, to state a fictitious name, or to state the name of an office or position held by him, or to describe him as "a certain person," or by words of similar import, or in any other manner. In stating the true name of such person or the name by which such person has been, or is known, it is sufficient to state a surname, or a surname and one or more given names, or surname and one or more abbreviations or initials of a given name or names.

(2) It is sufficient for the purpose of describing any group or association of persons not incorporated to state the proper name of such group or association, or to state any name or designation by which the group or association has been or is known or by which it may be identified, or to state the name or names of one or more persons in such group or association, referring to the other or others as "another" or "others."

(3) It is sufficient for the purpose of describing a corporation to state the corporate name of such corporation, or any name or designation by which it has been or is known, or by which it may be identified, without an averment that the corporation is a corporation or that it was incorporated according to law.

(4) In no case is it necessary to aver or prove that the true name of any person, group or association of persons or any corporation is unknown to the grand jury or prosecuting attorney.

(5) If in the course of the trial the true name of any person, group or association of persons, or corporation, described otherwise than by the true name, is disclosed by the evidence, the court shall cause the true name to be inserted in the indictment, information, bill of particulars and record wherever the name appears otherwise.

History.—§114, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(114).

906.09 Description of written instruments.—When it is necessary in an indictment or information to make an averment relative to any instrument which consists wholly or in part of writing or figures, pictures or designs, it is sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or description by which it is usually known or by which it may be identified, or by its purport, without setting forth a copy or facsimile of the whole or any part thereof. The description in a bill of particulars is sufficient if it sets forth the character and contents of the instrument with such particularity as to enable the defendant to prepare his defense.

History.—§115, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(115).

906.10 Description of written matter.—When in an indictment or information an averment relative to any spoken or written words or any picture is necessary, it is sufficient to set forth such spoken or written words by their general purport or to describe such picture generally, without setting forth a copy or facsimile of such written words or such picture. In a bill of particulars, the description is sufficient if the defendant is thereby sufficiently informed of the identity of the words or picture concerning which the averment is made so as to enable him to prepare his defense.

History.—§116, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(116).

906.11 Judgments.—In referring in an indictment or information to a judgment or determination of, or a proceeding before, any court or official, civil or military, it is unnecessary to allege the facts conferring jurisdiction on such court or official, but it is sufficient to allege generally that such judgment or determination was given or made or such proceedings had, in such manner as identifies the judgment, determination or proceeding.

History.—§117, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(117).

906.12 Exceptions.—No indictment or information for an offense created or defined by statute shall be invalid or insufficient merely for the reason that it fails to negative any exception, excuse or proviso contained in the statute creating or defining the offense.

History.—§118, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(118).

cf.—§398.20, Negative exceptions unnecessary in prosecutions under uniform narcotic drug law.

906.13 Alternative or disjunctive allegations.—No indictment or information for an offense which may be committed by the doing of one or more of several acts, or by one or more of several means, or with one or more of several intents, or with one or more of several results, shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that two or more of such acts, means, intents or results are charged in the disjunctive or alternative.

History.—§119, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(119).

906.14 Indirect allegations.—No indictment or information shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that it alleges indirectly and by inference or by way of recital any matters, facts or circumstances connected with or constituting the offense; provided, however, that such indictment or information contains sufficient facts directly and clearly alleged and charged to constitute the offense being charged in such indictment or information.

History.—§120, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(120).

906.15 Libel.—No indictment or information for libel shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that it does not set forth extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party alleged to be libeled of the defamatory matter on which the indictment or information is founded.

History.—§121, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(121).

cf.—§836.01, Criminal prosecution for libel.

§836.07, Notice condition precedent to prosecution for libel.

906.16 Perjury and kindred offenses.—No indictment or information for perjury, or for subornation of, solicitation of, conspiracy or attempt to commit perjury shall be invalid or insufficient for the reason that it does not set forth any part of the records or proceedings with which the oath was connected, or the commission or authority of the court or other official before whom the perjury was committed or was to have been committed, or the form of the oath or affirmation, or the manner of administering the same.

History.—§122a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(122).
cf.—Ch. 837, Perjury.

906.17 Indictments in felonies.—It shall not be necessary to allege in an indictment that the offense charged is a felony, or felonious or done feloniously, nor shall any indictment or complaint be quashed or deemed invalid by reason of the omission of the words "felony," "felonious" or "feloniously."

History.—§122b, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(123).

906.18 Intent to defraud; how alleged.—When an intent to defraud is required to constitute any offense, it shall be sufficient to allege in the indictment an intent to defraud, without naming therein the particular person or body corporate intended to be defrauded, and on the trial it shall be sufficient, and shall not be deemed a variance, if there appear to be an intent to defraud the United States or any state, county, city, town or parish, or any body corporate, or any public officer in his official capacity, or any copartnership or members thereof, or any particular person.

History.—§122c, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(124).

906.19 Receiving stolen goods.—In prosecutions for the offense of buying, receiving, or aiding in the concealment of stolen property, known to have been stolen, it shall not be necessary to aver, nor on the trial thereof to prove, that the person who stole the property has been convicted.

History.—§122d, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(125).

906.20 Embezzlement.—In prosecutions for the offense of embezzlement, fraudulently taking or secreting with intent to embezzle or convert the bullion, money, notes, bank notes, checks, drafts, bills of exchange, obligations, or other securities for money, of any person, bank, incorporated company or copartnership by a cashier or other officer, clerk, agent, or servant of such person, bank, incorporated company or copartnership, it shall be sufficient to allege generally in the indictment or information the embezzlement, fraudulent conversion, or taking with such intent, of money to a certain amount, without specifying any particulars of such embezzlement, and on the trial, evidence may be given of such embezzlement, fraudulent conversion or taking with intent, committed within the statutory period of limitations. It shall be sufficient to maintain the charge in the indictment, and shall not be deemed a variance, if it be proved that any bullion, money, notes, check, draft, bill of exchange or other security for money, of such person, bank, incorporated company, or partnership of whatever amount was fraudulently embezzled, converted or taken with intent by such cashier or other officer, clerk, agent or servant, within the statutory period of limitations.

History.—§122e, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(126). cf.—§811.04, Larceny of testamentary instrument; allegation of value of ownership.
Ch. 812, Embezzlement.

906.21 Embezzlement; alleging ownership.—If the property, or thing of value embezzled, belongs to several persons or members of a society or voluntary association, it shall be sufficient in the indictment or information to allege the ownership to be in any one or more of any such persons, owners or members, or in the society, association or partnership by its name.

History.—§122f, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(127).

906.22 Evidence in prosecution for forgery or counterfeiting.—In prosecutions for forging or counterfeiting notes or bills of banks, or for uttering, publishing, or tendering in payment as true, any forged or counterfeit bank bills, or notes, or for being possessed thereof with intent to utter and pass the same as true, the testimony of the president and cashier of such banks may be dispensed with, if their place of residence is out of the state or more than forty miles from the place of trial; and the testimony of any person acquainted with the signature of such president or cashier, or who has knowledge of the difference in the appearance of the true and counterfeit bills or notes of such banks may be admitted to prove that such bills or notes are counterfeit.

History.—§122g, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(128).

906.23 Offenses divided into degrees.—In an indictment or information for an offense which is divided into degrees it is sufficient to charge that the defendant committed the offense without specifying the degree.

History.—§123, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(129).

906.24 Surplusage.—Any allegation unnecessary under existing law or under the provisions of this chapter may, if contained in an indictment, information or bill of particulars, be disregarded as surplusage.

History.—§124, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(130).

906.25 Defects and variances.—No indictment or information shall be quashed or judgment arrested or new trial be granted on account of any defect in the form of the indictment or information, or of misjoinder of offenses or for any cause whatsoever, unless the court shall be of the opinion that the indictment or information is so vague, indistinct and indefinite as to mislead the accused and embarrass him in the preparation of his defense or expose him after conviction or acquittal to substantial danger of a new prosecution for the same offense.

History.—§125, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(131).

906.26 Interpretation of chapter.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall be so construed as to make invalid or insufficient any indictment or information which would have been valid and sufficient under the law existing prior to June 12, 1939.

History.—§126, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(132).

906.27 Inspection of indictment, information and record.—All indictments, informations and the records thereof shall be in the custody of the clerk of the court to which they are presented, and shall not be inspected by any person other than the judge, clerk, the attorney general and the prosecuting attorney until the defendant is in custody or has been admitted to bail, or until one year has elapsed between the return of an indictment, or the filing of an information, after which time the same shall be open for inspection by the public, unless otherwise ordered by the court having jurisdiction.

History.—§127, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(133).
Am. §1, ch. 29719, 1955.

906.28 Copy of indictment or information to be furnished defendant.—Every person who has been indicted or informed against for an offense, shall, upon application to the clerk, be furnished with a copy of the indictment or information, together with the indorsements thereon, at least twenty-four hours before he is required to plead thereto, and he shall not be required to plead to such indictment or information if it has not been so furnished to him. A failure to furnish such copy shall not affect the validity of any subsequent proceeding against the defendant if he pleads to the indictment or information.

History.—§128, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(134).

906.29 Witnesses on indictment or information.—It shall not be necessary to indorse on any indictment or information the names of the witnesses on whose evidence the same is based, but upon motion of defendant, the court shall order the prosecuting attorney to furnish the names of such witnesses.

History.—§129, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(135).

CHAPTER 907

PROCESS UPON INDICTMENT AND INFORMATION

- 907.01 Capias and amount of bond.
907.02 When summons may be issued for an individual.
907.03 Summons to be issued when defendant is a corporation.

907.01 Capias and amount of bond.—Upon the filing of an indictment or information, if the person named therein is not in custody or at large on bail for the offense charged, the judge shall direct the clerk to issue immediately or when so directed by the prosecuting attorney, a capias for the arrest of such person. The judge upon the filing of the information or indictment, shall indicate the amount of bail, if the offense is bailable, in which case an indorsement shall be made on the capias and signed by the clerk, to the following effect: The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of _____ dollars.

History.—§130, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(136). cf.—903.01, Bail.

§932.48 Indictments and information, duties of clerk.

907.02 When summons may be issued for an individual.—When an indictment has been found or an information filed against a person charging a misdemeanor only, if he is not in custody or at large on bail for the offense charged, the court or a judge thereof shall direct the clerk to issue a summons instead of a warrant, if the court or judge has reasonable ground to believe that the person will appear in response to a summons.

History.—§131, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(137).

- 907.04 Disposition of defendant upon arrest.
907.05 Criminal cases in circuit court to be tried first.

907.03 Summons to be issued when defendant is a corporation.—When an indictment has been found or an information filed against a corporation the court or a judge thereof shall direct the clerk to issue a summons to secure its appearance to answer the indictment or information.

History.—§132, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(138).

907.04 Disposition of defendant upon arrest.—If the defendant is not bailable in respect of the offense designated in the capias then upon being arrested he shall be immediately delivered into the custody of the sheriff of the county in which the indictment or information is filed. If the defendant is bailable, he shall be allowed his liberty upon giving bond in the amount designated on the capias.

History.—§133a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(139).

907.05 Criminal cases in circuit court to be tried first.—All cases on the criminal docket at each term of the circuit court shall be tried first, if the same can be so tried without injury to the interests of the state or of the prisoner, and cases presented during the term by the grand jury may be tried, if proper, at any time during the same term.

History.—§133b, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(140).

CHAPTER 908

ARRAIGNMENT

908.01 Arraignment of defendant; how made.
908.02 Effect of failure to arraign or irregularity of arraignment.

908.01 Arraignment of defendant; how made.—When an indictment has been found or an information filed against a person he shall, before he is put on trial for the offense charged, be arraigned by having the charge stated to him by the prosecuting attorney in open court and by being called upon to plead thereto. If the defendant so demands before he pleads, the indictment or information shall be read to him by the prosecuting attorney. An entry of the arraignment shall be made of record.

History.—§134, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(141).

cf.—§932.38, Parent or guardian to be notified before trial of offense against minor.

908.03 Standing mute or pleading evasively; failure of a corporation to appear.

908.02 Effect of failure to arraign or irregularity of arraignment.—Neither a failure to arraign nor an irregularity in the arraignment shall affect the validity of any proceeding in the cause if the defendant pleads to the indictment or information or proceeds to trial without objection to such failure or irregularity.

History.—§135, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(142).

908.03 Standing mute or pleading evasively; failure of a corporation to appear.—If the defendant is a corporation and fails to appear or if any defendant stands mute or pleads evasively a plea of not guilty shall be entered of record.

History.—§136, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(143).

cf.—§909.02, Certain pleas abolished; motion to quash substituted.

CHAPTER 909

MOTION TO QUASH AND PLEAS

- 909.01 Time to move to quash or plead.
 909.02 Certain pleas abolished; motion to quash substituted.
 909.03 Motion to quash; form and contents.
 909.04 Arrest on capias based on indictment or information; habeas corpus; motion to quash; preliminary hearing.
 909.05 Effect of sustaining the motion to quash.
 909.06 Effect of failure to move to quash; exceptions.
 909.07 Form of plea; failure to enter of record.
 909.08 Plea of guilty; presence of defendant.
 909.09 Plea of guilty of lesser offense or lesser degree.
 909.10 Effect of plea of guilty of an offense divided into degrees.
 909.11 Plea of guilty of an offense divided into degrees; determination of the degree.
 909.12 Plea of guilty; determination of punishment.
 909.13 Withdrawal of plea of guilty.
 909.14 Plea of guilty before indictment or information filed.
 909.15 Plea of guilty after indictment or information filed.
 909.16 Plea of not guilty; its operation in denial.
 909.17 Defense of insanity; notice.
 909.19 Effect of failure to enter plea.
 909.20 Time to prepare for trial.
 909.21 Appointment of counsel in capital cases.
 909.22 Trial pending writ of habeas corpus.
 909.23 Trial of persons in custody.

909.01 Time to move to quash or plead.—Either prior to or upon being arraigned, the defendant shall, unless the court grants him further time, either move to quash the indictment or information or plead thereto, or do both. If he moves to quash, without also pleading, and the motion is withdrawn or overruled, he shall immediately plead.

History.—§137, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(144).

909.02 Certain pleas abolished; motion to quash substituted.—Pleas to an indictment or information, other than pleas of nolo contendere, guilty, or not guilty, are abolished.

All defenses heretofore available to a defendant by plea, other than pleas of nolo contendere and not guilty, shall be taken only by motion to quash the indictment or information, whether the same relate to matters of form or substance, former acquittal, former jeopardy, or any other defense which heretofore was raised by plea.

History.—§138, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(145).
cf.—§908.03, Standing mute or pleading evasively.

909.03 Motion to quash; form and contents.—(1) The motion to quash, if a court reporter is present, may be made orally, otherwise it shall be in writing and signed by defendant or his attorney. It shall specify distinctly the ground of objection relied on. If made orally, the court reporter shall transcribe the same, and file it with the clerk. When made in writing it shall be first filed with the clerk, before argument, and a copy served on the prosecuting attorney.

(2) The motion to quash may be filed at any time after information or indictment is filed, and with permission of the court, may, on notice to prosecuting attorney, be heard and disposed of either in term time or vacation. However, at such hearing the defendant must be present, if a felony is charged.

(3) The order on the motion to quash shall be filed in the cause and entered of record.

History.—§139, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(146).

909.04 Arrest on capias based on indictment or information; habeas corpus; motion to quash; preliminary hearing.—When an indictment or information is filed and a defendant is in custody under a capias he may apply for a writ of habeas corpus, attacking said indictment or information; or he may move to quash the indictment or information and bring it on to be heard before the trial court having jurisdiction. If a defendant so in custody upon a capias as aforesaid is confined in jail for thirty days after his arrest, without trial, he may apply to the trial court having jurisdiction for and be allowed a preliminary hearing.

History. §140, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(147).
 Am. §1, ch. 26767, 1951.

909.05 Effect of sustaining the motion to quash.—If the motion to quash is sustained the court may order that another information be filed or that the matter be again submitted to a grand jury, or if the matter is such that an information might have been filed against the defendant if he had not been indicted, that an information be filed for the offense charged in the indictment. If one of the aforementioned orders is made, the defendant, if in custody, shall remain so unless he shall be admitted to bail. If such order is not made or if having been made, a new indictment is not found by the same or the next succeeding grand jury having authority to inquire into the offense, or another information not filed within a time to be specified in the order, or within such further time as the court may allow for good cause shown, the defendant, if in custody, shall be discharged therefrom, unless he is in custody on some other charge; if he has been released on bail he and his sureties are exonerated, and if money or bonds have been deposited as bail such money or bonds shall be refunded.

History.—§141, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(148).

909.06 Effect of failure to move to quash; exceptions.—If the defendant does not move to quash the indictment or information before or at the time he pleads thereto he shall be taken to have waived all objections which are grounds for a motion to quash. If, however, the defendant learns after he has pleaded or has moved to quash on some other ground that the offense with which he is now charged is an offense for which he has been pardoned, or of which he has been convicted or acquitted or been in jeopardy or for which he has been granted immunity the court may in its discretion entertain at any time before verdict a motion to quash or motion for directed verdict on the ground of such pardon, conviction, acquittal, jeopardy or immunity.

History.—§142, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(149).
cf.—§932.29, Immunity from prosecution.

909.07 Form of plea; failure to enter of record.—Every plea shall be pleaded orally in open court and shall be immediately entered of record; but a failure so to enter it shall not affect the validity of any proceeding in the cause.

History.—§143, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(150).

909.08 Plea of guilty; presence of defendant.—Except where the defendant is a corporation, a plea of guilty to a charge of felony shall not be accepted unless the defendant is present.

History.—§144, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(151).

909.09 Plea of guilty of lesser offense or lesser degree.—The defendant, with the consent of the court and of the prosecuting attorney, may plead guilty of any lesser offense than that charged which is included in the offense charged in the indictment or information, or of any lesser degree of the offense charged.

History.—§145, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(152).

909.10 Effect of plea of guilty of an offense divided into degrees.—Where an indictment or information charges an offense which is divided into degrees, without specifying the degree, a plea of guilty which does not specify any degree is a plea of guilty of the highest degree of the offense charged.

History.—§146, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(153).

909.11 Plea of guilty of an offense divided into degrees; determination of the degree.—Where an indictment or information charges an offense which is divided into degrees without specifying the degree, if the defendant pleads guilty generally the court shall, before accepting the plea, examine witnesses to determine the degree of the offense of which the defendant is guilty.

History.—§147, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(154).

909.12 Plea of guilty; determination of punishment.—Where the defendant pleads guilty to an indictment or information, if the court accepts the plea and has discretion as to the punishment for the offense, it may hear witnesses to determine what punishment shall be imposed.

History.—§148, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(155).

909.13 Withdrawal of plea of guilty.—The court may in its discretion at any time before sentence permit a plea of guilty to be withdrawn and, if judgment of conviction has been entered thereon, set aside such judgment, and allow a plea of not guilty, or, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney, allow a plea of guilty of a lesser included offense, or of a lesser degree of the offense charged, to be substituted for the plea of guilty.

History.—§149, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(156).

909.14 Plea of guilty before indictment or information filed.—If a person who has been held to answer for an offense desires to plead guilty thereto before he has been informed against he may so inform the court having jurisdiction of the offense, whereupon the court shall direct the prosecuting attorney to file an information charging the defendant with such offense, and, upon the filing of such information, and arraignment thereon, the defendant may plead guilty thereto.

History.—§150, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(157).

909.15 Plea of guilty after indictment or information filed.—If a person who has been indicted or informed against for an offense, but who has not been arraigned desires to plead guilty thereto, he may so inform the court having jurisdiction of the offense, and such court shall as soon as convenient, arraign the defendant and permit him to plead guilty to the indictment or information.

History.—§151, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(158).

909.16 Plea of not guilty; its operation in denial.—A plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the indictment or information.

History.—§152, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(159).

909.17 Defense of insanity; notice.—(1) When in any criminal case it shall be the intention of the defendant to rely upon the defense of insanity, no evidence offered by the defendant for the purpose of establishing such insanity shall be admitted in such case unless advance notice of such defense shall have been given by the defendant as hereinafter provided.

If the defendant upon arraignment, or prior thereto, notifies the court that he will rely upon insanity as one of his defenses, then the court will hear the parties and require the defendant to file, within such time as may be fixed by the court, a bill of particulars showing as nearly as he can the nature of insanity he expects to prove and the names of the witnesses by whom he expects to prove such insanity.

(2) Upon the filing of said bill of particulars by the defendant, upon motion of the prosecution, the court, after hearing, may cause the defendant to be examined in the presence of attorneys for the state and for the defendant, by one or more disinterested qualified experts, not exceeding three, appointed by the court, at such time and place as may be designated in the order of the court, as to the sanity, or insanity, of the defendant at the time of the commission of the alleged offense and subsequent thereto. The procedure shall follow that set forth in chapter 917.

(3) Upon good cause shown for the omission of the notices and procedure as to the defense of insanity, as here set forth, the court may in its discretion permit the introduction of evidence of such defense.

History.—§153, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(160).
cf.—§§917.01-917.03, Proceeding to determine mental condition of defendant.

909.19 Effect of failure to enter plea.—The plea that the defendant did not plead shall not affect the validity of any proceeding in the cause if the defendant proceeds to trial without a plea.

History.—§155, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(162).

909.20 Time to prepare for trial.—After a plea of not guilty the defendant is entitled to a reasonable time in which to prepare for trial.

History.—§156, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(163).

909.21 Appointment of counsel in capital cases.—In all capital cases where the defendant is insolvent, the judge shall appoint such counsel for the defendant as he shall deem necessary, and shall allow such compensation as he may deem reasonable, such sum to be paid by the county in which the crime was committed. Counsel, so appointed, may in the event of conviction and sentence of death, appeal the case to the supreme court, and prosecute said appeal to its final conclusion with diligence; and until the supreme court has disposed of the appeal, no compensation shall be allowed to such counsel. If counsel first appointed is unable for any reason to perfect and prosecute the appeal, the court may relieve him from such duty, but shall appoint other counsel for such purpose. When counsel so appointed by the court, in capital cases, completes the duties imposed by this section, such counsel shall file a written report as to the duties performed by him and apply for discharge by the court.

The compensation of counsel for the defendant, at the trial, shall not exceed five hundred dollars; and defendant's counsel's compensation on appeal, shall not exceed five hundred dollars additional.

History.—§157, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(164).
Am. §1, ch. 29656, 1955.

909.22 Trial pending writ of habeas corpus.—Whenever in any criminal prosecution, a writ of habeas corpus is applied for, by any person charged with any criminal offense, and the accused shall have been remanded to custody by the court to which such application is made, a supersedeas of such order made upon appeal being taken to the appellate court, shall not preclude the state from proceeding with the prosecution and trial of the accused pending the decision in such matter of habeas corpus by the appellate court, but in such cases the state may proceed with the prosecution and trial of the accused in the same manner as if an appeal had not been taken in the habeas corpus proceeding. Should the accused be convicted of the charge, then the court shall withhold imposition of sentence and final judgment until the appellate court shall have determined the issues presented in the matter of habeas corpus.

History.—§158, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(165).

909.23 Trial of persons in custody.—When an indictment has been returned or an information filed for a felony and the accused be in custody, the court shall cause him to be arraigned and tried at the same term, during which said indictment or information is filed, unless good cause be shown for a continuance.

History.—§159, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(166).

CHAPTER 910

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 910.01 Offense committed elsewhere but consummated here.
 910.02 Offense in or against aircraft.
 910.03 Place of trial generally.
 910.04 Where accessory in one county and offense committed in another.
 910.05 Where offense committed partly in one and partly in another county.
 910.06 Where person in one county commits offense in another.

910.01 Offense committed elsewhere but consummated here.—When the commission of an offense committed elsewhere is consummated within the boundaries of this state, the offender shall be liable to punishment here, though he was out of the state at the commission of the offense charged, if he consummated it in this state through the intervention of an innocent or guilty agent, or by any other means proceeding directly from himself. The jurisdiction in such case, unless otherwise provided by law, shall be in the county in which the offense was consummated.

History.—§160, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (167).
 cf.—§932.07, Provisions supplemental to this chapter.

910.02 Offense in or against aircraft.—Any person who commits an offense in or against any aircraft while it is in flight over this state may be tried in this state. The trial in such case may be in any county over which the aircraft passed in the course of such flight.

History.—§161, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (168).
 cf.—§11, Declaration of rights, Florida constitution. Accused has the right to be tried in the county where the crime was committed.

910.03 Place of trial generally.—In all criminal prosecutions the trial shall be in the county where the offense was committed unless otherwise provided by law.

History.—§162, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (169).
 cf.—§817.04, Prosecution for making false statement to obtain goods on credit.

910.04 Where accessory in one county and offense committed in another.—Where a person in one county aids, abets or procures the commission of an offense in another county he may be tried for the offense in either county.

History.—§163, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (170).

 910.09 Where injury inflicted in one county and death occurs in another.
 910.10 Where stolen property brought into another county.
 910.11 Conviction or acquittal bar to prosecution.

910.07 Where offense committed on railroad train or other vehicle.—Where an offense is committed on a railroad train or other public or private vehicle while in the course of its trip the trial may be in any county through which such train or other vehicle passed during such trip.

History.—§166, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (173).

910.08 Where offense committed on vessel.—Where an offense is committed on board a vessel in the course of its voyage, the trial may be in any county through which the vessel passed during such voyage.

History.—§167, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (174).
 cf.—§11, Declaration of rights, Florida constitution.

910.09 Where injury inflicted in one county and death occurs in another.—Where a person inflicts an injury upon another person in one county from which the injured person dies in another county, the trial for the homicide may be in either county.

History.—§168, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (175).

910.10 Where stolen property brought into another county.—Where a person obtains property by larceny, robbery, false pretense or embezzlement in one county and brings the property so obtained into any other county or counties, he may be tried in the county in which he obtains the property or in any other county into which he brings it.

History.—§169, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (176).

910.11 Conviction or acquittal bar to prosecution.—

(1) No person shall be held to answer on a second indictment or information for a crime for which he has been acquitted, but such acquittal may be pleaded by motion in bar of any subsequent prosecution for the same crime, notwithstanding any defect in the form or circumstances of the indictment or information.

CHAPTER 911

CHANGE OF JUDGE AND REMOVAL OF CAUSE

- 911.01 Change of judge.
- 911.02 Removal of cause.
- 911.03 Application for removal of cause; how and when made.
- 911.04 Service of copy of application for removal of cause.
- 911.05 Duty of judge upon application for removal of cause.

911.01 Change of judge.—(1) On a prosecution by indictment or information, the prosecuting attorney or the defendant may apply for a change of judge by making and filing an affidavit that he fears a fair trial cannot be had in the court where the case is pending on account of the prejudice of the judge of said court against the applicant, or in favor of the adverse party, and thereupon, such judge shall proceed no further therein, but another judge shall be designated in a manner prescribed by the laws of Florida for the substitution of judges for the trial of causes where the presiding judge is disqualified.

(2) The presiding judge may examine the affidavits supporting the motion to disqualify him for prejudice, to determine their legal sufficiency, but shall not pass on the truth of the facts alleged, nor adjudicate the question of his disqualification.

(3) Every affidavit shall state the facts and the reasons for the belief that any bias or prejudice exists, and such affidavit shall be filed not less than ten days before the time the case is called for trial, or good cause shown for the failure to so file same within such time.

(4) Any affidavit so filed shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record that such affidavit and application are made in good faith, and the facts stated as a basis for making the affidavit shall be supported in substance by affidavit of at least two reputable citizens of the county, not of kin to the defendant or of counsel for the defendant; provided, that when the prosecuting attorney or defendant shall have suggested the disqualification of a trial judge and an order shall have been made admitting the disqualification of such judge, and another judge shall have been assigned and transferred to act in lieu of the judge so held to be disqualified, the judge so assigned and transferred shall not be disqualified on account of alleged prejudice against the party making the suggestion in the first instance, or in favor of the adverse party, unless such judge shall admit and hold that it is then a fact that he, the said judge, does not stand fair and impartial between the parties and if such judge shall hold, rule and adjudge that he does stand fair and impartial as between the parties and their respective interests, he shall cause such ruling to be entered on the minutes of the court, and shall proceed to preside as judge in the pending cause. The ruling

- 911.07 Order of removal; recording and transmission.
- 911.08 Duty of witnesses.
- 911.09 Removal of cause where several defendants.
- 911.10 Duty of prosecuting attorney, and court to which cause removed.

of such judge may be reviewed by the appellate court, as are other rulings of the trial court.

History.—§171, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (178); am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

cf.—§38.09, Designation of judge to hear cause when order of disqualification entered.

911.02 Removal of cause.—(1) On a prosecution by indictment or information the state or the defendant may apply for removal of the cause on the ground that a fair and impartial trial can not be had for any reason other than the interest or prejudice of the trial judge.

(2) In all criminal cases pending in any of the criminal courts of record in any county in this state, changes of venue may be had and granted upon the same terms and for the same reasons and grounds and in the same manner as is now provided by law for changes of venue in causes pending in the circuit courts. When any change of venue is granted in any cause in any criminal court of record, the venue shall be changed to the criminal court of record, in some adjoining county if there be one, but if there shall be no criminal court of record in any adjoining county, the venue shall be changed to the circuit court of some adjoining county; provided, that the venue in cases of misdemeanor shall be changed to the county court of some adjoining county, if there be a county court therein. Upon such change the original papers in the cause, together with a certified copy of the order changing the venue, shall forthwith be forwarded by the clerk to the court to which such venue is changed, and he shall preserve in his office certified copies of all such original papers so transmitted.

History.—§172, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (179).

911.03 Application for removal of cause; how and when made.—The application for removal of the cause shall be in writing and shall be filed not less than ten days before the trial of said cause unless good cause be shown for the failure so to file same within such time. It shall state the grounds on which it is based and shall also state the facts constituting the grounds. When made by the state, it shall be verified by affidavit of the prosecuting attorney; when made by the defendant, it shall be verified by his affidavit and when the defendant is represented by counsel, the affidavit shall be accompanied by a certificate of counsel of record that said affidavit and application are made in good faith.

History.—§173, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (180).

911.04 Service of copy of application for removal of cause.—Upon the filing of an application for removal of the cause a copy thereof and a copy of any supporting affidavit shall be served upon the other party prior to the hearing of the application.

History.—§174, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(181).

911.05 Duty of judge upon application for removal of cause.—Where application is made for removal of the cause the court shall hear the application and shall either grant or refuse it after considering the facts set forth therein and the affidavit accompanying it and any other affidavits or counter affidavits that may be filed after hearing any witness produced by either side. If the court grants the application it shall make an order removing the cause to the proper court of some other convenient county where a fair and impartial trial can be had.

History.—§175, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(182).

911.06 Proceedings on removal, if defendant is in custody.—If the defendant is in custody, the order shall direct that he be forthwith delivered to the custody of the sheriff of the county to which the cause is removed.

History.—§176, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(183).

911.07 Order of removal; recording and transmission.—The clerk shall enter on the minutes the order of removal and shall transmit to the court to which the cause is removed a certified copy of the order of removal and of the record and proceedings and of the undertakings of the witnesses and the accused.

History.—§177, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(184).

911.08 Duty of witnesses.—Where the cause is removed to another court the witnesses who have entered into undertakings to appear at the trial shall, on notice of such removal, attend the court to which the cause is removed at the time specified in the order of removal. A failure so to attend shall work a forfeiture of the undertaking.

History.—§178, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(185).

911.09 Removal of cause where several defendants.—If there are several defendants and an order is made removing the cause on the application of one or more but not all of them, the other defendants shall be tried and all proceedings had against them in the county in which the cause is pending in all respects as if no order of removal had been made as to any defendant.

History.—§179, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(186).

911.10 Duty of prosecuting attorney, and court to which cause removed.—(1) The court to which the cause is removed shall proceed to trial and judgment therein as if the cause had originated in such court. If it is necessary to have any of the original pleadings or other papers before such court, the court from which the cause is removed shall at any time upon application of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant order such papers or pleadings to be transmitted by the clerk a certified copy thereof being retained.

(2) The prosecuting attorney of the court to which the cause is removed, may amend the information, or file a new information, and such new information shall be entitled in the county in which the trial is had, but the allegation as to the place of commission of the crime, shall cover the county in which the crime was actually committed.

History.—§180, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(187).

WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

912.01 When trial by jury may be waived.

912.01 When trial by jury may be waived.
—In all cases except where a sentence of death may be imposed trial by jury may be waived by the defendant. Such waiver shall be made in open court and an indorsement thereof made on the indictment or information and signed by the defendant.

History.—§181, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(188).

TRIAL JURY

- 913.01 Challenge to panel.
- 913.02 Examination of jurors.
- 913.03 Grounds for challenge to individual jurors for cause.
- 913.04 When challenge to individual juror to be made.
- 913.05 How challenge to individual juror to be made.
- 913.06 How challenge to individual juror to be tried.

913.01 Challenge to panel.—The state or the defendant may challenge the panel or an individual juror.

A challenge to the panel may be made only on the ground that the jurors were not selected or drawn according to law.

Challenges to the panel shall be made and decided before any individual juror is examined, unless ordered by the court.

A challenge to the panel shall be in writing and shall specify the facts constituting the ground of challenge.

Challenges to the panel shall be tried by the court.

Upon the trial of a challenge to the panel the witnesses shall be examined on oath by the court and may be so examined by either party with the permission of the court.

If the challenge to the panel is sustained, the court shall discharge the panel. If the challenge is not sustained, the individual jurors shall be called.

History.—§182, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(189). cf.—§932.19, Provisions supplemental to this chapter.

913.02 Examination of jurors.—(1) The jurors shall be sworn, either individually or collectively, as the court may decide, to answer truthfully all questions put to them regarding their competence to serve as jurors. The court shall then examine each juror individually, except that, with the consent of both parties, it may examine the jurors collectively. Counsel for both state and defendant shall be permitted to propound pertinent questions to the juror after such examination by the court.

(2) If the court after the examination of any juror is of the opinion that he is incompetent the court shall excuse him from the trial of the cause. If, however, the court does not excuse the juror, either party may then challenge him, as hereafter provided.

History.—§183, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(190).

913.03 Grounds for challenge to individual jurors for cause.—A challenge for cause to an individual juror may be made only on the ground:

- (1) That the juror has not the qualifications required by law;
- (2) That the juror is of unsound mind or has such a defect in any organ of the body as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror;
- (3) That the juror entertains such conscientious convictions as would preclude his finding the defendant guilty;

(4) That the juror served on the grand jury which found the indictment or on a coroner's jury which inquired into the death of a person whose death is the subject of the indictment or information;

(5) That the juror served on a jury formerly sworn to try the defendant on the same charge;

(6) That the juror served on a jury which has tried another person for the offense charged in the indictment or information;

(7) That the juror served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant for the act charged as an offense;

(8) That the juror is a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or has complained against or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution;

(9) That the juror is related by blood or marriage within the third degree to the defendant or the attorneys of either party or to the person alleged to be injured by the offense charged or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted;

(10) That the juror has a state of mind in reference to the cause or to the defendant or to the person alleged to have been injured by the offense charged, or to the person on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, which will prevent him from acting with impartiality; but the formation of an opinion or impression regarding the guilt or innocence of the defendant shall not of itself be sufficient ground of challenge to a juror if he declares, and the court is satisfied, that he can render an impartial verdict according to the evidence;

(11) That the juror was a witness either for the state or the defendant on the preliminary examination or before the grand jury or is to be a witness for either party at the trial;

(12) That the juror is one of the sureties on defendant's bail bond in the cause.

History.—§184, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(191).

cf.—§40.01, §932.19, Qualification of jurors.

§54.12, Challenge in civil cases.

913.04 When challenge to individual juror to be made.—A challenge to an individual juror may be made only before the juror is sworn to try the cause; except that the court may for good cause permit it to be made after the juror is sworn, but before any evidence is presented.

History.—§185, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(192).

913.05 How challenge to individual juror to be made.—A challenge to an individual juror may be oral. When a juror is challenged for cause the ground for challenge shall be stated.

History.—§186, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(193).

913.06 How challenge to individual juror to be tried.—Challenges to an individual juror shall be tried by the court.

History.—§187, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(194).

913.07 Examination of witness on trial of challenge to individual juror.—Upon the trial of a challenge to an individual juror for cause the juror challenged and any other material witnesses produced by the parties shall be examined on oath by the court and may be so examined by either party.

History.—§188, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(195).

913.08 Number of peremptory challenges.—The state and the defendant shall each be allowed the following number of peremptory challenges:

(1) Ten, if the offense charged is punishable by death or imprisonment for life;

(2) Six, if the offense charged is a felony not punishable by death or imprisonment for life;

(3) Three, if the offense charged is a misdemeanor.

(4) If two or more defendants are jointly tried each defendant shall be allowed the number of peremptory challenges specified above and in such case the state shall be allowed as many challenges as are allowed to all of the defendants.

History.—§189, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(196).

913.09 Effect of sustaining challenge to individual juror.—If a challenge to an individual juror is sustained he shall be discharged from the trial of the cause.

History.—§190, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(197).

913.10 Number of jurors and alternate jurors.—

(1) Twelve men shall constitute a jury to try all capital cases, and six men shall constitute a jury to try all other criminal cases.

(2) When in the opinion of the court a trial is likely to be a protracted one, the presiding judge of such court may direct that one or two jurors, in addition to the regular panel, be called and impaneled to sit as alternate jurors. Alternate jurors in the order in which they are called shall replace jurors who, prior to the time the jury retires to consider its verdict, become unable or disqualified to perform their duties. Alternate jurors shall be drawn in the same manner, shall have the same qualifications, shall be subject to the same examination, shall take the same oath and shall have the same functions, powers, facilities and privileges as the principal jurors. An alternate juror, who does not replace a principal juror, shall be discharged at the time the jury retires to consider its verdict. If one or two alternate jurors are called, each party is entitled to one peremptory challenge in addition to those otherwise allowed by law for each alternate juror so called. The additional peremptory challenge may be used only against the alternate juror and the other peremptory challenges allowed by law shall not be used against the alternate jurors.

History.—§191, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(198).

913.11 Oath of jurors.—The following oath shall be administered to the jurors: "Do you solemnly swear (or affirm) that you will well and truly try the issues between the State of Florida and the defendant whom you shall have in charge and a true verdict render according to the law and the evidence, so help you God."

If any juror affirms, the clause "So help you God" shall be omitted.

History.—§192, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(199).

CHAPTER 914

PRESENCE OF DEFENDANT

914.01 Presence of defendant when prosecution for felony.

914.01 Presence of defendant when prosecution for felony.—In all prosecutions for a felony the defendant shall be present:

- (1) At arraignment;
- (2) When a plea is made;
- (3) At the calling, examination, challenging, impaneling and swearing of the jury;
- (4) At all proceedings before the court when the jury is present;
- (5) When evidence is addressed to the court out of the presence of the jury for the purpose of laying the foundation for the introduction of evidence before the jury;
- (6) At a view by the jury;
- (7) At the rendition of the verdict;
- (8) Persons prosecuted for misdemeanors may, at their own request, by leave of court, be tried in their absence from the court.

Provided, however, that upon the beginning of the trial of a defendant upon any charge contained in any indictment or information and the defendant being present thereat, if said defendant shall thereafter, during the progress of said trial, or before the verdict of the jury shall have been returned into court, voluntarily, without leave of court first had and obtained, absent himself from the presence of the court, the trial of said cause or the return of the verdict of the jury in said case shall not thereby be postponed or delayed, but said trial, the submission of said case to the jury for verdict, and the return of the verdict thereon shall proceed in all respects as though the defendant were present in court at all times.

History.—§193, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(200).

CHAPTER 915

DISMISSAL OF PROSECUTION

915.01 Speedy trial; reduction of bail; discharge of prisoner.

915.01 Speedy trial; reduction of bail; discharge of prisoner.—(1) When a person has been committed to custody to answer any criminal charge, and shall apply to the court on the first day of the term to which he has been committed, that he desires to be brought to his trial before the end of the term, and shall not be indicted or informed against at that term, unless it appear to the satisfaction of the court that the witnesses could not be procured, the court shall set him at liberty upon his giving bail in a reasonable penalty to appear at the next term. If the person in custody be not indicted or informed against in the second term, unless the attendance of witnesses is prevented by himself, he shall be discharged from imprisonment; and if he is not tried at or before the third term after the date he is first committed, he shall be forever discharged from the crime.

(2) When a person has been arrested and released on bond, and thereafter for three successive terms of court, files a written demand for trial (serving a copy on the prosecuting attorney) and he is not brought to trial at or before the third full term after the date he is first committed, he shall be forever discharged from the crime; provided, however, the attendance of the witnesses is not prevented by himself, and he has filed no pleading seeking a continuance.

History.—§194, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (201).

915.02 Speedy trial for persons serving terms of imprisonment.—Any person serving a sentence or sentences of imprisonment for crime in this state who has a charge of crime pending against him in this state and who, while imprisoned under such sentence or sentences, files in the court having jurisdiction to try said charge, on or within thirty days before the first day of each of three successive terms thereof, a written demand for trial, serving a copy upon the prosecuting attorney, and who is not brought to trial by the end of the third of such terms, shall be forever discharged from the said crime; provided that the attendance of the witnesses is not prevented by him; provided that any term of court during which a continuance has been granted for good cause shown to either the accused or the state shall not be counted in computing the three terms.

History.—§1, ch. 61-419.

CONTINUANCE

- 916.01 Right to speedy trial.
 916.02 Definition of continuance.
 916.03 When application for continuance to be made.
 916.04 Form of application for continuance.
 916.05 Application for continuance on ground of absent witness.

- 916.06 Depositions.
 916.07 Hearing and action thereon.
 916.08 Time for continuance.
 916.09 Continuance where several defendants.

916.01 Right to speedy trial.—In all criminal prosecutions the state and the defendant shall each have the right to a speedy trial.

History.—§195, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (202). cf.—§11, Decl. of rights, const.

916.02 Definition of continuance.—(1) A continuance within the meaning of this chapter is the postponement of a cause for any period of time.

(2) The court on the application of either party or on its own motion may in its discretion for good cause grant a continuance.

History.—§196, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (203).

916.03 When application for continuance to be made.—An application for continuance may be made only before or at the time the case is set for trial, unless good cause for failure so to apply is shown or unless the ground for application arose after the cause was set for trial.

History.—§197, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (204).

916.04 Form of application for continuance.—An application for continuance shall be in writing. The application shall specify the ground upon which it is based and shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney or by counsel for the defendant, as the case may be, and shall be accompanied by the certificate of the signer that it is made in good faith and shall be sworn to by the applicant.

History.—§198, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (205).

916.05 Application for continuance on ground of absent witness.—An application for continuance on the ground that a witness is absent shall state:

(1) The name and residence of the witness and that the witness is absent;

(2) The facts expected to be proved by the witness;

(3) That the testimony of the witness is material and not merely cumulative, and that the facts to be proven by the witness cannot be proven by any other available witnesses;

(4) Whether the witness is a legal resident of this state;

(5) Facts showing that due diligence has been used to obtain the witness, and that a service of a summons on the witness has been attempted, within a reasonable time before trial, but the witness could not be found;

(6) Facts showing that the applicant expects to be able to procure the attendance of the witness at a specified time;

(7) That the witness is not absent through the procurement, connivance, or consent, either directly or indirectly, of the applicant;

(8) That the applicant believes that the cause cannot be tried with justice to the party without the evidence of such witness;

(9) Facts showing when the witness left the jurisdiction of the court; whether his absence is temporary or permanent, and when he is expected to return;

(10) Facts showing when and how the applicant learned that the witness would testify as alleged in the motion;

(11) If the witness is not expected to return, then the filing of interrogatories to be propounded to such absent witness, and a request that a commission be issued to take the deposition of such witness, if the applicant is the defendant;

(12) That the witness will be present at a designated time, not later than the next term of court, or that his deposition will be obtained (if applicant is defendant).

History.—§199, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (206). cf.—§902.17, Refusal of witness to give security.

916.06 Depositions.—

(1) At any time after defendant is bound over for trial up to and including the day defendant is arraigned upon indictment or information, if he shall satisfy the court by his oath in writing, or by the affidavits of credible persons, that the testimony of absent persons is material and necessary to his defense, and that such witnesses reside beyond the jurisdiction of the court or are so sick and infirm that with diligence their attendance can not be procured at the same or the next succeeding regular or special term at which the case may be tried, the judge upon the proper application of the accused, or his attorney, and the filing of the interrogatories to be propounded to such absent witnesses, shall order that a commission be issued to take the deposition of such witnesses to be used in the trial.

(2) If a defendant desires to perpetuate the testimony of a witness living in or out of the state, whose testimony is material and necessary to his defense, the same proceedings shall be followed as set forth in subsection (1) hereof; with the exception, however, that the testimony of such witness be taken before an official court reporter, transcribed by him, and filed in the trial court.

(3) The order for issuing such commission may be made by the judge, either in term time or in vacation, and application to him for that purpose may be made in vacation as well as in term time, but in such case due notice of the application shall be given to the prosecuting attorney. The commission shall be issued at a time to be fixed by the judge.

(4) Except as otherwise provided, the rules governing the filing of interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, the objections thereto, the issuing, execution and return of the commission, and the opening of the depositions in civil cases shall be observed in criminal cases.

(5) No deposition shall be used or read in evidence when the attendance of the witnesses can be procured, and if it shall appear to the court that any person whose deposition has been taken, has absented himself by the procurement, inducement, or threats of the accused, or of any person on his behalf, such depositions shall not be read to the jury.

History.—§199a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663-(207).

916.07 Hearing and action thereon.—The party applying for a continuance may file affidavits in support of his application, and the adverse party may, except as to the facts expected to be proved by the witness, thereupon file counter-affidavits. The court in its discretion may require additional affidavits or counter-affidavits and shall either grant or refuse the application after considering the allegations thereof and any affidavits or counter-affidavits that may be filed.

History.—§200, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(208).

916.08 Time for continuance.—No continuance shall be granted for a longer time than the ends of justice require.

History.—§201, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(209).

916.09 Continuance where several defendants.—Where there are several defendants and a continuance is granted on the application of one or more, but not all defendants, the trial of the other defendants shall proceed unless the court orders otherwise.

History.—§202, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(210).

CHAPTER 917

PROCEEDING TO DETERMINE MENTAL CONDITION OF DEFENDANT

- 917.01 Examination of defendant's mental condition to determine whether he shall be tried.
- 917.02 Appointment of expert witnesses by court.

917.01 Examination of defendant's mental condition to determine whether he shall be tried.—(1) If before or during trial the court, of its own motion, or upon motion of counsel for the defendant, has reasonable ground to believe that the defendant is insane, the court shall immediately fix a time for a hearing to determine the defendant's mental condition. The court may appoint two disinterested qualified experts to examine the defendant and to testify at the hearing as to his mental condition. Other evidence regarding the defendant's mental condition may be introduced at the hearing by either party.

(2) If the court, after the hearing, decides that the defendant is sane, it shall proceed with the trial. If, however, it decides that the defendant is insane, it shall take proper steps to have the defendant committed to the proper institution. If the defendant is declared insane during the trial, and afterwards released from the institution to which he has been committed, as sane, his former uncompleted trial shall not constitute former jeopardy. If, after a defendant has been committed to an institution as insane, the proper officer of such institution is of the opinion that the defendant is sane, he shall report this fact to the court which conducted the hearing. If the officer so reports, the court shall fix a time for a hearing to determine whether the defendant is sane. This hearing shall be conducted in all respects like the original hearing to determine the defendant's sanity. If found sane, the trial shall proceed; if found insane, he shall again be recommitted as hereinabove set forth. No defendant committed by a court to an institution, by reason of the examination referred to in this paragraph, shall be released therefrom, without the consent of the court committing him.

History.—§203, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(211).

917.02 Appointment of expert witnesses by court.—When on a prosecution by indictment or information the existence of insanity on the part of the defendant at the time of the alleged commission of the offense charged becomes an issue in the cause, the court may appoint one or more disinterested qualified experts, not exceeding three, to examine the defendant. If the court does so, the clerk shall notify the prosecuting attorney and counsel for the defendant of such appointment and shall give the names and addresses of the experts so appointed. If the defendant is at large on bail, the court in its discretion may commit him to custody pending the examination by such experts. The appointment of experts by the court shall not preclude the state or defendant from calling expert witnesses to testify at the trial and in case the defendant is committed to custody by the court they shall be permitted to have free access to the defendant for purposes of examination or observation. The experts appointed by the court shall be summoned to testify at the trial and shall be examined by the court and may be examined by counsel for the state and the defendant.

History.—§204, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(212).
cf.—§932.30, Expert witnesses in felony prosecutions.

917.03 Fees for expert witnesses.—When expert witnesses are appointed by the court they shall be allowed such fees as the court in its discretion deems reasonable, having regard to the services performed by the witnesses. The fees so allowed shall be paid by the county where the indictment was found or the information filed. Such fees shall be taxed as costs in the case.

History.—§205, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(213).

917.12 Criminal sexual psychopaths.—

(1) DEFINITION.—All persons suffering from a mental disorder and not insane or feeble-minded which mental disorder has existed for a period of not less than four months immediately prior to the appointment of the psychiatrists provided for in subsection (2)(c) coupled with criminal propensities to the commission of sex offenses and who may be considered dangerous to others are hereby declared to be criminal sexual psychopaths.

(2) PROCEEDING FOR DETERMINATION, COMMITMENT.—

(a) When a person has been charged by information with any crime or when a person has been convicted of any crime, in a court other than a circuit court, whether or not said crime constitutes a sex offense, the trial judge on his own motion or on motion of the prosecuting attorney of said court or on application by affidavit by or on behalf of the defendant, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that there is probable cause for believing such person is a sexual psychopath within the meaning of this act, may adjourn the proceeding or suspend the sentence, as the case may be, and may certify the person for hearing the examination by the circuit court of the circuit in which the trial court is situate to determine whether the person is a criminal sexual psychopath within the meaning of this act.

(b) When a person has been charged by indictment with any crime or when a person has been convicted of any crime in a circuit court, whether or not said crime constitutes a sex offense or not, the circuit court judge may on his own motion or on motion of the prosecuting attorney of said court or on application by affidavit by or on behalf of the defendant, if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that there is probable cause for believing such person is a sexual psychopath within the meaning of this act, may adjourn the proceeding or suspend the sentence, as the case may be, and proceed to determine whether said person is a criminal sexual psychopath within the meaning of this act.

(c) The circuit court judge shall then appoint not less than two nor more than three qualified psychiatrists who are licensed physicians in the state and who have directed their professional practice primarily to the diagnosis and treatment of mental and nervous disorders for a period of not less than five years, to make a personal examination of the alleged sexual psychopath, directed toward ascertaining whether the person is a criminal sexual psychopath. Each psychiatrist so appointed shall file with the court a separate written report of the result of his examination together with his conclusions. Said report shall not be competent evidence in any other proceeding against said person except the hearing to inquire into his alleged psychopathy. Said alleged psychopathic person shall be required to answer the questions propounded by such psychiatrists under penalty of contempt of court.

(d) The court shall cause a hearing to be held to ascertain whether or not such person is a criminal sexual psychopathic person. Upon such hearing it shall be competent to introduce evidence of the commission of said person of any number of crimes involving sexual motivation of which the accused heretofore has been convicted, together with the record of the punishment inflicted therefor. The accused psychopath shall have the right to have legal counsel present and assisting him at such hearing. The office of the state attorney shall be represented at such hearing on behalf of the state. The psychiatrists appointed by the court may be called by either party to the proceeding or by the court itself and when so called shall be subject to all legal objections as to competency and bias and as to qualification as an expert. When called by the court or by either party to the proceeding, the court may examine the psychiatrists as deemed necessary, but either party shall have the same right to object to questions asked by the court, and the evidence adduced, as though the psychiatrist were a witness for the adverse party. When a psychiatrist is called and examined by the court, the parties may cross-examine him in the order directed by the court. When called by either party to the proceeding, the adverse party may examine him the same as in the case of any other witness called by such party. The accused psychopath, the court, or the state may also call any other witnesses who are material to the issues of this hearing. If such person is determined to be a criminal sexual psychopathic person by the court, then the court shall order and commit such person to an appropriate institution under the jurisdiction of the board of commissioners of state institutions until there are reasonable grounds to believe that such person has recovered from such psychopathy to a degree that he will not be a menace to others.

(3) PERIODIC EXAMINATION; DISCHARGE PROCEEDINGS, ETC.; RECOMMENCEMENT OF PENDING PROCEEDINGS.

—The superintendent of the institution wherein the person is committed by the circuit court judge shall cause to be made periodic examinations of such persons with the view of determining the progress of treatment and shall file a report in writing to the committing court not less than once each year. At any time after commitment an application in writing setting forth facts showing that such criminal sexual psychopath has improved to a degree that he will not be a menace to others may be filed with the committing court, whereupon the court shall issue an order returning the person to the jurisdiction of said court for a hearing. This hearing shall in all respects be like the original hearing to determine the mental condition of the person except that the court may or may not in its discretion further appoint psychiatrists for a new examination. In the event such person is found not to have so recovered from such psychopathy, then the circuit court shall order such person to be returned to the custody of said institution to be held under the previous commitment of such person. In the event the person is found to have recovered from such psychopathy to a degree that he will not be a menace to others, then the circuit court shall order such person discharged from the institution to which he was committed and further if criminal proceedings are still pending against such person then they shall recommence upon the order by the circuit court discharging the person from the institution.

(4) JURISDICTION CIRCUIT COURT.—The circuit court shall at all times retain jurisdiction of the psychopath from the commencement of these proceedings until final discharge and may order such further examinations and reports of and pertaining to said person as it may deem proper and all reports shall at all times be available to such committed person's attorney for use in petitions for discharge, and also as evidence at any hearings pertaining to discharge.

(5) INAPPLICABILITY IN CAPITAL CASES.—This act shall specifically not apply to those persons charged with a capital offense.

(6) CIVIL PROCEEDING.—This act is a civil proceeding and nothing contained herein shall alter in any respect the tests of mental capacity applied in criminal prosecutions under the laws of Florida.

(7) COSTS.—The state shall defray all cost and expense necessarily incurred by the state in the ascertainment of whether or not such person is a criminal sexual psychopathic person, as well as that incident to his confinement and treatment in a state institution, and where possible, the state may recover the amount so paid from such person, upon a proceeding instituted for that purpose by the state attorney of the county where such person was charged with a criminal offense.

(8) WITNESSES, SUBPOENA, EXAMINATION.—At any hearing, held pursuant to this act, the judge shall also cause to be examined as a witness anyone whom he believes to have knowledge of the mental condition of the alleged sexual psychopath. The judge may, for any hearing, order the clerk of the court to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses from any place within the boundaries of this state, but no person is obliged to attend as a witness in such hearing out of the county where he resides or is served unless the judge, upon affidavit to the effect that affiant believes that the evidence of the witness is material and his attendance at the hearing necessary, endorses on the subpoena an order for the attendance of the witness.

(9) FEES, WITNESSES, PSYCHIATRISTS.—All witnesses attending a hearing upon a subpoena issued under this act shall be entitled to the same fees and expenses as in criminal cases, to be paid upon the same conditions and in like manner. The psychiatrists appointed by the court shall be allowed such fees as in the discretion of the court seem just and reasonable, with regard to the services rendered by the psychiatrists.

CHAPTER 918
CONDUCT OF TRIAL

- 918.01 Defendant at large on bail appearing for trial may be committed to custody.
 918.02 Trial where joint defendants.
 918.03 Procedure where offense committed outside state.
 918.04 Procedure where offense committed in another county.
 918.05 View by jury.

918.01 Defendant at large on bail appearing for trial may be committed to custody.—The court in its discretion, any time after a defendant who is at large on bail appears for trial, may commit him to the custody of the proper official to abide the judgment, sentence and any further order of the court.

History.—§206, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(214).

918.02 Trial where joint defendants.—When two or more defendants are jointly charged with an offense, whether felony or misdemeanor, they shall be tried jointly, unless the court in its discretion on the motion of the prosecuting attorney or any defendant, orders separate trials. In ordering separate trials, the court may order that one or more defendants be each separately tried and the others jointly tried or may order that several defendants be jointly tried in one trial and the others jointly tried in another trial or trials, or may order that each defendant be separately tried.

History.—§207, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(215).

918.03 Procedure where offense committed outside state.—If the jury is discharged on the ground that the court is without jurisdiction because it appears that the offense charged was committed outside this state, the court may order the defendant to be discharged or may direct that a communication be sent by the clerk of the court to the chief executive officer of the state, territory or district where the offense was committed and may commit the defendant to custody or admit him to bail, for such time as it deems reasonable, to await a requisition for his extradition to such state, territory or district. If no requisition is made within the time set by the court the defendant shall be discharged, and if he has been admitted to bail, the court shall order that the surety or the defendant as the case may be, be exonerated from liability on his undertaking, or if money or bonds have been deposited as bail, that such money or bonds be returned.

History.—§208, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(216).
cf.—Ch. 941, Extradition.

918.04 Procedure where offense committed in another county.—If the jury is discharged on the ground that the court is without jurisdiction of the offense charged because it appears that it was committed in another county of this state and that the court is not empowered by the criminal procedure law to try such offense, the court shall commit the defendant to custody or admit him to bail, for such time as it deems reasonable, to await a warrant for his arrest from the proper county. The clerk of the court shall forthwith give notice to the prosecuting attorney of the proper county that the defendant has been so committed to custody or admitted to bail. If the defendant is not arrested on a warrant from the proper county within the time set by the court, he shall be discharged, and if he has been admitted to bail, the court shall order that the surety or the defendant, as the case may be, be exonerated from liability on his undertaking, or if money or bonds have been deposited as bail, that such money or bonds be returned.

History.—§209, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(217).

918.05 View by jury.—When, in the opinion of the court, it is proper that the jury should view the place where the offense appears to have been committed, or, where any other material fact appears to have occurred, it may order the jury, in the custody of the proper officer, to be conducted in a body to such place; and the officer shall be admonished to permit no person to speak to or otherwise communicate with the jury, nor to do so himself, on any subject connected with the trial, and to return them into the courtroom without unnecessary delay, or at a specified time. The trial judge and defendant shall be present, unless defendant absents himself without permission of court, and the prosecuting attorney and counsel for the defendant may be present at the view by the jury.

History.—§210, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(218).
cf.—§914.01, Presence of defendant when prosecution for felony.

918.06 Separation and detention of jurors; admonition by court.—The court in its discretion may direct that the jurors, when they leave the jury box at any time before the cause is finally submitted to them, be permitted to separate or be kept together in charge of a proper officer. In either event the court shall admonish them that it is their duty not to converse among themselves, or with any one else, on any subject connected with the trial, or to form or express any opinion thereon until the cause is finally submitted to them. If the court permits the jurors to separate it shall also admonish the jurors not to view the place where the offense appears to have been committed.

History.—§211, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(219).

918.07 Admonition to officer in charge of jurors.—If the jurors are committed to the charge of an officer he shall be admonished by the court to keep the jurors together in the place specified by the court and not to permit any person to speak to or otherwise communicate with them on any subject except with the permission of the court, given in open court, in the presence of the defendant or his counsel. Such officer shall not communicate with the jurors on any subject connected with the trial, and under the direction of the court, shall return the jurors to court when ordered so to do.

History.—§212, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(220).

918.08 Directing acquittal of defendant.—

(1) If, at the close of the evidence for the state or at the close of all the evidence in the cause, the court is of the opinion that the evidence is insufficient to warrant a conviction, it may and, on the motion of the prosecuting attorney or the defendant, shall, direct the jury to acquit the defendant.

(2) A motion for directed verdict is not waived by subsequent introduction of evidence on behalf of defendant, but after introduction of evidence by defendant, the motion for directed verdict must be renewed at the close of all the evidence. Such motion must fully set forth the grounds upon which it is based.

History.—§213, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(221).

918.09 Accused may make himself a witness.

—In all criminal prosecutions the accused may at his option be sworn as a witness in his own behalf, and shall in such case be subject to examination as other witnesses, but no accused person shall be compelled to give testimony against himself, nor shall any prosecuting attorney be permitted before the jury or court to comment on the failure of the accused to testify in his own behalf, and a defendant offering no testimony in his own behalf, except his own, shall be entitled to the concluding argument before the jury.

History.—§214, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(222).

918.10 Charge to jury; request for instructions.—

(1) The presiding judge shall charge the jury only upon the law of the case at the conclusion of argument of counsel, and must include in said charge the penalty fixed by law for the offense for which the accused is then on trial.

(2) Every charge to a jury shall be orally delivered, and charges in capital cases shall also be in writing. Charges in other than capital cases shall be taken by the court reporter, transcribed by him and filed in the cause.

(3) At the close of the evidence, or at such earlier time during the trial as the court reasonably directs, any party may file written requests that the court instruct the jury on the law as set forth in the requests. The court shall inform counsel of its proposed action upon the requests prior to their arguments to the jury.

(4) No party may assign as error or grounds of appeal the giving or the failure to give an instruction unless he objects thereto before the jury retires to consider its verdict, stating distinctly the matter to which he objects, and the grounds of his objection. Opportunity shall be given to make the objection out of the hearing of the jury.

(5) When an objection is made to the giving or failure to give an instruction, no exception need be made to the court's ruling thereon in order to have such ruling reviewed, and the grounds of objection and ruling thereon shall be taken by the court reporter, transcribed by him and filed in the cause.

History.—§215, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(223); am. §1, ch. 22775, 1945.

CHAPTER 919

CONDUCT OF JURY

- 919.01 Regulation of jury.
- 919.02 Separation of jurors after submission of cause.
- 919.03 Selection of a foreman.
- 919.04 What jurors may have with them.
- 919.05 Jurors may return into courtroom for instruction.
- 919.06 Court may recall jurors for supplemental instructions.
- 919.07 Recalling jurors to hear additional evidence.
- 919.08 Court open during retirement of jurors.
- 919.09 Return of jurors; manner of declaring the verdict; receiving and recording.
- 919.10 Polling the jury.
- 919.11 Acquittal for cause of insanity.
- 919.12 Proceedings on sealed verdict.

919.01 Regulation of jury.—

(1) After the jury shall have been sworn they shall sit together and hear the proofs and allegations in the case, which shall be delivered in public and in the presence of the accused; and after hearing such proofs and allegations the jury shall be kept together in some convenient place until they agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court, and the sheriff or a bailiff shall be sworn to take charge of the jury.

(2) After the cause has been finally submitted the jurors shall retire to the place provided for them and consider their verdict. When the court directs a verdict of acquittal the jurors shall declare their verdict in open court by having one of their numbers sign, as foreman, a verdict prepared by the clerk of the court in accordance with the court's instruction.

(3) The sheriff when required by order of the court shall provide juries with meals and lodging, the expenses to be taxed against and paid by the state.

§40.01 et seq., Jurors and jury lists.
§912.01, Waiver of jury trial.
§913.01 et seq., Challenges, etc.

919.02 Separation of jurors after submission of cause.—Unless the jurors have been kept together during the trial the court may, in its discretion, after the final submission of the cause, order that the jurors may separate for a definite time to be fixed by the court and then reconvene in the courtroom before retiring for consideration of their verdict.

History.—§217, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (225).

919.03 Selection of a foreman.—The court shall instruct the jurors to select one of their number foreman, or the court may appoint one of the jurors foreman, provided such appointment be made by the court before any testimony is taken in the cause.

History.—§218, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (226).

919.04 What jurors may have with them.—Upon retiring for deliberation the jurors may,

- 919.14 Determination of degree of offense.
- 919.15 Verdict of guilty where more than one count.
- 919.16 Conviction of attempt; conviction of included offense.
- 919.17 Verdict in the case of joint defendants.
- 919.18 Reconsideration of ambiguous or defective verdict.
- 919.19 Verdict may be rendered and additional instructions given on any day.
- 919.20 Disposition of defendant.
- 919.21 Discharge of jurors.
- 919.22 Irregularity in rendition, reception and recording of verdict.
- 919.23 Recommendation to mercy.

if the court permits, take or later have sent to them:

(1) Forms of verdict approved by the court, after being first submitted to counsel.

(2) Any written instructions given; but if any such instruction is taken or sent all the instructions shall be taken or sent.

(3) All things received in evidence, other than depositions. If the thing received in evidence is a public record or a private document which in the opinion of the court, ought not to be taken from the person having it in custody, a copy shall be taken or sent instead of the original.

History.—§219, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (227).

919.05 Jurors may return into courtroom for instruction.—After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict if they desire additional instruction upon any point of law arising in the cause or to have any testimony, about which they are in doubt or disagreement, read to them, they shall, upon their request, be conducted into the courtroom by the officer who has them in charge and there the court shall give them such additional instruction or shall order such testimony read to them. Such instruction may be given and such testimony read only after notice to the prosecuting attorney and to counsel for the defendant.

History.—§220, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (228).

919.06 Court may recall jurors for supplemental instructions.—The court may recall the jurors after they have retired to consider their verdict to give them additional instructions or to correct any erroneous instruction it has given them. Such additional or corrective instructions may be given only after notice to the prosecuting attorney and to counsel for the defendant.

History.—§221, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (229).

919.07 Recalling jurors to hear additional evidence.—After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict the court shall not recall the jurors to hear additional evidence.

History.—§222, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (230).
cf.—§920.05, Grounds for new trial.

919.08 Court open during retirement of jurors.—After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict the court may adjourn from time to time as to other business, but shall be open for every purpose connected with the cause until the jurors are discharged from the cause.

History.—§223, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(231).

919.09 Return of jurors; manner of declaring the verdict; receiving and recording.—When the jurors have agreed upon a verdict they shall be conducted into the courtroom by the officer having them in charge. Their names shall be called by the clerk and when all jurors respond to their names the judge shall ask them if an agreement has been reached on a verdict. If the foreman answers in the affirmative, the judge shall call upon him to deliver the verdict in writing to the clerk. The court may then examine the verdict and correct it as to matters of form with the unanimous consent of the jurors. The clerk shall then read the verdict to the jurors and unless disagreement is expressed by one or more of them or the jury be polled, the verdict shall be entered of record, and the jurors discharged from the cause.

No verdict may be rendered in any criminal case unless all of the petit jurors concur in it.

History.—§224, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(232).

919.10 Polling the jury.—Upon the motion of either the state or the defendant or upon its own motion, the court shall cause the jurors to be asked severally if the verdict rendered is their verdict. If a juror dissents, the court must direct them sent back for further consideration; and if there be no dissent the verdict shall be entered of record and the jurors discharged. Provided, however, that no jury shall be polled after a verdict directed by the court and no motion to poll the jury shall be entertained after the jury is discharged or the verdict recorded.

History.—§225, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(233).

919.11 Acquittal for cause of insanity.—When a person tried for an offense shall be acquitted by the jury for the cause of insanity, the jury, in giving their verdict of not guilty, shall state that it was given for such cause, and thereupon, if the discharge or going at large of such insane person shall be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the people, the court shall order him to be committed to jail or otherwise to be cared for as an insane person, or may give him into the care of his friends, on their giving satisfactory security for the proper care and protection of such person; otherwise he shall be discharged.

History.—§226, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(234).

919.12 Proceedings on sealed verdict.—The court may, with the consent of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant, direct the jurors that if they should agree upon a verdict during a temporary adjournment of the court, the foreman and each juror shall sign the same, and such verdict shall be sealed in an envelope and delivered to the officer having charge of the jury, after which the jury may separate until the next convening of the court, at which time they shall reassemble in the jury box. The officer shall, at the earliest possible moment, deliver the sealed verdict to the clerk. When the jurors have reassembled in open court, the envelope shall be opened by the judge or clerk and the same proceedings shall be had as in the receiving of other verdicts, with the exception that the verdict having been signed by each juror there shall be no further necessity of polling the jury.

History.—§227, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(235).

919.13 Sealed verdict; admonition to jurors.—When the court authorizes the rendition of a sealed verdict it shall admonish the jurors not to make any disclosure concerning it nor to speak with other persons concerning the cause until their verdict shall have been rendered in open court.

History.—§228, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(236).

919.14 Determination of degree of offense.—If the indictment or information charges an offense which is divided into degrees, without specifying the degree, the jurors may find the defendant guilty of any degree of the offense charged; if the indictment or information charges a particular degree the jurors may find the defendant guilty of the degree charged or of any lesser degree. The court shall in all such cases charge the jury as to the degrees of the offense.

History.—§229, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(237).

919.15 Verdict of guilty where more than one count.—If different offenses are charged in the indictment or information the jurors shall, if they convict the defendant, make it appear by their verdict on which counts, if the indictment or information is divided into counts, or of which offenses they find him guilty.

History.—§230, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(238).

919.16 Conviction of attempt; conviction of included offense.—Upon an indictment or information for any offense the jurors may convict the defendant of an attempt to commit such offense, if such attempt is an offense, or convict him of any offense which is necessarily included in the offense charged. The court shall charge the jury in this regard.

History.—§231, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(239).

919.17 Verdict in the case of joint defendants.—On the trial of two or more defendants jointly the jurors may render a verdict as to such defendant in regard to whom the jurors agree.

History.—§232, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(240).

919.18 Reconsideration of ambiguous or defective verdict.—If a verdict is so defective that the court cannot determine from it whether the jurors intended to acquit the defendant or to convict him of the offense for which judgment could be entered under the indictment or information, or cannot determine from it on what count or counts the jurors intended to acquit or convict the defendant, the court shall, with proper instructions, direct the jurors to reconsider the verdict, and the verdict shall not be received until it shall clearly appear therefrom whether the jurors intended to convict or acquit the defendant and on what count or counts they intended to acquit or convict him, unless they persist in rendering such defective verdict, in which case the verdict shall be received and entered of record as rendered.

History.—§233, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(241).

919.19 Verdict may be rendered and additional instructions given on any day.—A verdict may be rendered and additional or corrective instructions given on any day, including Sunday or any legal holiday.

History.—§234, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(242).

919.20 Disposition of defendant.—If a verdict of guilty is rendered the defendant shall, if in custody, be remanded; if he is at large on bail he may be taken into custody and committed to the proper official, or remain at liberty on the same or additional bail as the court may direct.

History.—§235, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(243).

919.21 Discharge of jurors.—After the jurors have retired to consider their verdict the court shall discharge them from the cause when:

- (1) Their verdict has been recorded;
- (2) A necessity exists for their discharge;

(3) Upon the expiration of such time as the court deems proper, there is no reasonable probability that the jurors can agree upon a verdict;

(4) At the final adjournment of the court.

The court may in any event discharge the jurors from the cause if the prosecuting attorney and the defendant consent to such discharge.

History.—§236, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(244).

919.22 Irregularity in rendition, reception and recording of verdict.—No irregularity in the rendition, reception or recording of a verdict shall affect its validity unless the defendant was in fact prejudiced by such irregularity.

History.—§237, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(245).

919.23 Recommendation to mercy.—(1) In all criminal trials, the jury, in addition to a verdict of guilty of any offense, may recommend the accused to the mercy of the court or to executive clemency, and such recommendation shall not qualify the verdict except in capital cases. In all cases the court shall award the sentence and shall fix the punishment or penalty prescribed by law.

(2) Whoever is convicted of a capital offense and recommended to the mercy of the court by a majority of the jury in their verdict, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life; or if found by the judge of the court, where there is no jury, to be entitled to a recommendation to mercy, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for life, at the discretion of the court.

History.—§237a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(246).

CHAPTER 920

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL AND ARREST OF JUDGMENT

- 920.01 Granting new trial.
 920.02 Time for making motion.
 920.03 Form of motion; notice to prosecuting attorney.
 920.04 Grounds for new trial.
 920.05 Grounds for new trial, if substantial rights of defendant have been prejudiced.

920.01 Granting new trial.—When a verdict has been rendered against the defendant or the defendant has been found guilty by the court, the court on motion of the defendant, or on its own motion, may grant a new trial.

History.—§238, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(247).

920.02 Time for making motion.—

(1) Every matter which heretofore could be set forth in a motion in arrest of judgment shall be included in the motion for a new trial and the filing of a motion in arrest of judgment is dispensed with.

(2) When the defendant has been found guilty by a jury or by the court a motion for new trial may be dictated into the record, if a court reporter is present, and argued and disposed of by the trial judge immediately after the return of the verdict, or after defendant has been found guilty by the court. The court may rule upon the same immediately and upon the denial of said motion the court shall immediately sentence the defendant and shall dictate to the court reporter such denial; the defendant may immediately thereafter file his notice of appeal, and upon filing notice of appeal the court shall fix the amount of the appeal bond if the defendant is entitled to bail, and upon the filing of the notice of appeal and the filing and approval of the supersedeas bond the defendant shall be released from custody. A certificate shall be prepared by the clerk setting forth the filing and approval of the bond and such certificate when presented to the officer having the defendant in custody shall be sufficient authority for the defendant's release.

(3) A motion for a new trial may be made within four days, or such further time as the court may allow, not to exceed fifteen days, after the rendition of the verdict or the finding of the court, but until said motion for new trial is heard and disposed of, the defendant shall remain in custody and not be allowed his liberty on bail; provided that the court may upon good cause being shown, if the offense for which the defendant is convicted is bailable, permit the defendant to be released upon bail until the motion for new trial is heard and disposed of.

(4) In no case, whether capital or not, shall an appeal be supersedeas to the execution of the judgment, sentence, or order complained of, except upon payment by the appellant of all costs which have accrued in the case up to that time, and upon his entering into

- 920.06 When evidence sustains only conviction of lesser offense.
 920.07 Hearing on motion.
 920.08 Order of court.
 920.09 Effect of granting new trial.

bond with two or more sufficient sureties according to law, in a sum sufficient to secure the payment of such judgment, fine and future costs as may be adjudged and affirmed in the appellate court, and conditioned that the appellant shall be personally forthcoming to answer and abide the final order, sentence or judgment which may be passed in the premises by the appellate court, and in case the cause is remanded, that the appellant shall personally be and appear at the next term of the court in which the case was originally determined, thereafter to be held to answer in the premises and not to depart from the court without leave thereof. But in cases where capital punishment is by the sentence of the court ordered to be inflicted, the person of the defendant shall be the only security required for his forthcoming to answer as aforesaid.

History.—§239, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(248).

920.03 Form of motion; notice to prosecuting attorney.—The motion for new trial may be in writing, and when in writing shall be filed with the clerk; it shall state the grounds on which it is based. A copy of said motion, when in writing, shall be served on the prosecuting officer, and when the court has set a date for the hearing of the motion, the clerk shall notify counsel for the respective parties, or the attorney for the defendant may procure a date for hearing from the judge and shall serve notice of hearing on the prosecuting officer.

History.—§240, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(249).

920.04 Grounds for new trial.—The court shall grant a new trial if any of the following grounds are established:

- (1) That the jurors decided the verdict by lot;
- (2) That the verdict is contrary to law or the weight of the evidence;
- (3) That new and material evidence, which if introduced at the trial would probably have changed the verdict or finding of the court, is discovered which the defendant could not with reasonable diligence have discovered and produced upon the trial.

History.—§241, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(250).

920.05 Grounds for new trial, if substantial rights of defendant have been prejudiced.—

(1) The court shall grant a new trial if any of the following grounds are established, provided the substantial rights of the defendant have been prejudiced:

- (a) That the defendant was not present at any proceeding where his presence is required under the criminal procedure law;

(b) That the jury has received any evidence out of court, other than that resulting from a view of the premises;

(c) That the jurors after retiring to deliberate upon the verdict have separated without leave of court;

(d) That any of the jurors has been guilty of misconduct;

(e) That the prosecuting attorney has been guilty of misconduct;

(f) That the court has erred in the decision of any matter of law arising during the course of the trial;

(g) That the court has misdirected the jury on a matter of law or has refused to give proper instruction requested by the defendant.

(2) Judgment shall be arrested only on one or more of the following grounds:

(a) That the indictment or information does not charge an offense;

(b) That the court is without jurisdiction of the cause;

(c) That the verdict is so uncertain that it does not appear therefrom that the jurors intended to convict the defendant of an offense of which he could be convicted under the indictment or information;

(d) That the defendant was convicted of an offense for which he could not be convicted under the indictment or information.

The court shall also grant a new trial when from any other cause not due to his own fault the defendant has not received a fair and impartial trial, or the sentence exceeds the penalty provided for by law.

History.—§242, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(251).
cf.—§914.01, Presence of defendant when prosecution for felony.

§919.07, Recalling jurors to hear additional evidence.

920.06 When evidence sustains only conviction of lesser offense.—In cases where the offense is divided into degrees or necessarily includes lesser offenses, and the judge, on a motion for a new trial, is of the opinion that the evidence does not sustain the verdict but does sustain a conviction in a lesser degree or for a lesser offense necessarily included in the indictment or information, the judge shall not grant a new trial but shall adjudge the defendant guilty of such lesser degree or offense necessarily included in the charge of which the defendant was convicted, unless such new trial should be granted by reason of some other prejudicial error in said cause.

History.—§243, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(252).

920.07 Hearing on motion.—

(1) The court in its discretion may sentence the defendant either before or after the filing of a motion for new trial.

(2) Where a motion for a new trial calls for the decision of any question of fact the court may hear evidence on such motion by affidavit or otherwise.

History.—§244, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(253).

920.08 Order of court.—The court may dictate to the court reporter his order granting or refusing the motion for new trial, in which event the court reporter shall deliver to the clerk of the court a transcript of the court's order, which shall be entered in the minutes of the court, but if the court makes an order in writing granting or refusing the motion for new trial, such order shall be entered in the minutes of the court.

History.—§245, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(254).

920.09 Effect of granting new trial.—When a new trial is granted such new trial shall proceed in all respects as if no former trial had been had, but where an offense is divided into degrees and the defendant has been convicted of a lesser degree, he cannot thereafter be prosecuted for a higher degree of the same offense.

All the testimony in such former trial must be produced anew, except of witnesses who are absent from the state or dead, in which event the evidence of such witnesses on former trial may be presented as the same was taken and transcribed by the court reporter. Before the introduction of the evidence of an absent witness, the party introducing same must show that due diligence of said witness at the trial, and that the witness is not absent by consent or connivance of the party moving to introduce the evidence of such witness on the former trial.

History.—§246, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(255).

- 921.11 Procedure when nonidentity is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.
- 921.12 Procedure when pregnancy is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.
- 921.13 Inquiry into mitigating or aggravating circumstances.
- 921.14 Sentence of imprisonment for default of payment of fine or fine and costs.

921.01 Judgment defined.—The term judgment as used in the criminal procedure law means the adjudication by the court that the defendant is guilty or not guilty.

History.—§247, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(256).

921.02 Rendition of judgment.—If the defendant has been convicted, a judgment of guilty, and if he has been acquitted, a judgment of not guilty, shall be rendered in open court and entered on the minutes of the court.

History.—§248, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(257).

921.03 Judgment on informal verdict.—If a verdict is rendered from which it can be clearly understood that it is the intention of the jurors to acquit the defendant, judgment of not guilty shall be rendered thereon even though the verdict is defective; but no judgment of guilty shall be rendered on a verdict unless the jurors clearly express in it a finding against the defendant upon the issue.

History.—§249, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(258).

921.04 Judgment of not guilty; defendant discharged and sureties exonerated.—If a judgment of not guilty is rendered the defendant, if in custody, shall be immediately discharged therefrom unless he is in custody on some other charge; if he is at large on bail his sureties are exonerated and if money or bonds have been deposited as bail such money or bonds shall be refunded.

History.—§250, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(259).

921.05 Sentence defined.—(1) The term sentence as used in the criminal procedure law means the pronouncement by the court of the penalty imposed on the defendant upon the

- 921.25 Legal sentence, reduction.

acceptance of a plea of guilty or upon a verdict of guilty, or a finding of guilty by the court.

(2) When judgment of guilty has been rendered sentence shall be pronounced in open court.

History.—§251, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(260).

921.06 How defendant brought before the court when not in custody.—When the personal presence of the defendant is necessary for the pronouncement of sentence, and he does not appear and is not in custody, the court shall direct the clerk to issue either immediately or when so directed by the prosecuting attorney a warrant for his arrest. The warrant may be reissued from time to time by direction of the court or of the prosecuting attorney.

History.—§252, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(261).
cf.—§914.01, Presence of defendant when prosecution for felony.

921.07 Duty of court before pronouncing sentence.—When sentence is to be pronounced, the court shall inform the defendant of the accusation against him and of the judgment and shall ask him whether he has any cause to show why sentence should not be pronounced.

History.—§253, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(262).

921.08 What causes may be alleged for not pronouncing sentence.—The person before the court to be sentenced may allege and show for cause why sentence should not be pronounced, only:

(1) That he has become insane since the verdict was rendered;

(2) That he has been pardoned of the offense for which he is about to be sentenced;

(3) That he is not the person against whom the verdict or judgment was rendered;

(4) If the defendant is a woman, and the sentence of death is to be pronounced, that she is pregnant.

History.—§254, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(263).

921.09 Procedure when insanity is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.—(1) When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is insanity, if in the opinion of the court there is reasonable ground for believing the defendant to be insane, the court shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence and shall appoint two competent disinterested physicians to examine into the defendant's mental condition and to report thereon. The physicians so appointed shall be allowed such fees as the court deems reasonable, which fees shall be paid by the county in which the indictment was found or the information filed. If the court after hearing the report of the physicians decides that the defendant is insane it shall take steps to have the defendant committed to the proper institution. If later the defendant becomes sane the proper officer of such institution shall notify the court of that fact.

(2) If the court determines from such report that defendant is sane, sentence shall be immediately pronounced.

History.—§255, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(264).

921.10 Procedure when pardon is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.—When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is that the defendant has been pardoned for the offense for which he is about to be sentenced the court shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence, if necessary, for the purpose of hearing evidence of the pardon and on proof of such pardon shall not pronounce sentence, but shall discharge the defendant from custody, unless he is in custody on some other charge.

History.—§256, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(265).

921.11 Procedure when nonidentity is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.—When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is that the person brought before the court to be sentenced is not the person against whom the verdict or judgment was rendered the court shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence of necessity for the purpose of hearing evidence thereof, and on proof of non-identity shall discharge such person from custody, unless he is in custody on some other charge.

History.—§257, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(266).

921.12 Procedure when pregnancy is alleged as cause for not pronouncing sentence.—When the cause alleged for not pronouncing sentence is that the defendant is pregnant, the court shall postpone the pronouncement of sentence and shall appoint two competent disinterested physicians to examine the defendant as to her alleged pregnancy and to report thereon. The physicians so appointed shall be allowed such fees as the court deems reasonable, which fees shall be paid by the county in which the indictment was found or the information filed. If the court after hearing the report of the physicians decides that the defendant is pregnant he shall commit her to prison until she is delivered or until it appears that she is not pregnant.

cf.—§922.08, Proceedings when person under death sentence appears to be pregnant.

921.13 Inquiry into mitigating or aggravating circumstances.—When the court has discretion as to the penalty to be inflicted on the defendant it shall, upon the suggestion of either party that there are circumstances which may properly be taken into consideration, hear evidence as to the same summarily in open court, either immediately or at a specified time and upon such notice to the adverse party as the court may direct; or the court may inquire into such circumstances of its own motion.

History.—§259, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(268).

921.14 Sentence of imprisonment for default of payment of fine or fine and costs.—Whenever a court shall sentence and adjudge a person to pay a fine or a fine and costs of prosecution such court shall also provide in such sentence a period of time for which such person shall be imprisoned in default of the payment of the same. Such term of imprisonment shall be served in the county jail if the offense for which sentence is imposed is a misdemeanor and in either the state prison or the county jail if the offense for which the sentence is imposed is a felony, and the sentence shall specify where such term is to be served.

History.—§260, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(269).
§1, ch. 59-66.
cf.—§951.16 Prisoners to receive credit on fine based on imprisonment.

921.15 Stay of execution of sentence to fine; bond and proceedings.—

(1) Persons convicted of crimes, who shall have a pecuniary fine or sum of money assessed or adjudged against them as punishment therefor, shall have the right on being taken into custody by the proper officer of the court, or prior to such arrest, to give bail for the payment of such fine and the costs of prosecution. Such bail shall be by bond, conditioned for the payment of the fine and costs, executed by the defendant and one or more good and responsible persons to be approved by the court, if in session at the time; otherwise by the sheriff or the officer charged with the execution of the judgment.

(2) The bond shall be made payable in ninety days from the date thereof to the governor of this state and his successors in office, and if not paid at the expiration of the ninety days, the sheriff or other officer aforesaid shall indorse on the bond that default has been made in the payment, and having signed such indorsement, shall file the bond with the clerk of the court in which judgment was rendered, and the clerk shall forthwith issue execution for the amount of the fine and costs against the security or bail, as if there had been judgment at law on such bond, and the same proceedings shall be had as in cases of other executions, and the person convicted shall be liable to be proceeded against, as if no such bond had been given, until the same has been fully paid and satisfied.

History.—§260a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 3426, 3427; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663-(270).

cf.—§951.15 Credit on fines and costs.

§951.16 Prisoners to receive credit on fine based on imprisonment.

§937.15 Persons convicted in justice of peace court.

921.16 When sentences to be concurrent and when consecutive.—When the defendant has been convicted of two or more offenses charged in the same indictment or information or in consolidated indictments or informations, the terms of imprisonment shall be served concurrently unless the court expressly directs that they or some of them be served consecutively. Sentences of imprisonment for offenses not charged in the same indictment or information shall be served consecutively unless the court expressly directs that they or some of them be served concurrently.

History.—§261, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(271).

921.161 No authority to begin sentence to imprisonment before it is imposed; credit on state prison sentence for jail time after sentence and certificate of sheriff as to such time.—

(1) No court, officer, or agency shall have any authority to cause a sentence to imprisonment to begin running at any time prior to the date it is imposed. However, a judge imposing such a sentence may allow the defendant credit thereon for all or any part of the time spent by him in the county jail prior to sentence, provided that any such allowance must be for a specified length of time and it may be provided for in the sentence or by order thereafter made during the same term of court at which the sentence is imposed.

(2) In addition to the other credits to which he may become entitled, a person sentenced to imprisonment in the custody of the division of corrections shall receive credit on his sentence for all time spent by him in the county jail between the time he is sentenced and the time he is delivered into the custody of the division. For the purpose of furnishing information upon which the division may determine how much credit, if any, such a prisoner is entitled to receive under this subsection, the sheriff shall, upon delivering a prisoner to the custody of the division, certify in writing to the division:

(a) The date sentence was imposed and the date of delivery of the prisoner to the custody of the division.

(b) Whether or not the prisoner was released on bond after sentence and, if he was, the date or dates of release and the date or dates he was thereafter returned to the sheriff's custody.

(c) Whether or not the prisoner was out of the sheriff's custody at any time after sentence while not at liberty on bond, and, if he was, during what period or periods of time and for what reason or reasons.

Such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein certified.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to repeal, amend, modify, or alter the application of §921.16 relating to when sentences shall be concurrent and when they shall be consecutive.

History.—§1, ch. 63-457.

921.17 Definitions, §§921.17-921.23; indeterminate sentence.—As used in §§921.17-921.23, the following terms shall have the meanings ascribed to them unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise:

"Board"—The board of commissioners of state institutions as provided by law.

"Correctional system"—All prisons and other correctional institutions now existing or hereafter created under the jurisdiction of the department.

"Division"—The division of corrections.

"Reception and classification center"—A temporary custodial institution for offenders committed to the division for classification and assignment to an appropriate institution in the correctional system.

History.—§1, ch. 57-366; §18, ch. 61-530.

cf.—Ch. 945 creating division of corrections and establishing reception and classification center.

Ch. 947 parole commission.

921.18 Sentence for indeterminate period for noncapital felony.—Whenever any person is convicted of a noncapital felony and the court determines that the defendant should not be placed on probation and should not be fined as the sole punishment, but should be sentenced to a term of confinement, the court within its discretion, in imposing sentence, may sentence such person to the custody of the division for an indeterminate period of 6 months to a maximum period of imprisonment, which maximum sentence may be less than the maximum authorized by law for the felony of which such person was adjudged guilty but shall not be less than the minimum, if any, prescribed by law for such felony.

History.—§2, ch. 57-366; §1, ch. 59-109; §18, ch. 61-530; §1, ch. 63-306.

921.19 Commitment to and confinement by corrections division.—In every case where any person is convicted of a noncapital felony and is sentenced in accordance with the provisions of §§921.17-921.23, he shall be committed and conveyed in a manner provided by law to the custody of the division to a reception and classification center, and upon arrival it will be the duty of the classification board of the division to determine in which correctional institution the prisoner will be confined; this determination shall be made with the express purpose of placing every prisoner in a penal environment that is best suited to effect a rapid rehabilitation; and it shall be the duty of said classification board to consider the criminal, personal, social and environmental background and such other aspects as found necessary in making this determination.

History.—§3, ch. 57-366; §18, ch. 61-530.

921.20 Classification summary; parole commission.—As soon as possible after the prisoner has been conveyed to the custody of the division it will be the duty of the classification board to prepare a classification summary as provided by §§921.17-921.23. This summary shall be furnished to the parole commission for its use as provided under §947.14.

History.—§4, ch. 57-366; §18, ch. 61-530.

921.21 Progress reports to parole commission.—The division shall from time to time submit to the parole commission a progress report on the persons sentenced under §§921.17-921.23, with such recommendations as the division feels necessary to advise the commission on the prisoner's rehabilitation progress. Such reports and other information available to the commission shall assist the commission in making its determinations as provided by law. When in the opinion of the classification committee, based on its findings, as provided by this law, the ends of justice, the interests of society, and public welfare shall best be served, and with due regard to the deterrent effect of the example to others who may be like offenders, the classification committee of the division shall recommend to the parole commission, and said commission shall have the power to either place the said prisoner on parole, as provided by law, or to finally discharge the prisoner from custody. If the prisoner is placed on parole, the period of parole shall be discretionary with the parole commission.

History.—§5, ch. 57-366; §18, ch. 61-530.

921.22 Determination of exact period of imprisonment by parole commission.—The parole commission upon the recommendation of the division shall have the authority to determine the exact period of imprisonment to be served by such defendants sentenced under the provision of §§921.17-921.22; provided, however, that the prisoner shall not be held in custody longer than the maximum sentence as provided by law.

History.—§6, ch. 57-366; §18, ch. 61-530.

921.23 Application and construction of §§921.17-921.22.—

(1) Sections 921.17-921.22 shall not apply in any case where sentence is imposed under §775.09 and §775.10, or under any other statutes of this state providing for the punishment of habitual criminals.

(2) Nothing in §§921.17-921.22 shall be deemed to interfere with the right of any court to impose fine in lieu of a sentence, or with the right of any court to impose fine in addition to sentence under the provisions of §§921.17-921.22.

(3) Nothing in §§921.17-921.22 shall be deemed or held to restrict any of the powers of the parole commission or the division of corrections as now provided by law.

(4) Nothing in §§921.17-921.22 shall be construed as giving the parole commission or the division of corrections the power of authority to pardon any prisoner.

(5) Nothing in §§921.17-921.22 shall apply to any person sentenced for a conviction of a noncapital felony prior to October 1, 1957.

History.—§7-11, ch. 57-366; (3), (4) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

921.24 Illegal sentence, correction.—A court may at any time correct an illegal sentence imposed by it in a criminal case.

History.—§1, ch. 61-39.

921.25 Legal sentence, reduction.—A court may reduce a legal sentence imposed by it in a criminal case at the same term of court at which it has been imposed, or, if such term ends less than sixty days after the imposition of the sentence, then within sixty days after receipt by the court of a mandate issued by the appellate court upon affirmance of the judgment and/or sentence upon an original appeal, or within sixty days after receipt by the court of a certified copy of an order of the appellate court dismissing an original appeal from the judgment and/or sentence, or, if further appellate review is sought in a higher court or in successively higher courts, then within sixty days after the highest court to which a timely appeal has been taken under authority of law, or in which a petition for certiorari has been timely filed under authority of law, whether a state court or the United States supreme court, has entered an order of affirmance or an order dismissing appeal and/or denying certiorari.

History.—§2, ch. 61-39.

EXECUTION

- 922.01 Commitment of defendant; duty of sheriff.
 922.02 Execution of sentence imposing fine.
 922.03 Habeas corpus while serving sentence.
 922.04 Application for discharge.
 922.05 Forms of sentence to state prison and county jail.
 922.051 Imprisonment in county jail, term of five years or less.
 922.06 Stay of execution and sentence of death.
 922.07 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be insane.
 922.08 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be pregnant.
 922.09 Capital cases.
 922.10 How punishment of death inflicted.
 922.11 Regulation of execution.
 922.111 Transfer to state prison for safekeeping before death warrant issued.
 922.12 Return of warrant.
 922.13 Sentence of death unexecuted because of appeal; duty of court on affirming.
 922.14 Sentence of death unexecuted for reasons other than appeal.
 922.15 Return of warrant.

922.01 Commitment of defendant; duty of sheriff.—Upon pronouncement of a sentence imposing a penalty other than a fine only or death the court shall, unless the execution of the sentence is suspended or stayed, and, in such case, upon revocation of the suspension or termination of the stay, forthwith commit the defendant to the custody of the sheriff together with a certified copy of the sentence, and the sheriff shall thereupon, within a reasonable time, if he is not the proper official to execute the sentence, transfer the defendant, together with the copy of the sentence, to the custody of the official whose duty it is to execute the sentence, and shall take from such official a receipt for the defendant and make a return thereof to the court.

History.—§262, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (272).

922.02 Execution of sentence imposing fine.—If the sentence imposes a fine with or without imprisonment execution may be issued thereon as on a judgment in a civil action.

History.—§263, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (273); am. §7, ch. 22000, 1943.

922.03 Habeas corpus while serving sentence.—

(1) When a defendant has been sentenced, and is actually serving his sentence, and has not appealed from the judgment or sentence, but seeks his release from imprisonment by habeas corpus proceedings, and the writ has been refused, or the writ has been discharged after it has been issued, the custody of the prisoner shall not be disturbed, pending a review by the appellate court.

(2) Pending a review of a decision discharging a prisoner on habeas corpus, he shall be discharged upon bail, with sureties to be approved as other bail bonds are approved, for his appearance to answer and abide by the judgment of the appellate court.

History.—§264, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (274).

922.04 Application for discharge.—When any person sentenced by any court of this state to pay a fine or fine and costs, the total of which does not exceed three hundred dollars, whether with or without imprisonment, has been confined in prison sixty days, solely for the nonpayment of such fine and costs, he may make application in writing to the judge of any circuit court or criminal court of record in the county where he is confined, setting forth his inability to pay such fine, or fine and costs, and the judge of such court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter, and if, upon examination, it shall appear to him that such person is totally unable to pay such fine or fine and costs, and that he has not any property, exceeding twenty dollars in value, the judge of such court shall administer to him the following oath: "I do solemnly swear that I have not any property, real or personal, to the amount of twenty dollars and that I have no property in any way conveyed or concealed, or in any way disposed of, for my future use or benefit, so help me God." Thereupon such person shall be discharged from further custody, the judge giving the jailer or keeper of the jail a certificate setting forth the facts.

History.—§265, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (275). Am. §1, ch. 29661, 1955.

922.05 Forms of sentence to state prison and county jail.—

(1) When punishment of imprisonment in the state prison is awarded against any convict, the form of the sentence shall be that he be imprisoned by confinement at hard labor.

(2) When punishment of imprisonment in the county jail is awarded against any convict, the court may also sentence the prisoner to be employed at hard labor; and in such case, he may be employed at such manual labor as the county commissioners may direct.

History.—§266, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (276).

922.051 Imprisonment in county jail, term of five years or less.—Whenever punishment by imprisonment is prescribed, and said imprisonment is by statute expressly directed to be in a state prison, the court may, in its discretion in all cases where the sentence imposed is for a term of five years or less, direct that the imprisonment be in a county jail; provided that as of January 1, 1963, no such imprisonment in the county jail shall be directed for more than two years.

History.—§1, ch. 59-72; §1, ch. 61-168.

922.06 Stay of execution and sentence of death.—The execution of a sentence of death shall not be suspended or stayed, apart from the stay incident to an appeal, except by the governor.

History.—§267, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(277).

922.07 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be insane.—(1) If there is reasonable ground to believe that a defendant under sentence of death has become insane since he was sentenced, the warden of the state penitentiary shall immediately notify the governor thereof who shall suspend execution of the sentence until he issues a warrant for its execution. On suspended sentence the governor shall appoint a commission consisting of two competent disinterested physicians to examine into the defendant's mental condition. The commission so appointed may call and examine witnesses and compel their attendance. The commission shall report its finding to the governor. The physicians constituting the commission shall be allowed such fees as the governor deems reasonable, which fees shall be paid by the state.

(2) If the governor after receiving the report of the commission decides that the defendant is sane, he shall issue a warrant to the warden directing him to execute the sentence at the time designated in said warrant.

(3) If the governor after receiving the report of the commission decides that the defendant is insane, he shall take steps to have the defendant committed to the state hospital for the insane. If thereafter the proper officer of such institution is of the opinion that the defendant is sane he shall report this fact to the governor, whereupon the governor shall appoint a commission consisting of two competent disinterested physicians to determine whether the defendant has been restored to sanity. The commission shall have the same powers and be allowed the same fees as are provided for in the criminal procedure law in insanity proceedings. If after the report of the commission, the governor decides that the defendant has been restored to sanity he shall cause the defendant to be returned to the custody of the warden of the state prison and shall issue a warrant to the warden directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in said warrant.

History.—§268, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(278).
cf.—Ch. 917, Proceedings to determine mental condition of defendant.

922.08 Proceedings when person under sentence of death appears to be pregnant.—(1) If there is ground to believe that a defendant under sentence of death is pregnant the warden shall immediately notify the governor thereof who shall suspend execution of the sentence until he issues a warrant for the execution of the sentence. On suspending the sentence the governor shall appoint a commission consisting of two competent disinterested physicians to examine the defendant as to such pregnancy. The commission shall report its finding to the governor. The physicians constituting the commission shall be allowed such fees as the governor deems reasonable, which fees shall be paid by the state.

(2) If the governor after receiving the report of the commission decides that the defendant is not pregnant he shall issue a warrant to the warden directing him to execute the sentence at the time designated in said warrant.

(3) When the warden is satisfied that a defendant under sentence of death who has been found to be pregnant is no longer pregnant he shall so notify the governor, who, upon receiving the notice, shall issue to the warden a warrant directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in said warrant.

History.—§269, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(279).

922.09 Capital cases.—When any person shall be convicted of any crime for which sentence of death shall be awarded against him, the clerk of the court as soon as may be shall make out and deliver to the sheriff of the county a certified copy of the whole record of the conviction and sentence, and the sheriff shall forthwith remit the same to the governor, and the sentence of death shall not be executed upon such convict until a warrant shall be issued by the governor, under the seal of the state, with the copy of the record thereto annexed commanding the execution of the sentence of death to be done, and fixing therein some designated week, beginning with Monday, in which week such sentence shall be executed pursuant to such warrant and according to the manner and means hereinafter prescribed.

History.—§270, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(280).

922.10 How punishment of death inflicted.—On and after January 1, A. D. 1924, death by hanging as a means of punishment for crime in Florida is abolished and electrocution or death by electricity substituted therefor. Punishment of death shall in all cases be inflicted by causing to pass through the body of the convict a current of electricity of sufficient intensity to cause immediate death, and the application of such current must be continued until such convict is dead. The sentence of death shall, at the time directed by the warrant, be executed within the walls of the permanent death chamber, which the commissioners of state institutions shall provide at the state prison farm or such other place in the state as such commissioner of state institutions shall establish, and the superintendent of the state prison, or in the case of his death, disability or absence, a deputy, shall be executioner. The superintendent of the state prison shall cause to be provided in conformity with this section and approved by the governor and commissioners of state institutions the necessary electric chair or other appliances for the infliction of the punishment of death in accordance with the requirements of this section. Before every execution, the death warrant authorizing the same shall be distinctly read in the presence of the condemned person to be executed, immediately prior to the infliction of death as heretofore provided.

History.—§271, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (281).

922.11 Regulation of execution.—The superintendent of the state prison or some authorized deputy by him to be designated shall be present at the execution, and for the purpose of executing sentences of death as provided by law, the first assistant engineer at the Florida state prison is hereby designated as the executioner, whose duty it shall be to execute and carry out the sentence of death by operating the switch or other mechanism necessary to send the electric current through the body of the condemned person. Not less than five days prior to the week of execution, the person sentenced to death shall be kept securely in or adjacent to the permanent death chamber, and the sentence of death shall be carried out on some week day of the week fixed by the governor as the week of execution, the time of carrying out such sentence to be decided by the superintendent of the state prison, or his deputy in his absence, death or disability.

All executions shall be carried out by the executioner, deputy executioner and such deputies, electricians and assistants as he may require to be present to assist, and shall be in the presence of a jury of twelve respectable citizens who shall be requested to be present and witness the same, and all other persons other than the jury, the counsel for the criminal, such ministers of the gospel as the criminal shall desire, officers of the prison, deputies and guards shall be excluded during the execution. The executioner or his deputy shall require the presence of at least one competent practicing physician, or the physician of the prison, who shall examine the convict during the execution and announce when death has been inflicted on such convict. Representatives of the press shall be permitted to be present at the execution under regulations to be approved by the board of state institutions.

Upon the completion of the infliction of death, the dead body of the convict shall be dressed for burial and delivered to the relatives of the deceased if they shall have requested that such be done, such delivery to be at the gates of the prison and if no other receptacle has been provided, shall be delivered in a plain coffin, the cost of which shall not exceed fifteen dollars. In the event the body shall not have been claimed by relatives on or before the day of execution, such body shall be delivered to such physicians as may request the same for dissection, or shall be buried or disposed of as convicts dying in the state prison are buried or disposed of. In all cases where sentence of death has been pronounced against any person to be executed by electrocution as provided, the convicted person shall be delivered by the sheriff of the county to the superintendent of the state prison to await the death warrant.

History.—§272, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (282); §1, ch. 20520, 1941; 3rd par. by §1, ch. 59-90.

922.111 Transfer to state prison for safekeeping before death warrant issued.—Whenever, prior to the issuance of a death warrant by the governor for the execution of a person sentenced to death, any circuit judge of the judicial circuit in which such sentence has been imposed shall be of the opinion that it is necessary to remove such person, for safekeeping, from the jail in which he is confined, such judge may, in his discretion, make an order directing that such person be confined in the state prison for safekeeping.

History.—§1, ch. 59-215.

922.12 Return of warrant.—After punishment of death has been inflicted upon any convict in obedience to the warrant of the governor, the officer in charge of such execution shall return the warrant as soon as may be with a statement under his hand of his doings therein, to the governor, and shall also file in the clerk's office where the conviction was had, an attested copy of the warrant and the statement aforesaid, and such shall be by the clerk recorded in the minutes of the court whose judgment was thus executed.

History.—§273, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (283).

922.13 Sentence of death unexecuted because of appeal; duty of court on affirming.—When a judgment or sentence of death has been affirmed on appeal, after the time appointed for the execution of the sentence, the appellate court shall fix a new time for the execution of the sentence, and if the governor fails or omits to issue his warrant carrying said sentence into execution, then the appellate court shall issue a warrant to the proper official, directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in said warrant.

History.—§274, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663 (284).

922.14 Sentence of death unexecuted for reasons other than appeal.—If, for any reason, a sentence of death has not been executed, or, if the governor fails or omits to issue a death warrant as provided in the criminal procedure law, and there appears to be no legal ground why such sentence was not executed, the court which pronounced the sentence or any judge thereof or any court having appellate jurisdiction in capital cases, or any judge thereof, upon application by the attorney general or by the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the conviction was had shall, if the defendant is in custody, order the official in whose custody he is to bring him before the judge issuing the order, or, if the defendant is at large, shall issue a warrant for his arrest directing that he be brought before the judge issuing the warrant. Upon his appearance the judge shall inquire into the circumstances and if no legal ground is found why the sentence should not be executed, the judge shall issue a warrant to the proper official directing him to execute the sentence at a time designated in said warrant.

History.—§275, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(285).

922.15 Return of warrant.—After punishment of death has been inflicted upon any convict in obedience to the warrant, the officer in charge of such execution shall return the warrant as soon as may be with a statement under his hand of his doing therein, to the court issuing the warrant, and if the warrant has been issued by the appellate court, the officer in charge of the execution shall also file in the clerk's office where the conviction was had, an attested copy of the warrant and the statement aforesaid, and such shall be by the clerk recorded in the minutes of the court, whose judgment was thus executed. There shall also be filed with the governor an attested copy of the warrant and the statement aforesaid.

History.—§276, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(286).

TO: _____
 You are hereby notified that an information (indictment) charging you with the offense of _____ has been filed in the office of _____ in _____ County; and you are required to appear in the _____ court in and for _____ County at the Courthouse in _____ on _____ (date) for arraignment, plea and trial, or setting for trial in default of which your bond will be estreated, for failure to appear.

Prosecuting Officer.

If such rule is adopted by any court and the rule is not complied with by the clerk the failure so to comply with the rule shall not constitute reversible error nor affect the obligations of the bond.

History.—§278, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(288).

923.03 Indictment and information.—(1) The following forms of indictment and information, in all cases to which they are applicable, shall be deemed sufficient, as a charge of the offense to which they relate as defined by the laws of this state, and analogous forms may be used in all other cases:

(a) As to first degree murder:

In the name and by the authority of the State of Florida: The Grand Jurors of the County of _____ charge that A. B. unlawfully and from a premeditated design to effect the death of _____ (or while robbing the house of _____

_____ as the case may be) did murder _____ in said county, by shooting him with a gun or pistol (or by striking him with a club—or by giving him poison to drink—or by pushing him into the water whereby he was drowned)

(b) As to second degree murder:

Unlawfully by an act imminently dangerous to another, and evincing a depraved mind, reardless of human life; that is to say, by firing his shotgun into the store of _____ (or by striking _____ with an adz, as the case may be) but without a premeditated design to effect the death of any particular person, did kill _____ in said county.

(c) As to third degree murder:

Unlawfully, and while feloniously stealing cattle (or timber, or while feloniously assaulting _____ as the case may be), but without any design to effect death, did kill _____ in said county, by sinking his boat (or by running over him with an automobile—or by shooting him with a gun or pistol, as the case may be).

(d) As to manslaughter:

Unlawfully and by culpable negligence, in driving an automobile (or firing a boiler—or by performing a surgical operation) or (in the heat of passion,—omitting in this latter case the allegation of culpable negligence), but without intent to murder, did kill _____ in said county, by running over him with said automobile (or by causing said boiler to explode—or by infecting him with a deadly infection—or by striking him with a hammer).

(e) As to perjury:

In the hearing of a cause in the _____ court of _____ County, Florida, in which _____ and others were plaintiffs and _____ others were defendants, after being duly sworn to speak the truth, falsely swore, etc. (stating the substance of the false testimony) such matter being material in said cause, and the said _____ then and there knowing that he swore falsely.

(2) An information shall be in the same form and signed by the prosecuting attorney who shall also append thereto the oath of the prosecuting attorney to the effect following:

Personally appeared before me _____ (official title of prosecuting attorney) who being first duly sworn, says that the allegations as set forth in the foregoing information are based upon facts that have been sworn to as true and which, if true, would constitute the offense therein charged.

The affidavit shall be made by the prosecuting attorney before some person qualified to administer an oath.

924.01 Appeal only method of review.—The only method of reviewing the proceedings in a prosecution by indictment or information, shall be by appeal. Writs of error as methods of review in criminal causes and writs of scire facias ad audiendum errores are abolished.

History.—§280, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(290).
cf.—§59.01 et seq., Appellate proceedings at law.
§932.51, Provisions supplemental to this chapter.

924.02 Who may appeal.—An appeal may be taken by the defendant or by the state.

History.—§281, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(291).

924.03 Designation of parties.—The party appealing shall be known as the appellant and the adverse party as the appellee.

History.—§282, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(292).

924.04 Appeal by one of several defendants.—When several defendants are tried jointly, any one or more of them may take an appeal; but those who do not join in the appeal shall not be affected thereby unless the appellate court shall determine otherwise.

History.—§283, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(293).

924.05 Appeal as matter of right.—All appeals provided for in this chapter may be taken as a matter of right.

History.—§284, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(294).

924.06 Appeal by defendant.—An appeal may be taken by the defendant only from:

(1) A final judgment of conviction when probation has not been granted under chapter 948.

(2) An order granting probation under chapter 948, such appeal to be in the same manner and with the same scope and same effect as if judgment of conviction had been entered and appealed from.

(3) An order revoking probation under chapter 948; in case of such an appeal, only the proceedings after the order of probation may be considered or reviewed.

(4) A sentence, on the ground that it is excessive or illegal.

History.—§285, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(295); §22, ch. 20519, 1941; §3, ch. 50-130.

924.07 Appeal by state.—An appeal may be taken by the state from:

(1) An order quashing an indictment or information or any count thereof;

(2) An order granting a new trial;

(3) An order arresting judgment;

(4) A ruling on a question of law adverse to the state where the defendant was convicted and appeals from the judgment;

(5) The sentence, on the ground that it is illegal;

(6) Judgment discharging prisoner on habeas corpus.

History.—§286, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(296).

*Chs. 25 and 35, §§4 and 5, art. v., const. and new appellate rules.

924.08 Appeals in criminal cases.—From final judgments in criminal cases appeals shall lie:

(1) To the supreme court from judgments imposing the death penalty; from judgments or decrees passing upon the validity of a state or federal statute and from judgments construing a controlling provision of the state or federal constitution.

(2) To the appropriate district court of appeal from final judgments in all other criminal cases in which the circuit court has original jurisdiction, from criminal courts of record in cases of felonies and all criminal cases of which the Escambia court of record has jurisdiction.

(3) To the appropriate circuit court from misdemeanor cases tried by county courts, county judges courts, criminal courts of record, courts of crime, municipal courts and justice of the peace courts. The appeals provided in this section shall be in the manner and in the time provided by the Florida appellate rules.

History.—§287, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(297); §35, ch. 63-559.
cf.—§932.56, Trial de novo on appeal from justice of the peace court.

924.09 When appeal to be taken by defendant.—An appeal may be taken by the defendant only within ninety days after the judgment, sentence, or order appealed from is entered, except that an appeal by a person who has not been granted probation may be taken from both judgment and sentence within ninety days after the sentence is entered.

History.—§288, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(298). §4, ch. 59-130.
cf.—§932.58, Time for taking appeal from justice of the peace court where case tried de nova.

924.10 When appeal to be taken by state.—An appeal may be taken by the state only within thirty days after the order or sentence appealed from is entered.

History.—§289, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(299). Am. §1, ch. 29898, 1955.

924.11 How appeal taken.—(1) An appeal may be taken only by filing with the clerk of the trial court a notice in writing stating that the appellant appeals from a judgment, order, ruling or sentence, as the case may be, and by serving a copy of the notice of appeal. The notice of appeal, when taken by the state, shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney for the court from which the appeal is taken, or by the attorney general of the state. When the appeal is taken by the defendant the notice of appeal shall be signed by him or his counsel. Appellee may waive his right to notice that an appeal has been taken.

(2) The appellant shall file his directions to the clerk for making up the transcript of record on appeal within ten days after the filing of the notice of appeal. The appellant shall file his assignments of error within ten days after the transcript of the record on appeal has been lodged in the appellate court, provided, however, that the time for filing of either of said instruments may be extended by either the trial or the appellate court.

The parties by written stipulation filed with the clerk, may designate the parts of the records, proceedings and evidence to be included in the record on appeal and may agree upon a condensed statement in narrative form of all or part of the testimony and, if the same shall be thus done, they shall be in lieu of and shall take the place of the directions to the clerk for making up the transcript of record on appeal provided for hereinabove.

(3) Formal exceptions to rulings, orders or charges of the court are unnecessary; but for all purposes for which an exception has been necessary, it is sufficient that a party, at the time that the ruling, order, or charge of the court is made, or sought, makes known to the court the action which he desires the court to take, or his objection to the action of the court and his grounds therefor; and, if a party has no opportunity to object to a ruling or order at the time it is made, the absence of an objection does not thereafter prejudice him.

History.—§290, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(300). Sub. §(2) am. §1, ch. 28022, 1953; sub. §(2) am. §1, ch. 29911, 1955.

924.12 Notice to prosecuting attorney when defendant appeals.—If the appeal is taken by the defendant, a copy of the notice of appeal shall be served on the prosecuting attorney of the court in which the judgment or sentence appealed from was rendered, and the clerk of the court shall immediately send a certified copy thereof to the supreme court, and to the attorney general, when the appeal is a felony case, and to the clerk of the circuit court and state attorney in misdemeanor cases appealed from criminal courts of record, court of crimes, and justice of peace courts, county judge's courts and county courts.

History.—§291, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(301).

924.13 Notice to defendant when state appeals.—If the appeal is taken by the state, a copy of notice of appeal shall be served on the defendant, if his place of residence is known or if he is imprisoned in the county; or, if not, on the counsel, if any, who appeared for him at the trial, if the counsel resides or practices his profession in the county. If such notice cannot be served, after due diligence, the trial court, upon proof thereof, may make an order for the publication of the notice in such newspaper and for such time as it deems proper. When the order for publication is complied with the appeal becomes perfected, and the clerk of the court shall immediately send a certified copy thereof to the supreme court and to the attorney general.

History.—§292, ch. 19544, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(302).

924.14 Stay of execution when defendant appeals.—When the defendant appeals either from the judgment or the sentence, the execution of a sentence of death is stayed upon the taking of an appeal. The execution of a sentence other than death is stayed upon the taking of the appeal and the defendant may be released on bail in an amount to be fixed by the court and approved as it shall direct.

History.—§293a, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663-(303).

cf.—§922.03, Stay of execution upon appeal from judgment refusing writ of habeas corpus.

924.15 How appeal bonds taken.—In every case the bonds prescribed by this chapter shall be entered before the clerk of the court in which the cause was originally determined, and shall be approved either by him or by the judge of said court, and in every case the persons offering themselves as sureties upon the said bond shall be required, before they are accepted as such, to present and file an affidavit that they are in the aggregate worth the amount of the penalty of the bond in real estate situate within the county and to set forth in such affidavit an accurate description of said property. The clerk or judge may, however, require further proof of the sufficiency of the sureties offered if he shall think proper.

History.—§293b, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663-(304).

924.16 Discharge pending appeal.—If the party applying for an appeal shall at the time be in custody under sentence of conviction, the allowance of an appeal and the obtaining of supersedeas shall not discharge him from custody except by order of the court below or of a judge of the appellate court, which order shall be made only in cases bailable according to the courts of the common law or by the statutes of the state.

History.—§293c, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663-(305).

924.17 Costs when appellant is insolvent.—In case the appellant shall be utterly unable to pay the costs of the cause, whether it be capital or not, either in whole or in part, and shall himself make oath before the court or the clerk thereof, and shall also by credible testimony establish satisfactorily to the court that he has no property or other means of payment either in his possession or under his control and has not divested himself of his property for the purpose of receiving benefit from this oath, and is also utterly unable to enter into the bond required to secure the payment of the judgment, fine and costs, the appeal shall be a supersedeas without such payment if the defendant remain in custody, or, in cases not capital, upon his entering into bond with two or more sufficient sureties, conditioned that he shall be personally forthcoming to answer and abide the final order, sentence, or judgment that may be passed in the premises by the appellate court, and also conditioned for his appearance before the court in which the cause was originally determined; provided, however, that if the appellant is in official custody in a state or federal prison or county or municipal jail or other penal institution or place of confinement, it shall not be necessary for him to make such oath before the court or to its clerk, and, in lieu thereof, he may present to the court his affidavit to the matters hereinabove required to be established, made before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths, and, thereupon, the court shall either enter an order of insolvency or shall require further evidence in behalf of the appellant and/or the state and then grant or deny an order of insolvency according to whether he deems the insolvency of the appellant to be satisfactorily established or not.

History.—§293d, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663-(306); am. §1, ch. 28009, 1953.

cf.—§939.15, Costs paid by county in cases of insolvency.

924.18 Bail when state appeals.—Upon an appeal by the state after a conviction of the defendant, a judge of the trial court or a justice of the appellate court may in his discretion admit the defendant to bail as of right.

History.—§294, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(307).

924.19 When operation of order in favor of defendant not stayed.—An appeal by the state in no case stays the operation of an order in favor of the defendant except when the appeal is from an order granting a new trial.

History.—§295, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(308).

924.20 Duty of court upon breach of undertaking.—If a defendant who is at large on bail pending the appeal breaks the condition of the undertaking that he will duly prosecute his appeal, the appellate court, in addition to declaring the undertaking forfeited, may dismiss the appeal and may remand the cause to the trial court for such further proceedings as are proper.

History.—§296, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(309).

924.21 Detention of defendant in custody if bail not given.—If execution of the sentence is stayed, but the defendant is not at large on bail, the official in whose custody he is shall, upon receiving notice of the stay of execution, keep him in custody without executing the sentence, to abide the judgment on appeal.

History.—§297, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(310).

924.22 Stay when execution of sentence already commenced.—If execution of a sentence of imprisonment has commenced before a stay of execution is granted, the granting of such stay shall suspend the further execution of the sentence; provided, the defendant may at his option, if in custody, serve his sentence during the pendency of the appeal.

History.—§298, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(311).

924.23 Transcribing and filing notes of stenographic reporter upon appeal by defendant.—When notice of appeal is filed by the defendant the trial court shall direct the stenographic reporter to transcribe his notes of the proceedings. The reporter shall certify to the correctness of the notes and the transcript thereof, and shall file the notes and the transcript with the clerk. If the prose-cutting attorney or counsel for the defendant questions the correctness of the notes or transcript the question shall be settled by the court. The defendant shall pay the costs of such stenographic report, unless he is insolvent, when the costs shall be paid by the county.

History.—§299, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(312).

924.24 Transcribing and filing notes of stenographic reporter upon appeal by state.—When notice of appeal is filed by the state the trial courts shall direct the stenographic reporter to transcribe such portion of his notes of the proceedings as the prosecuting attorney shall specify in writing. If counsel for the defendant is of the opinion that portions of the notes of the proceedings specified by the prosecuting attorney are not sufficient for a proper determination of the appeal the trial court at his request shall direct the reporter to transcribe such further portions of his notes of the proceedings as counsel for the defendant shall specify. The reporter shall certify to the correctness of the notes and the transcript thereof and shall file the notes and an original and three copies of the transcript, duly certified, with the clerk. If the prosecuting attorney or counsel for the defendant questions the correctness of the notes or transcript, the question shall be settled by the court. The costs of the stenographic report shall be paid by the county.

History.—§300, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(313).

924.25 Transmission of record to appellate court upon appeal by defendant.—

(1) The preparation of the record on appeal shall be commenced, and the said record shall be filed in the appellate court, within the times specified by supreme court rule twelve, or by such rule as may hereafter be adopted by the supreme court to govern such matters. An original and two copies of the appeal record shall be made up by the clerk of the trial court, who shall, within the time allowed for filing the appeal record, transmit the original record, duly certified, to the appellate court and deliver one copy to the attorney general if the appeal is to the supreme court or to the state attorney if the appeal is to the circuit court and the other copy to the appellant's attorney or to the appellant if he has no attorney. The time for filing the appeal record in the appellate court may be extended by the appellate court or the trial court, provided that no extension of more than ten days shall be granted without notice.

(2) It shall not be necessary for the record on appeal to be approved by the trial judge, but if any difference arises as to whether the record duly discloses what occurred, the difference shall be submitted to and settled by the court, and the record made to conform to the truth.

(3) If anything material to either party is omitted from the record on appeal by error or accident, or is misstated therein, the parties by stipulation, or the trial court, either before or after the record is transmitted to the appellate court, or the appellate court on a proper suggestion, or on its own initiative, may direct that the omission or misstatement shall be corrected, and if necessary that a supplemental record shall be certified and transmitted by the clerk.

(4) When the court is of the opinion that original papers or exhibits should be inspected by the appellate court or sent to the appellate court in lieu of copies, it may make such order therefor, and for the safe keeping, transportation, and return thereof as it deems proper.

(5) The original appeal record shall be certified by the clerk of the trial court in the manner provided by supreme court rule twelve or by such rule as the supreme court may hereafter adopt to regulate such certification.

(6) The clerk's costs shall be paid by the defendant, or by the county in case the defendant is insolvent.

History.—§301, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(314). Am. §2, ch. 28022, 1953.

924.26 Transmission of record to appellate court upon appeal by state.—

(1) When an appeal is taken by the state, the provisions of §924.25(1) shall be applicable, except that the clerk of the trial court shall deliver one copy of the appeal record to the attorney general if the appeal is to the supreme court or to the state attorney if the appeal is to the circuit court and the other copy to the appellee's attorney or to the appellee if he has no attorney. The provisions of §924.25(2)-(5) shall also apply when the appeal is taken by the state.

(2) The clerk's costs shall be paid by the county when an appeal is taken by the state.

History.—§302, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(315). Am. §3, ch. 28022, 1953.

924.27 Copy of appeal papers given upon request of either party.—The clerk of the trial court shall, within the time allowed for transmission of the appeal papers to the appellate court, deliver, upon payment of his fees, to the defendant or his attorney and to the prosecuting attorney, upon application therefor, a copy of the appeal papers.

History.—§303, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(316).

924.28 Failure of clerk to transmit appeal papers as required.—Failure of the clerk to transmit all the appeal papers within the time provided shall not prejudice the rights of the parties. If the clerk fails to transmit any of the papers the appellate court or the trial court may on its own motion, or shall on the motion of either party, direct the clerk to transmit such papers.

History.—§304, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(317).

924.29 Dismissal of appeal for failure to prosecute; certificate of dismissal.—The appellate court may dismiss the appeal if the appellant does not prosecute it as required by rules of court. When an appeal is dismissed, the clerk of the appellate court shall file with the clerk of the trial court a certificate stating that the appeal has been dismissed.

History.—§305, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(318).

924.30 Appeals in criminal causes to have precedence.—All appeals in criminal cases shall have precedence over other appeals and shall be placed first upon the calendar for hearing. Appeals in cases where a sentence of death has been imposed shall have precedence over all other appeals.

History.—§306, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(819).

924.31 When argument necessary.—Judgment may be affirmed without argument if the appellant fails to argue, but it may not be reversed without argument by the appellant, either oral or upon written brief.

History.—§307, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(820).

924.32 What appellate court to review.—

(1) Upon an appeal by either the state or the defendant the appellate court shall review all rulings and orders appearing in the appeal papers in so far as it is necessary to do so in order to pass upon the grounds of appeal. The court shall also review all instructions to which an objection was made and which are alleged as a ground of appeal, and the sentence when there is an appeal therefrom. The court may also in its discretion, if it deems the interests of justice to require, review any other things said or done in the cause which appears in the appeal papers including instructions to the jury. The reception of evidence to which no objection was made shall not be construed to constitute a ruling by the court.

(2) Upon an appeal by the defendant from the judgment the appellate court shall review the evidence to determine if it is insufficient to support the judgment where this is a ground of appeal. Upon an appeal from the judgment by a defendant who has been sentenced to death the appellate court shall review the evidence to determine if the interests of justice require a new trial, whether the insufficiency of the evidence is a ground of appeal or not.

History.—§308, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(321).

924.33 When judgment not to be reversed or modified.—No judgment shall be reversed unless the appellate court after an examination of all the appeal papers is of the opinion that error was committed which injuriously affected the substantial rights of the appellant. It shall not be presumed that error injuriously affected the substantial rights of the appellant.

History.—§309, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(322).
cf.—§54.23, Harmless error.

924.34 When evidence sustains only conviction of lower offense.—In a case where the offense is divided into degrees or necessarily includes lesser offenses, and the appellate court is of the opinion that the evidence does not prove the degree or offense of which the defendant is found guilty, but does establish his guilt of some lesser degree or offense necessarily included therein, then the appellate court shall reverse the judgment of the trial court with directions to the trial court to enter judgment for such lesser degree or offense necessarily included in the charge and pass sentence accordingly, unless some other matter or thing appearing in the record makes it advisable that a new trial be had.

History.—§310, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(323).

924.35 Enforcement of judgment on affirmation.—When the judgment against the defendant is affirmed, the judgment shall be enforced by the court from which the appeal was taken.

History.—§311, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(324).
cf.—§932.51, Execution on affirmation of judgment.

924.36 Order when judgment reversed.—When the judgment is reversed, the appellate court shall either order that the defendant be discharged from the cause, or, if it thinks proper, grant a new trial.

History.—§312, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(325).

924.37 Order or decision when state appeals.—(1) When the state appeals from an order quashing an indictment or information or any count thereof, or from an order granting a new trial, and any such order is affirmed, the appellate court shall direct that the trial court proceed to carry such order into effect. If an order quashing an indictment or information or any count thereof is reversed, the appellate court shall direct that the defendant be tried on the indictment or information. If an order granting a new trial is reversed the appellate court shall direct that the judgment of conviction be entered against the defendant.

(2) When the state appeals from a ruling on a question of law adverse to the state the appellate court shall decide the question of law raised on such appeal.

History.—§313, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(326).

924.38 Whether removal of cause when new trial ordered.—When the appellate court orders a new trial, it shall direct that such trial be had in the court from which the appeal was taken, unless the defendant applied in such court for removal of the cause and the appellate court is of the opinion that the trial court should have granted such application in which case the appellate court shall direct in what court the new trial shall be had.

History.—§314, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(327).

924.39 Rehearing.—The appellate court may order the rehearing of an appeal.

History.—§315, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(328).

924.40 Appellate court rules.—(1) The appellate court may make rules, consistent with the provisions of this chapter, for regulating the practice and procedure on appeals.

(2) The appellate court shall prescribe a form of bond on appeal in criminal cases and habeas corpus cases and shall also prescribe the form of certificate to be used by a court reporter in certifying to the correctness of his transcribed notes, and a form for the clerk of the court in certifying the record on appeal.

History.—§316, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(329).

of court, to be present, or have present, an expert of his own selection, during the course of such examination. The order shall specify the time, place, and manner of making the inspection and taking the copies and photographs, and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

History.—§154, ch. 19554, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8663(161).
 Note.—Formerly §909.18.

cf.—§903.03, Justification of trial court to hear motion.

925.05 Statements or confessions; availability to defendant.—Where a person is charged with an offense, upon motion of such person, at any time after the filing of the indictment or information against him, the court shall order the prosecuting attorney to permit the defendant to inspect and copy or photograph written or recorded statements or confessions whether signed or unsigned by the defendant. The order shall specify the time, place and manner of making the inspection and of taking copies, or photographs, and may prescribe such terms and conditions as are just.

History.—§1, ch. 63-263.

925.06 Sale or destruction of unclaimed personal property in criminal proceedings.—

(1) Any personal property entered into evidence or otherwise coming into the custody of the court during the progress of any criminal case and not claimed by and returned to the owner or any person claiming an interest therein, shall, if of any appreciable value, be sold or offered for sale at public sales conducted by the sheriff of the appropriate county at such times as shall be ordered by the court. Notice, procedure and sheriff's fees shall be the same for such sales as provided by law for sales under execution. The proceeds of such sales, after deducting sheriff's fees and expenses, shall be paid over to any person entitled to and claiming the same. If no claim is made within sixty days after a sale, such proceeds shall be paid over by the sheriff into the county general fund. If the aforesaid property is of no appreciable value the court may order its destruction by the sheriff.

(2) Nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or supersede the provisions of §790.08 with respect to the disposition of weapons or arms as therein defined.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 63-180.

932.01 Courts in which criminal jurisdiction is vested.—Original jurisdiction in criminal cases is vested in the circuit courts, criminal courts of record, county courts, county judges' courts and courts of justices of the peace.

History.—§2792, RS 1892; GS 3842; RGS 5937; CGL 8203.
 cf.—§26.53, Jurisdiction circuit courts, criminal cases.

- §32.01, Criminal courts of record.
- §34.01, County courts.
- §36.01, County judge's courts.
- §37.01, Justice of the peace courts.

932.02 Process.—Said courts may issue all writs and process necessary or proper to the exercise of the criminal jurisdiction, and such writs and process, except when otherwise provided by law, shall run and be of full force and effect throughout the state.

History.—§2793, RS 1892; GS 3843; RGS 5938; CGL 8204.
 cf.—§932.25, Witnesses; subpoenas to run throughout state.

932.03 Contempts.—Said courts, in the exercise of their criminal jurisdiction may punish for contempts as in the exercise of their civil jurisdiction, and the criminal courts of record shall possess, in this respect, the same powers as the circuit courts.

History.—§2794, RS 1892; GS 3844; RGS 5939; CGL 8205.

932.04 Contempts before committing magistrate.—A committing magistrate, while holding any examination, shall have the same power to punish for contempts as he possesses while presiding at the trial of any criminal cause.

History.—§2795, RS 1892; GS 3845; RGS 5940; CGL 8206.

932.05 Limitation of prosecutions.—All offenses not punishable with death, save as hereinafter provided, shall be prosecuted within two years after the same shall have been committed. There shall be no limitation for offenses punishable with death. In all offenses not punishable with death where an indictment has been found or an information filed within two years after the commission of the offense and such indictment or information, because of any defect, omission or insufficiency in the contents or form thereof, is subsequently quashed or set aside after said two year period has elapsed, in that event further indictments may be found or informations filed for such offense within three months after the entry of the order of the court quashing or setting aside the indictment or information, and prosecution thereunder shall proceed as if the same were commenced within two years after the commission of the offense.

History.—§78, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 2357; GS 3181; RGS 5011; CGL 7113; §1, ch. 16962, 1935.

932.06 Same; state, county and municipal officials.—All offenses by state, county or municipal officials, committed during their term or terms of office, in any way whatsoever connected with the discharge of the duties of their different offices, shall be prosecuted within two years after the said officer shall retire from such office.

History.—§1, ch. 4915, 1901; GS 3182; RGS 5012; CGL 7114.

932.07 Jurisdiction and venue; offense commenced here but consummated elsewhere.—When the commission of an offense commenced here is consummated without the boundaries of this state, the offender shall be liable to punishment here therefor, and the jurisdiction in such case shall be in the county in which the offense was commenced.

History.—§2360, RS 1892; GS 3185; RGS 5015; CGL 7117.
cf.—§910.01, Jurisdiction and venue (criminal procedure law).

932.08 Same; dueling in another state.—Whoever being a resident or inhabitant of this state, by previous appointment or engagement made within the same, fights a duel without the jurisdiction of this state, and, in so doing, inflicts a mortal wound upon any person whereof he afterwards dies in this state, shall be deemed guilty of murder in the first degree in this state, and may be indicted, tried and convicted in the county wherein the death happens.

History.—§24, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2361; GS 3188; RGS 5016; CGL 7118.
cf.—Ch. 783, Dueling.

932.09 Same; seconds to such duel.—Whoever being an inhabitant or resident of this state, by previous appointment or engagement made within the same, becomes the second of either party in such duel, and is present as a second when such mortal wound is inflicted, whereof death ensues within this state, may be indicted, tried and convicted as an accessory before the fact in the county wherein the death happened.

History.—§25, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2362; GS 3187; RGS 5017; CGL 7119.
cf.—Ch. 776, Principals and accessories.

932.10 Same; acquittal or conviction in another state a bar here.—Any person indicted under §§932.08-932.09 may plead a former conviction or acquittal of the same offense in any other state or county, and such plea, if admitted and established, shall be a bar to all further or other proceedings against him for the same offense in this state.

History.—§26, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2363; GS 3188; RGS 5018; CGL 7120.

932.11 Same; navigable waters.—When the territorial jurisdiction of any court in any county shall extend to one bank of any navigable water such court shall have jurisdiction across such navigable water from shore to shore. If the territorial jurisdiction of different courts, whether of the same county or not, extends to the opposite banks of any navigable water, such courts shall have concurrent jurisdiction across said navigable water from shore to shore.

History.—§2365, RS 1892; GS 3190; RGS 5020; CGL 7122.

932.12 Same; accessory before the fact.—A person charged with counseling, hiring or otherwise procuring a felony to be committed, may be indicted, tried and convicted in the same court and county in which the principal felon might be indicted and tried, although the offense of counseling, hiring, or procuring the commission of such felony is committed on the high seas, or on land, either within or without the limits of this state.

History.—§5, sub-ch. 11, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2366; GS 3191; RGS 5021; CGL 7123.

cf.—§910.04, Venue where accessory in one county and offense committed in another.

932.13 Same; accessory after the fact.—Whoever becomes an accessory to a felony after the fact, may be indicted, tried and convicted (whether the principal felon has or has not been convicted feloniously, or is or is not amenable to justice) by any court having jurisdiction to try the principal felon, and either in the county where such person became an accessory, or in the county where the principal felony was committed.

History.—§7, sub-ch. 11, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2367; GS 3192; RGS 5022; CGL 7124.

cf.—§776.03, Accessory after the fact.
§806.10, Obstructing extinguishment of fire.

932.14 Same; kidnapping.—Every offense mentioned in §805.01 may be tried in the county in which it is committed, or in any county in or to which the person so seized, taken, inveigled, kidnaped or sold, or whose services are so sold or transferred, is taken, confined, held, carried or brought.

History.—§44, sub-ch. 3, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2368; GS 3193; RGS 5023; CGL 7125.

932.15 Grand jury; to make presentments.—The grand jury may present every offense against the penal laws of this state, whether any specific punishment is pointed out or not, if punishment has not been inflicted.

History.—§16, Nov. 19, 1828; RS 2805; GS 3854; RGS 5949; CGL 8215.

cf.—§905.01, Grand jury (criminal procedure law).

932.16 Same; excusing grand juror related to person being investigated.—Any member of a grand jury may excuse himself or be excused by a majority vote of the other members of the grand jury, or by order of the judge of said court on his own motion or on motion of the state attorney, and relieved from the deliberations of the grand jury or voting on a true bill in any case being investigated by the grand jury, in which the party being investigated is related by blood or marriage to such grand juror. When so excused or relieved said member shall retire and be absent from the grand jury room throughout the investigation of and the voting on a true bill against such relative; provided, however, that the failure of any grand juror to excuse himself or be excused or relieved from participation in the investigation of or voting on a true bill against any person related to such grand juror by blood or marriage, shall not vitiate or in any respect invalidate any true bill or indictment found or returned against such relative.

History.—§1, ch. 17058, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4452(1).

932.17 Same; state attorney to issue subpoena.—Whenever so required by the grand jury, the state attorney shall issue subpoenas and other process to secure witnesses.

History.—§20, ch. 1628, 1868; RS 2807; GS 3856; RGS 5951; CGL 8217.

cf.—§905.19, Duties of prosecuting attorney.

932.18 Same; list of witnesses; minutes.—The foreman of the grand jury shall return to the court a list under his hand of all witnesses who shall have been sworn before the grand jury during the term, and the same shall be filed of record by the clerk.

When the grand jury so directs, the minutes of its proceedings shall be delivered to the state attorney by its clerk.

History.—§§14, 15, ch. 1628, 1868; RS 2806, 2809; GS 3855, 3858; RGS 5950, 5953; CGL 8216, 8219.

cf.—§905.08, 905.13, Foreman, Clerk.

932.19 Jurors; qualifications stated.—The qualifications of jurors in criminal cases shall be the same as their qualifications in civil cases.

History.—§2849, RS 1892; GS 3905; RGS 6003; CGL 8297.

cf.—§§40.01, 40.07-40.08, 40.12, Qualifications of jurors in civil cases.

§913.01, Trial jury (criminal procedure law).

932.20 Same; in capital cases.—No person whose opinions are such as to preclude him from finding any defendant guilty of an offense punishable with death shall be allowed to serve as a juror on the trial of any capital case.

History.—§12, ch. 1637, sub-ch. 13, 1868; RS 2850; GS 3906; RGS 6004; CGL 8298.

932.21 Same; procurement same as in civil cases.—In courts having civil and criminal jurisdiction the method of drawing, summoning and empaneling jurors in civil cases shall obtain also in criminal cases. In the criminal courts of record the law regulating the drawing, summoning and empaneling of jurors in the circuit court shall obtain, except that the jurors for the first week of the term of the criminal court of record shall be drawn not less than four days prior to the first day of the term, and shall be summoned not less than one day prior to the first day of the term.

History.—§2852, RS 1892; GS 3908; RGS 6006; CGL 8300.

cf.—§40.02, Procurement of jurors in civil cases.

932.22 Same; special jurors.—In all criminal cases the court, in its discretion, may order such number of jurors to be summoned, in addition to the regular panel, as it may deem proper.

History.—§2853, RS 1892; GS 3909; RGS 6007; CGL 8301.

932.23 Same; compensation.—In courts having both civil and criminal jurisdiction, except in courts of justices of the peace, the compensation of jurors in criminal cases shall be the same, and shall be made in the same manner, as in civil cases. In the criminal courts of record the compensation of jurors shall be the same, and shall be made in the same manner, as in the circuit court.

History.—§2864, RS 1892; §1, ch. 5110, 1903; GS 3913; RGS 6011; CGL 8305.

cf.—§40.24, Pay of jurors.

932.24 Same; compensation in justice of the peace courts.—In courts of justices of the peace the pay of jurors, when paid by the county, shall be for each day's attendance on the court, but when paid by the defendant, for each day's attendance on the case.

History.—§1, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2858; GS 3914; RGS 6012; CGL 8306.

cf.—§40.24, Pay of jurors.

932.25 Witnesses; subpoenas to run throughout state.—All subpoenas for witnesses in criminal cases on behalf of the state and defendant shall run throughout the state, and shall be directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the state.

History.—§2, ch. 871, 1859; RS 2859; GS 3915; RGS 6013; CGL 8307.

cf.—§932.02, Process in general.

932.26 Same; all names to be included in one subpoena.—When possible, the names of all witnesses summoned for, or at the cost of, the state in a criminal case shall be included in one subpoena, and the prosecuting officer shall, when possible, include the names of all such witnesses in one praecipe for such subpoena.

History.—§§2, 4, 6, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2860; GS 3916; RGS 6014; CGL 8308.

932.27 Same; number in justice of the peace courts.—In criminal cases in courts of justices of the peace no more than two witnesses shall be subpoenaed for the state to prove the same fact.

History.—§6, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2861; GS 3917; RGS 6015; CGL 8309.

932.28 Same; attendance.—Witnesses summoned before a grand jury or in a criminal case pending in court, shall remain in attendance, and shall not depart therefrom unless they are discharged by order of the court, and if they depart without leave they shall be considered in contempt and liable to be attached for the same as in other cases of contempt. All witnesses subpoenaed once in a case shall attend at each succeeding term of court until the case is disposed of.

History.—§4, ch. 159, 1843; §2, ch. 2094, 1877; RS 2862; GS 3918; RGS 6016; CGL 8310.

cf.—§8, Decl. of rights, const. Unreasonable detention.

932.29 Same; person not excused from testifying in certain prosecutions on ground testimony might incriminate him; immunity from prosecution.—No person shall be excused from attending and testifying, or producing any book, paper or other document before any court upon any investigation, proceeding or trial, for a violation of any of the statutes of this state against bribery, burglary, larceny, gaming or gambling, or of any of the statutes against the illegal sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors, upon the ground or for the reason that the testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, required of him may tend to convict him of a crime or to subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no person shall be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify or produce evidence, documentary or otherwise, and no testimony so given or produced shall be received against him upon any criminal investigation or proceeding.

History.—§1, ch. 5400, 1905; §1, ch. 7850, 1919; RGS 6017; CGL 8311.

cf.—§838.08, Person giving unauthorized compensation to public officer, etc., not privileged from testifying.

932.291 Same; compelled testimony tending to incriminate witnesses; immunity.—

(1) Whenever any witness, after having claimed his privilege against self-incrimination to testify or produce evidence, is instructed by order of any court of the United States to testify or produce books, papers or other evidence before any federal grand jury or court of the United States government involving any interference with or endangering of, or plans or attempts to interfere with or endanger, the national security or defense of the United States by treason, sabotage, espionage, sedition, or seditious conspiracy, the testimony or production of evidence of said witness shall not be used as evidence in any subsequent criminal proceedings against him in any court of this state.

(2) No witness shall be exempt under the provision of this section from prosecution for perjury committed while giving testimony or producing evidence under compulsion as provided in this section.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29987, 1955.

932.30 Same; experts in felony prosecutions; compensation.—When it shall be made to appear in the trial of any person in this state for a felony, that it is necessary or expedient in the interest of justice to have the testimony of an expert as to his opinion concerning any matter or thing relevant or pertinent to the issues in said cause, the judge of such court where such felony is being, or is about to be tried, upon the motion of the state, or upon the motion of the defendant if he makes and files an affidavit that he is insolvent and unable to pay the costs of his defense or of procuring an expert witness and the court finds the same to be true, many enter an order requiring the attendance of an expert to appear and make examination of any person or exhibit offered or to be offered in evidence in the trial of said cause and to testify as to his opinions and findings thereon, and allow and fix the compensation to be paid such expert for his services in making such examination, and for his time in attendance upon the court to testify as to his findings and opinions, which said compensation so fixed by the court, shall be taxed as costs and paid in the same manner as other costs in said suit.

History.—§1, ch. 18412, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 8311(1).

Am. §1, ch. 28202, 1953.

cf.—§917.01, Expert witnesses in proceedings to determine mental condition of defendant.

932.31 Same; competency as in civil cases.—The provisions of law relative to the competency of witnesses and evidence in civil cases shall obtain also in criminal cases, except in cases otherwise provided by law.

History.—§2863, RS 1892; GS 3919; RGS 6018; CGL 8312.

cf.—§90.04, Competency of witnesses in civil cases.

932.32 Same; approvers.—Approvers shall not be admitted in any case whatever.

History.—§17, Nov. 19, 1828; RS 2905; GS 3975; RGS 6076; CGL 8381.

932.33 Same; compensation.—In courts having civil and criminal jurisdiction, except courts of county judges and justices of the peace, the pay and mileage of witnesses in criminal cases shall be the same and shall be paid in the same manner as in civil cases in the same court. In the criminal courts of record their pay and mileage shall be the same and paid in the same manner as in the circuit courts.

History.—§2864, RS 1892; §1, ch. 5110, 1903; GS 3920; RGS 6019; CGL 8313.

cf.—§90.14, Compensation of witnesses in civil cases.

932.34 Same; compensation when summoned in two or more cases.—No witnesses subpoenaed in two or more cases pending at the same time, shall be paid more than one charge for per diem and mileage. When, however, the costs are thrown upon the defendant, the costs may be charged in full in each case.

History.—§4, ch. 159, 1848; RS 2865; §1, ch. 5133, 1903; GS 3921; RGS 6020; CGL 8314.

932.35 Same; compensation in courts of justices of the peace.—In criminal cases before justices of the peace, the pay of witnesses, when paid by the county, shall be for each day's actual attendance on the court, but in every case wherein the costs are collected from the defendant, each witness shall be entitled to pay for each day's attendance in the case.

History.—§1, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2866; GS 3922; RGS 6021; CGL 8315.

932.36 Same; for insolvent defendants in justices' courts and county judges' courts.—In case any person charged with any criminal offense is brought before a justice of the peace for examination or trial, and such person makes and files an affidavit that he is insolvent and unable to pay the costs of the defense or of procuring the attendance of his witnesses, and that certain witnesses, naming them and stating what he expects each to testify, are necessary to his defense, and that he cannot procure their attendance without subpoena, the justice shall, if satisfied of the good faith and truth of such affidavit, issue and cause to be served a subpoena for such witnesses, not to exceed two to prove any one fact. The costs in such case, when audited and approved according to law, shall be paid by the county. This section shall apply to the courts of the county judge.

History.—§2, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2867; §1, ch. 5133, 1903; GS 3923; RGS 6022; CGL 8316.

cf.—§939.07, Pay of defendant's witnesses.

932.37 Same; for insolvent defendants in other courts.—In case any person is brought to trial in any court of criminal jurisdiction other than a court of a justice of the peace, or county judge, and such person makes and files an affidavit that he is insolvent and unable to pay the costs of his defense, or of procuring the attendance of his witnesses, and that certain witnesses, naming them and stating what he expects each to testify are necessary to his defense, and that he cannot procure their attendance without subpoena, the judge of such court shall, if satisfied of the good faith and truth of such affidavit, order that subpoena be issued and served to procure the attendance of such witnesses, not to exceed two to prove any one fact, and that the costs in such case, when audited and approved according to law, shall be paid by the county.

If any defendant shall desire more than three witnesses to be summoned at the expense of the county, he shall in addition to the affidavit before mentioned in this or in §932.36 be required to make affidavit that all witnesses desired by him in excess of three, are relevant witnesses, and that he cannot safely go to trial without them, and his attorney shall also certify that in his judgment such witnesses should be summoned in order to secure a fair trial of the defendant.

History.—§4, ch. 3702, 1887; §1, ch. 3719, 1887; RS 2868; GS 3924; RGS 6023; CGL 8317.
cf.—§939.07, Payment of costs when defendant insolvent or discharged.

932.38 Parent or guardian to be notified before trial of offense against minor; service of notice.—When any minor, not married, may be charged with any offense and brought before any of the courts, including municipal courts, of this state, due notice of such charge prior to the trial thereof shall be given to the parents or guardian of such minor, provided the name and address of such parent or guardian may be known to the court, or to the executive officers thereof. In the event that the name of such parent or guardian is not known or made known to the court or executive officer or cannot be reasonably ascertained by him, then such notice shall be given to any other relative or friend whom such minor may designate.

The service of notice required by this section to be given to the parent, or guardian or other person provided herein may be made as the service of summons ad respondendum is made; or in the event such parent, or guardian or other person provided herein may be beyond the jurisdiction of the court, then, and in that event, service may be made by registered mail, or by telegram, and return of such service shall be made by the executive officer of the court in the same manner as returns are made upon summons ad respondendum.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 6221, 1911; RGS 6028; CGL 8322.

cf.—§47.13, Service of summons ad respondendum.

§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

932.39 Commitment and bail; when commitment may be to jail of another county.—If the accused shall be committed by any justice of the peace in a county where there is no jail or place of safekeeping, the justice shall direct the sheriff of the county to deliver the accused to the sheriff of the next adjoining county where a jail or place of safekeeping may be, there to be confined and dealt with according to law. The sheriff may summon a guard for the purpose of conveying the accused to the adjoining county.

History.—§7, ch. 6213, 1911; RS 2879; GS 3938; RGS 6039; CGL 8340.

cf.—§923.20, Form of commitment to jail of another county.

932.40 Same; justices of the peace to give witnesses under recognizance memorandum showing date of meeting; form of memorandum; removal for violation.—Every justice of the peace or county judge, when sitting as a committing magistrate, in all cases where the defendant shall be held to await the action of the grand jury, shall give to each witness that he recognizes to appear before the said grand jury a memorandum in writing, stating the date when the next grand jury shall meet before whom the said witness is to appear.

The county commissioners in each county shall cause to be printed, slips glued together in pad form, for free distribution to the justices of the peace and the county judge in their respective counties, to be used for the purposes mentioned in this section. The slips shall be in the following or like form:

(Date) _____
To _____
You are required to be and appear before the grand jury as a witness in the case of the State of Florida vs. _____
that meets at _____ on the _____ day of _____, 19____.

An intentional or continued disregard by any committing magistrate of the provisions of this section shall subject him to suspension from office by the governor, on the recommendation of the grand jury.

History.—§1, ch. 2096, 1877; RS 2880; §§1, 2, 3, ch. 5401, 1905; GS 3939; RGS 6041; CGL 8342.

932.41 Same; commitment for perjury in certain cases.—When it appears to a court of record that a witness or party, who has been legally sworn and examined, or has made an affidavit in any proceeding in a court of justice, has so testified as to induce a reasonable presumption that he is guilty of perjury therein, the court may immediately commit such witness or party by an order or process for that purpose, or may take a recognizance, with sureties, for his appearing to answer a charge of perjury. Thereupon the witnesses to establish such perjury may, if present, be bound over to the proper court, and notice of the proceedings shall forthwith be given to the prosecuting officer.

History.—§15, sub-ch. 6, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2882; GS 3941; RGS 6043; CGL 8344.
cf.—Ch. 837, Perjury.

History.—§1, ch. 5260, 1903; GS 3945; RGS 6047; CGL 8348.

932.43 Written consent of prisoner required; credit for work.—No person shall be employed as mentioned in §932.42 without his written consent or against his will. No person shall work more than ten hours in each twenty-four, and in case such person so employed shall be acquitted of the offense upon which he is held for want of bail, or the case against him shall be nolle prosequed or dismissed, and he shall be discharged from further prosecution, then such person shall be paid by the county for his services at the rate of thirty cents per day for the time he may have been actually employed, and in case such person shall be convicted, then the time he may have been so employed shall be credited on any term of imprisonment to which he may be sentenced, and in case he shall be fined, then the value of such labor actually performed by him at the rate aforesaid shall be credited on his fine or the costs, or both fine and costs. No charge shall be made against the prisoner for feed or board during his confinement.

History.—§2, ch. 5260, 1903; GS 3946; RGS 6048; CGL 8349.

932.44 Record of conduct of prisoners.—The county commissioners shall cause to be kept by the road superintendent a record in which the conduct of persons employed as provided in §§932.42-932.43 shall be noted, and a transcript of such record shall be furnished to the court having jurisdiction in the premises.

History.—§3, ch. 5260, 1903; GS 3947; RGS 6049; CGL 8350.

932.45 Proceedings on estreat of bond; sureties to be called.—When any bond is taken for the appearance of any person charged with a criminal offense before any court in this state, and such person fails to attend said court as prescribed in the bond, the presiding judge of said court shall cause the sureties on the bond to be called upon to produce the body of the person for whose appearance they have given bond.

History.—§1, ch. 4403, 1895; GS 3949; RGS 6051; CGL 8352.
cf.—§903, 26, Directing forfeiture of undertaking.

932.46 Same; certificate of judge.—When the sureties have been called as required in this chapter, and have failed to produce the body of the person for whose appearance the bond has been given, the presiding judge of the court shall, during said term of court, or as soon thereafter as possible make and sign a certificate setting forth the facts of the giving of the bond, the breach of its conditions, and the failure of the sureties thereon to produce the body of the defendant, which certificate, under the hand of the justice or judge of said court, shall, in any court in this state, have all the force and validity of other record evidence, and shall be prima facie proof of all the facts set forth therein, and shall be substantially as follows:

In _____ Court for _____ County (or District)
State of Florida vs.
A _____ B _____ (Affidavit) or (Information) or (Indictment) as the case may be.
This is to certify that the said A _____ B _____ together with C _____ D _____ and E _____ F _____, agreed to pay the State of Florida _____ dollars unless the said A _____ B _____ should appear at this term of the _____ court, for _____ county, to answer the charge in this case; that the said
A _____ B _____ has failed to appear in this court to answer said charge, and that the sureties have been called upon and have failed to produce the body of said A _____ B _____ in this court, as their bond requires. In witness whereof, I have on this the _____ day of _____ A. D. 19____ made and signed this certificate.
(Signed) G _____ H _____
(Justice) or Judge _____ Court
For _____ County.

The certificate, together with the bond shall be by the justice or judge of said court forthwith transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court of the county, where said bond is made payable, who shall give his receipt for the same.

History.—§2, ch. 4403, 1895; GS 3950; RGS 6052; CGL 8353.

932.47 Indictments and informations; informations filed by prosecuting attorney.—Informations may be filed by the prosecuting attorney of the circuit court with the clerk of the circuit court in vacation or in term without leave of the court first being obtained.

History.—§1, ch. 17172, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 8363(1).
cf.—§906.01, Indictments and Informations (criminal procedure law).

932.48 Same; duties of clerks of courts.—Upon the filing of an information, the clerk of the circuit court shall docket the information and shall, without leave or order of the court first being had and obtained, issue a capias for the arrest of the person charged; and the clerk shall likewise issue any and all other necessary process incident to the information.

History.—§2, ch. 17172, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 8363(1).
cf.—Ch. 907, Process upon indictment and information.
§907.01 Capias and amount of bond.

932.49 Same; failure of motor vehicle operators to stop and assist persons injured; form of information.—Informations and indictments under §§317.09-317.10 shall be deemed sufficient if made in substantially the following form:

"That one A.B. while operating or being in charge of a motor vehicle then and there being driven along the _____ thoroughfare in _____ County, Florida, did strike and injure or put in jeopardy the person or property (as the case may be, giving details sufficient to identify the occurrence) of one _____ (or unknown as the case may be) and without stopping to render aid to the persons injured or put in jeopardy thereby and/or (without making known to the persons present his full, true and correct name and address as the case may be) did unlawfully depart from the scene of such accident contrary to the statute in such case made and provided."

cf.—§906.05-906.06, Forms of indictment and information.
§923.03, Manslaughter.

932.50 Evidence necessary in treason.—No person shall be convicted of treason except by the testimony of two lawful witnesses to the same overt act of treason for which he is prosecuted, unless he confess the same in open court.

History.—§4, sub-ch. 2, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 2909; GS 3980; RGS 6082; CGL 8387.

cf.—Ch. 779, Treason and offenses against the government.
§23, Declaration of rights, Florida Constitution.

932.51 Execution on affirmance of judgment.—Upon the affirmance of a judgment, sentence or order, the appellate court shall order and direct the court in which the case was originally determined to carry into effect the original judgment, sentence or order, or the appellate court shall itself proceed to pass such judgment, sentence or order as to it shall seem proper.

History.—§5, ch. 138, 1848; RS 2978; GS 4051; RGS 6155; CGL 8469.
cf.—§924.35, Enforcement of judgment on affirmance.

932.52 Appeals from municipal courts.—(1) Any person convicted of any offense in any municipal court in this state may appeal from the judgment of such court to the circuit court of the county in which the conviction took place.

(2) Appeals under this section shall be taken and filed within thirty days from and after rendition of the judgment appealed from.

(3) Appeals under this section shall be perfected by the appellant's filing with the clerk of the municipal court, or with the judge of such court if there be no clerk, a simple notice of appeal which shall include or be accompanied by assignments of error in brief form.

(4) The form of said notice of appeal may be substantially the same as that provided by the supreme court for use in appeals to that court, with the addition of assignments of error in brief form.

(5) The filing of the notice of appeal with the clerk or judge shall give the circuit court jurisdiction of the subject matter and parties to the appeal.

(6) Rule days for appeals from municipal courts are abolished. The filing of the record in the circuit court shall fix the time from which the date for filing motion and other pleadings shall commence to run.

(7) Bills of exception and formal authentication thereof by the municipal court or judge are abolished. When any proceeding in the municipal court has been stenographically or otherwise reported, the court reporter, or other person reporting the same with the consent or approval of the court, shall, within fifteen days from the filing of the notice of appeal, or within such additional time as the municipal court or judge may allow, file his duly authenticated transcribed notes, or an authenticated copy thereof, with the clerk, or judge if there be no clerk, of the municipal court. When so filed the said transcribed notes, or copy thereof, shall become a part of the record in the cause. All documents, instruments and books used, or offered in evidence, when filed with the court shall become a part of the record in the cause to the extent used.

(8) Proceedings in pais, not stenographically or otherwise reported, may be authenticated by recital in the judgment appealed from, by a separate order, by certificate of the municipal judge, or by stipulation of the appellant and the city attorney, or other municipal officer having knowledge of the trial proceedings.

(9) The municipal court and the judge thereof shall, at all times, have full power and authority to correct the record in the cause and make it speak the truth, even when filed in the appellate court, and the like power may be exercised by the circuit court.

(10) It shall be the duty of the clerk, or the judge if there be no clerk, of the municipal court as soon as completed and ready for transmittal to forthwith transmit, under his hand, to the clerk of the circuit court, the entire original record, including the reporter's authenticated transcribed notes, or copy thereof, the notice of appeal and such other papers, books and pleadings as may have been filed in the cause. The record shall be accompanied by a certificate of such clerk or judge reciting that such record constitutes all the record and files in said cause.

(11) The said record on appeal shall be filed in the appellate court within twenty days from the filing of the notice of appeal, unless such time be extended by the municipal court, or circuit court, for good cause shown.

(12) When the record is filed in the circuit court, as aforesaid, the clerk or judge of the municipal court filing the same shall forthwith notify the appellant of such filing. Such notice may be given by mail or otherwise; however, it shall not be jurisdictional.

(13) The circuit court, on appeals under this section, shall examine the record and reverse or affirm the judgment appealed from, giving such judgment or order as the trial court should have given or otherwise as it may appear according to law. The circuit court shall have power to lower the sentence imposed by the municipal court if in his discretion the same should be lowered.

(14) The appeal may be heard by the circuit court either in term time or vacation. The circuit court shall set all appeals under this section for a speedy hearing and shall dispose of all such appeals as speedily as possible. The said circuit court shall sound the municipal appellate docket at least twice in each year and all undisposed of appeals shall have a speedy disposition.

(15) The Florida appellate rules shall govern in appeals brought under this section as to matters of practice and procedure.

(16) Appellant shall enter into a bond in double the amount of the fine and costs assessed or if the judgment be one of imprisonment for a term in the jail of said municipality, then the bond shall be in an amount sufficient to cover all costs taxed in the circuit court on appeal, plus not less than ten nor more than two hundred dollars additional in the discretion of the municipal judge, with one or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the clerk of the circuit court; conditioned to prosecute his appeal with dispatch and to abide the judgment of the court therein. When the bond is entered into and filed with the clerk of the circuit court, it shall operate as a supersedeas. The clerk of the circuit court shall receive a fee of one dollar for approving the appeal bond, payable when the bond is filed with him by the appellant.

(17) The costs shall be taxed by the circuit court upon the final decision of the appeal and shall be paid by the municipality if the decision on appeal is adverse to it.

History.—§1, ch. 4021, 1891; RS 4052; RGS 6156; CGL 8470. Am. §1, ch. 24068, 1947; §36, ch. 63-559.

Sub. § (16) am. §10, ch. 26484, 1951; (7), (14) by §24, ch. 57-1. cf.—§24.01, Appeals from circuit court to supreme court.

932.521 Supersedeas bond in appeals from municipal to circuit court; enforcement and forfeiture.

(1) Whenever any appeal is taken from any municipal court to the circuit court in accordance with §932.52, and a supersedeas bond is filed in the circuit court, the surety or sureties executing said supersedeas bond thereby submit themselves to the jurisdiction of the circuit court, and the circuit court shall retain jurisdiction of the cause as to the principal and surety or sureties on such supersedeas bond after the issuance of the mandate on such appeal for the purpose of entering such other and further orders as may be necessary and proper for the enforcement of the conditions of said bond.

(2) Whenever any appeal taken from any municipal court to the circuit court under the provisions of §932.52 has been dismissed, affirmed or modified, or in case the judgment has been reversed and the cause remanded for a new trial, and the appellant has not within five days after the issuance of the mandate complied with the judgment and sentence of the municipal court by payment of the fine, or surrender for service of the sentence, or surrender for a new trial in case a new trial has been ordered, the clerk or judge of the municipal court shall certify such fact to the circuit court. Upon such certificate being filed in the cause in the circuit court, the circuit court shall order the supersedeas bond filed in said cause forfeited, and unless within ten days after entry of such order of forfeiture the appellant, surety or sureties on such supersedeas bond shall satisfactorily explain the breach of the undertaking and secure a discharge of such forfeiture, the circuit court shall enter judgment against such appellant, surety or sureties on said supersedeas bond and execution shall issue thereon.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 57-64.

932.53 Justice of the peace courts; time of taking appeal.—Appeals from a judgment or sentence of conviction in the court of a justice of the peace where a trial de novo is demanded shall be taken within thirty days from the date of the judgment or sentence.

History.—§1, ch. 3717, 1897; RS 2979; GS 4053; RGS 6157; CGL 8471; am. §1, ch. 24068, 1947.

cf.—§24.09, When appeal under criminal procedure law to be taken.

932.54 Appeals from justice of the peace courts; supersedeas.—The appeal shall operate as a supersedeas, if the appellant shall enter into a bond with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court entering the judgment or sentence of conviction, conditioned to appear before the circuit court of the county at its next ensuing term, and to abide its judgment therein.

History.—§1, ch. 3717, 1897; RS 2980; GS 4054; RGS 6158; CGL 8472.

932.55 Justice of the peace to make return of proceedings on appeal.—The judge of the court from which an appeal is taken shall make special return of the proceedings had before him, and shall cause it, with the bond aforesaid, and also the affidavit, warrant and return and all other papers pertaining to the trial, to be filed in the circuit court on or before the first day of its next term, and the complainant and the witnesses may also be required by him to enter into bond to appear before the circuit court at the time aforesaid and to abide by its order therein.

History.—§2, ch. 3717, 1887; RS 2981; GS 4055; RGS 6159; CGL 8473.

cf.—§924.11, Method of appeal when trial de novo not requested.

932.56 Trial de novo in circuit court.—The circuit court, when so requested, shall proceed to try all criminal cases on appeal from justice of the peace courts de novo as though the proceedings had been originally begun in that court.

Such trial in the circuit court shall be had upon the affidavit or charge sent up from the inferior tribunal. Should the original affidavit or complaint on which the case was tried below be lost or be insufficient or defective in form or substance, the circuit judge shall order, at any stage of the proceedings, a new or amended affidavit or complaint to be filed, and the case shall proceed thereon the same in all respects as if the original had not been lost or been adjudged defective; provided, that the amended affidavit or complaint charge the same offense charged or attempted to be charged by the affidavit or complaint filed in the inferior tribunal.

cf.—§924.08, Appeals in criminal cases.

932.57 Authority of state attorney or county solicitor to order autopsies.—Either the state attorney or the county solicitor may, in his discretion, have autopsies performed upon dead bodies found within the county, either before interment or after interment, whenever in his opinion such autopsies are necessary in order to ascertain whether or not death was criminally caused. The reasonable charges of physicians performing autopsies at the direction of either of said prosecuting officers shall be paid from the county fine and forfeiture fund, upon the approval of their bills by the county commissioners and state attorney or county solicitor under whose direction such autopsies are performed.

History.—§1, ch. 28019, 1953; §1, ch. 57-311.

 §22, Declaration of rights, Florida constitution.

933.03 Destruction of obscene prints and literature.—All obscene prints and literature, or other things mentioned in §847.011 found by an officer in executing a search warrant, or produced or brought into court, shall be safely kept so long as is necessary for the purpose of being used as evidence in any case, and as soon as may be afterwards, shall be destroyed by order of the court before whom the case is brought.

History.—§16, sub-ch. 8, ch. 1637, 1868; RS 3007; GS 4083; RGS 6187; CGL 8501.

933.04 Affidavits.—The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable seizures and searches shall not be violated and no search warrant shall be issued except upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation particularly describing the place to be searched and the person and thing to be seized.

History.—§2, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8504.
cf.—§22, Declaration of rights, Florida constitution.

933.05 Issuance in blank prohibited.—A search warrant cannot be issued except upon probable cause supported by affidavit or affidavits, naming or describing the person, place or thing to be searched and particularly describing the property or thing to be seized; no search warrant shall be issued in blank and any such warrant shall be returned within ten days after issuance thereof.

History.—§5, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8507.

933.06 Sworn application required before issuance.—The judge or magistrate must, before issuing the warrant, have the application of some person for said warrant duly sworn to and subscribed, and may receive further testimony from witnesses or supporting affidavits, or depositions in writing, to support the application. The affidavit and further proof, if same be had or required, must set forth the facts tending to establish the grounds of the application or probable cause for believing that they exist.

History.—§6, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8508.

933.07 Issuance of search warrants.—The judge or magistrate, upon examination of the application and proofs submitted, if satisfied that probable cause exists for the issuing of the search warrant, shall thereupon issue a search warrant signed by him with his name of office, to any sheriff and his deputies or any constable, police officer or other person authorized by law to execute process, commanding the officer or person forthwith to search the property described in the warrant or the person named, for the property specified, and to bring the same before the magistrate or some other court having jurisdiction of the offense.

History.—§7, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8509.

933.08 Search warrants to be served by officers mentioned therein.—The search warrant shall in all cases be served by any of the officers mentioned in its direction, but by no other person except in aid of the officer requiring it, said officer being present and acting in its execution.

History.—§8, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8510.

933.09 Officer may break open door, etc., to execute warrant.—The officer may break open any outer door, inner door or window of a house, or any part of a house or anything therein, to execute the warrant, if after due notice of his authority and purpose he is refused admittance to said house or access to anything therein.

History.—§9, ch. 9321, 1923; §1, ch. 10273, 1925; CGL 8511. cf.—§901.19, Right of officer to break into building.

933.10 Execution of search warrant during day or night.—A search warrant issued under the provisions of this chapter may, if expressly authorized in such warrant by the judge or magistrate issuing the same, be executed by being served either in the daytime or in the nighttime, as the exigencies of the occasion may demand or require.

History.—§10, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8512.
cf.—§901.04, Execution of warrant of arrest.

933.101 Service on Sunday.—A search warrant may be executed by being served on Sunday, if expressly authorized in such warrant by the judge or magistrate issuing the same.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-289.

933.11 Duplicate to be delivered when warrant served.—All search warrants shall be issued in duplicate. The duplicate shall be delivered to the officer with the original warrant, and when the officer serves the warrant, he shall deliver a copy to the person named in the warrant, or in his absence to some person in charge of, or living on the premises. When property is taken under the warrant the officer shall deliver to such person a written inventory of the property taken and receipt for the same, specifying the same in detail, and if no person is found in possession of the premises where such property is found, shall leave the said receipt on the premises.

History.—§11, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8513.
cf.—§901.21, Search of person arrested.

933.12 Return and inventory.—Upon the return of the warrant the officer shall attach thereto or thereon a true inventory of the property taken under the warrant, and at the foot of the inventory shall verify the same by affidavit taken before some officer authorized to administer oaths, or before the issuing officer, said verification to be to the following effect:

I, A. B., the officer by whom the warrant was executed, do swear that the above inventory contains a true and detailed account of all the property taken by me on said warrant.

History.—§12, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8514.

933.13 Copy of inventory shall be delivered upon request.—The judge or magistrate to whom the warrant is returned, upon the request of any claimant or any person from whom said property is taken, or the officer who executed the search warrant, shall deliver to said applicant a true copy of the inventory of the property mentioned in the return on said warrant.

History.—§13, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8515.

933.14 Return of property taken under search warrant.—If it appears to the magistrate or judge before whom the warrant is returned that the property or papers taken are not the same as that described in the warrant, or that there is no probable cause for believing the existence of the grounds upon which the warrant was issued, or if it appears to the magistrate before whom any property is returned that the property was secured by an "unreasonable" search, the judge or magistrate may order a return of the property taken; provided, however, that in no instance shall contraband such as slot machines, gambling tables, lottery tickets, tally sheets, rundown sheets or other gambling devices, paraphernalia and equipment, or narcotic drugs, obscene prints and literature be returned to anyone claiming an interest therein, it being the specific intent of the legislature that no one has any property rights subject to be protected by any constitutional provision in such contraband; provided, further, that the claimant of said contraband may upon sworn petition and proof submitted by him in the circuit court of the county where seized, show that said contraband articles so seized were held, used or possessed in a lawful manner, for a lawful purpose, and in a lawful place, the burden of proof in all cases being upon the claimant. The sworn affidavit or complaint upon which the search warrant was issued or the testimony of the officers showing probable cause to search without a warrant or incident to a legal arrest, and the finding of such slot machines, gambling tables, lottery tickets, tally sheets, rundown sheets, scratch sheets, or other gambling devices, paraphernalia and equipment, including money used in gambling or in furtherance of gambling, or narcotic drugs, obscene prints and literature, or any of them, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the illegal possession of such contraband and the burden shall be upon the claimant for the return thereof, to show that such contraband was lawfully acquired, possessed, held and used.

No intoxicating liquor seized on any warrant from any place other than a private dwelling house shall be returned, but the same may be held for such other and further proceedings which may arise upon a trial of the cause, unless it shall appear by the sworn petition of the claimant and proof submitted by him that said liquors so seized were held, used or possessed in a lawful manner, and in a lawful place, or by a permit from the proper federal or state authority, the burden of proof in all cases being upon the claimant. The sworn affidavit or complaint upon which the search warrant was issued and the finding of such intoxicating liquor shall constitute prima facie evidence of the illegal possession of such liquor, and the burden shall be upon the claimant for the return thereof, to show that such liquor was lawfully acquired, possessed, held and used.

No pistol or firearm taken by any officer with a search warrant or without a search warrant upon a view by the officer of a breach of the peace shall be returned except pursuant to an order of a circuit judge or a judge of the court of record of Escambia county or criminal court of record.

If no cause is shown for the return of any property seized or taken under a search warrant, the judge or magistrate shall order that the same be impounded for use as evidence at any trial of any criminal or penal cause growing out of the having or possession of said property, but perishable property held or possessed in violation of law may be sold where the same is not prohibited, as may be directed by the court, or returned to the person from whom taken. The judge or magistrate to whom said search warrant is returned shall file the same with the inventory and sworn return in the proper office, and if the original affidavit and proofs upon which the warrant was issued are in his possession, he shall apply to the officer having the same and the officer shall transmit and deliver all of the papers, proofs, and certificates to the proper office where the proceedings are lodged.

History.—§14, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 8516; §1, ch. 29676, 1955.

933.15 Obstruction of service or execution of search warrant; penalty.—Whoever shall knowingly and willfully obstruct, resist or oppose any officer or person aiding such officer, in serving or attempting to serve or execute any search warrant, or shall assault, beat or wound any person or officer, or his deputies or assistants, knowing him to be such an officer or person so authorized, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned for not more than one year.

History.—§15, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 7534.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

933.16 Maliciously procuring search warrant to be issued; penalty.—Any person who maliciously and without probable cause procures a search warrant to be issued and executed shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months.

History.—§16, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 7434.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

933.17 Exceeding authority in executing search warrant; penalty.—Any officer who in executing a search warrant willfully exceeds his authority or exercises it with unnecessary severity, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or imprisoned for not more than six months and shall be liable to suspension and removal from office.

History.—§17, ch. 9321, 1923; CGL 7519.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

933.18 When warrant may be issued for search of private dwelling.—No search warrant shall issue under this chapter or under any other law of this state to search any private dwelling occupied as such unless it is being used for the unlawful sale, possession or manufacture of intoxicating liquor, or stolen or embezzled property is contained therein, or it is being used to carry on gambling, or it is being used to perpetrate fraud and swindles, or the laws relating to narcotics are being violated therein, or unless it is in part used for some business purpose such as a store, shop, saloon, restaurant, hotel or boarding or lodging house. The term private dwelling shall be construed to include the room or rooms used and occupied, not transiently but solely as a residence, in an apartment house, hotel, boarding house or lodging house. No warrant shall be issued for the search of any private dwelling under any of the conditions hereinabove mentioned except on sworn proof by affidavit of some creditable witness that he has reason to believe that one of said conditions exists, which affidavit shall set forth the facts on which such reason or belief is based.

History.—§19, ch. 9321, 1923; §2, ch. 10273, 1925; CGL 8518; §1, ch. 57-418.

933.19 Searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise.—The provisions of the opinion rendered by the supreme court of the United States on March 2, 1925, in that certain cause wherein George Carroll and John Kiro were plaintiffs in error and the United States was defendant in error, reported in 267 United States Reports, beginning at page 132, relative to searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise, and construing the fourth amendment to the constitution of the United States, are adopted as the statute law of the state applicable to searches and seizures under §22 of the bill of rights of the constitution of the state, when searches and seizures shall be made by any duly authorized and constituted bonded officer of this state exercising police authority in the enforcement of any law of the state relative to the unlawful transportation or hauling of intoxicating liquors or other contraband or illegal drugs or merchandise prohibited or made unlawful or contraband by the laws of the state.

The same rules as to admissibility of evidence and liability of officers for illegal or unreasonable searches and seizures as were laid down in said case by the supreme court of the United States shall apply to and govern the rights, duties and liabilities of officers and citizens in the state under the like provisions of the Florida constitution relating to searches and seizures.

All points of law decided in the aforesaid case relating to the construction or interpretation of the provisions of the constitution of the United States relative to searches and seizures of vehicles carrying contraband or illegal intoxicating liquors or merchandise shall be taken to be the law of the state enacted by the legislature to govern and control such subject.

936.01 Justices of the peace to hold inquests.—Justices of the peace within their respective districts shall hold inquests of the dead when so directed as provided in §936.03, and to that extent shall be deemed coroners. In case the justice of the district in which the death occurs or the dead body is found shall for any reason be unable to hold an inquest, it shall be held by the county judge of the county in which the death occurs, or where the dead body is found, or by a justice of the peace of one of the adjoining districts of the county.

History.—§3009, RS 1892; §1, ch. 5125, 1903; GS 4085; RGS 6189; CGL 8519; am. §1, ch. 21965, 1943.

936.02 When inquests may be taken.—Inquests may be taken:

(1) Of all violent, sudden and casual deaths where there are no eyewitness or eyewitnesses to the killing or cause of death, and such deaths occur under circumstances indicating that death was caused by some criminal act or was the result of criminal negligence;

(2) Of all sudden deaths in prison or other state, county, municipal and such public institutions, without an attending physician;

(3) Of all dead bodies found within the county, whether of person known or unknown, when there are no known eyewitness or eyewitnesses and it is apparent, from the body or the surrounding circumstances, that death was caused by some criminal act or was the result of criminal negligence, or when the deceased died or disappeared under circumstances indicating foul play; and,

(4) When otherwise ordered by a court of record having jurisdiction of felonies, upon petition of the prosecuting attorney thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 3253, 1881; RS 3010; GS 4086; RGS 6190; CGL 8520; am. §2, ch. 21965, 1943.

936.021 Inquests, public.—All inquests held pursuant to chapter 936, except the deliberation of the jury, shall be open to the public.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-105.

936.03 Preliminary inquiry and direction for inquest; proceedings, etc.—

(1) Every coroner, as soon as he knows or is informed that the dead body of any person, supposed to have come to his death under any of the circumstances mentioned in subsection (1), (2) or (3) of § 936.02 has been found within his district, shall forthwith make a preliminary investigation into the facts and circumstances surrounding the death and ascertain the names and addresses of all persons having knowledge thereof, and report the same to the judge, the prosecuting attorney or some assistant prosecuting attorney of any court having trial jurisdiction of felonies committed in the county where the dead body of such deceased person is found. If, upon consideration of such report and upon such further investigation of the facts and circumstances surrounding the death as such judge, prosecuting attorney or assistant prosecuting attorney may deem necessary, the said judge, prosecuting attorney or assistant prosecuting attorney finds that there is reasonable ground for believing that such death was caused by the criminal act or the criminal negligence of another, and further finds that an inquest is necessary, he shall direct that the coroner forthwith cause a coroner's jury to be summoned to be and appear before him, at a specified time and place, to inquire, after a view of the dead body, how and in what manner and by whom the deceased came to death. The coroner shall, forthwith upon being directed as aforesaid, or when directed pursuant to subsection (4) of §936.02 make out his warrant, which warrant shall state the grounds upon which it is believed that death was caused by the criminal act or criminal negligence of another and recite the order and direction for impaneling a jury and be directed to the constable of the district, if there be one, and if not, then to any constable of the county or to the sheriff, directing that he forthwith summons a coroner's jury to be and appear before the said coroner, at the time and place therein to be named, to inquire how and in what manner and by whom the deceased came to his death.

(2) The report of the preliminary inquiry, by the coroner to the judge, prosecuting attorney or assistant prosecuting attorney, may be made by mail, by telephone or by telegram confirmed by mail, and the direction for holding the inquest may likewise be given. A copy of the direction for holding the inquest shall be attached to the coroner's cost bill and no cost bill shall be approved or paid unless and until a copy of such direction is attached as aforesaid.

History.—§6, ch. 52, 1845; §1, ch. 3116, 1879; RS 3011; §1, ch. 4543, 1897; GS 4087; RGS 6191; CGL 8521; am. §3, ch. 21965, 1943; sub. §(1) am. §10, ch. 26484, 1951.

936.04 Coroner's jury; number.—A coroner's jury shall consist of six good and lawful men of the justice's district wherein the dead body is found.

History.—§1, ch. 3116, 1879; RS 3012; GS 4088; RGS 6192; CGL 8522; am. §4, ch. 21965, 1943.

936.05 Return of warrant requiring sheriff to summon jurors.—Every officer to whom such warrant shall be delivered or directed shall forthwith execute the same, and shall repair to the place where the dead body is, at the time mentioned, and make return of the warrant, with his proceedings thereon, to the coroner who granted the same.

History.—§7, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3013; GS 4089; RGS 6193; CGL 8523.

936.06 Penalty for failure of constable to execute warrant or juror to appear.—Every constable or other officer failing to execute such warrant, or to return the same as aforesaid, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, and every person summoned as a juror aforesaid who shall fail to appear without having a reasonable excuse, shall forfeit any sum not exceeding ten dollars, which fines shall be recovered by an action of debt in the name of the state before any justice of the peace in the proper district, and shall be applied to the use of the county school fund.

History.—§8, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3014; GS 4090; RGS 6194; CGL 8524.

936.07 Oath of jurors.—The coroner shall administer an oath to the six jurors; to the foreman first, in the following manner: "You do solemnly swear or affirm (as the case may be) that you will diligently inquire and true presentment make how and in what manner and by whom A. B. who here lies dead, came to his death, and you will deliver to me, a coroner of this county, a true inquest thereon, according to such evidence as shall be laid before you and according to the best of your knowledge; so help you God."

The other jurors shall swear in the following form: "Such oath as your foreman has now taken before you on his part you and each of you will keep and observe on your respective parts; so help you God."

History.—§§9, 10, ch. 52, 1845; §1, ch. 3116, 1879; RS 3015; GS 4091; RGS 6195; CGL 8525.

936.08 Charge to jury.—The jurors being sworn, the coroner shall give them a charge upon their oaths to declare of the death of the person: whether he died of felony, mischance, or accident; if of felony, who were the principals and who were the accessories, with what instrument he was struck or wounded, and so of all prevailing circumstances which may come by presumption; if by mischance or accident, whether by the act of man or whether by hurt, fall, stroke, drowning or otherwise; also to inquire of the persons who, if any, were present, and of the friends of the deceased, his relatives and neighbors, whether he was killed in the same place where the body was found; and if elsewhere, by whom the body was brought thence, and of all other circumstances relating to said death; and if he died of his own felony, then to inquire the manner, means or instrument, and of all other circumstances concerning such death.

History.—§11, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3016; GS 4092; RGS 6196; CGL 8526.

936.09 Proclamation for witnesses.—The jury, being charged, shall stand together, and proclamation shall be made for any person who can give evidence to draw near and they shall be heard.

History.—§12, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3017; GS 4093; RGS 6197; CGL 8527.

936.10 Witnesses; warrant, oath, etc.—Every coroner may send his warrant for witnesses to be served by a constable, commanding them to come before him to be examined and to declare their knowledge concerning the matter in question. The coroner shall administer an oath or affirmation to them in the following form: "You do solemnly swear that the evidence you shall give to the inquest concerning the death of A. B. here lying dead shall be the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth; so help you God."

The evidence of such witnesses shall be in writing, subscribed by them, and if it relate to the trial of any person concerned in the death, the coroner shall bind such witnesses by recognizances in a reasonable sum for their personal appearance at the next term of the proper court to be holden within the same county, there to give evidence accordingly, and commit to the common jail of said county any witnesses refusing to enter into such recognizances; and he shall return to the same court such inquisition, written evidence and recognizances by him taken.

History.—§§13, 14, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3018; GS 4094; RGS 6198; CGL 8528.

936.11 Medical testimony.—Whenever a jury of inquest shall deem it necessary to have a physician in attendance to assist them in their examination, the coroner shall summon such physician. The jurors shall not request the coroner to summon a physician to assist them in their examination until after they shall have been empaneled and sworn and made an examination of the body, and then, not until they shall have come to the conclusion that it is absolutely necessary to have a physician to assist them in their further examination. No coroner shall summon a physician until he shall be requested as aforesaid. If any physician shall otherwise attend such inquest, he shall not be paid by the county therefor, and the jury shall state the fact in their verdict whether or not they requested the attendance of a physician, or whether or not a physician accordingly attended, and the name of the physician. A duplicate of the verdict shall be filed in the clerk's office of the circuit court of the county where the inquest was held.

History.—§1, ch. 639, 1855; §1, ch. 1109, 1861; RS 3019; GS 4095; RGS 6199; CGL 8529.

936.12 Verdict of coroner's jury.—The jury, having viewed the body, heard the evidence and made all the inquiry within their power, shall draw up and deliver to the coroner their verdict upon the death under consideration, in writing, under their hands and seals.

The coroner shall require the jury empaneled to examine and make a report, signed and sealed by the jurors and the coroner, which shall be returned with the verdict of said jury, giving a minute and particular description of the person deceased, together with the name of the deceased, if the same can be ascertained, and the amount of money, property or other valuables found with the body of deceased.

History.—§§15, 16, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3020; GS 4096; RGS 6200; CGL 8530.

936.13 Disposition of property found on deceased.—The amount of money or other property found with the body of deceased, if there be no person entitled to take charge of the same, shall be placed in the hands of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the body may be found, and by him paid over to the person authorized to receive same, if any such person shall call therefor. The clerk, if the money aforesaid should not be called for within two years from the time of receiving the same, shall loan it out at interest to be applied to the county schools of said county.

If any coroner shall refuse or fail to pay into the hands of the clerk of any county the money or other property which comes into his hands as aforesaid, the clerk shall sue for and collect the same, in his own name, before any court having competent jurisdiction in the county.

History.—§§16, 17, 19, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3021; GS 4097; RGS 6201; CGL 8531.

936.14 Coroner to publish description of deceased.—The coroner shall publish in some public newspaper printed in or nearest to such county the name and description of the deceased, if the same can be ascertained, and the amount of money, property or other valuables found in his possession, in cases in which no person entitled thereto shall claim the same.

History.—§18, ch. 52, 1845; RS 3022; GS 4098; RGS 6202; CGL 8532.

936.15 When the coroner's warrant to issue.—In all inquisitions, when it appears to the satisfaction of the jury of inquest that a felony has been committed, the coroner holding such inquest shall forthwith upon the rendition of the verdict issue his warrant to be directed to any lawful officer to execute and return same, and to apprehend the person suspected of such felony and bring him before some justice of the peace to be dealt with according to law.

History.—§2, ch. 364, 1851; RS 3023; GS 4099; RGS 6203; CGL 8533.

936.16 Coroner's fees on inquest, etc.—The compensation of judicial officers, when acting as coroners shall be as follows:

(1) For viewing a dead body, making preliminary inquiry and report to the judge or prosecuting attorney or his assistant as required in §936.03, and in issuing death certificate where no inquest is held and where the deceased was not attended by a physician in his last illness, three dollars;

(2) For summoning a jury, holding an inquest and making return thereof, the same compensation as provided by law for sheriffs and clerks of the circuit court for similar services; twenty-five cents per one hundred words for testimony actually taken and reported, said coroner to furnish three copies of said testimony actually taken and reported for said compensation, one copy to be retained by him, one to be filed with the clerk of the circuit court and the other with the judge or prosecuting attorney directing the inquest; and five dollars per day for each day or portion thereof in addition to one, required to hold the said inquest; and,

(3) Where the coroner is required to travel, five cents per mile going and returning to his office or residence, as the case may be, for mileage actually traveled by the nearest and most practical route. All compensation shall be paid from the general fund of the county in which the death occurred or the dead body was found.

History.—§1, ch. 10101, 1925; CGL 8536; am. §5, ch. 21965, 1943.

936.17 Physician's fees.—The compensation allowed the physician attending the coroner's inquest and making a post mortem examination, shall be ten dollars, to be paid by the county. The coroner and foreman of the inquest shall give their certificate stating the attendance of the physician, and upon its presentation, the county commissioners of the county shall order the same to be paid out of the fine and forfeiture fund.

History.—§1, ch. 639, 1855; RS 3025; GS 4101; RGS 6205; CGL 8537.

936.18 Compensation of jurors and witnesses.—Immediately after the holding of any coroner's inquest in this state, the coroner holding such inquest shall make out payrolls, in duplicate, of the jurors and witnesses serving at such inquest, according to blank forms prescribed and furnished by the comptroller of the state, which payrolls shall contain the name of each juror and witness serving at such inquest, together with the number of days served and the number of miles traveled by each, and shall be signed by each and witnessed.

The coroner or justice holding the inquest shall certify to the correctness of these payrolls and deposit them with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said inquest shall be held, and the clerk shall submit them to the board of county commissioners for their approval or disapproval. If approved by the county commissioners, one copy of the payroll shall be submitted to the comptroller for his approval, and the other copy placed on file in the clerk's office.

When the payroll shall be approved by the comptroller and the clerk notified thereof, he shall issue a certificate under the seal of his office, according to blank forms to be furnished him by the comptroller, to each juror and witness for the amount due for such service at such inquest, which certificate shall be countersigned by the chairman of the board of county commissioners, and be received by the collector of taxes in payment of taxes the same as other juror and witness certificates, but pay shall not be allowed to more than any two witnesses to any single fact to be proven at the inquest where there is not a direct conflict of testimony. Jurors and witnesses at inquests shall be paid by the county, and shall receive the same per diem and mileage as jurors and witnesses in the justice of the peace courts.

 937.09 Rendition of verdict.
 937.10 Discharge of accused on acquittal.
 937.11 Conviction and sentence.
 937.12 Execution.

937.01 Provisions for justice of peace to apply to county judge.—All the provisions of this chapter prescribing the duties of justices of the peace shall apply to and regulate the proceedings of the county judges in criminal cases.

History.—§29, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2968; GS 4041; RGS 6145; CGL 8450. cf.—§Ch. 37, Courts of justices of the peace.
 §823.01, Abatement of nuisances by justice of the peace.

937.011 Prosecuting attorneys to sign affidavits.—The prosecuting attorneys of the county judges' courts or of the county courts, as the case may be, are authorized to sign affidavits before the judge of such court where such prosecuting officer has evidence to support such affidavit for a criminal charge over which such court has jurisdiction. The judge shall issue arrest warrants upon such affidavit as is done in all other cases. This procedure shall be cumulative to all other practice and procedure before such courts.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 57-294.

937.02 Complaint and warrant.—Upon complaint made on affidavit to any justice of the peace by any person, that any offense which he has jurisdiction to try and determine has been committed within his district, he may issue a warrant in the usual form, making it returnable either before himself or before the county judge.

History.—§2, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2950; GS 4024; RGS 6128; CGL 8433.

937.03 Time of trial.—Upon the return of the warrant with the accused, the justice of the peace shall proceed to hear, try and determine the case forthwith, or shall adjourn the same to some day of the next term of his court.

History.—§2951, RS 1892; GS 4025; RGS 6129; CGL 8434.

937.04 Bail; commitment.—From the time of the return of the warrant until the time of the trial, the accused may give bail with one or more sureties, to be approved by the county judge, justice or sheriff, for his appearance at the time of the trial, in such sum as shall be named by the county judge or justice not exceeding five hundred dollars; or in the event of failure to furnish security, he 937.14 Failure of person receiving fine to pay it over.

 937.15 Persons convicted in justice of the peace or county judge's court allowed forty-eight hours to pay fine before being worked.
 937.16 Justice may summon witnesses and administer oaths.
 937.17 Disobedience to summons; refusal to testify, etc.
 937.18 Justice to keep docket.
 937.19 Inspection and final deposit of docket.

may be committed to the county jail for safe-keeping, by warrant of said judge or justice, or left in custody of the sheriff or constable.

History.—§4, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2952; §1, ch. 5138, 1903; GS 4026; RGS 6130; CGL 8435.

937.05 Arraignment and plea.—The charge made against the accused, as stated in the complaint or warrant, shall be distinctly read to the accused, who may plead thereto, and the plea shall be entered in his docket by the justice. If the accused refuses to plead, the justice shall enter the fact, with a plea of not guilty in behalf of the accused, in his docket. If the accused shall plead guilty to such charge, the justice of the peace shall thereupon enter such plea upon his docket, give judgement upon same and enter such judgment upon his docket.

History.—§§5, 6, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2953; GS 4027; RGS 6131; CGL 8436; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

937.06 Trial by jury.—Issues of fact shall be tried by jury. If the cause be tried in term, it shall be tried as other jury causes are tried, but if it be tried out of term, the justice shall direct the sheriff or constable to summon and return forthwith six qualified persons to act as jurors. The officer shall summon them personally, and shall return a list of the persons summoned. If the number for any cause be deficient, the justice shall supply the deficiency by directing the officer to summon bystanders, or others who may be competent to act as jurors.

History.—§§7, 8, 9, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2954; GS 4028; RGS 6132; CGL 8437.

937.07 New jury; summoning and selection.—If the officers to whom the venire shall have been delivered shall fail to return the same as required, or if the jury shall fail to agree and be discharged by the court, a new jury shall be selected and summoned in the same manner, and the same proceedings shall thereupon be had as prescribed in respect to the first jury.

History.—§10, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2955; GS 4029; RGS 6133; CGL 8438.

937.08 Regulations as to jury.—After the jury shall have been sworn they shall sit together and hear the proofs and allegations in the case, which shall be delivered in public and in the presence of the accused. After hearing such proofs and allegations the jury shall be kept together in some convenient place until they agree upon a verdict or are discharged by the court, and the sheriff or a constable shall be sworn to take charge of the jury in like manner as upon trials in justices' courts in civil proceedings.

History.—§12, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2956; GS 4030; RGS 6134; CGL 8439.

937.09 Rendition of verdict.—When the jurors have agreed upon their verdict they shall deliver the same to the court publicly, who shall enter it in his docket.

History.—§13, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2957; GS 4031; RGS 6135; CGL 8440.

937.10 Discharge of accused on acquittal.—Whenever the accused shall be acquitted he shall be immediately discharged.

History.—§15, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2958; GS 4032; RGS 6136; CGL 8441.

937.11 Conviction and sentence.—When the accused shall be tried under the provisions of this chapter, and found guilty by a jury, or shall be convicted of the charge made against him upon a plea of guilty, the court shall render judgment thereon, and inflict such punishment, either by fine or imprisonment, or both, as the case may require; but such punishment shall in no case exceed the limit fixed by law for the offense charged.

When any fine or costs shall be imposed by any justice upon any person convicted of any offense, unless such fine and costs shall be paid within twenty-four hours, during which time the accused shall remain in custody of an officer, such person shall be committed to the jail of the county there to be imprisoned until such fine and costs shall be paid, or until duly discharged according to law.

History.—§14, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2959; GS 4033; RGS 6137; CGL 8442.

937.12 Execution.—The judgment shall be executed by the sheriff, or any constable of the county where the conviction shall be had, by virtue of a warrant under the hand of a justice who held the court, to be directed to such officers, and specifying the particulars of such judgment.

History.—§18, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2961; GS 4034; RGS 6138; CGL 8443.

937.13 Payment of fines.—All fines imposed by any such court, if paid before the accused is committed, shall be received by the justice of the peace who constituted the court before which the accused was convicted, and by such magistrate paid over to the county depository within ten days after the receipt thereof, to be disposed of according to law.

If the accused be committed, payment of any fine imposed upon him shall be made to the sheriff of the county, who shall, within ten days after the receipt thereof, pay over the same to the county depository for the purpose aforesaid.

History.—§§19, 20, 30, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2962; GS 4035; RGS 6139; CGL 8444.

937.14 Failure of person receiving fine to pay it over.—If any person who shall receive any such fine or any part thereof shall neglect to pay over the same pursuant to the provisions of §937.13, the state attorney shall immediately commence a suit therefor and prosecute the same diligently to effect.

History.—§21, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2963; GS 4036; RGS 6140; CGL 8445.

937.15 Persons convicted in justice of the peace or county judge's court allowed forty-eight hours to pay fine before being worked.—Any person convicted of crime in the justice of the peace court or the county judge's court, who shall have a pecuniary fine or sum of money assessed or adjudged against him as punishment, may on being taken into custody by the proper officer of the court, or prior to such arrest, at any time within forty-eight hours from the time he is sentenced, pay the said fine and cost or give the bail for the payment of such fine and cost of prosecution, as provided in §921.15; and such person convicted in the justice or county judge's court, shall not be transferred or turned over to persons working the county prisoners, until the expiration of forty-eight hours from the time such person was sentenced by the court.

History.—§1, ch. 5923, 1909; §1, ch. 7856, 1919; RGS 6127; CGL 8432.

937.16 Justice may summon witnesses and administer oaths.—Any justice of the peace may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses before any court held by a justice of the peace, and may administer all necessary oaths in proceedings before such court.

History.—§22, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2964; GS 4037; RGS 6141; CGL 8446.

937.17 Disobedience to summons; refusal to testify, etc.—In case any person summoned to appear before any court held by a justice of the peace, as a juror or witness, shall fail to appear, or if any witness appearing shall refuse to be sworn or testify, he shall be liable to the same penalties and may be proceeded against in the same manner as provided by law in respect to jurors and witnesses in justice's courts in civil proceedings.

History.—§23, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2965; GS 4038; RGS 6142; CGL 8447.

937.18 Justice to keep docket.—Every justice of the peace shall enter in his docket the title of all criminal cases brought before him, the time when the first process was issued, the service and return thereof, all adjournments, the time and manner of the trial, or other disposition of the case, the judgment or sentence, including the costs allowed, the names of all witnesses and jurors sworn on the trial, the time of issuing warrants of commitment, the payment of all fines and costs which shall be paid into the hands of the justice, with the date thereof, and all other proceedings had by and before the justice of the peace relative to each case, and he shall sign his name thereto after rendering judgment.

History.—§27, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2966; GS 4039; RGS 6143; CGL 8448.

937.19 Inspection and final deposit of docket.—Every such docket shall be kept subject to the inspection of the sheriff and his deputies, the clerk of the circuit court, county commissioners and state attorneys, and at the end of the term of office of the justice of the peace he shall turn over to his successor forthwith all dockets, books, papers and effects in his possession pertaining to his office in the manner set forth in §81.31.

History.—§28, ch. 2093, 1877; RS 2967; GS 4040; RGS 6144; CGL 8449.

cf.—§839.14, Penalty for withholding records from successor.

CHAPTER 939

- 939.01 Judgment for costs on conviction.
- 939.02 Costs before committing magistrate.
- 939.03 Execution for costs in capital cases.
- 939.04 Execution for costs in other cases.
- 939.05 Insolvent defendant discharged without payment of costs.
- 939.06 Acquitted defendant not liable for costs.
- 939.07 Pay of defendant's witnesses.
- 939.08 Costs to be certified by county commissioners before audit.
- 939.09 Sheriff's mileage.

939.01 Judgment for costs on conviction.—In all cases of conviction for crime the costs of prosecution shall be included and entered up in the judgment rendered against the convicted person.

History.—§1, ch. 76, 1846; RS 2983; GS 4057; RGS 6161; CGL 8476.

cf.—§58.10, Refund of costs to counties in certain proceedings relating to state convicts.

§142.16, Change of venue, county payable.

§902.19, When prosecutor liable for costs.

939.02 Costs before committing magistrate.—All costs accruing before a committing magistrate shall be taxed against the defendant on conviction or estreat of recognizance.

History.—§3, ch. 1949, 1873; RS 2984; GS 4058; RGS 6162; CGL 8476.

939.03 Execution for costs in capital cases.—In all capital cases the costs in case of conviction shall be entered up against the prisoner, and the bill of costs, when taxed by the clerk and certified in the manner required by law to give a bill of costs the force of an execution, shall have the force of an execution, and may be levied upon any property of the prisoner found in the state. If the sheriff shall return said bill to the office of the clerk and make affidavit thereon that sufficient property cannot be found to pay the same, and shall state in the affidavit the amount left unpaid after exhausting all the property found, the bill, or the balance unpaid thereon, shall then be audited according to law and such amount shall be paid out of the county treasury.

History.—§7, ch. 159, 1848; RS 2985; GS 4059; RGS 6163; CGL 8477.

939.04 Execution for costs in other cases.—In all cases less than capital, wherein the defendant may be adjudged to pay costs, a capias may be issued, as is provided for the collection of fines and forfeitures.

History.—§5, ch. 217, 1849; RS 2986; GS 4060; RGS 6164; CGL 8478.

939.05 Insolvent defendant discharged without payment of costs.—In all cases less than capital, when it appears from due proof made in open court that the person convicted is wholly unable to pay costs, and that the judgment has in other respects been complied with, the court before which such person was convicted may discharge him without the payment of costs.

History.—§2, ch. 76, 1846; RS 2987; GS 4061; RGS 6165; CGL 8479.

cf.—§9, art. XVI, Florida constitution.

- 939.10 Duty of board of county commissioners.
- 939.11 Unnecessary charge for confining prisoner not to be allowed.
- 939.12 Cost against state in supreme court.
- 939.13 Power of comptroller.
- 939.14 County not to pay costs in cases where information is not filed or indictment found.
- 939.15 Costs paid by county in cases of insolvency.
- 939.16 Prepayment may be required in courts of county judges, etc.

939.06 Acquitted defendant not liable for costs.—No defendant in a criminal prosecution who is acquitted or discharged shall be liable for any costs or fees of the court or any ministerial office, or for any charge of subsistence while detained in custody. If he shall have paid any taxable costs in the case, the clerk or justice shall give him a certificate of the payment of such costs, with the items thereof, which, when audited and approved according to law, shall be refunded to him by the county.

History.—§3, ch. 76, 1846; RS 2988; GS 4062; RGS 6166; CGL 8480.

cf.—§9, art. XVI, Florida constitution.

939.07 Pay of defendant's witnesses.—In all criminal cases prosecuted in the name of the state in the circuit courts or criminal courts of record in this state where the defendant is insolvent or discharged, the county shall pay the legal expenses and costs, as is prescribed for the payment of costs incurred by the county in the prosecution of such cases; provided, that there shall not be more than two witnesses summoned and paid to prove the same fact; and provided further, that before any witness is subpoenaed on behalf of a defendant in the circuit or criminal court an application shall be made to the judge, in writing, on behalf of the defendant, setting forth the substance of the facts sought to be proved by the witness or witnesses, making affidavit that the defendant is insolvent, and if upon such showing the judge is satisfied that the witness or witnesses are necessary for the proper defense of the defendant, he shall order that subpoena issue, and that the costs as herein provided shall be paid by the county, and not otherwise. The provisions of this section shall not apply to any courts other than the circuit courts and the criminal courts of record.

History.—§1, chs. 5131 and 5132, 1903; GS 4063; RGS 6167; CGL 8481.

cf.—§932.36, Compensation of witnesses for insolvent defendants, justice of the peace courts and county judges' courts.

§932.37, In other courts.

939.08 Costs to be certified by county commissioners before audit.—In all cases wherein any officer, juror, defendant, witness or other person claims the payment of any fee, costs, per diem or other compensation from the county in or on account of any case or matter in a court of a justice of the peace which is payable by the county, and in all cases wherein is claimed the payment of bills of costs, fees or expenses, other than juror and witness fees, in the prosecution of any criminal case in other courts, which are payable by the county, an itemized bill or statement thereof shall be submitted to the county commissioners of the county in which such courts are held, and the same shall not be paid until the board of county commissioners shall have approved it and certified thereon that the same is just, correct and reasonable, and that no unnecessary or illegal item is contained therein.

History.—§§3, 5, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2989; GS 4064; RGS 6168; CGL 8482.
cf.—§142.10, Officer to make out accounts as directed.

939.09 Sheriff's mileage.—Every sheriff, in presenting a bill for mileage against the state or county, shall certify that no constructive mileage is charged therein.

History.—§7, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2990; GS 4065; RGS 6169; CGL 8483.
cf.—§902.19, Mileage when sheriff summoned to testify in county in which he holds office.

939.10 Duty of board of county commissioners.—The board of county commissioners, before approving any bill against the state or county, shall ascertain that no constructive mileage, or charge for anything but actual miles necessarily traveled by the nearest route, or actual and necessary services, or actual and necessary expenses which may be chargeable against the state or county, is contained therein.

History.—§7, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2991; GS 4066; RGS 6170; CGL 8484.

939.11 Unnecessary charge for confining prisoner not to be allowed.—No charge for rent of any house for confining a prisoner, or for guarding a prisoner, any longer than may be necessary for transferring such prisoner to jail or place of safekeeping, or during the session of court at which such prisoner shall be arraigned, or to which he may be brought for trial, shall be allowed against the state or county.

History.—§6, ch. 159, 1848; RS 2992; GS 4067; RGS 6171; CGL 8485.

939.12 Cost against state in supreme court.—The clerk of the supreme court shall give, upon application, a certified copy of any judgment against the state upon appeal in criminal cases, and the county commissioners of the county from the court of which such appeal was taken shall pay the same to the appellant, or his agent or attorney, on demand.

History.—§1, ch. 3266, 1881; RS 2993; GS 4068; RGS 6172; CGL 8486.

939.13 Power of comptroller.—The comptroller may audit and approve or disapprove any claim or any item thereof against the state for costs, fees or expenses of criminal cases prosecuted in the name of the state, and for which the state is liable, if he is satisfied that the same is legal, just, necessary and correct or otherwise, and may prescribe forms and methods for the same. The comptroller shall not dispense with any of the requirements of law relative to the auditing and payment of such accounts, but he may prescribe additional requirements.

History.—§8, ch. 3702, 1887; RS 2995; GS 4069; RGS 6173; CGL 8487.

939.14 County not to pay costs in cases where information is not filed or indictment found.—When a committing magistrate holds to bail or commits any person to answer a criminal charge in a county court, a criminal court of record, or a circuit court, and an information is not filed nor an indictment found against such person, the costs of such committing trial shall not be paid by the county, except the costs for executing the warrant.

History.—§1, ch. 4123, 1893; GS 4070; RGS 6174; CGL 8488.
cf.—§142.09 Defendant not convicted, or dies.

939.15 Costs paid by county in cases of insolvency.—When the defendant in any criminal case pending in any circuit or criminal court or the supreme court of this state has been adjudged insolvent by the circuit judge or the judge of the criminal court, upon affidavit and proof as required by §924.17 in cases of appeal, or when the defendant is discharged or the judgment reversed, the costs allowed by law shall be paid by the county in which the crime was committed, upon presentation to the county commissioners of a certified copy of the judgment of the court against such county for such costs.

History.—Ch. 4401, 1895; GS 4071; RGS 6175; CGL 8489.
cf.—§58.10, Refunding costs paid by county in certain proceedings affecting state prisoners.

939.16 Prepayment may be required in courts of county judges, etc.—In all cases justices of the peace and county judges in this state shall require payment in advance or security for costs of process, service of the same, and of examination, unless the party applying for a warrant shall make an affidavit of insolvency and of substantial injury to person or property by him suffered, in which case process shall issue without payment of costs.

History.—§2, ch. 1949, 1873; §1, ch. 3128, 1879; RS 2843, 2844, 2996; GS 4072; §1, ch. 5651, 1907; RGS 6176; CGL 8490.

940.02 Notice to be given.
940.03 Form of application.

940.01 Governor to have power of suspension and reprieve.—The governor may suspend the collection of fines and forfeitures, and grant reprieves for a period not exceeding sixty days, dating from the time of conviction, for all offenses, except in cases of impeachment.

Upon conviction for treason, he may suspend the execution of sentence until the case shall be reported to the legislature, at its next session, when the legislature shall either pardon, direct the execution of the sentence or grant a further reprieve; and if the legislature shall fail or refuse to make final disposition of such case the sentence shall be enforced at such time and place as the governor may by his order direct.

The governor shall communicate to the legislature, at the beginning of every session, every case of fine and forfeiture remitted or reprieved, pardon or commutation granted, stating the name of the convict, the crime for which he was convicted, the sentence, its date and the date of its remission, commutation, pardon or reprieve.

History.—§2997, RS 1892; GS 4073; RGS 6177; CGL 8491. cf.—§11, art. IV, Const. Reprieves, suspensions of fines, etc.

940.02 Notice to be given.—When any person intends to apply for the remission of any fine or forfeiture, or the commutation of any punishment, or for a pardon, he shall cause to be posted for the period of ten days, at the court house door and in two or more other places in the county where the offense for which the fine, forfeiture, punishment, penalty or sentence sought to be remitted, commuted or pardoned shall have been committed, or to be published for such period in a newspaper in said county, a notice that he will make application, one copy of which shall, except when published in a newspaper, be posted in the neighborhood or settlement where the same was committed. Such notice shall state the nature of the charge or offense of which he was convicted, and the time or term of the court when convicted.

History.—§1, ch. 3018, 1877; RS 2998; GS 4074; RGS 6178; CGL 8492.

940.03 Form of application.—All applications for remission, commutation or pardon shall be in writing and accompanied by a copy of the indictment or information upon which the conviction was had, a statement of the facts testified to at the trial, such other papers as the applicant may desire, a copy of the notice provided for in this chapter, and proof by affidavit that such notice was posted or published for the period aforesaid, stating the period during which and the points at which it was so posted or published.

History.—§2, ch. 3018, 1877; RS 2999; GS 4075; RGS 6179; CGL 8493.

940.04 Copy of information or indictment to be furnished without charge.—The clerk or justice of the peace shall furnish said copy of indictment or information to any applicant for the same, free of charge and without delay.

History.—§3, ch. 3018, 1877; RS 3000; GS 4076; RGS 6180; CGL 8494.

940.05 Pardon restores rights of citizenship.—All persons who have received or who may receive full pardon from the board of pardons shall be entitled to all the rights of citizenship enjoyed by them before their conviction, whether the pardon is granted before or after the expiration of the sentence or payment of the penalty.

941.01 Definition.—Where appearing in this chapter, the term "governor" includes any person performing the functions of governor by authority of the law of this state. The term "executive authority" includes the governor, and any person performing the functions of governor in a state other than this state. The term "state", referring to a state other than this state, includes any other state or territory, organized or unorganized, of the United States.

History.—§1, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.02 Fugitives from justice; duty of governor.—Subject to the provisions of this chapter, the provisions of the constitution of the United States controlling, and any and all acts of congress enacted in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the governor of this state to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other state of the United States any person charged in that state with treason, felony, or other crime, who has fled from justice and is found in this state.

History.—§2, ch. 20460, 1941.
cf.—§88.061 Interstate rendition.

941.03 Form of demand.—No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another state shall be recognized by the governor unless in writing alleging, except in cases arising under §941.06, that the accused was present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that thereafter he fled from the state, and accompanied by an authenticated copy of an indictment found or by information supported by affidavit in the state having jurisdiction of the crime, or by a copy of a warrant supported by an affidavit made before a committing magistrate of the demanding state; or by a copy of a judgment of conviction or of a sentence imposed in execution thereof, together with a statement by the executive authority of the demanding state that the person claimed has escaped from confinement or has broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that state; and the copy of indictment, information, affidavit, judgment of conviction or sentence must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand.

History.—§3, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.04 Governor may investigate case.—When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this state by the executive authority of another state for the surrender of a person so charged with crime, the governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this state to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered.

History.—§4, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.05 Extradition of persons imprisoned or awaiting trial in another state or who have left the demanding state under compulsion.—When it is desired to have returned to this state a person charged in this state with a crime, and such person is imprisoned or is held under criminal proceedings then pending against him in another state, the governor of this state may agree with the executive authority of such other state for the extradition of such person before the conclusion of such proceedings or his term of sentence in such other state, upon condition that such person be returned to such other state at the expense of this state as soon as the prosecution in this state is terminated.

The governor of this state may also surrender on demand of the executive authority of any other state any person in this state who is charged in the manner provided in §941.23 with having violated the laws of the state whose executive authority is making the demand, even though such person left the demanding state involuntarily.

History.—§5, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.06 Extradition of persons not present in demanding state at time of commission of crime.—The governor of this state may also surrender, on demand of the executive authority of any other state, any person in this state charged in such other state in the manner provided in §941.03 with committing an act in this state, or in a third state, intentionally resulting in a crime in the state whose executive authority is making the demand, and the provisions of this chapter not otherwise inconsistent, shall apply to such cases, even though the accused was not in that state at the time of the commission of the crime, and has not fled therefrom.

History.—§6, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.07 Issue of governor's warrant of arrest; its recitals.—If the governor decides that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the state seal, and be directed to any peace officer or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof. The warrant shall be sufficient if it substantially recites facts to show that an extraditable crime has been committed under the laws of the demanding state.

History.—§7, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.08 Manner and place of execution.—Such warrant shall authorize the peace officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any time and any place where he may be found within the state and to command the aid of all peace officers or other persons in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused, subject to the provisions of this chapter, to the duly authorized agent of the demanding state.

History.—§8, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.09 Authority of arresting officer.—Every such peace officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority, in arresting the accused, to command assistance therein, as peace officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them, with like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

History.—§9, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.10 Rights of accused person; application for writ of habeas corpus.—No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he shall first be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this state, who shall inform him of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand and procure legal counsel; and if the prisoner or his counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of his arrest, the judge of such court of record shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. When such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the state attorney or county solicitor or both if they are both of the county in which the arrest is made, and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding state.

History.—§10, ch. 20460, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

941.11 Penalty for non-compliance with preceding section.—Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding state a person in his custody under the governor's warrant, in wilful disobedience to the last section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, on conviction, shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both.

History.—§11, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.12 Confinement in jail when necessary.—The officer or persons executing the governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding state to whom the prisoner may have been delivered, may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the legal sufficiency of his arrest has been determined by the court and the officer or person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route; such officer or person shall pay the jailer holding the prisoner, the costs of his jailing and keeping.

The officer or agent of a demanding state to whom a prisoner may have been delivered following extradition proceedings in another state, or to whom a prisoner may have been delivered after waiving extradition in such other state, and who is passing through this state with such a prisoner for the purpose of immediately returning such prisoner to the demanding state may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the officer or agent having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such officer or agent, however, being chargeable with the expense of keeping; provided, however, that such officer or agent shall produce and show to the keeper of such jail satisfactory written evidence of the fact that he is actually transporting such prisoner to the demanding state after a requisition by the executive authority of such demanding state. Such prisoner shall not be entitled to demand a new requisition while in this state.

History.—§12, ch. 20460, 1941; §24, ch. 57-1.

941.13 Arrest prior to requisition.—Whenever any person within this state shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or magistrate of this state with the commission of any crime in any other state, and except in cases arising under §941.06 with having fled from justice or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or magistrate in this state setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another state that a crime has been committed in such other state and that the accused has been charged in such state with the commission of the crime, and, except in cases arising under §941.06, has fled from justice, or with having been convicted of a crime in that state and having escaped from confinement, or having broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, and is believed to be in this state, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to any peace officer commanding him to apprehend the person named therein, wherever he may be found in this state, and to bring him before the same or any other judge, magistrate or court who or which may be available in or convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit, and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

History.—§13, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.14 Arrest without a warrant.—The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by any peace officer or a private person, without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged in the courts of a state with a crime punishable by death or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the preceding section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant.

History.—§14, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.15 Commitment to await requisition; bail.—If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged and, except in cases arising under §941.06 that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must, by a warrant reciting the accusation, commit him to the county jail for such a time not exceeding thirty days and specified in the warrant, as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the state having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged.

History.—§15, ch. 20460, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

941.16 Bail; in what cases; conditions of bond.—Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the state in which it was committed, a judge or other judicial officer having power of commitment in this state may admit the person arrested to bail by bond, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, conditioned for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the governor of this state.

History.—§16, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.17 Extension of time of commitment, adjournment.—If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant or bond, a judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him for a further period not to exceed sixty days, or a judge or magistrate judge may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in §941.16, but within a period not to exceed sixty days after the date of such new bond.

History.—§17, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.18 Forfeiture of bail.—If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the conditions of his bond, the judge, or magistrate by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited and order his immediate arrest without warrant if he be within this state. Recovery may be had on such bond in the name of the state as in the case of other bonds given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this state.

History.—§18, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.19 Persons under criminal prosecution in this state at time of requisition.—If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this state and is still pending, the governor, in his discretion, either may surrender him on demand of the executive authority of another state or hold him until he has been tried and discharged or convicted and punished in this state.

History.—§19, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.20 Guilt or innocence of accused when inquired into.—The guilt or innocence of the accused as to the crime of which he is charged may not be inquired into by the governor or in any proceeding after the demand for extradition accompanied by a charge of crime in legal form as above provided shall have been presented to the governor, except as it may be involved in identifying the person held as the person charged with the crime.

History.—§20, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.21 Governor may recall warrant or issue alias.—The governor may recall his warrant or warrants of arrest or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper.

History.—§21, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.22 Fugitives from this state; duty of governors.—Whenever the governor of this state shall demand a person charged with crime or with escaping from confinement or breaking the terms of his bail, probation, or parole in this state, from the executive authority of any other state, or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the supreme court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this state, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this state in which the offense was committed.

History.—§22, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.23 Application for issuance of requisition; by whom made; contents.—

(1) When the return to this state of a person charged with crime in this state is required, the bailiff or state attorney or county solicitor or other prosecuting attorney shall present to the governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, the approximate time, place and circumstances of its commission, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein, at the time the application is made and certifying that, in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this state for trial and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim.

(2) When the return to this state is required of a person who has been convicted of a crime in this state and has escaped from confinement or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the parole board, or the warden of the institution or sheriff of the county, from which escape was made, shall present to the governor a written application for a requisition for the return of such person, in which application shall be stated the name of the person, the crime of which he was convicted, the circumstances of his escape from confinement or of the breach of the terms of his bail, probation or parole, the state in which he is believed to be, including the location of the person therein at the time application is made.

(3) The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the judge or magistrate, stating the offense with which the accused is charged, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence. The prosecuting officer, parole board, warden or sheriff may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he shall deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application, with the action of the governor indicated by endorsement thereon, and one of the certified copies of the indictment, complaint, information, and affidavits, or of the judgment of conviction or of the sentence shall be filed in the office of the secretary of the state, to remain of record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the governor's requisition.

History.—§23, ch. 20460, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

941.24 Costs and expenses.—The costs and expenses of confinement of persons convicted in this state after extradition shall be paid as now or hereafter provided by law.

History.—§24, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.25 Immunity from service of process in certain civil actions.—A person brought into this state by, or after waiver of, extradition based on a criminal charge shall not be subject to service of personal process in civil actions arising out of the same facts as the criminal proceedings to answer which he is being or has been returned, until he has been convicted in the criminal proceeding, or, if acquitted, until he has had reasonable opportunity to return to the state from which he was extradited.

History.—§25, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.26 Written waiver of extradition proceedings.—Any person arrested in this state charged with having committed any crime in another state or alleged to have escaped from confinement, or broken the terms of his bail, probation or parole may waive the issuance and service of the warrant provided for in §§941.07 and 941.08 and all other procedure incidental to extradition proceedings, by executing or subscribing in the presence of a judge of any court of record within this state a writing which states that he consents to return to the demanding state; provided, however, that before such waiver shall be executed or subscribed by such person it shall be the duty of such judge to inform such person of his rights to the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition and to obtain a writ of habeas corpus as provided for in §941.10.

If and when such consent has been duly executed it shall forthwith be forwarded to the office of the governor of this state and filed therein. The judge shall direct the officer having such person in custody to deliver forthwith such person to the duly accredited agent or agents of the demanding state, and shall deliver a copy of such consent; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall be deemed to limit the rights of the accused person to return voluntarily and without formality to the demanding state, nor shall this waiver procedure be deemed to be an exclusive procedure or to limit the powers, rights or duties of the officers of the demanding state or of this state.

History.—§25-A, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.27 Non-waiver by this state.—Nothing in this chapter contained shall be deemed to constitute a waiver by this state of its right, power or privilege to try such demanded person for crime committed within this state, or of its right, power or privilege to regain custody of such person by extradition proceedings or otherwise for the purpose of trial, sentence or punishment for any crime committed within this state, nor shall any proceedings had under this chapter which result in, or fail to result in, extradition be deemed a waiver by this state of any of its rights, privileges or jurisdiction in any way whatsoever.

History.—§25-B, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.28 No right of asylum; no immunity from other criminal prosecutions while in this state.—After a person has been brought back to this state by, or after waiver of extradition proceedings, he may be tried in this state for other crimes which he may be charged with having committed here as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

History.—§26, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.29 Interpretation.—The provisions of §§941.01-941.30 shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purposes to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—§27, ch. 20460, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

941.30 Short title.—§§941.01-941.29 may be cited as the uniform criminal extradition law.

History.—§30, ch. 20460, 1941.

941.31 Fresh pursuit; authority of officers of other states; etc.—Any duly authorized state, county or municipal arresting officer of another state of the United States who enters this state in fresh pursuit, and continues within this state in such fresh pursuit, of a person in order to arrest him on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in such other state, shall have the same authority to arrest and hold such person in custody, as has any authorized arresting officer, state, county or municipal, of this state, to arrest and hold in custody a person on the ground that he is believed to have committed a felony in this state.

History.—§1, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.32 Fresh pursuit; arrest; etc.—If an arrest is made in this state by an officer of another state in accordance with the provisions of §941.31 he shall without unnecessary delay take the person so arrested before a justice of the peace, county judge or other judicial officer having jurisdiction of commitment, of the county in which the arrest was made, who shall conduct a hearing for the purpose of determining the lawfulness of the arrest. If the magistrate or other committing judicial officer determines that the arrest was lawful he shall commit the person arrested to await for a reasonable time the issuance of an extradition warrant by the governor of this state, or admit him to bail for such purpose. If the magistrate or other committing judicial officer determines that the arrest was unlawful he shall discharge the person arrested.

History.—§2, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.33 Fresh pursuit; validity of arrest.—§941.31 shall not be construed so as to make unlawful any arrest in this state which would otherwise be lawful.

History.—§3, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.34 Definition of "state".—For the purpose of this law the word "state" shall include the District of Columbia.

History.—§4, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.35 Definition of "fresh pursuit".—The term "fresh pursuit" as used in this law shall include fresh pursuit as defined by the common law, and also the pursuit of a person who has committed a felony or who is reasonably suspected of having committed a felony. It shall also include the pursuit of a person suspected of having committed a supposed felony, though no felony has actually been committed, if there is reasonable ground for believing that a felony has been committed. Fresh pursuit as used herein shall not necessarily imply instant pursuit, but pursuit without unreasonable delay.

History.—§5, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.36 Duty of secretary of state.—Upon the passage and approval by the governor of this law it shall be the duty of the secretary of state (or other officer) to certify a copy of this law to the executive department of each of the states of the United States.

History.—§6, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.37 Short title.—§§941.31-941.36 may be cited as the uniform law on fresh pursuit.

History.—§8, ch. 20461, 1941.

941.38 Extradition of persons alleged to be of unsound mind.—A person alleged to be of unsound mind found in this state, who has fled from another state, in which at the time of his flight, he was under detention by law in a hospital, asylum, or other institution for the insane as a person of unsound mind; or he had been heretofore determined by legal proceedings to be of unsound mind, the finding being unreversed and in full force and effect, and the control of his person having been acquired by a court of competent jurisdiction of the state from which he fled; or he was subject to detention in such state, being then his legal domicile (personal service of process having been made) based on legal proceedings then pending to have him declared of unsound mind, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up to be removed thereto.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.39 Same; definitions.—In this chapter, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

"Flight" or "fled" means any voluntary or involuntary departure from the jurisdiction of the court where the proceedings hereinafter mentioned may have been instituted and are still pending, with the effect of avoiding, impounding, or delaying the action of the court in which said proceedings may have been instituted or be pending, or any such departure from the state where the person demanded then was, if he then was under detention by law as a person of unsound mind and subject to detention.

"State" means states, territories, districts and insular and other possessions of the United States.

"Justice of supreme court of district of Columbia" as applied to a request to return any person within the purview of this chapter to or from the district of Columbia shall be included and have the same meaning as the terms "executive authority," "governor" and "chief magistrate."

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.40 Same; procedure; limitation of detention; costs.—Whenever the executive authority of any state demands of the executive authority of this state any fugitive within the purview of the preceding section, and produces a copy of the commitment, decree of other judicial process and proceeding, certified as authentic by the governor or chief magistrate of the state whence the person so charged has fled, with an affidavit made before a proper officer showing the person to be such a fugitive, it shall be the duty of the executive authority of this state to cause him to be apprehended and secured, if found in this state, and to cause immediate notice of the apprehension to be given to the executive authority making such demand, or to the agent of such authority appointed to receive the fugitive and to cause the fugitive to be delivered to such agent when he shall appear.

Any agent so appointed who receives the fugitive into custody shall be empowered to transmit him to the state from which he has fled.

If no such agent appears within thirty days from the time of the apprehension, the fugitive may be discharged.

All costs and expenses incurred in the apprehending, securing, maintaining, and transmitting such fugitive to the state making such demand, shall be paid by such state.

History.—Comp. §§3-6, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.41 Same; governor to demand.—The governor is vested with the power, on the application of any person interested, to demand the return to this state of any fugitive within the purview of this statute.

History.—Comp. §7, ch. 29686, 1955.

941.42 Same; purpose of law.—This law is remedial and shall be in addition and as a supplement to any and all existing methods of procedure, including reciprocal agreements between this state and any other state for the transfer of persons of unsound mind; and shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it.

History.—Comp. §§8, 9, ch. 29686, 1955.

CHAPTER 942

INTERSTATE EXTRADITION OF WITNESSES

942.01 Definitions.

942.02 Summoning witness in this state to testify in another state.

942.03 Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state.

942.04 Exemption from arrest and service of process.

942.05 Uniformity of interpretation.

942.06 Short title.

942.01 Definitions.—"Witness"—as used in this chapter shall include a person whose testimony is desired in any proceeding or investigation by a grand jury or in a criminal action, prosecution or proceeding held by the prosecution or the defense.

The word "state" shall include any territory of the United States and District of Columbia.

The word "summons" shall include a subpoena, order or other notice requiring the appearance of a witness.

History.—§1, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.02 Summoning witness in this state to testify in another state.—

(1) If a judge of a court of record in any state which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within that state to attend and testify in this state certifies under the seal of such court that there is a criminal prosecution pending in such court, or that a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, that a person being within this state is a material witness in such prosecution, or grand jury investigation, and that his presence will be required for a specified number of days, upon presentation of such certificate to any judge of a court of record in the county in which such person is, such judge shall fix a time and place for a hearing, and shall make an order directing the witness to appear at a time and place certain for the hearing. The witness shall at all times be entitled to counsel.

(2) If at a hearing the judge determines that the witness is material and necessary, that it will not cause undue hardship to the witness to be compelled to attend and testify in the prosecution or a grand jury investigation in the other state, and that the laws of the state in which the prosecution is pending, or grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence, will give to him protection from arrest and the service of civil and criminal process, he shall issue a summons, with a copy of the certificate attached, directing the witness to attend and testify in the court where the prosecution is pending, or where a grand jury investigation has commenced or is about to commence at a time and place specified in the summons. In any such hearing the certificate shall be prima facie evidence of all the facts stated therein.

(3) If said certificate recommends that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state to assure his attendance in the requesting state, such judge may, in lieu of notification of the hearing, direct that such witness be forthwith brought before him for said hearing; and the judge at the hearing being satisfied of the desirability of such custody and delivery, for which determination the certificate shall be prima facie proof of such desirability may, in lieu of issuing subpoena or summons, order that said witness be forthwith taken in custody and delivered to an officer of the requesting state.

(4) If the witness, who is summoned as above provided, after being paid or tendered by some properly authorized person the sum of ten cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending and five dollars for each day, that he is required to travel and attend as a witness, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

History.—§2, ch. 20458, 1941; (2) a. by §1, ch. 61-491.

942.03 Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state.—

(1) If a person in any state, which by its laws has made provision for commanding persons within its borders to attend and testify in criminal prosecutions, or grand jury investigations commenced or about to commence, in this state, is a material witness in a prosecution pending in a court of record in this state, or in a grand jury investigation which has commenced or is about to commence, a judge of such court may issue a certificate under the seal of the court stating these facts and specifying the number of days the witness will be required. Said certificate may include a recommendation that the witness be taken into immediate custody and delivered to an officer of this state to assure his attendance in this state. This certificate shall be presented to a judge of a court of record in the county in which the witness is found.

(2) If the witness is summoned to attend and testify in this state he shall be tendered the sum of ten cents a mile for each mile by the ordinary traveled route to and from the court where the prosecution is pending, and five dollars for each day that he is required to travel and attend as a witness. A witness who has appeared in accordance with the provisions of the summons shall not be required to remain within this state a longer period of time than the period mentioned in the certificate, unless otherwise ordered by the court. If such witness, after coming into this state, fails without good cause to attend and testify as directed in the summons, he shall be punished in the manner provided for the punishment of any witness who disobeys a summons issued from a court of record in this state.

History.—§3, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.04 Exemption from arrest and service of process.—

(1) If a person comes into this state in obedience to a summons directing him to attend and testify in this state he shall not while in this state pursuant to such summons be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

(2) If a person passes through this state while going to another state in obedience to a summons to attend and testify in that state or while returning therefrom, he shall not while so passing through this state be subject to arrest or the service of process, civil or criminal, in connection with matters which arose before his entrance into this state under the summons.

History.—§4, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.05 Uniformity of interpretation.—This chapter shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of the states which enact it, and shall be only applicable to such state as shall enact reciprocal powers to this state relative to the matter of securing attendance of witnesses as herein provided.

History.—§5, ch. 20458, 1941.

942.06 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as "uniform law to secure the attendance of witnesses from within or without a state in criminal proceedings."

History.—§6, ch. 20458, 1941.

(3) The Florida correctional institution shall be the primary institution for adult female prisoners of the Florida correctional system. It shall be composed of such units for the detention of such classes of male and female prisoners as the board and the director shall provide. All adult female prisoners sentenced and committed by the court to the custody of the division shall be conveyed in the manner provided by the law to this institution for initial classification and confinement.

(4) The purpose of this institution shall be to provide custody, care, protection, industrial, vocational and other training, and reformatory help for the prisoners confined therein. This institution shall act as the security unit for the Florida industrial school for girls.

History.—§5, ch. 57-121; (1), (3), (4) a. by §4, ch. 61-192; (3) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

944.07 State prison; Sumter county branch established.—The board of commissioners of state institutions is hereby authorized and directed to establish a branch of the Florida state prison in Sumter county, on lands which shall be conveyed to the state without cost by fee simple deed by the board of county commissioners of Sumter county, and the said board of county commissioners of Sumter county is authorized and empowered to convey such lands as herein provided. The board of commissioners of state institutions shall determine the situs of lands to be deeded to the state within Sumter county, where said institution shall be located which shall not be less than five hundred acres.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-92.

944.071 State prison; Dixie county branch established.—The board of commissioners of state institutions is hereby authorized to establish a branch of the Florida state prison in Dixie county, on lands which shall be conveyed to the state without cost by fee simple deed by the board of county commissioners of Dixie county, and the said board of county commissioners of Dixie county is authorized and empowered to convey such lands as herein provided. The board of commissioners of state institutions shall determine the situs of lands to be deeded to the state within Dixie county, where said institution shall be located which shall not be less than five hundred acres.

History.—§1, ch. 63-417.

944.08 Commitment to custody of division; venue of institutions.—

(1) The words "penitentiary" or "state prison" or "state prison farm," whenever the same are used in any of the laws of this state, as a place of confinement or punishment for a crime, shall be construed to mean and refer to the custody of the division within the state correctional system.

(2) For the purposes of all judicial proceedings, the institutions of the state correctional system and the precincts thereof, shall be deemed to be within and part of the county in which they are situated, and the courts of such counties or circuits shall have jurisdiction of all crimes and offenses committed therein.

History.—§6, ch. 57-121; (1) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

944.09 Maintenance of state prisoners; authority of board.—All state prisoners shall be maintained and worked under the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the board and the division and shall be at all times under the supervision of the director and the board. The board shall prescribe such rules and regulations relating to classification, segregation, and separation of prisoners as to sex, temperament, and for other reasons as it shall deem advisable and proper.

History.—§7, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.10 Board to provide buildings; sale and purchase of land.—

(1) The board of commissioners of state institutions shall cause all necessary buildings, facilities and physical plants to be erected to accommodate all prisoners, and from time to time shall make such additional alterations as may be necessary to provide for any increase in the number of prisoners; it shall cause to be established proper accommodations for such officers of the division who are required to reside constantly within the precincts of the institutions.

(2) The board of commissioners of state institutions may sell, to the best possible advantage, any or all detached parcels of land belonging to the bodies of land purchased for the state correctional institutions. The commissioners are authorized to purchase any contiguous parcels of land within the boundary lines of the lands purchased for state correctional institutions.

History.—§8, ch. 57-121; (1) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

944.11 Board to adopt rules as to admission of books.—The board, upon the recommendation of the director, shall adopt such regulations as it may deem proper, governing the admission of educational and other reading matter within the state institutions for the use of the prisoners, and for the proper observance of days of religious significance within the institutions and for the proper instruction of the prisoners in their basic moral and religious duties.

History.—Comp. §9, ch. 57-121.

944.12 Director to make detailed accounts to board.—The director of the division shall make, or cause to be made, such full and detailed accounts of all disbursements, expenses, receipts, and profits of the state correctional system, accompanied by sufficient vouchers, which accounts shall be forwarded to the board as it shall require, to be filed in that office as of the last day of each fiscal year; he shall make a consolidated report in like manner as above stated, proposing such alterations and additions to the rules and regulations for the administration of the state correctional system as he may deem advisable and proper.

History.—§10, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.13 Biennial report; director.—The director shall have a detailed account kept of all matters pertaining to the state correctional system and shall report fully, biennially, to the legislature, making such recommendations concerning the prisoners and the correctional system as may appear to be necessary and expedient.

History.—Comp. §11, ch. 57-121.

944.14 Supervision of correctional institutions; enforcement of orders and regulations.—Subject to the orders, policies and regulations established by the division, and the board, it shall be the duty of the wardens or superintendents to supervise the government, discipline, and policy of the state correctional institutions, and to enforce all orders, rules and regulations.

History.—§12, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.15 Register of institution violations.—The director shall cause to be kept at each institution a register of institution violations and what kind of punishments, if any, are administered to the prisoners; the offense committed; the rule or rules violated; the nature of the punishment administered; the authority ordering such punishment; the duration of time during which the offender was subjected to punishment; and the condition of the prisoners' health.

History.—Comp. §13, ch. 57-121.

944.16 Prisoners; how received.—All prisoners shall be delivered to the custody of the division at such reception and classification centers as shall be provided by the board for this purpose. No prisoner shall be received by the division, unless the sheriff, United States marshal, or other officer having such prisoner in charge, shall also deliver a commitment in due form issued by authority of the court committing such prisoners.

History.—§14, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.
cf.—§945.09 Commitment of prisoners; classification center; transfer.

944.17 Uniform commitments to division.—The director of the division shall design and supply to the several clerks of the courts a uniform commitment to be used by said clerks in the issuing of commitments to the division of all persons who may be convicted and sentenced in their respective courts. No prisoner shall be received into the custody of the division by other commitment forms.

History.—§15, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.18 Copies of indictments to be transmitted to director.—When any person has been convicted of any criminal offense in this state and is sentenced to serve any term under the custody of the division, the clerk of the court in which such person is convicted shall, with the commitment of such person, transmit to the division a certified copy of the indictment or information upon which such person shall have been convicted, and such copy of the indictment or information shall be kept on file in the office of the director, at Tallahassee.

History.—§16, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.19 Vocational, adult and academic education of prisoners under the jurisdiction of the division.—

(1) The board shall establish educational programs for the prisoners under the jurisdiction of the division utilizing personnel of the division, or by arranging for instruction to be given by public or private educational agencies of the state.

(2) The director shall cooperate with the county board of public instruction and the state department of education, who may establish and maintain classes for prisoners under the jurisdiction of the division, to provide instruction of a vocational, adult or academic nature designed to meet the needs of said prisoners. Such instruction is to be under the supervision and control of the county board of public instruction in which the institution is located. For the organization and operation of these classes, county boards of public instruction are authorized to expend funds available to them either from local sources or through the minimum foundation program as provided by law.

(3) This program shall be operated in the various institutions only with the approval of the state board of education.

History.—§17, ch. 57-121; (1), (2) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

944.20 Inmate welfare fund; transfer of funds; money to be deposited; use; fund as trust.—

(1) All moneys now held for the benefit of prisoners in any inmate canteen fund or welfare fund in any state correctional institution under the jurisdiction of the division shall be deposited in the inmate welfare fund of the division, which fund is hereby created in the state treasury, or in a place which the board shall provide. The money in the fund shall be used for the benefit, education, and general welfare of inmates of the various institutions of the state correctional system under the jurisdiction of the division, including but not limited to the establishment, maintenance, employment of personnel for, and the purchase of items for sale to inmates at canteens maintained at the state correctional institutions and for the establishment, maintenance, employment of personnel and necessary expenses in connection with the operation of hobby shops, recreational or entertainment facilities, or other like facilities or programs at the institutions under the jurisdiction of the division.

(2) There shall be deposited in the inmate welfare fund all net proceeds from the operation of canteens, hobby shops, and other such facilities, and any moneys which may be assigned to the division by prisoners for deposit in said fund. The moneys of said fund shall constitute a trust held by the board and the division for the benefit and welfare of prisoners as herein provided and defined for all the prisoners of the institutions under the jurisdiction of the division.

(3) Any contraband found upon, or in the possession of, any prisoner in any correctional institution under the jurisdiction of the division shall be confiscated and liquidated and the proceeds thereof shall be deposited to this fund.

History.—§18, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.21 Investment of money in inmate welfare fund; deposition of interest earned and increment derived from investments.—The director may with the approval of the board invest any money in the inmate welfare fund that in his opinion is not necessary for immediate use, and the interest earned and other increment derived from such investments made pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the inmate welfare fund of the division.

History.—§19, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.22 Deposit or investment of funds of prisoners; deposition of interest or increment accruing on funds.—The director may deposit any funds of prisoners in his possession in any bank in the state, or, subject to the approval of the board, may invest or reinvest such funds in bonds or obligations of the United States or for the payment of which the full faith and credit of the United States is pledged and for the purposes of deposit only, may mingle the funds of any prisoner with the funds of other prisoners. The director shall deposit the interest or increment accruing on such funds in the inmate welfare fund.

History.—Comp. §20, ch. 57-121.

944.23 Persons authorized to visit state prisons.—The following persons shall be authorized to visit at pleasure all state correctional institutions: the governor, all cabinet members, members of the council, members of the legislature, judges of state and county courts, and state attorneys. No other person not otherwise authorized by law shall be permitted to enter a state correctional institution except under such regulations as the board and the director shall prescribe.

History.—Comp. §21, ch. 57-121.

944.24 Administration of correctional institutions for women.—

(1) All regularly employed assistants, officers and employees whose duties bring them into contact with the inmates of the institution shall be women as far as practicable.

(2) If any woman received by or committed to said institution shall give birth to a child while an inmate of said institution, such child may be retained in the said institution until it reaches the age of eighteen months, at which time the board may arrange for its care elsewhere; and provided further, that at its discretion, in exceptional cases, the board may retain such child for a longer period of time.

(3) Any woman inmate who gives birth to a child during her term of imprisonment may be temporarily taken to a hospital outside the prison for the purpose of childbirth, and the charge for hospital and medical care shall be charged against the funds allocated to the institution. The division shall provide for the care of any children so born and shall pay for their care until suitably placed.

History.—§22, ch. 57-121; (3) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

944.25 Registry of prisoners; facts required to be entered.—There shall be entered the name of each prisoner; the crime of which he is convicted; the period of his sentence; from what county sentenced; his nativity; to what degree educated, at what institution and under what system; an accurate description of the person; and whether he has been previously confined in any state or federal prison and if so, when and how he was discharged; and such other facts as shall be found necessary to the director. A copy of this report will be transmitted to the office of the director.

History.—Comp. §23, ch. 57-121.

944.27 Gain time for good conduct; schedule of allowances; cumulative sentences to be treated as one sentence for purposes of allowing and forfeiting.—

(1) The director shall grant the following deductions for gain time from the sentences of every prisoner who has committed no infraction of the rules or regulations of the board or the division, or of the laws of the state, and who has performed in a faithful, diligent, industrious, orderly, and peaceful manner, the work, duties, and tasks assigned to him, to wit:

(a) Five days per month off the first and second years of his sentence;

(b) Ten days per month off the third and fourth years of his sentence; and

(c) Fifteen days per month off the fifth and all succeeding years of his sentence; and he shall be entitled to credit for a month as soon as he has served such time as, when added to the deduction allowable, would equal a month.

(2) When a prisoner is under two or more cumulative sentences, he shall be allowed gain time as if they were all one sentence and his gain time, including any extra gain time allowed him under §944.29, shall be subject to forfeiture as though such sentences were all one sentence.

History.—§25, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530; §1, ch. 63-243.

944.28 Forfeiture of gain time and right to earn gain time in the future.—

(1) When a prisoner escapes or a conditional pardon or parole granted to him by the board of pardons or parole commission is revoked, the director shall, without notice or hearing, declare a forfeiture of all gain time earned and extra gain time allowed such prisoner, if any, prior to such escape or his release under such conditional pardon or parole, as the case may be. No gain time forfeited under this subsection shall be restored to a prisoner.

(2) (a) All or any part of the gain time earned by a prisoner and extra gain time allowed him, if any, shall be subject to forfeiture if such prisoner shall unsuccessfully attempt to escape, or assault another person, or threaten or knowingly endanger the life or person of another person, or by action or word refuse to carry out any instruction duly given to him, or neglect to perform the work, duties, and tasks assigned to him in a faithful, diligent, industrious, orderly, and peaceful manner, or violate any law of the state or any rule or regulation of the board, division, or institution.

(b) The method of forfeiting gain time which is subject to forfeiture under paragraph (a) of this subsection shall be as follows:

A written charge shall be prepared, which shall specify the misconduct upon which it is based and the approximate date thereof. A copy of such charge shall be delivered to the prisoner and he shall be given notice of a hearing before the disciplinary committee created under the authorization of the rules and regulations heretofore or hereafter adopted by the board, for the institution in which he is confined. He shall be present at such hearing. If at such hearing the prisoner pleads guilty to the charge or such committee determines from the proof presented that he is guilty thereof, it shall find him guilty; and, if it considers that all or a part of the prisoner's gain time and extra gain time should be forfeited, it shall so recommend in its written report, which shall be presented to the superintendent of the institution. If such superintendent approves such recommendation in whole or in part, he shall so indicate over his signature on the report, and forward the report to the director. The director may thereupon, at his discretion, declare the forfeiture thus approved by the superintendent, or any part thereof. Upon the recommendation of the superintendent, the director may, in his discretion, restore all or any part of any gain time forfeited under this subsection.

(3) A prisoner's right to earn gain time during all or any part of the remainder of the sentence or sentences under which he is imprisoned may be declared forfeited because of the seriousness of a single instance of misconduct for which all of his earned gain time and extra gain time, if any, have been forfeited or because of the seriousness of an accumulation of instances of misconduct, each of which has resulted in the forfeiture of all or a part of his earned gain time and extra gain time. The method of declaring such a forfeiture shall be as follows:

A written charge shall be prepared, which shall specify each instance of misconduct upon which it is based, the approximate date thereof, and the amount of gain time forfeited on account thereof. A copy of such charge shall be delivered to the prisoner and he shall be given notice of a hearing before the disciplinary committee created under the authorization of rules and regulations heretofore or hereafter adopted by the board, for the institution in which he is confined. Such notice shall specify that such hearing will be held for the purpose of determining whether such committee shall recommend a forfeiture of the prisoner's right to earn gain time during all or a part of the remainder of his sentence or sentences. If at such hearing the prisoner pleads guilty to the charge or such committee determines that he is guilty thereof upon the basis of proof presented at such hearing, it shall find him guilty; and, if it considers that the misconduct of which the prisoner is thus found guilty is serious enough, it may recommend in its written report the forfeiture of the prisoner's right to earn gain time during all or some specified part of the remainder of his sentence or sentences. Such report shall be presented to the superintendent of such institution, who may approve such recommendation in whole or in part by endorsing such approval on such report. In the event of such an approval, the superintendent shall forward such report to the director. Thereupon, the director may, in his discretion, recommend to the board that it declare the forfeiture thus approved by the superintendent or any specified part thereof, and the board may, in its discretion, declare the forfeiture thus recommended by the director, or any specified part thereof. Any right forfeited by the board under this subsection may be restored only by the board.

(4) In order to facilitate the speedy administration of the gain time program, the director may delegate to one of his deputies the functions, duties, and powers of the director under this section.

History.—§26, ch. 57-121; (1) §18, ch. 61-530; §2, ch. 63-243.

944.29 Extra good time allowances.—The board upon recommendation of the director may allow, in addition to time credits, an extra good time allowance for meritorious conduct or exceptional industry.

History.—Comp. §27, ch. 57-121.

944.30 Life prisoners; commutation to term for years.—Any prisoner who is sentenced to life imprisonment, who has actually served ten years and has sustained no charge of misconduct and has a good institutional record, shall be recommended by the division for a reasonable commutation of his sentence, and if the same be granted, commuting the life sentence to a term for years, then such prisoner shall have the benefit of the ordinary commutation, as if the original sentence was for a term for years, unless it shall be otherwise ordered by the board of pardons.

History.—§28, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.31 Prison inspectors' duties.—Prison inspectors shall be employed by the division of corrections and charged with the duty of inspecting the penal and correctional systems of the state. The prison inspectors shall inspect each jail, stockade or correctional institution or any place in which state or county prisoners are housed, worked, or kept within the state, with reference to the physical conditions, cleanliness, sanitation, safety, comfort, the quality and supply of all bedding, the quality, quantity, and diversity of food served and the manner in which it is served, the number and condition of the prisoners confined therein, and the general conditions of each institution. They shall see that all the rules and regulations issued by the division or the board are strictly observed and followed by all persons connected with the correctional systems of the state. The inspectors will be directly responsible to the director who shall coordinate and supervise their work throughout the state. Each prison inspector may enter any place where prisoners in this state are kept and shall be immediately admitted to such place as he desires; and, he may consult and confer with any prisoner privately and without molestation.

History.—§29, ch. 57-121; §6, ch. 61-192; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.32 Reports of prison inspectors; recordation; inspection.—Upon completing an inspection of any jail or a correctional institution the inspector shall make a full and complete report on such forms as shall be provided by the division. One copy of each report shall be filed with the division, one copy with the clerk of the circuit court of the county where the inspection is made and as many other copies as the division shall require; these reports shall at all times be open to inspection in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and shall be matters of public record and subject to inspection by the public at any time.

History.—§30, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.33 Failure of inspector to make report; false report; penalty.—If any prison inspector shall fail to make a report of his findings, he shall be immediately discharged and shall not be again employed in such capacity. If any prison inspector shall knowingly make a false report of his findings, he shall be deemed guilty of a felony and on conviction shall be punished by imprisonment in the state correctional system for not more than 3 years or by fine of not more than $5,000, or by both.

History.—Comp. §31, ch. 57-121.

944.34 Order and punishment.—All necessary means shall be used by the superintendents, and such punishments as may be needful shall be adopted to maintain order, enforce obedience and discipline, suppress insurrection, prevent escapes, and compel performance of labor; but no cruel or inhuman punishment shall be inflicted upon any prisoner, and no punishment injurious to the mind or the body of the prisoner shall be permitted, nor shall any prisoner be compelled to labor without sufficient food.

History.—Comp. §32, ch. 57-121.

944.35 Corporal punishment prohibited; penalty.—It is unlawful for any corporal punishment, any cruel or inhuman punishment or any punishment by which the flesh of the body is broken, bruised or lacerated to be inflicted upon any prisoner at any time. Any person who violates the provisions of this section shall be discharged immediately and shall not again be employed in any capacity in connection with the correctional system and shall be punished as provided by law for whatever offense he may have committed in perpetrating the act. No prisoner shall be punished because of any report or representation which he may have made to any inspector.

History.—Comp. §33, ch. 57-121.

944.36 Cruel treatment of prisoners; permitting prisoners to escape.—Any agent, employee, or officer of the division, or guard, having supervision over state prisoners being worked under the provisions of law, who shall be guilty of any cruel or inhuman treatment to any prisoner by neglect or otherwise, or shall willfully or negligently permit any prisoner to escape, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state correctional system for not exceeding 5 years, or by fine not exceeding $5,000, or by both.

History.—§34, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.37 Acceptance of unauthorized compensation; penalty.—No officer or employee of the division shall receive, directly or indirectly, from any prisoner or from anyone on behalf of such prisoner, any gift, reward, or any compensation whatsoever for his services or supplies other than that prescribed or authorized by law or the division. Whoever violates this section shall be punished by fine of not exceeding $5,000.

History.—§35, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.38 Acceptance of remuneration from contractor; dealing or barter with prisoners; interest in contract; penalty.—

(1) No officer or employee of the division shall receive any compensation whatsoever, directly or indirectly, for any act or service which he may do or perform for or on behalf of any officer or employee or agent, or employee of a contractor; nor shall any officer or employee of the division or the state be interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract or purchase made, or authorized to be made, by anyone for or on behalf of the division.

(2) No officer or employee of the division or of the state, or any contractor, or employee of a contractor, shall, without permission of the board, or division, make any gift or present to a prisoner, or receive the same from any prisoner, or have any barter or dealings with any prisoner.

(3) For any violation of the provisions of this section the officer or employee of the state shall be discharged from his office or service; and every contractor, or employee, or agent of a contractor engaged therein, and a party thereto, shall be expelled from the institutional grounds, and not again permitted within the same as a contractor, agent, or employee.

History.—§36, ch. 57-121; (1), (2) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

944.39 Interference with prisoners; penalty.—Any person who, without authority, interferes with or in any way interrupts the work of any prisoner under the custody of the division or who in any way interferes with the discipline or good conduct of any prisoner shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. No person shall, by disguise, misrepresentation of identity or other illicit means, attempt to gain admission to or enter upon the grounds of any state correctional institution for the purpose of visiting any prisoner in violation of the general visiting policy adopted by the board. A person, upon conviction of an offense as outlined in this section, shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not more than 6 months or by a fine of not more than $200.00 or by both fine and imprisonment. Any peace officer or any officer or guard of the division or any prison inspector or any employee of the division may arrest without warrant any person violating the provisions of this section.

History.—§37, ch. 57-121; §7, ch. 61-192; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.40 Escapes; penalty.—Any prisoner confined in any prison, jail, road camp, or other penal institution, state, county or municipal, or in working upon the public roads or being transported to or from a place of confinement, who escapes or attempts to escape from such confinement, if the charge or conviction under which said prisoner is incarcerated constitutes a felony under the laws of the jurisdiction which has caused his incarceration he shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than 10 years; or if the charge or conviction under which said prisoner is incarcerated constitutes a misdemeanor, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than 90 days. The punishment of imprisonment imposed under this section shall be in addition to any former sentence imposed upon any prisoner convicted hereunder.

History.—Comp. §38, ch. 57-121.

944.41 Assault by a life prisoner; penalty.—Every person undergoing a life sentence in a correctional institution who commits an assault upon the person of another with a deadly weapon or instrument, or by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury, shall not be eligible for parole for a period of time beginning from the date of conviction of said offense as follows:

(1) Twenty years, if said offense occurs when less than five years of said life sentence has been served;

(2) Fifteen years, if said offense occurs when less than ten years, but more than five years of said life sentence has been served; and

(3) Ten years, if said offense occurs when less than fifteen years, but more than ten years of said life sentence has been served.

History.—Comp. §1, ch. 57-313.

944.42 Assault by prisoner other than life; penalty.—Every person undergoing a sentence of less than life in a state correctional institution who, with malice aforethought, commits an assault upon the person of another with a deadly weapon or instrument or by any means of force likely to produce great bodily injury but, which is not an assault with intent to commit a felony, as provided by law, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned in a state correctional institution not more than 10 years.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 57-313.

944.43 Possession of weapon; penalty.—Every prisoner committed to the custody of the division of corrections who, while in such custody, possesses or carries upon his person or has under his control any instrument or weapon of any kind or any explosive substance, contrary to any rule or regulation promulgated by the division, is guilty of a felony which shall be punishable by imprisonment in a state correctional institution for a term not more than 10 years.

History.—§3, ch. 57-313; §13, ch. 59-1; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.44 Holding persons as hostages; penalty.—Any prisoner who holds as hostage any person within any correctional institution or anywhere while under the jurisdiction of the division, or who by force, or threat of force holds any person or persons against their will in defiance of official orders, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned in a state correctional institution for a term of not more than 10 years.

History.—§4, ch. 57-313; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.45 Mutiny, riot, strike; penalty.—Whoever instigates, contrives, wilfully attempts to cause, assists, or conspires to cause any mutiny, riot, or strike in defiance of official orders, in any state correctional institution, shall be guilty of a felony and shall be imprisoned for not more than 10 years.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 57-313.

944.46 Harboring, concealing, aiding escaped prisoners; penalty.—Whoever, harbors, conceals, maintains, or assists, or gives any other aid to any prisoner after his escape from any state correctional institution knowing that he is an escaped prisoner, shall be guilty of a felony, and shall be imprisoned in a state correctional institution for not more than 7 years.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 57-313.

944.47 Introduction or removal of certain articles unlawful; penalty.—

(1) It is unlawful to introduce into or upon the grounds of any correctional or penal institution under the supervision or control of the board of commissioners of state institutions or to take or attempt to take or send therefrom any of the following articles which are hereby declared to be contraband for the purposes of this act, to wit: any communication or any currency or coin given or transmitted or intended to be given or transmitted to any inmate of any correctional or penal institution under the supervision and direction of the board of commissioners of state institutions; any article of food or clothing; any intoxicating beverage or beverage which causes or may cause an intoxicating effect; any narcotic or hypnotic or excitant drug or any drug of whatever kind or nature including nasal inhalators of any variety, sleeping pills or barbiturates of any variety that create or may create a hypnotic effect if taken internally; and any firearm or any instrumentality customarily used as a dangerous weapon, except through regular channels as authorized by the officer in charge of each correctional or penal institution.

(2) Whoever violates any provision of this section shall upon conviction be sentenced to the custody of the division of corrections for a term not to exceed 5 years.

History.—§7, ch. 57-313; §8, ch. 61-192.

944.48 Service of sentence.—Whenever any prisoner is convicted under the provisions of §§944.41-944.47 the punishment of imprisonment imposed shall be served consecutively to any former sentence imposed upon any prisoner convicted hereunder.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 57-313.

944.49 Requirement of labor; compensation; amount; crediting of amount of prisoner; forfeiture; civil rights; prisoner not employee or entitled to compensation insurance benefits.—

(1) The board shall require of every able-bodied prisoner imprisoned in any institution as many hours of faithful labor in each day and every day during his term of imprisonment as shall be prescribed by the rules and regulations of the division and the board.

(2) Each prisoner who is engaged in productive work in any state correctional institution under the jurisdiction of the division, may receive for his work such compensation as the director with the approval of the board shall determine. Such compensation shall be in accordance with a schedule based on quality and quantity of work performed and skill required for performance and said compensation shall be credited to the account of the prisoner.

(3) Said compensation shall be paid from the division of corrections industrial trust fund. Whenever any price is fixed on any article, material, supply, or service, to be produced, manufactured, supplied, or performed in connection with the work program of the division, the compensation paid to the prisoners shall be included as an item of cost in the final price.

(4) When any prisoner escapes, the director, with the approval of the board, shall determine what portion of his earnings shall be forfeited and such forfeiture shall be deposited in the state treasury in the inmate welfare fund of the division.

(5) Nothing in this section is intended to restore, in whole or in part the civil rights of any prisoner. No prisoner compensated under this section shall be considered as an employee of the state or the division, nor shall such prisoner come within any other provision of the workmen's compensation act.

History.—§39, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.50 Forfeiture of earnings of prisoners; determination of amount to be forfeited; deposit in industrial trust fund.—When any prisoner shall wilfully violate the terms of his employment or the rules and regulations of the division or board, the board may in its discretion determine what portion of all moneys earned by the prisoner shall be forfeited by said prisoner and such forfeiture shall be re-deposited to the industrial trust fund.

History.—§40, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.51 State road department prison camps; authority.—The state prison road force shall remain under the supervision and control of the state road department until such time as the board shall assume and succeed to such authority and control as provided by law.

944.511 Five-day week; employees road prison operation.—

(1) The state road department and the division of corrections shall inaugurate a five-day work week for all employees presently assigned to the road prison operation; provided, that such employees may be required to perform additional periods of duty during emergencies.

(2) Funds for implementing a five-day work week shall be provided from the first gasoline tax funds.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 63-450.

944.52 Legal advisor.—The attorney general shall be the legal advisor of the division.

History.—§42, ch. 57-121; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.53 Records; reproduction.—The state director of the division of corrections is authorized to photograph, microphotograph, or reproduce on film or prints, documents, records, data, and information of a permanent character, which, in his discretion, with the approval of the board of commissioners of state institutions, he may select, and the director is authorized to destroy any of the said documents after they have been photographed and after audit of his office has been completed for the period embracing the dates of said instruments. Photographs or microphotographs in the form of film or prints made in compliance with the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof would have, and shall be treated as originals for the purpose of their admissibility in evidence. Duly certified or authenticated reproductions of such photographs or microphotographs shall be admitted in evidence equally with the original photographs or microphotographs.

History. §1, ch. 57-122; §18, ch. 61-530.

944.54 Transportation furnished prisoners upon release.—

(1) The superintendents or wardens of the several state correctional institutions are authorized to furnish each prisoner, upon his release from a state correctional institution, transportation from such institution to such place as the classification committee may determine to be in the best interest of the prisoner. The transportation furnished shall be by the most economical means, utilizing a common carrier of the state, and such cost of transportation shall not exceed twenty-five dollars. The classification committee, may in its discretion, determine that the best interests of the state will be served by providing transportation for the prisoner to a place outside the state of Florida, in which instance transportation in excess of twenty-five dollars may be authorized with the excess being paid only from surplus transportation funds available to the institution. Provided, however, that the transportation furnished shall be the most economical available, utilizing a common carrier.

(2) Transportation as authorized herein shall be furnished by a nonnegotiable travel voucher payable to the common carrier being utilized and in no event shall there be any cash disbursement to the releasee or any person, firm or corporation. Such travel voucher shall not be valid sixty days after issuance thereof.

History.—§4, ch. 57-213; §18, ch. 61-530.

945.05 Advisory council on adult corrections and prison industries.—

(1) There shall be an advisory council on adult corrections and prison industries composed of not more than nine members designated by the board to serve at the pleasure of the board. The members of the council shall be citizens and residents of the state and shall be at least thirty-five years of age.

(2) By virtue of background, experience, and interest, membership to the council shall be selected as follows:

(a) At least one member as a representative of management;

(b) At least one member as a representative of labor;

(c) At least one member as a representative of agriculture;

(d) At least one member as a representative of education;

(e) At least one member representing the medical profession;

(f) At least two members selected on the basis of interest in problems related to adult corrections.

(3) The members of the council shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed from the budget of the division for the expense of attending meetings of the council as provided in §112.061.

(4) The council shall consult with the board and the director on correctional programs and prison industries, and shall make recommendations concerning the style, design and quality of articles to be manufactured as well as for economies in manufacture and proper industrial planning for the several institutions under the control of the division.

History.—§5, ch. 57-213; (3), (4) §18, ch. 61-530; (3) §19, ch. 63-400.

945.06 Prison industries.—

(1) The director, with the advice of the council and the approval of the board, shall adopt and put into effect an industrial program to provide training facilities for persons confined in the adult correctional institutions under the control and supervision of the board.

(2) The board is authorized to cause to be manufactured, processed or produced by the inmates of the adult correctional institutions under the control and supervision of the board such items as in the opinion of the council are practical and adaptable for prison industry and are needed and used in state institutions and agencies.

(3) In determining the articles and the style, design and quality of the articles to be manufactured, the director shall install no program contrary to the recommendations of the council.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 57-213.

945.07 Prison camps.—Prison camps operated under the supervision of the state road department, including the personal property, appurtenances and interest in realty in such camps held in the name of the state road department, together with the inmates and matters connected therewith, shall be transferred to the division. Such camps and such other camps as the board, upon the recommendation of the director, may establish shall be under the control and supervision of the division and shall be operated as an integral part of the division. The camps shall be used for such public purposes as the board may by regulations prescribe. The transfer of camps from the state road department to the division of corrections shall be made upon the advice of the director to the board that the division is so organized and properly financed as to assume the responsibility for their operation. The board shall notify the state road department and each district engineer of such advice. Thereupon, all custodial personnel employed by the state road department shall become provisional employees of the division of corrections under such regulations relating to employees of the division as the board may provide.

History.—§7, ch. 57-213; §18, ch. 61-530. cf.—§965.01(1) Division of corrections, board of commissioners of state institutions.

§337.10 Use of state convict road force.

§944.51 State road department prison camps; authority.

§965.01(1)(b) State convict road force.

945.08 Classification regulations.—The board shall adopt regulations for the classification of all offenders according to age, sex, race and such other factors as the board may deem advisable and shall provide for the separation of prisoners by sex and race except where such separation while prisoners are being worked shall be impracticable.

History.—Comp. §8, ch. 57-213.

945.09 Commitment of prisoners; classification; reception and classification center; transfer.—All prisoners sentenced to the state penitentiary shall be committed by the court to the custody of the division and shall be conveyed in the manner provided by law to such institution in the correctional system as the division shall direct. The division shall establish a reception and classification center for male prisoners at the state prison at Raiford. The division shall provide reception and classification facilities for female prisoners at the Florida correctional institution at Lowell. Classification facilities shall be provided in the discretion of the division at all institutions in the correctional system. Classification of prisoners shall be made by a board or boards designated by the board of commissioners of state institutions. Pursuant to such regulations as the board may provide, the division is authorized to transfer prisoners from one institution to another institution in the correctional system and to reclassify prisoners as circumstances may require.

History.—§9, ch. 57-213; §18, ch. 61-530. cf.—§§921.17-921.23 Handling of persons receiving indeterminate sentences for noncapital felonies. §944.16 Prisoners; how received.

945.10 Investigations by parole commission; confidential.—The parole commission shall furnish the director with a copy of its report of presentence investigation, if one has been made, and subsequent information as same may become available, on every person committed to the custody of the division. The information furnished by the parole commission shall be confidential and shall be available only to public officers and employees in the performance of a public duty. No inmate of any institution shall have access to any such information or excerpts therefrom. The division shall cooperate with the parole commission as may be required for the proper performance of the functions of the parole commission.

History.—§10, ch. 57-213; §18, ch. 61-530. cf.—§§921.17-921.23 Handling of persons receiving indeterminate sentences for noncapital felonies.

945.11 Use of prisoners in public works.—

(1) The board is authorized to enter into agreements with such agencies and institutions of the state as might, under supervision of employees of the division, use the services of inmates of adult correctional institutions and camps when it is determined by the director and the board that such services will not be detrimental to the welfare of such inmates or the interests of the state in a program of rehabilitation.

(2) The budget of the division shall be reimbursed from the budget of any state agency or institution for the services of inmates and personnel of the division in such amounts as may be determined by agreement between the director and the head of such agency or institution and approved by the board on the basis of the costs of such services to the division or the value of such services to the agency or institution, whichever shall be lower.

History.—§11, ch. 57-213; §18, ch. 61-530.
cf.—§337.10 Use of state convict road force.

945.12 Transfers for medical treatment.—

(1) The director is authorized to transfer drug addicts committed to the hospital of the state prison under §398.18, to an appropriate institution for treatment. The director may transfer addicted, insane, tuberculous, or other prisoners requiring specialized medical treatment to an appropriate institution.

(2) The board is authorized to enter into agreements with the controlling authorities of such state institutions as shall have or be provided with appropriate facilities for the secure confinement and treatment of drug addicts, alcoholics, insane, and tuberculous persons. In any such agreement the board shall provide for custodial personnel to maintain proper security of persons transferred from the correctional system to any other state institution. Such custodial personnel shall be employed and paid by the division and subject to such rules as shall be agreed upon jointly by the board and the controlling authority entering into such agreement.

(3) The board is authorized to reimburse the institution furnishing treatment at a figure agreed upon by the board and the controlling authority of such institution.

(4) When in the opinion of the superintendent of an institution to which a prisoner has been transferred such prisoner has been cured, or will no longer benefit from treatment at that institution, other than an insane prisoner, the superintendent shall notify the division which shall, at the earliest practicable date thereafter, convey such prisoner to the appropriate classification center for reclassification.

945.13 Maintenance of industrial plants.—

The board of commissioners of state institutions may maintain such industrial plants at the various institutions under their supervision and control as the board may determine can be conducted and maintained in a manner profitable to the state and for the benefit of the inmates of such institutions.

The board shall cause the plants as far as practicable to be operated by the inmates of such institutions under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the board.

History.—§1, ch. 10271, 1925; CGL 8663; §6, ch. 57-314, transferred from §959.01, 1957.

945.14 Sale of goods made by prisoners prohibited.—

(1) No goods, wares, or merchandise manufactured or mined in whole or in part by prisoners (except prisoners on parole or probation) shall be sold or offered for sale in this state by any person, or by any federal authority, state, or political subdivision thereof; provided, however that nothing in §§945.14 and 945.15 shall be construed to forbid the sale, exchange, or disposition of such goods within the limitations set forth in §945.16(1).

(2) When in the planning of the rehabilitation program of the division of corrections, through its recreational facilities, plans are made for prisoners to engage in hobbies and hobbycrafts after their normal working hours and when they are not required by the superintendent or warden of a state prison or correctional institution to be on their assigned duties, they may make items of a hobby or hobbycraft nature which may be disposed of by the prisoner through the institutional canteen or commissary to persons visiting the institution.

945.16 Use of prison made products.—

(1) All items manufactured, processed, or produced by the division of corrections and not required for use therein at the present time or in the future shall be furnished to all state institutions under the board, the tuberculosis hospitals, and the alcoholic rehabilitation center. The following items or services may be furnished to all state agencies, boards, bureaus, or commissions: Automobile tags; clay brick and clay tile for buildings owned by the state; school, office, and warehouse furniture; uniforms for state personnel assigned to work directly with prisoners; metal products; tire repair and recapping; furniture repair and refinishing; and all prison industries now existing or to be established in the future for repair and maintenance of state property and equipment as a part of the rehabilitation program within the division. The division is further authorized to make available to political subdivisions items of school and office furniture. No other items are to be sold to political subdivisions without specific authority from the legislature.

(2) No similar article of comparable price and quality found necessary for use by any state agency or division under the control or supervision of the board or any member thereof, may be purchased from any other source when the board shall certify that the same is available and can be furnished by the division. The purchasing authority of any such state institution or agency shall have the power to make reasonable determinations of need, price and quality with reference to articles available for sale by such prison industries operated by the division. In the event a dispute between the director and any purchasing authority, based upon price or quality, the matter shall be referred to the board, whose decision shall be final.

History.—§13, ch. 57-213; (2) §18, ch. 61-530; (1) §2, ch. 63-176.

945.161 Sale of "Florida" tags to junior chamber of commerce.—The division of corrections is authorized to sell to the junior chamber of commerce, at a price to be determined by the board of commissioners of state institutions, "FLORIDA" tags manufactured by the tag plant at the state prison for the purpose of advertising the state.

History.—§1, ch. 59-332.

945.17 Creation of industrial trust fund.—There is hereby created a division of corrections industrial trust fund, available for the purpose of financing the operation of correctional industries authorized and established by the board of commissioners of state institutions and approved by the advisory council on adult corrections and prison industries, as provided by law. This account shall be a separate fund in the state treasury and shall be the depository of all funds used for this purpose by all institutions under the supervision and control of the division of corrections and the board of commissioners of state institutions.

History.—§1, ch. 57-314; §18, ch. 61-530.

945.18 Sources of fund.—The division of corrections industrial trust fund shall consist of the original general revenue appropriation which was made in the 1957 session of the legislature, together with all assets and liabilities as of June 30, 1957, as determined by the state auditor, of all industrial operations in existence at all correctional institutions as of that date; provided, however, that the assets and liabilities as of June 30, 1957, shall not include cash and accounts receivable which are in excess of the current encumbered obligations as of June 30, 1957, it being the intent of the legislature that after current obligations are liquidated the balance remaining in cash and receivables shall be deposited in the general revenue fund unallocated. Should any general service operation of an institution be transferred to the prison industries operation by the division, all assets and liabilities of such operation shall become a part of this fund. All income, receipts, earnings and profits from such industrial enterprises shall hereafter be credited to this revolving fund to be used for the purposes herein set forth; provided, however, that the earned surplus in the fund at the end of any biennium shall not exceed one million five hundred thousand dollars and such surplus as determined by the state auditor to be in excess of this amount shall be deposited in the general revenue fund unallocated.

History.—§2, ch. 57-314; §1, ch. 61-384; §18, ch. 61-530; §3, ch. 63-176.

945.19 Use of fund.—The funds shall be used for the purposes of financing the operation of the industries herein set forth, and all costs of operation of prison industries shall be paid from this fund, including all personnel whose time or proportion of time is devoted to such industrial operations. The board of commissioners of state institutions shall have the authority to construct buildings for the operation of said industries, provided that such construction shall not exceed ten thousand dollars for any single project.

History.—Comp. §3, ch. 57-314.

945.20 Disbursements from fund.—The funds shall be deposited in the state treasury and paid out only on warrants drawn by the state comptroller, duly approved by the division of corrections and the board of commissioners of state institutions. The division of corrections shall maintain all necessary records and accounts relative to such funds.

History.—§4, ch. 57-314; §18, ch. 61-530.

945.21 Regulations of the board.—

(1) The board is authorized to adopt and promulgate regulations governing the administration of the correctional system and the operation of the division. In addition to specific subjects otherwise provided for herein, regulations of the board may relate to:

- (a) Conduct to be observed by prisoners;
- (b) Punishment of prisoners;
- (c) Gain time for good conduct of, release payments to, and release transportation of, inmates;

(d) Uniforms for inmates and custodial personnel;

(e) Rules of conduct of custodial and other personnel;

(f) Classification of personnel and duties assigned thereto;

(g) Credits for confinement prior to commitment to the division;

(h) Payments to prisoners for work performed. Such payments, if any, to be made from the profits of the industrial trust fund. Such regulations to include restrictions on the use of earnings, including payments for support of dependents and release reserves.

(i) Visiting hours and privileges;

(j) Mail to and from inmates;

(k) The operation of canteens and the participation in canteen funds;

(l) The feeding of prisoners, including diet and menus, and the furnishing of health and comfort items to indigent prisoners;

(m) Such other regulations as in the opinion of the board may be necessary for the efficient operation and management of the correctional system.

(2) Regulations of the board shall be adopted pursuant to resolution of the board and filed with the secretary of state as provided in chapter 120.

History.—§14, ch. 57-213; (1) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

945.22 Employment of director, superintendents, and wardens.—

(1) The director shall be employed by the board. At the time of employment the director shall be not less than thirty-five years of age.

(2) The superintendents or wardens of all institutions of the correctional system shall be employed by the board upon the recommendation of the director.

History.—§15, ch. 57-213; (1) by §1, ch. 59-149.

945.23 Civil service.—

(1) The board may by regulation establish a system of employee selection to provide for the employment of personnel of the division, pursuant to examination, on the basis of minimum qualifications; such qualifications to be established by the board.

(2) The board may by regulation provide for provisional appointments of such employees for a reasonable period, upon the termination of which an employee shall be dismissed or given permanent status, subject to removal as the regulations may provide.

(3) The board may by regulation provide for the removal, suspension or demotion of employees for cause specified in the regulations.

(4) The board may by regulation provide for a classification plan and salary schedule for employees, including provisions for promotion and recognition of merit, leave and inservice training.

(5) The director may be discharged for good cause by the board at any time notwithstanding the terms or conditions of his employment, and, unless the director waive his right to a public hearing, such discharge shall be subject to the following procedure:

(a) Upon a finding of good cause by resolution of the board, the director shall be deemed suspended and immediately relieved of his authority.

(b) Within five days after such action by the board, a copy of the resolution shall be furnished the director, and, at his request, the board shall set a date for the hearing of such charges, the hearing to be held not more than twenty-five days from the date of such request.

(c) At such hearing, the board shall hear and receive testimony relating to the truth or falsity of the charges specified in the resolution, or relating to additional charges submitted at the hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the board shall, by resolution, make its findings in the matter. In the resolution, the board may find that any of the charges constituting good cause for removal have been sustained, in which event the director shall be removed. The board may find that the charges have not been sustained or may withdraw any or all of the charges, and in the event no charge constituting good cause for removal is sustained, the director shall be reinstated without loss of compensation or other rights for the period the suspension was in effect.

(6) In lieu of the above provisions of this section, the board may elect to place the director and all other employees of the division under the general state merit system as provided in chapter 110.

History.—§16, ch. 57-213; (1), (6) a. by §18, ch. 61-530.

947.01 Creation of probation and parole commission; number and qualification of its members.—A probation and parole commission, hereafter called commission, is created to consist of three citizens who are residents of the state. Only persons who are citizens of Florida and who have resided within the state for a period of ten years or more and by their knowledge of penology and social welfare are qualified efficiently to discharge the duties and perform the work of the commission shall be eligible to appointment to said position.

History.—§1, ch. 20519, 1941; §1, ch. 63-83.

947.02 Commission; appointment.—

(1) The members of the commission shall be appointed in the following manner: The board of commissioners of state institutions shall appoint an examining board which shall consist of five persons having special knowledge of penal treatment and the administration of criminal justice, and shall designate one member thereof as chairman. The board of commissioners of state institutions shall provide for the receiving of applications for the position of member of the parole commission and shall devise a plan for the determination, by examination and investigation, of the qualification, of applicants. From such examinations and investigations said examining board shall compile a list of not more than ten persons eligible for said position of member of the commission, and said list shall expire at the end of two years. The examining board shall rank such eligibles on the list in the order of their relative fitness as determined by examination and investigation. The board of commissioners of state institutions shall make each appointment to the position of member of the parole commission from the three eligibles having the highest rank on said list. The members of the commission shall be certified to the senate by the board of commissioners of state institutions for confirmation.

(2) Whenever the term of office of a member of the commission expires, the board may, in its discretion, reappoint the member without requiring him to take an examination.

History.—§1, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.03 Commission; tenure and removal.—

(1) The first three members of the commission shall be appointed for the terms of two, four, and six years respectively; and said board shall designate in its appointments the term for which each of said three first members is appointed. At the expiration of said terms the successors to said first members shall be appointed for terms of six years and until their successors are appointed and qualified.

(2) Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the board of commissioners of state institutions for the unexpired term in the manner hereinabove provided.

(3) Each member shall devote his whole time and capacity to the duties of his office, and shall be subject to removal by the board of commissioners of state institutions for the same reasons that a state officer may be removed as provided in §15, article IV of the constitution. All such removals shall be submitted to the senate for its consent as provided by said section of the constitution.

History.—§1, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.04 Organization of commission; officers; offices.—

(1) As soon as practicable after their appointment the members of the commission shall meet and select from their number a chairman who shall serve for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified, and they shall likewise select from their number a secretary who shall serve for a period of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

(2) The commission may establish and maintain offices in centrally and conveniently located places in Florida. Headquarters shall be located in Tallahassee, for the transaction of business. The commission shall keep its official records and papers at said office, which it shall furnish and equip.

History.—§2, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.05 Seal.—The commission shall adopt an official seal of which the courts shall take judicial notice.

History.—§3, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.06 Meeting; when commission may act.—The commission shall meet at the call of the chairman and from time to time as may otherwise be determined by the commission. A majority of the commission shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business. No prisoner shall be placed on parole except by vote of a majority of the commission.

History.—§4, ch. 20519, 1941. Am. §1, ch. 23757, 1947.

947.07 Rules and regulations.—The commission shall have power to make such rules and regulations as it deems best for its governance, including among other things rules of practice and procedure and rules prescribing qualifications to be possessed by its employees.

History.—§27, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §1, ch. 23757, 1947.

947.08 Clerical and other assistance; supplies, materials, other expenses.—The commission may appoint such supervisors, assistants and other employees and fix their compensation, and purchase such supplies and materials and incur such other expense as it may deem necessary for the proper and efficient performance of its duties, and in its discretion may discharge any such employee. Only citizens of Florida who have resided in and been bona fide residents of the state for two years or more next prior to the date thereof shall be eligible for employment by the commission, except only where after due diligence no person can be found in the state possessing the required qualifications necessary to the particular employment.

History.—§5, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §1, ch. 21775, 1943.

947.09 Competitive examinations for certain full-time employees.—

(1) The commission shall from time to time as may be necessary prepare and conduct or cause to be prepared and conducted, free competitive examinations for all full-time positions requiring special knowledge in penology, social welfare or correctional supervision, which the commission may have the power to fill. Such examinations may be written or oral. Written portions of such examinations shall be conducted so that the identity of the examinees shall not be known to the examiners. Only citizens of Florida who have resided in and have been bona fide residents of the state for two years or more next prior to the date thereof shall be eligible to take such examinations and for employment by the commission.

(2) From the examinations so conducted, the commission shall compile lists of eligibles from which it shall make its selections to the positions for which said examinations shall have been held. Such lists shall not remain in force for a longer period than two years, and at the expiration of said period, or upon the exhaustion of any list, a new list shall be compiled by the commission before another selection may be made to a position for which the expired or exhausted list was applicable, except that in an emergency the commission may provisionally employ a person for a position for which no eligible list is available. No such provisional employment shall be for a longer period than three months, and successive provisional employment shall not be made by the commission.

(3) Persons taking such examinations shall rank upon such eligible lists in the order of their relative fitness as determined by such examination. To fill any such full-time position, and any vacancy occurring therein, the commission shall employ one person from the three persons standing highest on the applicable eligible list.

History.—§6, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §2, ch. 21775, 1943.

947.10 Business and political activity upon part of members and full-time employees of commission.—No member of the commission and no full time employee thereof shall, during their service upon or under the commission engage in any other business or profession nor hold any other public office; nor shall they serve as the representative of any political party, or any executive committee or other governing body thereof, or as an executive officer or employee of any political committee, organization, or association, or be engaged on the behalf of any candidate for public office in the solicitation of votes, or otherwise.

History.—§7, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.11 Legal adviser.—The attorney general shall be the legal adviser of the commission.

History.—§8, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.12 Members, employees, expenses.—The members of the commission and its employees shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061. All bills for expenses shall be properly receipted, audited, and approved and forwarded to the comptroller, and shall be paid in a manner and form as the bills for the expenses of the several departments of the state government are paid. All expenses, including salaries and other compensation, shall be paid from the general revenue fund and within the appropriation as fixed therefor by the legislature. Such expenses shall be paid by the state treasurer upon proper warrants issued by the comptroller of the state, drawn upon vouchers and requisitions approved by the commission, signed by the comptroller and countersigned by the governor.

The members of the examining board created in §947.02 shall each be paid ten dollars per diem for each full day spent in performing the duties of said board, and in addition there-to said members shall be paid by the state their necessary traveling expenses when traveling in the performance of their duties.

History.—§9, ch. 20519, 1941; §1, ch. 22864, 1945; §1, ch. 24033, 1947; §8, ch. 57-401; §19, ch. 63-400.

947.13 Certain powers and duties of commission relative to parole, conditional release, etc.—The commission shall have the powers and perform the duties of determining what persons shall be placed on parole, and of fixing the time and the conditions of such parole, as provided in this chapter. The commission shall also have the powers and perform the duties of supervising all persons placed on parole and of determining violations thereof and what action shall be taken with reference thereto; of making such investigations as may be necessary; of aiding parolees and probationers in securing employment; of reporting to the board of pardons the facts, circumstances, criminal records, social, physical, mental and psychiatric conditions and histories of persons under consideration by the board of pardons for pardon, commutation of sentence, or remission of fine, penalty, or forfeiture.

History.—§10, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.14 Records of commission.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the commission to obtain and place in its permanent records information as complete as may be practicably available on every person who may become subject to parole. Such information shall be obtained as soon as possible after imposition of sentence and shall, in the discretion of the commission, include among other things the following:

(a) A copy of the indictment or information, and a complete statement of the facts of the crime for which such person has been sentenced;

(b) The court in which the person was sentenced;

(c) The terms of the sentence;

(d) The name of the presiding judge, the prosecuting officers, the investigating officers, and the attorneys for the person convicted;

(e) A copy of all probation reports which may have been made;

(f) Any social, physical, mental, psychiatric or criminal record of such person.

(2) The commission, in its discretion, shall also obtain and place in its permanent records such information on every person who may be placed on probation, and on every person who may become subject to pardon and commutation of sentence.

(3) The commission shall immediately examine such records, and any other records which it obtains, and may make such other investigations as may be necessary.

(4) It shall be the duty of the court, and its prosecuting officials, to furnish to the commission upon its request such information and also to furnish such copies of such minutes and other records as may be in their possession or under their control.

(5) The welfare board of the state, and all other state, county and city agencies, sheriffs and their deputies, and all peace officers shall cooperate with the commission and shall aid and assist it in the performance of its duties.

(6) The commission may make such rules as to the privacy or privilege of such information and its use by others than the commission and its staff as may be deemed expedient in the performance of its duties.

History.—§11, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.15 Reports.—On or before the first day of January of each year the commission shall make a written report to the board of commissioners of state institutions, of its activities together with a full and detailed financial statement, copies of which shall be sent to the governor and to the attorney general and to such other officials and persons as the commission may deem advisable. One copy of said report shall become a part of the records of the commission.

History.—§28, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.16 Eligibility for parole; power of commission.—

(1) Every person who has been, or who may hereafter be convicted of a felony or one who has been convicted of one or more misdemeanors and whose sentence or cumulative sentences total twelve months or more and confined in a jail or prison in this state in execution of the judgment of the court thereof and who has served not less than six months of such term, and in cases where the term is eighteen months or less, has served not less than one-third of his term, and whose prison record is good, shall be eligible for consideration by the commission for parole.

(2) Persons who have become eligible for parole and who may in the discretion of the commission be granted parole shall be placed on parole in accordance with the provisions of this law.

History.—§12, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §3, ch. 21775, 1943.

947.17 Procedure in granting parole.—

(1) A person shall be placed on parole upon the initiative of the commission and with the consent of such person.

(2) At least thirty days prior to the time that a person shall first become eligible for parole, and at such other times thereafter as the commission shall determine, the commission shall cause to be brought before it all pertinent information on such person. Included therein shall be a report of the superintendent, warden, or jailer of the jail or prison in which such person has been confined upon the conduct and record of such person while in such jail or prison; the result of such physical, mental and psychiatric examination as have been made of such person; the extent to which such person appears to have responded to the efforts made to improve his social attitude; his industrial record while confined and the nature of his occupation while so confined, and a recommendation as to the kind of work he is best fitted to perform and at which he is most likely to succeed when and if he is released.

(3) The commission may make such investigation as it may deem necessary in order to be fully informed on such person.

(4) Before placing any person on parole the commission may have such person appear before it and may personally examine him.

(5) Thereafter, upon consideration, the commission shall make its findings and determine whether or not such person shall be granted a parole and the terms and conditions thereof, of which determination such person and the prison official having him in custody shall be notified.

(6) If such person is granted a parole, the prison official having such person in custody shall, upon notification thereof, inform him of the terms and conditions of such parole and shall in strict accordance therewith, release such person. If such person is indigent at the time he is placed on parole, which fact may be determined in advance by the commission, he shall be given his transportation by the nearest route to the destination noted in the parole. In addition thereto he shall be given a suit of clothes, one pair of shoes, a hat, a suit of underclothing, not to exceed in value, in the aggregate, the sum of fifteen dollars, and ten dollars in cash, the cost of which shall be payable by the state as other expenses of the administration of the state prison are paid.

History.—§13, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.18 Conditions of parole.—No person shall be placed on parole merely as a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties assigned in prison. No person shall be placed on parole until and unless the commission shall find that there is reasonable probability that, if he is placed on parole, he will live and conduct himself as a respectable and law abiding person, and that his release will be compatible with his own welfare and the welfare of society. No person shall be placed on parole unless and until the commission is satisfied that he will be suitably employed in self-sustaining employment, or that he will not become a public charge. The commission shall determine the terms upon which such persons shall be granted parole.

History.—§14, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.19 Terms of parole.—The commission, upon placing a person on parole, shall specify in writing the terms and conditions of his parole. A certified copy thereof shall be given to the parolee.

History.—§15, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

947.20 Rules of commission.—The commission shall adopt general rules on the terms and conditions of parole and what shall constitute the violation thereof, and may make such special rules to govern particular cases. Such rules, both general and special, may include, among other things, a requirement that the parolee shall not leave the state or any definite area in Florida without the consent of the commission; that he shall contribute to the support of his dependents to the best of his ability; that he shall make reparation or restitution for his crime; that he shall abandon evil associates and ways; that he shall carry out the instructions of his parole supervisor and, in general, so comport himself as such supervisor shall determine.

History.—§15, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.21 Violations of parole.—A violation of the terms of parole may render the parolee liable to arrest and a return to prison to serve out the term for which he was sentenced. No part of the time he may have been on parole shall in such event, in any manner diminish the time of such sentence.

History.—§15, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.22 Authority of certain officers to arrest parole violators with and without a warrant.—

(1) If any member of the commission shall have reasonable ground to believe that any parolee has lapsed into criminal ways, or has violated the terms and conditions of his parole in a material respect, such member may issue a warrant for the arrest of such parolee. Said warrant, if issued by a member of the commission, shall be returnable before him and shall command that the parolee be brought before him, when he may examine such parolee and admit him to bail conditioned for his appearance before the parole commission, or if he is not admitted to bail, commit him to jail pending a hearing before the commission as herein-after provided. Any parole or probation supervisor, and all officers authorized to serve criminal process, and all peace officers of this state, shall be authorized to execute said warrant.

(2) Any parole or probation supervisor, when he has reasonable ground to believe that a parolee has violated the terms and conditions of his parole in a material respect, shall have the right to arrest without warrant said parolee and bring him forthwith before the commission, or some member thereof, and proceedings shall thereupon be had as provided herein when a warrant has been issued by a member of the commission.

History.—§16, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.23 Action of commission upon arrest of parolee.—

(1) As soon as practicable after the arrest of a person charged with violation of the terms and conditions of his parole, such parolee shall appear before the commission in person, and if he desires he may be represented by counsel, and a hearing shall be had at which the state and the parolee may introduce such evidence as they may deem necessary and pertinent to the charge of parole violation. Within a reasonable time thereafter the commission shall make findings upon such charge of parole violation and shall enter an order determining whether said charges of parole violation have been sustained. The commission shall in and by said order revoke said parole and return said person to prison to serve the sentence theretofore imposed upon him, or reinstate the original order of parole, or shall enter such other order as it may deem proper.

(2) Whenever a parole is revoked by the parole commission and said parolee ordered by said commission to be returned to prison, the parolee, by reason of his misconduct, shall be deemed to forfeit all gain time or commutation of time for good conduct, as provided for by former §954.06, earned up to the date of his release on parole. Nothing herein shall deprive the prisoner of his right to gain time or commutation of time for good conduct, as provided by former §954.06, from the date he is returned to prison.

History.—§17, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §4, ch. 21775, 1943.

947.24 Discharge from parole.—When a person is placed on parole the commission shall determine the period of time the person shall be on parole, and such time shall not exceed the maximum term for which he has been sentenced. The commission after having retained jurisdiction of a person for a sufficient length of time to evidence satisfactory rehabilitation and cooperation may relieve a person on parole from making further reports, or may permit such person to leave the state or county, upon determination that such action is in the best interests of the person and of society.

History.—§18, ch. 20519, 1941; §1, ch. 63-83.

947.25 Recommendations to board of pardons.—When a parolee has, in the opinion of the commission, so conducted himself as to deserve a pardon or a commutation of sentence or the remission in whole or in part of any fine, forfeiture or penalty, the commission may recommend that such clemency be extended by the board of pardons to such parolee. In such case the commission shall fully advise said board of the facts upon which such recommendation is based.

History.—§18, ch. 20519, 1941.

947.26 Cooperation of custodian of prisoner; right of access.—The superintendent, warden, or jailer of any jail or prison in which persons convicted of crime may be confined, and all officers or employees thereof, shall at all times co-operate with the commission, and upon its request shall furnish it with such information as they may have respecting any person inquired about as will enable the commission properly to perform its duties. Such officials shall at all reasonable times, when the public safety permits, give the members of the commission, its authorized agents and employees, access to all prisoners in their charge.

History.—§19, ch. 20519, 1941.

CHAPTER 948

PROBATION

- 948.01 When courts may place defendant on probation.
 948.011 When court may impose fine and place on probation as to imprisonment.
 948.02 Duties of parole commission relating to probationers.
 948.03 Terms and conditions of probation.

948.01 When courts may place defendant on probation.—

(1) Any court of the state having original jurisdiction of criminal actions, where the defendant in a criminal case has been found guilty by the verdict of a jury or has entered a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere or has been found guilty by the court trying the case without a jury, except for an offense punishable by death, may at a time to be determined by the court, either with or without an adjudication of the guilt of the defendant, hear and determine the question of the probation of such defendant.

(2) Prior to such hearing the court may refer the case to the parole commission for investigation and recommendation. The court, upon such reference, shall direct the commission and it shall be the duty of the commission to make an investigation and report in writing at a specified time to the court upon the circumstances of the offense, the criminal record, the social history, and the present condition of defendant together with its recommendation.

(3) If it appears to the court upon a hearing of the matter that the defendant is not likely again to engage in a criminal course of conduct and that the ends of justice and the welfare of society do not require that the defendant shall presently suffer the penalty imposed by law, the court, in its discretion, may either adjudge the defendant to be guilty or stay and withhold the adjudication of guilt and in either case stay and withhold the imposition of sentence upon such defendant, and shall place him upon probation under the supervision and control of the parole commission for the duration of such probation. And the said commission shall thereupon and thereafter, during the continuance of such probation, have the supervision and control of the defendant.

(4) In no case shall the imposition of sentence be suspended and the defendant thereupon placed on probation unless such defendant be placed under the custody of said parole commission except as provided in §949.03.

him and place him on probation as to imprisonment.

History.—§1, ch. 59-175.

948.02 Duties of parole commission relating to probationers.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the parole commission to investigate all cases referred to it by the court and to make its findings and report thereon in writing to such court with its recommendation; to cause to be delivered to each person placed on probation under its supervision a certified copy of the terms of such probation, and any change or modification thereof, and to cause said person to be instructed regarding the same; to keep informed concerning the conduct, habits, associates, employment, recreations, and whereabouts of such probationer, by visits, requiring reports and in other ways; to make such reports in writing or otherwise as the court may reasonably require; to use all practicable and proper methods to aid and encourage persons on probation, and to bring about improvement in their conduct and condition; to keep records on each probationer referred to it.

(2) The commission shall cooperate with courts exercising criminal jurisdiction by supervising such probationers and prisoners upon whom the pronouncing of sentence has been deferred; and shall make such reports to said courts as directed thereby.

History.—§21, ch. 20519, 1941.

cf.—§§949.07, 949.08, Compacts with other states.

948.03 Terms and conditions of probation.—

(1) The court shall determine the terms and conditions of probation and may include among them the following: That the probationer shall (a) avoid injurious or vicious habits; (b) avoid persons or places of disreputable or harmful character; (c) report to the parole and probation supervisors as directed; (d) permit such supervisors to visit him at his home, or elsewhere; (e) work faithfully at suitable employment insofar as may be possible; (f) remain within a specified place; (g) make reparation or restitution to the aggrieved party for the damage or loss caused by his offense in an amount to be determined by the court; (h) support his legal dependents to the best of his ability.

(2) The enumeration of specific kinds of terms and conditions shall not prevent the court from adding thereto such other or others as it considers proper. The court may rescind or modify at any time of the terms and conditions theretofore imposed by the court upon the probationer.

History.—§23, ch. 20519, 1941.
cf.—§§949.07, 949.08, Compacts with other states.

948.04 Period of probation; duty of probationer.—The period of probation shall not extend more than two years beyond the maximum term for which the defendant might have been sentenced; provided, however, that if, during the period of probation of any case, it appears to the court that further supervision would be beneficial to the probationer or to society, the court may, by proper order, extend the supervision period, within the limits of time hereinabove specified. Upon the termination of the period of probation, the probationer shall be released from probation and shall not be liable to sentence for the crime for which probation was allowed. During the period of probation the probationer shall perform the terms and conditions of his probation.

History.—§24, ch. 20519, 1941; am. §5, ch. 21775, 1943.

948.05 Court to admonish or commend probationer.—The court may at any time cause the probationer to appear before it to be admonished, or commended, and when satisfied that its action will be for the best interests of justice and the welfare of society, may discharge the probationer from further supervision.

History.—§25, ch. 20519, 1941.
cf.—§949.04, Construction of law.

948.06 Violation of probation; revocation; modification; continuance.—

(1) Whenever within the period of probation there is reasonable ground to believe that a probationer has violated his probation in a material respect, any parole or probation supervisor may arrest such probationer without warrant wherever found, and forthwith shall return him to the court granting such probation. Any committing magistrate may issue a warrant upon the facts being made known to him by affidavit of one having knowledge of such facts for the arrest of the probationer, returnable forthwith before the court granting such probation. The court, upon the probationer being brought before it, shall advise him of such charge of violation and if such charge is admitted to be true may forthwith revoke, modify or continue probation and, if revoked, shall adjudge the probationer guilty of the offense charged and proven or admitted, unless he shall have previously been adjudged guilty, and impose any sentence which it might have originally imposed before placing the probationer on probation; if such violation of probation is not admitted by the probationer, the court may commit him or release him with or without bail to await further hearing, or it may dismiss the charge of probation violation. If such charge is not at said time admitted by the probationer and if it is not dismissed, the court, as soon as may be practicable, shall give the probationer an opportunity to be fully heard on his behalf in person or by counsel. After such hearing, the court may revoke, modify or continue the probation. If such probation is revoked, the court shall adjudge the probationer guilty of the offense charged and proven or admitted, unless he shall have previously been adjudged guilty, and impose any sentence which it might have originally imposed before placing the probationer on probation.

(2) No part of the time that the defendant is on probation shall be considered as any part of the time that he shall be sentenced to serve.

949.01 Juvenile courts unaffected.—Nothing in chapters 947-949 shall be construed to change or modify the law respecting parole and probation as administered by the juvenile courts of this state.

History.—§30, ch. 20519, 1941.
 cf.—Ch. 39, Juvenile courts.

949.02* Florida industrial school for boys; Florida industrial school for girls.—Nothing in chapters 947-949 shall be construed to change or modify the law respecting paroles as administered at the Florida industrial school for boys and the Florida industrial school for girls.

History.—§31, ch. 20519, 1941.

*Name changed to Florida school for boys; Florida school for girls by §1, ch. 57-317.

949.03 Probation officers under previous acts.—

(1) Nothing in chapters 947-949 shall be construed as abridging, repealing, or altering the provisions of chapter 19245, acts of 1939, creating and establishing the office of probation and parole officer for the criminal court of record and court of crimes in certain counties, etc., and chapter 19248, acts of 1939, creating and establishing the office of probation and parole officer for the criminal court of record of all counties having a population of not less than eighty-five thousand and not more than one hundred sixty-five thousand, save and except that after the court has placed a defendant on probation and under the control and supervision of the parole commission such control and supervision shall be exclusive. Such probation officer shall, thereafter, as to such probationer of the court theretofore appointing him, act only under and pursuant to the instruction of the said commission.

(2) In all criminal courts of record or courts of crimes, created by special legislative acts not specifically covered by subsection (1) of this section, the parole commissioners shall appoint the parole supervisors and shall determine their compensation subject to the provisions of §947.09; provided, however, the expense and salary of the supervisor shall be paid by the court affected. All special courts of record of whatever nature shall be subject to the general provisions of this chapter, as to appointments of parole supervisors.

(2) If the method of selecting the commission members as herein provided is found to be invalid by reason of the vesting of the appointing power in the board of commissioners of state institutions, the members of the parole commission herein provided for shall be appointed by the governor.

History.—§34, ch. 20519, 1941.

949.06 Short title.—Chapters 947, 948 and 949 (except §§949.07-949.09) shall be known as the parole and probation law.

History.—§36, ch. 20519, 1941.

949.07 Compacts with other states.—The governor is hereby authorized and directed to enter into a compact on behalf of the state with any state of the United States legally joining therein in the form substantially as follows:

A compact entered into by and among the contracting states, signatories hereto, with the consent of the congress, granted by an act entitled "An act granting the consent of congress to any two or more states to enter into agreements or compacts for cooperative effort and mutual assistance in the prevention of crime and for other purposes."

The contracting states solemnly agree:

(1) That it shall be competent for the duly constituted judicial and administrative authorities of a state party to this compact (herein called "sending state") to permit any person convicted of an offense within such state and placed on probation or released on parole to reside in any other state party to this compact (herein called "receiving state") while on probation or parole, if

(a) Such person is in fact a resident of or has his family residing within the receiving state and can obtain employment there.

(b) Though not a resident of the receiving state and not having his family residing there, the receiving state consents to such person being sent there.

Before granting such permission, opportunity shall be granted to the receiving state to investigate the home and prospective employment of such person.

A resident of the receiving state, within the meaning of this section, is one who has been an actual inhabitant of such state continuously for more than one year prior to his coming to the sending state and has not resided within the sending state more than six continuous months immediately preceding the commission of the offense for which he has been convicted.

(2) That each receiving state will assume the duties of visitation of and supervision over probationers or parolees of any sending state and in the exercise of those duties will be governed by the same standards that prevail for its own probationers and parolees.

(3) That duly accredited officers of a sending state may at all times enter a receiving state and there apprehend and retake any person on probation or parole. For that purpose no formalities will be required other than establishing the authority of the officer and the identity of the person to be retaken. All legal requirements to obtain extradition of fugitives from justice are hereby expressly waived on the part of states party hereto, as to such persons. The decision of the sending state to retake a person on probation or parole shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; provided however, that if at the time when a state seeks to retake a probationer or parolee there should be pending against him within the receiving state any criminal charge, or he should be suspected of having committed within such state a criminal offense, he shall not be retaken without the consent of the receiving state until discharged from prosecution or from imprisonment for such offense.

(4) That the duly accredited officers of the sending state will be permitted to transport prisoners being retaken through any and all states parties to this compact, without interference.

(5) That the governor of each state may designate an officer who, acting jointly with like officers of other contracting states, if and when appointed, shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary more effectively to carry out the terms of this compact.

(6) That this compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any state as between it and any other state or states so ratifying. When ratified, it shall have the full force and effect of law within such state, the form of ratification to be in accordance with the laws of the ratifying state.

(7) That this compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon each ratifying state until renounced by it. The duties and obligations hereunder of a renouncing state shall continue as to parolees or probationers residing therein at the time of withdrawal until retaken or finally discharged by the sending state. Renunciation of this compact shall be by the same authority which ratified it, by sending six months' notice in writing of its intention to withdraw from the compact to the other states party hereto.

History.—§1, ch. 20455, 1941.

949.071 Definition of "state" as used in §949.07; further declaration relating to interstate compacts.—It is hereby declared that the term "state," as used in §949.07, relating to and authorizing and directing the governor to enter into an interstate compact in behalf of Florida with any state of the United States for out-of-state supervision of probationers and parolees, and prescribing the form to be substantially used for any such compact, means any one of the several states and Alaska, Hawaii, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the District of Columbia.

It is hereby recognized and further declared that pursuant to the consent and authorization contained in §111(b) of title 4 of the United States code as added by public law 970-84th congress, chapter 941-2d session, this state shall be a party to said interstate compact for the supervision of parolees and probationers with any additional jurisdiction legally joining therein when such jurisdiction shall have enacted said compact in accordance with the terms thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 57-89.

949.08 Parole commission to enact rules and regulations relating to compacts.—The parole commission shall have power and shall be charged with the duty of promulgating such rules and regulations and the expenditures of funds as may be deemed necessary to carry out the terms, conditions and intents of a compact entered into by the state pursuant to §949.07.

History.—§2, ch. 20455, 1941.

949.09 Same; short title.— §§949.07-949.08 shall be known as the uniform law for out-of-state probation and parole supervision.

History.—§4, ch. 20455, 1941.

CHAPTER 950 JAILS AND JAILERS

- 950.01 Confinement in jail of another county.
 950.02 Removal to jail of another county.
 950.03 County jailers to receive United States prisoners.
 950.04 Penalty for neglect of duty in keeping prisoners of the United States.
 950.05 Jails to be constructed so white and colored male and female prisoners may be separated.

950.01 Confinement in jail of another county.—When it appears to the court at the time of passing sentence upon any prisoner who is to be punished by imprisonment in the county jail that there is no jail in the county suitable for the confinement of such prisoner, the court may order the sentence to be executed in any county in this state in which there may be a jail suited to that purpose, and the expense of supporting such prisoner shall be borne by the county in which the offense was committed.

History.—§25, ch. 1637, sub-ch. 13, 1868; RS 3027; GS 4104; RGS 6208; CGL 8540; §1, ch. 61-488. cf.—§839.21, Penalty for refusal to receive prisoner.

950.02 Removal to jail of another county.—

(1) When in the opinion of the governor the interests of the state demand it, the circuit judge shall, upon the request of the governor, make an order directing that any person held under a criminal charge shall be confined in the jail of another county of the state than that in which the offense charged is alleged to have been committed.

(2) When it shall be made to appear to a circuit judge to be necessary to quickly remove a prisoner to the jail of another county for safe-keeping or to prevent injury to such prisoner, and the governor is not easily accessible, or it is deemed inadvisable, by reason of circumstances, to first communicate with the governor, the circuit judge shall make an order directing that any person held under a criminal charge shall be confined in the jail of another county of the state than that in which the offense is alleged to have been committed. Immediately after the removal the sheriff of the county from which the prisoner was removed shall make full report to the governor of the state of the reasons for such removal and attach a copy of the said judge's order.

(3) No order above referred to shall be made except by the judge of the circuit in which the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed is located. Such order shall be of full force and effect throughout the state, but the county to which the prisoner is sent, or any officer thereof, is not required to incur or pay any expense or charge of maintaining such prisoner.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 3207, 1881; RS 3028; GS 4105; RGS 6209; CGL 8541; §§1-3, ch. 20414, 1941.
cf.—§923.20, Form of commitment to jail of another county.

950.03 County jailers to receive United States prisoners.—The keeper of the jail in each county within this state shall receive into his custody any prisoner who may be

- 950.06 Unlawful for white and colored prisoners, male and female prisoners, to be confined together.
 950.07 Appropriation authorized to remodel jail so classes of prisoners may be separated.

committed to his charge under the authority of the United States, and shall safely keep each prisoner according to the warrant or precept for such commitment, until he is discharged by due course of law of the United States.

History.—§1, ch. 85, 1847; RS 3029; GS 4106; RGS 6210; CGL 8542.

950.04 Penalty for neglect of duty in keeping prisoners of the United States.—The keeper of each jail shall be subject to the same penalties for any neglect or failure of duty in keeping prisoners who are committed to his charge under the authority of the United States, as he would be subject to under the laws of this state for the like neglect or failure in the case of prisoners committed under the authority of the said laws; provided, the United States pays or causes to be paid to the jailer such fees as he would be entitled to for like service rendered by virtue of the existing laws of this state during the time such prisoners shall be therein confined; and moreover, supports such of the prisoners as shall be committed for offenses.

History.—§2, ch. 85, 1847; RS 3030; GS 4107; RGS 6211; CGL 8543.

950.05 Jails to be constructed so white and colored male and female prisoners may be separated.—The county commissioners of the respective counties of this state shall so arrange the jails of their respective counties that it shall be unnecessary to confine in said jails in the same room, cell or apartment white and negro prisoners, or male and female prisoners.

History.—§1, ch. 5967, 1909; RGS 6213; CGL 8545.

950.06 Unlawful for white and colored prisoners, male and female prisoners, to be confined together.—It is unlawful for white and negro prisoners to be confined in the county jails of this state in the same cell, room or apartment, or be so confined as to be permitted to commingle.

It is unlawful for male and female prisoners in said jails to be confined in the same cell, room or apartment, or be so confined as to be permitted to commingle, and the sheriffs of this state shall confine and separate all prisoners in their custody or charge in accordance with this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 5967, 1909; RGS 6214; CGL 8546.

950.07 Appropriation authorized to remodel jail so classes of prisoners may be separated.—The county commissioners of the several counties of this state are authorized to appropriate from the general revenue fund of the said counties such moneys as are necessary to carry into effect the provisions of §§950.05-950.06.

History.—§8, ch. 5987, 1909; RGS 6215; CGL 8547.

950.08 Officers refusing to comply with law subject to removal.—Any board of county commissioners and any sheriff willfully refusing to carry out and comply with the provisions of §§950.05 and 950.06 in their respective spheres of duty shall be removed from office by the governor.

History.—§4, ch. 5987, 1909; RGS 6216; CGL 8548.

950.09 Malpractice by jailers.—If any jailer shall, by too great duress of imprisonment or otherwise, make or induce a prisoner to disclose and give evidence against some other person, or be guilty of willful inhumanity and oppression to any prisoner under his care and custody, he shall be punished by removal from office and imprisonment not exceeding six months, or by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars.

food, etc.—Boards of county commissioners when working county prisoners on the public works of the counties, shall provide or cause to be provided, substantial food, clothes, shoes, medical attention, etc., for said prisoners as are required for state prisoners in the state.

History.—§1, ch. 2090, 1877; RS 3032; GS 4109; §1, ch. 5705, 1907; §1, ch. 5963, 1909; RGS 6217; §1, ch. 7323, 1917; §1, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8549; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.04 Duty of county commissioners upon discharge of prisoner.—When a prisoner is discharged by reasons of having served his sentence, or upon receiving a pardon or parole, he shall be furnished transportation, or its equivalent in money, back to the place from which he was sentenced, together with the sum of five dollars, where the sentence is for four months or more, and the sum of three dollars where the sentence is for a less period than four months, in addition to his transportation, all of which shall be paid out of the general fund of the county in which he was convicted, and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter, the clerk of the board of county commissioners of each county shall, under the directions of said board, issue a check on said fund with which to pay these amounts to the prisoners being discharged at the time of their release.

History.—§1, ch. 2090, 1877; RS 3032; GS 4109; §1, ch. 5705, 1907; §1, ch. 5963, 1909; RGS 6217; §1, ch. 7323, 1917; §1, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8549; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.05 Working county prisoners on roads and bridges or other public works of the county; hiring out to another county.—The board of county commissioners of the several counties may require all county prisoners under sentence confined in the jail of their respective counties for any offense, to labor upon the public roads, bridges, farms or other public works owned and operated by the county, or in the event the county commissioners of any county deem it to the best interest of their county, they may hire out their prisoners to any other county in the state to be worked upon the public roads, bridges, or other public works of that county, or they may, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between themselves and the state road department, lease or let said prisoners to the said department instead of keeping them in the county jail where they are sentenced. The money derived from the hire of such prisoners shall be paid to the county hiring out such prisoners and placed to the credit of the fine and forfeiture fund of the county.

History.—§13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; §2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.06 Employment of guards; duties; salary.—

(1) The county commissioners shall employ a captain or warden and such guards as they deem necessary, pursuant to standards for employment established by the board of commissioners of state institutions and administered by the director of the division of corrections.

(2) All captains or wardens of prisoners shall see that all rules and regulations prescribed by law or the director of the division of corrections and the board of commissioners of state institutions are fully observed and complied with; enforce discipline among the prisoners in and about the camps; and administer punishment to prisoners, when in their judgment the same is necessary in order to enforce proper discipline, conforming always to the law and rules and regulations.

(3) All boards of county commissioners shall immediately discharge any captain, warden or guard in their employ who shall be guilty of gross negligence or cruel and inhuman treatment of prisoners under their control and their action shall be final.

(4) The salaries of captains, wardens and guards provided for in this chapter shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners employing them, and the captain or warden shall be furnished means of transportation over the roads of the county when necessary, the upkeep and operation of which shall be furnished by the county; provided, however, the county shall not in any case be required to furnish a driver of such conveyance where such services are required to be paid for.

(5) All salaries contemplated by this chapter shall be paid from the general revenue fund of the county.

History.—§13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; §2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; §44, ch. 57-121; §2, ch. 61-198; (2) a. by §1, ch. 61-198 and §18, ch. 61-530.
cf.—§336.43 Employment of convict guards.

951.07 Punishment of prisoners; rules and regulations.—The flogging or whipping of prisoners in this state is prohibited, but the director of the division of corrections may make and enforce suitable and reasonable rules and regulations for the government of such prisoners while serving sentences in prison camps or jails, and enforce the same by solitary confinement, restriction of privileges or any other humane and reasonable method of punishment. Any prisoner in any jail or prison camp of this state who shall repeatedly, knowingly and willfully refuse to obey any such reasonable rule or regulation while being subject thereto, shall be deemed guilty of a substantive offense, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished as for a misdemeanor under the general laws of this state, and such punishment shall upon his conviction be in addition to the sentence he is then serving.

History.—§13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; §2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550, §44, ch. 57-121; §1, ch. 61-488; §18, ch. 61-530.
cf.—§775.07, Punishment for misdemeanor.
§951.07, 951.08, Punishment for prisoners.

951.08 Working prisoner more than ten hours per day prohibited.—No prisoner shall be compelled to labor more than ten hours per day nor be subject to punishment for any refusal to labor beyond such limit; provided, that the ten hours shall be the time embraced from the leaving to the return of the prisoner to his place of detention.

History.—§13, ch. 6537, 1913; RGS 6218; §2, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8550; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.10 Leasing prisoners to work for private interests prohibited.—No county prisoners shall be leased to work for any private interests.

History.—§3, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8551; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.11 Turning prisoners over to board of bond trustees, etc.—The board of county commissioners in counties where a board of bond trustees, board of public works or other duly constituted board, has charge of the construction and maintenance of the public roads may turn the county prisoners over to the said trustees to be worked on the public roads of said county, subject to all the rules and regulations herein provided.

History.—§4, ch. 9203, 1923; CGL 8552; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.12 Working prisoners on public roads and exchange of prisoners between counties.—All persons confined in the county jail under sentence of a court may be worked on the roads of the county. In case the number of prisoners in any county at any time be less than five, the county commissioners of such county may arrange with the county commissioners of any other county for an exchange of prisoners. The county commissioners shall not be required to work the prisoners on the public roads when there is no contract between the counties as provided herein, nor when in their judgment the number of prisoners is insufficient to justify the employment of a guard to work them.

History.—§4, ch. 4769, 1899; GS 4110; RGS 6219; CGL 8553; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.13 Transferring from one county to another.—When the county commissioners of any county shall have made provision for the expenses of supporting and guarding, while at work on the public roads, a larger number of prisoners than can be supplied from that county, upon the application of the county commissioners of such county, the county commissioners of any other county which has not otherwise provided for the working of its prisoners or otherwise disposed of its prisoners, or may hereafter dispose of its prisoners, shall deliver to said county or counties applying for same, in the order of their application, such prisoners as may be confined in the county jail or hereafter be sentenced to such county jail.

Provided, that the cost of guarding and maintaining such prisoners shall be paid by the county applying for and receiving the same and any and all such prisoners from such other counties may at any time be returned to the sheriff of such other counties at the expense of the county having received and used them; provided, further, that no prisoners shall be sent out of the county in which they have been convicted and sentenced to work to any other county, unless a contract for that purpose shall have been entered into by the boards of county commissioners of the respective counties, and arrangements made for their safekeeping, proper care and safe return by the employing counties to the county or counties from which such prisoners were sentenced.

History.—§5, ch. 4769, 1899; GS 4111; RGS 6220; CGL 8554; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.14 Failure of person to discharge his duty; penalty.—Any person appointed by virtue of the laws of the state relative to working county prisoners on the public road, or to whom duties are assigned in this chapter, who shall fail to make complete return within the time specified therein, or who shall otherwise fail to discharge the duties imposed upon him by this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars or be imprisoned for not more than six months in the county jail.

History.—§8, ch. 4769, 1899; GS 4112; RGS 6221; CGL 8555; §7, ch. 29615, 1955; §1, ch. 61-488.
cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

951.15 Credit on fines and costs.—Every working prisoner shall be entitled to receive, together with subsistence, a credit at the rate of thirty cents per diem, on account of fines and costs adjudged against him.

History.—§3033, RS 1892; §2, ch. 2090, 1897; GS 4113; RGS 6222; CGL 8556; §1, ch. 61-488.

951.16 Prisoners entitled to receive credit on fine based on imprisonment.—Every person who may be imprisoned in the county jail for failure to pay a fine and costs, or either, under sentence imposed, upon conviction for crime shall be entitled to receive, together with subsistence, a credit on such fine and costs, or either, as the case may be, in proportion to the time such person may be imprisoned.

History.—§1, ch. 6176, 1911; RGS 6223; CGL 8557.

951.17 Corporal punishment prohibited.—The board of commissioners of state institutions and the director of the division of corrections shall prohibit corporal punishment upon county prisoners.

History.—§1, ch. 9332, 1923; CGL 8558; §44, ch. 57-121; §1, ch. 61-488; §18, ch. 61-530.

951.18 Punishment other than corporal punishment.—The board of commissioners of state institutions and the director of the department of corrections shall devise such other adequate and proper punishment as to them shall seem wise to supply in place of corporal punishment.

History.—§3, ch. 9332, 1923; CGL 8559, §44, ch. 57-121.

951.19 Interference with county prisoners.—Whoever shall interfere with county prisoners while at work, at their meals, at rest, or while going to and from their quarters or with the guards in charge of them, either by assaulting them or by inciting them or attempting to incite the prisoners to disobedience or revolt, or escape, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction, be fined not to exceed one hundred dollars.

History.—§2, ch. 4391, 1895; GS 3508; RGS 5394; CGL 7533.

951.20 Municipal prisoners not to be confined with ball and chain.—When any person is convicted in any municipal court in this state for the violation of any municipal ordinance, and shall be worked on any street or public work in such municipality such person shall not be confined with ball or chain at such work; provided, that if any person so convicted shall escape from custody, he may be confined with ball and chain when recaptured and while serving the remainder of his sentence.

History.—§1, ch. 4028, 1891; §1, ch. 4773, 1899; GS 4114; RGS 6224; CGL 8560.

951.21 Gain time for good conduct for county prisoners.—

(1) Commutation of time for good conduct of county prisoners shall be granted by the board of county commissioners, and the following deductions shall be made from the term of sentence when no charge of misconduct has been sustained against a county prisoner: five days per month off the first and second years of the sentence; ten days per month off the third and fourth years of the sentence; fifteen days per month off the fifth and all succeeding years of the sentence. Where no charge of misconduct is sustained against a county prisoner, the deduction shall be deemed earned and the prisoner shall be entitled to credit for a month as soon as the prisoner has served such time as, when added to the deduction allowable, will equal a month. A county prisoner under two or more cumulative sentences shall be allowed commutation as if they were all one sentence.

(2) For each sustained charge of escape or attempted escape, mutinous conduct or other serious misconduct, all the commutation which shall have accrued in favor of a county prisoner up to that day shall be forfeited, except that in case of escape if the prisoner voluntarily returns without expense to the state or county, then such forfeiture may be set aside by the board of county commissioners if in its judgment his subsequent conduct entitles him thereto.

History.—§23, ch. 3883, 1889; RS 3059; GS 4140; §1, ch. 6177, 1911; §1, ch. 6917, 1915; RGS 6231; CGL 8567; §1, ch. 18065, 1937; §1, ch. 19199, 1939; §1, ch. 25210, 1949; am. §1, ch. 28300, 1953; tr. from §954.06, 1957; §1, ch. 61-347.

Note.—Although ch. 57-121 purports to repeal ch. 954, attorney general opinion 057-274 holds that §954.06 insofar as it provides gain time for county prisoners was not repealed by ch. 57-121 but remains in full force and effect.

951.22 County jails; contraband articles.—

(1) It is unlawful except as duly authorized by the sheriff or officer in charge to introduce into or upon the grounds of any county jail or to give to or receive from any inmate of any county jail wherever said inmate is located at the time or to take or to attempt to take or send therefrom any of the following articles which are hereby declared to be contraband for the purposes of this act, to wit: Any intoxicating beverage; any narcotic or hypnotic or excitive drug; any firearm or any instrumentality customarily used or which is intended to be used as a dangerous weapon; and any instrumentality of any nature that may be or is intended to be used as an aid in effecting or attempting to effect an escape from a county jail.

(2) Whoever violates subsection (1) shall be deemed guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be punished by imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years, or by a fine not exceeding $1,000.00 or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§1, ch. 63-140.

955.01 Management of Florida industrial school for boys.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall have charge of the directing of the management and affairs of the Florida industrial school for boys, located near Marianna, and when not provided by statute, shall make and promulgate its own by-laws, and such regulations as will be necessary for the government of the school.

History.—§1, ch. 6529, 1913; §4, ch. 6916, 1915; §6, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6296, 6301; CGL 8622, 8627.

955.011 South Florida branch of industrial school for boys; appropriation.—

(1) The board of commissioners of state institutions of the state shall establish a south Florida branch of the Florida industrial school for boys, the same to be located near Okeechobee, in Okeechobee county, upon lands to be contributed therefor by the board of county commissioners of Okeechobee county.

(2) Said branch of said institution shall be subject to all of the provisions of chapter 955, which are not inconsistent with the provisions of this section. The superintendent of the south Florida branch of the Florida industrial school for boys shall be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the board of commissioners of state institutions. All other teachers or employees shall be employed by the board. The same standards, requirements, curricular and other provisions made for the Florida industrial school for boys located near Marianna, as the same may be now provided by law, shall apply to said south Florida branch of the Florida industrial school for boys located near Okeechobee, in Okeechobee county.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 29690, 1955; (3) r. by §1, ch. 61-516.

955.02 Only boys received.—Only boys shall be sentenced to or received at the Florida industrial school for boys.

History.—§2, ch. 6529, 1913; RGS 6297; CGL 8623.

* Name changed by §1, ch. 57-317.

955.03 Object of industrial school.—The system of management and laws to be prepared as directed in this chapter shall contemplate such school as not simply a place of correction, but a reform school, where the young offender of the law, separated from vicious associates, may receive careful physical, intellectual and moral training, be reformed and restored to the community with purposes and character fitting for a good citizen, an honorable and honest man, with a trade or skilled occupation fitting such person for self-maintenance.

History.—§4, ch. 4565, 1897; GS 4166; RGS 6298; CGL 8624.

955.04 Officers of institution.—The officers of the Florida industrial school for boys at Marianna shall consist of a superintendent and such other officers, including a physician for the treatment of the inmates of the institution, as the commissioners of state institutions shall designate.

History.—§1, ch. 5721, 1907; RGS 6302; CGL 8628.

955.05 Term of office of officers, etc.—The terms of office and employment of all officers and employees of the Florida industrial school for boys shall be fixed by the board of commissioners of state institutions. The salaries of all other officers and employees of said institution shall be fixed by the board of commissioners.

History.—§1, ch. 5721, 1907; RGS 6303; CGL 8629; §1, ch. 15859, 1933; §10, ch. 57-401.

955.06 Appointment of superintendent; other employees.—The superintendent of the Florida industrial school for boys shall be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the board of commissioners of state institutions. All other teachers or employees shall be employed by the board.

History.—§11, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6304; CGL 8630.

955.07 Qualifications of superintendent; literary and industrial training in school.—The superintendent of the Florida industrial school for boys shall be a man; he shall live at the school and devote his entire time to the management of the same. He shall have had practical experience in the management of such institutions, or special training in constructive social work. There shall be maintained a system of practical, industrial and manual training at said school, and such educational, literary and musical facilities as the board of commissioners shall deem necessary and advisable.

History.—§7, 8, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6305; CGL 8631.

955.08 Superintendent to make monthly reports.—The superintendent shall make monthly reports to the board of commissioners of state institutions, furnishing such information as shall be required.

History.—§7, ch. 6529, 1913; §9, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6306; CGL 8632.

955.09 Filing itemized receipted bills.—Itemized, detailed, receipted bills shall be filed with the state comptroller by the fifteenth of each month for the funds paid out on bills for the previous month.

History.—§10, ch. 6529, 1913; RGS 6307; CGL 8633.

955.10 Systematic records to be kept.—A thorough and systematic plan of bookkeeping shall be instituted and continued in the conduct of the school, whereby a complete record of the business transactions of the school and the amounts and purposes for which moneys are expended may, at any time, be easily and accurately determined.

History.—§10, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6308; CGL 8634.

955.11 Boys to be instructed in mechanical trades, and in agriculture.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall establish and maintain a mechanical school, and cause the children under their charge to be instructed in mechanical trades, and in the branches of useful knowledge adapted to their age and capacity; also in agriculture and horticulture, according to their ages, strength, disposition and capacity; and otherwise as will best secure their reformation, amendment and future benefit.

History.—§7, ch. 5388, 1905; RGS 6309; CGL 8635.

955.12 White and negro inmates to be separated.—There shall be separate buildings, not nearer than one-fourth mile to each other, one for white boys and one for negro boys. White boys and negro boys shall not, in any manner, be associated together or worked together.

History.—§3, ch. 4565, 1897; GS 4169; RGS 6310; CGL 8636.

955.13 Deportment of inmates; board may parole.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall institute a system of merits and demerits in the deportment of the inmates of the school, and when deemed advisable, shall parole boys, subject to conditions prescribed by the board.

History.—§5, ch. 6529, 1913; RGS 6311; CGL 8637.

955.14 Biennial reports to legislature.—The board of commissioners of state institutions at each succeeding session of the legislature, shall make such recommendations thereto as they deem fit to cover expenditures for the support, maintenance and government of the institution.

History.—§13, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6312; CGL 8638.

955.15 Board to specify punishment that may be inflicted on children of the school.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall establish rules for the direction of the officers, agents and servants of the school, and for the government, instruction and discipline of the inmates; they shall specify the punishment that may be inflicted upon the children of the school, and any officer, agent or servant who inflicts punishment not so authorized, shall be discharged.

History.—§7, ch. 5388, 1905; RGS 6313; CGL 8639.

955.16 Hiring out of boys prohibited; penalty.—The officers of this institution shall not hire out any of the boys for any purpose. Any officer violating this section shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned not longer than sixty days.

History.—§8, ch. 4565, 1897; §9, ch. 6529, 1913; RGS 6370, 6314; CGL 7504, 8640.

cf.—§775.06, Alternative punishment.

955.17 Child committed to be kept, disciplined and instructed.—Every child convicted and sent to the Florida industrial school for boys shall there be kept, disciplined, instructed, employed and governed, under the direction of the board of commissioners of state institutions, during the time for which he is committed, unless he is sooner discharged as reformed, or remanded to prison under the sentence of the court as incorrigible upon information of the board as provided in this chapter.

History.—§3, ch. 5388, 1905; RGS 6315; CGL 8641.

955.18 Pardoning board may commute punishment to commitment to industrial school for boys of certain persons convicted of crime; board may revoke commutation.—When any child under the age of eighteen years shall be sentenced by any court of competent jurisdiction to imprisonment in any county jail, or to the state prison, the pardoning board, upon the application of such child, his parents or guardian, or other persons, may commute the punishment by substituting therefor the commitment of the child to the Florida industrial school for boys during such time as the pardoning board may deem proper, unless sooner discharged by the board of commissioners of state institutions.

If the child, after being sent to such institution, shall persist in a depraved course, or escape therefrom, the pardoning board may revoke said commutation and remand him to the state prison or jail whence he came to serve out his unexpired term.

History.—§2, ch. 5388, 1905; §1, ch. 5915, 1909; RGS 6316; CGL 8642.

955.19 Child over ten and under eighteen years may be committed to guardianship of institution.—The judge of any circuit court or any county judge, may commit a person over ten years and under eighteen years of age, residing in his jurisdiction, to the guardianship of said institution when complaint in writing, setting out the acts of said person, has been filed. The complaint shall be sworn to and due proof shall be made in the presence of said person that he is a proper person for the guardianship of said institution, in consequence of incorrigible and vicious conduct.

History.—§9, ch. 5388, 1905; RGS 6317; CGL 8643.

955.21 Term of commitment.—When any boy shall be committed by the judge of any court in the state to the Florida industrial school for boys, the commitment shall be for such period as the committing judge shall deem proper, or until he shall reach his majority, or unless discharged earlier by the board of commissioners of state institutions as reformed.

History.—§5, ch. 5388, 1905; §3, ch. 5915, 1909; §5, ch. 6916, 1915; §1, ch. 7377, 1917; RGS 6319; CGL 8645.

955.22 Board may, for certain reasons, refuse to receive person committed; incorrigible inmates committed to jail or prison.—When a child is sentenced to said school, and the board of commissioners of state institutions deems it inexpedient to receive him or he is found incorrigible, or his continuance in the school is deemed injurious to its management and discipline, they shall certify the same upon the mittimus upon which he is held, and the mittimus and child shall be delivered to any proper officer who shall forthwith commit such child to the jail, or state prison, according to his alternative sentence. The board of commissioners of state institutions may discharge any child as reformed; and may authorize the superintendent, under such rules as they prescribe, to refuse to receive any person sentenced to said school, and his certificate thereof shall be as effectual as their own.

History.—§4, ch. 5388, 1905; RGS 6321; CGL 8647.
cf.—§39.11(1) (c) Commitment of children to industrial school.

955.23 Commitment of inmates on probation.—The board of commissioners of state institutions may commit any inmate on probation, and upon such terms as they deem expedient, to any suitable inhabitant of the state, for a term within the period of his sentence, such probation to be conditioned upon good behavior and obedience to the laws of the state. Such child shall, during the term for which he was originally sentenced to the Florida industrial school for boys, be also subject to the care and control of the board of commissioners of state institutions, and on their being satisfied at any time that the welfare of the child would be promoted by his return to the school, they may order his return and may enforce such order by application to the judge of any court having original criminal jurisdiction, or judge of the police or municipal court for a warrant for such purpose, which may be served by any officer authorized to serve criminal process. On his recommitment to the school such child shall be held and detained under the original mittimus.

History.—§6, ch. 5388, 1905; RGS 6322; CGL 8648.

955.24 Sheriff's expenses.—The actual expenses shall be allowed the sheriffs of the several counties of the state for service in taking offenders to said Florida industrial school for boys, and such fees shall be paid by the county in the same manner as now provided by law.

History.—§13, ch. 4565, 1897; GS 4174; RGS 6323; CGL 8649.
cf.—§30.23 Transportation of prisoners.

955.25 Security units of the Florida industrial school for boys.—

(1) That any or all of the institutions, training schools or camps heretofore or hereafter approved by the board of commissioners of state institutions for youthful male state prisoners may be designated by said board as security units of the Florida industrial school for boys at Marianna. That, when any inmate is sentenced to the Florida industrial school for boys at Marianna, and, after being received there, is found incorrigible or his continuance there is deemed injurious to its management and discipline, said board may, in its discretion, transfer such inmate to any one of such security units, there to be kept, disciplined, governed, employed and instructed under the direction of said board and under the superintendence of the superintendent of said school and in accordance with the statutes, rules and regulations which would apply in the absence of such transfer; provided, however, that said board may promulgate such special rules and regulations, not inconsistent with statute, as to it shall appear necessary or expedient for the keeping, discipline, governance, employment and instruction of inmates transferred to any such security unit. That said board shall have the discretionary authority to transfer any such inmate from one of such security units to another such security unit, and may at any time transfer him back to the said school at Marianna. That said board may confer upon said superintendent the discretionary authority to make the transfers herein provided for, under such rules as said board may prescribe, that in no event shall the girl or boy be confined or placed in any sweat box.

(2) That this section shall not be taken to impair the authority granted by law to subject any inmate committed to either of said schools to any alternative punishment designated in the sentence imposed upon such inmate, in case such inmate is found to be incorrigible or incapable of reformation.

History.—§§1, 3, ch. 23907, 1947.

956.01 Industrial school for girls created; construction of buildings.—A state industrial school for girls is created and located near Ocala.

The buildings for the industrial school shall be constructed on the cottage plan, approved by modern penologists. The plan of grounds and buildings shall be constructed with reference to harmonious growth, durability and permanence.

History.—§§2, 12, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6325, 6333; CGL 8651, 8659.
cf.—§843.13, Aiding escape of inmates of Florida school for boys or girls.

956.02 Girls between the ages of ten and twenty-one may be committed; procedure for commitment.—Any girl in the state between the ages of ten and twenty-one years may, under the form of practice and procedure and upon the grounds whereby boys are now sentenced to the Florida industrial school for boys, in like manner be committed to the Florida industrial school for girls by the courts of this state; provided, that any girl within this state, custody of whom may be taken under and by virtue of chapter 39, may, in pursuance of the procedure and practice of this chapter, be committed to the Florida industrial school for girls in like manner as boys are now committed to the Florida industrial school for boys.

History.—§4, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6326; CGL 8652.

956.03 Management of industrial school; by-laws and regulations.—The Florida industrial school for girls shall be under the management of the board of commissioners of state institutions. When not provided by statute the board shall make and promulgate by-laws and such regulations as will be necessary for the government of the industrial school.

History.—§§5, 6, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6327, 6328; CGL 8653, 8654.

956.04 Qualifications of superintendent; literary and industrial training to be maintained at school.—The superintendent of the Florida schools for girls shall be a person who shall live at the school and devote his or her entire time to the management of the same. The person shall have had practical experience in the management of such institutions, or special training in constructive social work. There shall be maintained at such school a system of practical, industrial, and manual training, and such educational, literary and musical facilities as the board of commissioners of state institutions shall deem advisable and necessary.

History.—§7, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6329; CGL 8655; §1, ch. 61-357.

956.05 Term of commitment; monthly reports of superintendent.—The term of commitment to the industrial school for girls shall be indeterminate, dependent upon good conduct and moral improvement and advancement. The board shall make just, but liberal provisions whereby continued excellent deportment shall entitle the inmates to conditional parole and final dismissal. The superintendent shall make monthly reports to the board, furnishing such information as shall be required.

History.—§9, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6330; CGL 8656.

956.06 Systematic plan of bookkeeping to be maintained.—A thorough and systematic plan of bookkeeping shall be instituted and continued in the conduct of the school, whereby a complete record of the business transactions of the school and the amounts and purposes for which moneys are expended may, at any time, be easily and accurately determined.

History.—§10, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6331; CGL 8657.

956.07 Appointment of superintendent, and other teachers and employees.—The superintendent of the Florida industrial school for girls shall be appointed by the governor on the recommendation of the board of commissioners of state institutions. All other teachers or employees shall be employed by the board.

History.—§11, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6332; CGL 8658; §1, ch. 15859, 1933; §11, ch. 57-401.

956.08 Biennial reports to legislature.—The board of commissioners of state institutions at each succeeding session of the legislature, shall make such recommendations thereto as they deem fit to cover expenditures for the support, maintenance and government of the Florida industrial school for girls.

History.—§13, ch. 6840, 1915; RGS 6334; CGL 8660.

956.09 Security units for the Florida industrial school for girls.—

965.01 Creation of divisions.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall create and organize the following divisions, which shall have jurisdiction of the hereinafter named state institutions:

(1) (a) DIVISION OF CORRECTIONS.—The division of corrections shall have supervisory and protective care, custody and control of the inmates, buildings, grounds, property and all other matters pertaining to the following institutions for the imprisonment or correction of adult offenders:

1. Apalachee correctional institution.
2. Florida correctional institution.
3. Glades correctional institution.
4. Florida state prison.
5. State road prisons.

(2) DIVISION OF CHILD TRAINING SCHOOLS.—

The division of child training schools shall have supervisory and protective care, custody and control of all minor offenders and of the buildings, grounds and all other property of, and matters concerning, the following correctional and training institutions:

(a) Florida state industrial school for boys at Marianna, which shall hereafter be named and known as the Florida school for boys at Marianna,

(b) Florida state industrial school for boys at Okeechobee, which shall hereafter be named and known as the Florida school for boys at Okeechobee,

(c) Florida state industrial school for girls at Ocala, which shall hereafter be named and known as the Florida school for girls at Ocala,

(d) Florida state industrial school for girls at Forest Hill, which shall hereafter be named and known as the Florida school for girls at Forest Hill.

(3) (a) DIVISION OF MENTAL HEALTH.—The division of mental health shall have supervisory and protective care, custody and control of all patients, buildings, grounds, and all other property of and matters concerning the following institutions:

1. Florida state hospital at Chattahoochee,
2. The G. Pierce Wood memorial hospital at Arcadia,
3. Northeast Florida hospital in Macclenny,
4. South Florida hospital in Broward county.

(b) The director of mental health, as hereinafter provided for, shall make, or cause to be made, an examination and diagnosis of each person subject to commitment as mentally ill in a state hospital, either by court order or by voluntary action of such person, in order to determine which state hospital shall be selected for the care and treatment of each patient, taking into consideration the residence of each patient, the distance to be travelled, facilities for treatment of the individual form of illness, and the crowded conditions and capacities of the several institutions under his jurisdiction. No person shall be finally placed in a state mental hospital until after such examination and diagnosis and the issuance of a commitment order by the director of mental health. Nothing in this act shall be construed as a limitation on the power of courts to commit except that all laws pertaining to the commitment of mentally ill, insane or incompetent by whatever description, persons to particular state institutions are superseded to the extent that the locus of commitment of all persons to state mental hospitals shall be subject to the provisions of this act.

To the extent that his budget will permit, the attorney general shall furnish the legal services to carry out the provisions of this section. Upon the request of the director, the various state and county attorneys shall assist in litigation within their respective jurisdictions. The director may retain private legal counsel to the extent of those necessary legal services which cannot be furnished by the attorney general and the various state and county attorneys.

(4) DIVISION OF SUNLAND TRAINING CENTERS.—The division of sunland training centers shall have supervisory and protective care, custody and control of all mentally retarded and feeble-minded children and of the buildings, grounds and all other property of and matters concerning the following sunland training centers:

(a) The sunland training center at Gainesville.

(b) The sunland training center at Fort Myers.

(c) The sunland hospital at Orlando.

History.—§1, ch. 57-317; (3)(c) r. §1, ch. 59-222; (1) a. §1, ch. 61-127; (2)(e), (f) r. §3, and (4) n. §1, ch. 61-425; (4)(b)(c), §1, ch. 63-233.

cf.—Chs. 944 and 945 Institutions comprising division of corrections.

cf.—Chs. 393, 955, 956 and 958 Institutions comprising division of child training, and sunland training centers.

cf.—Ch. 394 Institutions comprising division of mental health.

§337.10 Use of state convict road force.

§944.51 State road department prison camps; authority.

965.02 Assignments of institutions to divisions.—The board of commissioners of state institutions is authorized and empowered to assign to one of the divisions created in §965.01 all similar institutions hereafter created by the legislature and placed under the jurisdiction of the board of commissioners of state institutions.

History.—Comp. §2, ch. 57-317.

965.03 Appointment of directors; qualifications.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall appoint a director to serve as the administrative, planning and coordinating head of each of the divisions herein created and shall employ such staff personnel as may be required for the proper performance of such duties. The salary of each such director and of the staff shall be fixed by the board. Each divisional director shall be responsible to the board of commissioners of state institutions for the proper administration of the institutions and programs under the jurisdiction and supervision of his division. The director of mental health shall be qualified through education, training and experience in the field of mental health and the director of child training schools shall be similarly qualified in the field of child training. The director of sunland training centers shall be qualified through education, training and experience in the field of the mentally retarded, feeble-minded and exceptional children. No division director shall be concurrently head of more than one division nor shall any division director serve as superintendent of any institution under the board of commissioners of state institutions.

History.—§3, ch. 57-317; §2, ch. 61-425; §1, ch. 63-25.

965.04 Division advisory councils.—

(1) The governor may appoint an advisory council for each division of such size and so constituted as may, in his discretion, be advisable for the purpose of advising the board of commissioners of state institutions concerning the activities of the institutions under the jurisdiction of each division.

(2) Members of each advisory council so appointed shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed from the budget of each division respectively, for the expense of attending meetings of the council as provided in §112.061.

(3) The council shall consult with the board of commissioners of state institutions and with the division director and shall make recommendations to the board in connection with the administration of programs of the several institutions under each division.

History.—§4, ch. 57-317; (2) §19, ch. 63-400.

965.05 Rules and regulations.—The board of commissioners of state institutions may adopt and promulgate such regulations as it deems necessary for the proper conduct and administration of the institutions under its jurisdiction.

History.—Comp. §5, ch. 57-317.

965.06 Transfer to board of commissioners of powers, duties, and title to certain property.—All powers, duties and authority heretofore vested in any other board or agency for the supervision of any institution hereunder shall be and are hereby transferred and assigned to the board of commissioners of state institutions, and the title to all property and equipment held by any such other board or agency is likewise transferred to the board of commissioners of state institutions in order that it may completely assume and carry out its responsibilities as provided herein.

History.—Comp. §6, ch. 57-317.

965.07 Location of training centers, schools, etc., for mentally retarded.—Any training center, school or other establishment constructed by the state as an institution for the mentally retarded shall be located in the area of greatest need determined by an impartial survey conducted by the board of commissioners of state institutions. This section shall in no way be construed to conflict with §393.011.

History.—Comp. §§1, 2, ch. 57-733.

965.08 Claims for care and maintenance; trust property.—The board of commissioners of state institutions shall protect the financial interest of the state with respect to claims which the state may have for the care and maintenance of patients or inmates of state institutions under their supervision and control and shall administer money and other property received for the personal benefit of such patients or inmates. In order to carry out the provisions of this section the board of commissioners of state institutions may delegate any of its herein enumerated powers and duties to the director of the division under whose supervision such patient or inmate comes, and any such director to whom such powers and duties are so delegated is empowered, either personally or subject to his personal responsibility, through designated employees of his personal staff or of the institutions under his supervision to exercise such powers or perform such duties. The board of commissioners of state institutions is empowered to perform the following acts:

(1) CLAIMS FOR CARE AND MAINTENANCE.—

(a) Receive and supervise the collection of sums due the state;

(b) Bring any appropriate court action necessary to protect the interests of the state in order to collect any claim the state may have against any patient or inmate, former patient or inmate, or the guardian or administrator of any such patient or inmate, or any person against whom any such patient or inmate may have a claim;

(c) Obtain a copy of any inventory or appraisal filed with any county judge;

(d) Obtain from the welfare board a financial status report on any patient or inmate or former patient or inmate, or information relative to welfare payments due such patients or inmates or the ability of relatives or others responsible for such patients or inmates to pay all or part of the cost of their care and maintenance;

(e) Petition the court for appointment of a guardian or administrator for an otherwise unrepresented patient or inmate should the financial status report or other information indicate the need for such action, the cost of such action to be awarded against the estate of the patient or inmate;

(f) Represent the interest of the state in any litigation in which a patient or an inmate is a party in interest;

(g) File claims with any person, firm or corporation or with any federal, state, county, district or municipal agency on behalf of an unrepresented patient or inmate;

(h) Represent the state in the settlement of the estate of deceased patients or inmates or in the settlement of estates in which a patient or an inmate or a former patient or inmate against whom the state may have a claim has a financial interest.

(2) MONEY OR OTHER PROPERTY RECEIVED FOR PERSONAL USE OR BENEFIT OF ANY PATIENT OR INMATE.—

(a) Accept and administer as a trust any money or other property received for personal use or benefit of any patient or inmate;

(b) Deposit money so received in banks qualified as state depositories;

(c) Withdraw any such money and use the same to meet the current needs of the patient or inmate as they may exist from time to time;

(d) As such trustee to establish savings accounts, demand deposits, or time deposits, or invest in the manner authorized by law for fiduciaries such moneys not required to be used for current needs of the patient or inmate;

(e) To commingle such moneys for the purpose of deposit or investment.

(3) DEPOSIT IN STATE TREASURY.— Money received by the board of commissioners of state institutions or by any director in payment of claims of the state for the care and maintenance of any patient or inmate and as income earned from deposits and investments hereunder shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit into the general revenue fund of the state.

(4) DISPOSITION OF UNCLAIMED TRUST FUNDS.— Upon the death of any patient or inmate of an institution affected by the provisions of this section, any unclaimed money held in trust by the board of commissioners of state institutions or by a division director or by the state treasurer for him shall be applied first to the payment of any unpaid claim of the state against the patient or the inmate, and any balance remaining unclaimed for a period of one year shall escheat to the state as unclaimed funds held by fiduciaries.

(5) BOND OF DIVISION DIRECTORS.— The director of any division affected by this section shall give a faithful performance bond payable to the governor or his successors in office in an amount to be fixed by the board of commissioners of state institutions.

(6) LEGAL REPRESENTATION.— To the extent that his budget will permit, the attorney general shall furnish the legal services to carry out the provisions of this section. Upon the request of the board of commissioners of state institutions or of the director of a division affected, the various state and county attorneys shall assist in litigation within their jurisdiction. The board of commissioners of state institutions or any director may retain legal counsel to the extent of necessary legal services which cannot be furnished by the attorney general and the various state and county attorneys.

History.—§2, ch. 59-222.

965.09 Child psychiatric center, university of Florida health center.—

(1) The board of commissioners of state institutions is hereby authorized and directed to establish a child psychiatric inpatient unit to be located on lands owned by the state at the J. Hillis Miller health center, university of Florida, in Alachua county. Said child psychiatric inpatient unit shall develop and carry out a research and training pilot program in the field of child psychiatry. For the purpose of planning and establishing such unit and supervising its activities, there is hereby created an advisory board consisting of the director of the division of mental health, the head, department of psychiatry, university of Florida medical school, the dean, university of Florida medical school, and one person designated by the state board of commissioners of state institutions who is currently engaged in private practice of child psychiatry in the state. The physical design of the unit and the program to be conducted therein shall be developed upon the recommendation of this advisory board subject always to the approval and over-all supervision and control of the board of commissioners of state institutions.

(2) The child psychiatric inpatient unit may apply for and accept any funds, grants, gifts or services made available to it by any agency or department of the federal government or any other agency or private individual in aid of any present or future child psychiatric treatment or research program undertaken, maintained or proposed. All moneys received under the provision of this section shall be deposited in the state treasury and shall be disbursed in the manner as prescribed by law.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 63-214.

965.10 Division of child training schools; after-care program.—In order that children might be more quickly returned from the Florida schools for boys and the Florida schools for girls and the benefits of their training more carefully preserved, the director of the division of child training schools, hereinafter referred to as the director, shall establish a program to provide for advance planning for the return of children committed to the Florida schools for boys and the Florida schools for girls, and for their supervision after their return. This program shall hereinafter be referred to as the after-care program.

History.—§1, ch. 63-368.

965.11 Administration of after-care program.—To administer the after-care program the director shall employ an administrative assistant who shall hold at least a master's degree from an accredited institution of higher learning in corrections or the social sciences, or such experience as will in the opinion of the director and the advisory board offset a portion of these academic standards.

History.—§2, ch. 63-368.

965.12 Employment of counselors; duties.—The director may employ as many after-care counselors as in the opinion of the director are required to render counseling services to children discharged or about to be discharged from the aforesaid institutions; provided, however, the program of the division shall supplement and not replace any juvenile counseling otherwise provided, and the director shall make full use of existing services to the extent available on a cooperative basis. The after-care counselor shall hold at least a bachelor's degree from an accredited institution of higher learning in corrections or in the social sciences, or such experience as will in the opinion of the director offset a portion of these academic standards. The duties of the after-care counselor shall be:

(1) To supervise any child furloughed from a Florida school for boys or a Florida school for girls until such time as the child is discharged from such supervision by the school or by the juvenile court of the county wherein the child is found, provided that the supervision of the child in no case be extended beyond the twenty-first birthday of the child.

(2) To make such social studies and reports to the director as he shall require regarding the homes and families of children who have been committed to the schools.

(3) Upon the request of the judge having juvenile court jurisdiction in the county where he is assigned, to make studies and prepare social histories of children where commitment to the schools for boys or the schools for girls is being considered by the judge.

(4) With the help of the local juvenile court to provide counseling and such other services as may be necessary for the families of children committed to the Florida schools for boys and the Florida schools for girls to prepare such homes for the return of the child in order that the value of the training given the child at the school might not be lost.

History.—§3, ch. 63-368.

965.13 Advisory committee to director of child training.—An advisory committee to the director is hereby created to consist of three county judges having juvenile court jurisdiction, three judges of separate juvenile courts or juvenile divisions of courts of general jurisdiction, and three laymen. All members of the advisory committee shall be appointed by the governor. They shall be appointed in the following manner: Two for one year, two for two years, two for three years, and three for four year terms. Upon the expiration of each member's term a replacement will be appointed for a four year term. The committee shall meet at least four times a year and at such additional times as a meeting shall be called by the director or by a majority of the committee. The members of the committee shall serve without pay, but shall be paid for travel expense and per diem expenses incurred in attending committee meetings as provided in §112.061.

The committee shall advise the director on administrative policies, including the qualification of employees, their duties, their compensation, and all other matters incidental to the operation of the after-care program.

History.—§4, ch. 63-368.

965.14 Return to school of furloughed child; discharge from school; hearings.—If the conduct of the boy or girl on furlough is such as to make it appear that further training at the school would be wise, the furlough may be terminated by the director upon a written report by the after-care counselor. All such actions shall be reviewed by the advisory committee. Upon a request of the boy or girl whose furlough is terminated, his parent or guardian, a hearing will be given him within thirty days of the date of the termination in the county to which he has been furloughed, by the director or his administrative assistant, one judicial member of the advisory committee designated by the director, and the judge of the juvenile court of the county to which he has been furloughed. This committee is empowered to refuse the action terminating the furlough by a majority vote. If a child is on furlough for one year he may, as a matter of right, apply to the director for discharge from the school. If his application is refused, he will be entitled to a hearing on the application within thirty days of the date it is mailed to the director, in the county to which he has been furloughed, before a committee consisting of the director or his administrative assistant, one judicial member of the advisory committee designated by the director, and the juvenile court judge of the county to which he has been furloughed. This committee is empowered to grant the application for discharge by a majority vote and to discharge the child from the school.

History.—§5, ch. 63-368.

965.15 Financing of after-care program.—The activities authorized herein shall be financed from moneys appropriated to the division of child training schools for this purpose.

History.—§6, ch. 63-368.

965.16 National community mental health centers act.—Any federal funds accruing to the state for the purposes of carrying out the national community mental health centers act of 1963 shall be paid to the division of mental health of the board of commissioners of state institutions and expended by it as directed by said board.

History.—§1, ch. 63-305.
